—INSPECTED SCHOOLS—Mr. J. C. Crable, Deputy Fire Inspector of Charlottetown, has been in Summerside all last week inspecting the business houses and factories. The schools were visited also; the High School where there are 420 scholars was emptied in 58 seconds, when Mr. Crable, accompanied by Mr. McNeill, Chief of Summerside Fire Department, witnessed the fire drill of the pupils. St. Mary's Academy was emptied by two exits. The older pupils in 45 seconds and the younger ones in 55 seconds.—S.

—ELEVEN RADIO CASES BEFORE THE COURT—Eleven local parties appeared before Judge Wyatt in the police court at Summerside on Saturday, charged with operating radios without a license. The proceedings lasted from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m. when all the evidence for the prosecution had been taken. His Honor then adjourned the court until Saturday next for the completion of the evidence and the hearing of the arguments of counsel. Mr. D. O. Stewart is representing the Department of Marine and Fisheries in the prosecution of all the cases. Inspector Nolan and Mr. Johnston of the Royal Mounted Police were there in the interests of the Radio Company.—S —FURTHER PARTICULARS OF ACCIDENT—Further particulars of the accidental death of Milton Nesbitt were learned on the arrival of the body, which was accompanied home from Portland, Maine, by his brothers and sisters residing there. He was alighting from an electric tram car when he was struck by a passing automobile and received internal injuries. He was taken to the hospital and recovered consciousness, but he gradually lost strength until he passed away on Thursday last, five days after the accident, at the early age of 26 years. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Nesbitt of Harmony, Lot 13. After a short service at the house, the cortege, over a mile long, wended its way to the Presbyterian Church at Victoria West. Rev. Mr. Gowen officiated at both services and also at the grave, assisted by Rev. Mr. Coleman. The floral tributes were profuse and beautiful. The pall bearers were Messrs. Howard, John E. Percy, and Russell Yeo; Leman Moore and David Egan. S.

HONOR QUEBEC PREMIER AS QUEEN'S HEAD QUITS

KINGSTON, May 12.—Principal R. Bruce Taylor of Queen's University, performed his last official duty this afternoon when he presented Premier L. A. Taschereau, of Quebec, with the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws at spring convocation. The principal is retiring after twelve years' service. Two hundred and five graduates in Arts and Science received degrees. Honorary degrees were conferred by Chancellor James A. Richardson, LL.D.

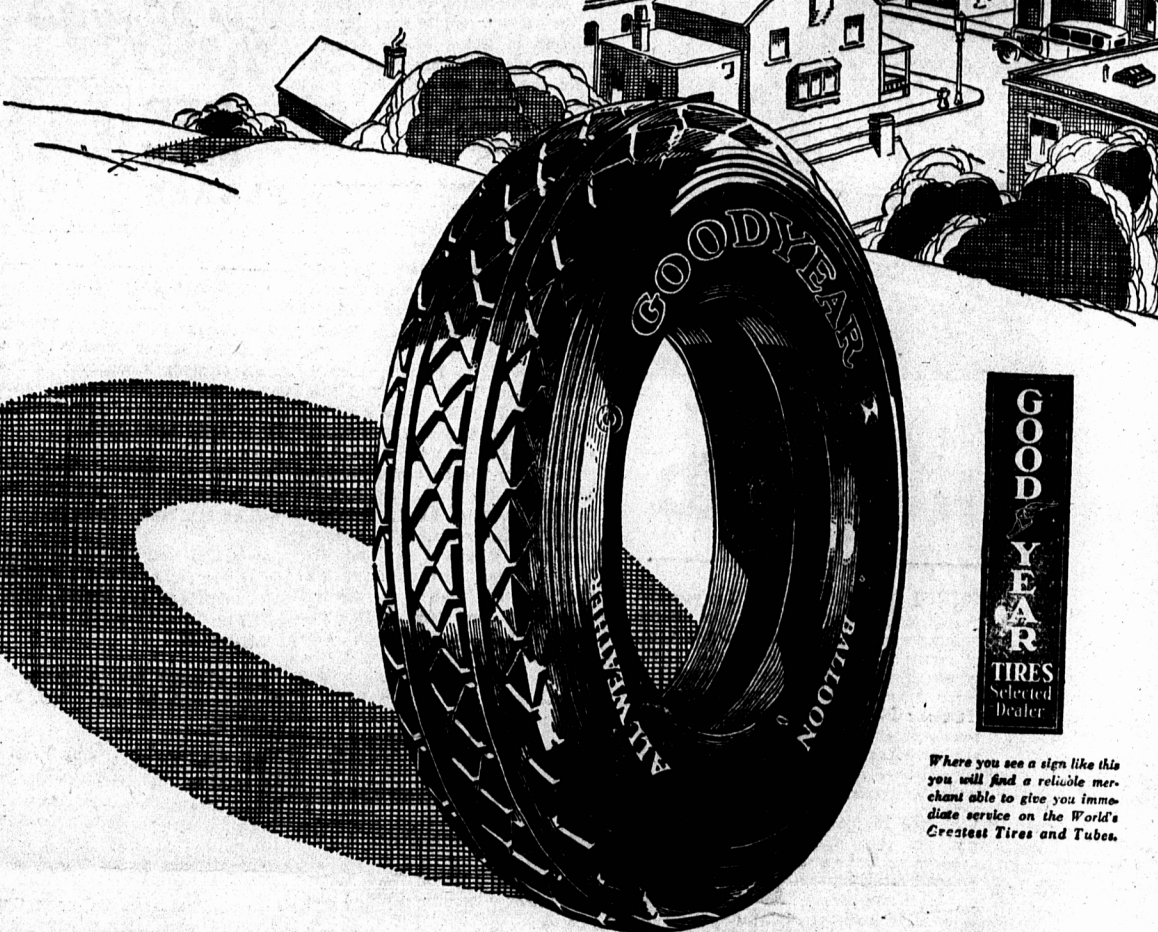

A portrait of the late Professor Morgan, was unveiled by Rev. Dr. Leckie, of St. Mary's, president of Queen's Theological Alumni Association, and one of Principal Taylor by Judge H. A. Lavelle.

A tree which exudes an oily substance having the appearance, taste and other qualities of lard, has been discovered in South America.

—PROHIBITION CASES IN SUMMERSIDE.—The Prohibition Magistrate held court in Summerside on Saturday. Several cases which were to come up were not taken. A party from Harmony, Lot 13, who did not appear, was fined $10 and costs or fifteen days for consuming liquor illegally. A man, who was accused of selling liquor at his wedding, but denied the charge, was convicted on evidence taken and fined $300 or five months. A Summerside party for selling liquor unlawfully was fined $300 or five months. Another Summerside man for having liquor in his possession was given $200 or three months. Another man was found guilty of selling liquor and drew a fine of $300 or 3 months in jail. A case against a Chinaman alleged to have had liquor in his possession, proved his innocence and was dismissed. Two cases for possession were adjourned. Chief Inspector Haywood conducted the cases.—S.

—RECEPTION—A reception was held at the home of Mrs. James T. Waite, Summerside, last Friday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. Frederick Waite, formerly Miss Ruth Waugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Waugh. Receiving with the bride, who wore her wedding gown of white satin and a corsage bouquet of yellow daffodils, was her mother, wearing a gown of beige flat crepe and corsage bouquet of pink carnations, and Mrs. James T. Waite, mother of the groom, who was attired in a dress of blue silk crepe with bouquet of pink carnations. The reception was held in the afternoon from four until six o'clock and in the evening from 8 until 10 o'clock. At the afternoon reception the guests were ushered in by Miss Etie McKay and Miss Jean K. Cameron. In the dining room, which was tastefully decorated in pink and white streamers and flowers, Mrs. A. S. McKay and Mrs. Josephus Smallman presided over the tea and coffee cups. The ices were cut by Mrs. Elisabeth Lang. Others dispensing hospitality were Miss Vera and Tena Waugh, sisters of the bride, Miss Helen Manson, Miss Pansy Chisholm, Miss Mildred Woodside and Miss Bessie Smallman. At the evening reception the guests were ushered in to the parlor by Miss Ruby Lord. A buffet lunch was served by the Misses Edna Duncan, Lillian Stavert, Pansy Chisholm, Vera and Tena Waugh and Mildred Woodside. Mrs. William Waite, Mrs. James Arthur, Mrs. Esenj. Condon and Mrs. Thompson. Later in the evening a social hour was delightfully spent in music, both vocal and instrumental. Mrs. Waite had the honour of receiving over one hundred visitors. S.

GOODYEAR MEANS GOOD WEAR

—DEATH OF MR. EDWARD E. ARSENAULT.—The citizens of Summerside were deeply grieved on Saturday morning to hear that Mr. Edward E. Arsenault, popularly known as Eddie, had passed away about 6 a. m. in the Prince County Hospital. Eddie was one of the most popular young men in Summerside and had a host of friends. The deceased was the son of Capt. Eli Arsenault of Summerside. He had not felt well for some time and about five weeks ago was taken suddenly ill and entered the hospital where he had lingered between life and death until Saturday when he passed away at the age of 36 years. For fourteen years he had worked with Mr. J. Henry Gaudet in his Olympia Ice Cream Parlours and was universally liked with the patrons. Two years ago this fall he opened up "Eddy's Tea Rooms," which at once became the most popular tea rooms in town and were patronized by old and young. The citizens of Summerside and surrounding country will deeply sympathize with the family in the loss of this fine young man with so bright a future before him. It is especially sad that his aged father is suffering from a recent accident when he was knocked down by a car when crossing the street. There are left to mourn his father and stepmother, Captain and Mrs. Eli Arsenault of Summerside; one sister, Mrs. Mary Gaudet, of Chelsea, Mass.; and two half sisters, Miss Ida Arsenault of Portland, Maine, and Mrs. Vincent Robichaud of Chelsea, Mass. Miss Arsenault is now in Summerside and Mrs. Robichaud is expected to arrive on Monday evening. To the bereaved relatives the Guardian extends its sincere sympathy. The funeral takes place on Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock from his late residence to St. Paul's Church and Cemetery, Rev. J. J. McDonald officiating. The deceased was a member of the Knights of Columbus.—S.

PERSONALS

—Mrs. Inman of Tryon, was a visitor to Summerside on Saturday. S.

—Mr. Benj. Nesbit of Summerside, spent the week end in Harmony, Lot 13, and attended the funeral of Mr. Elton Nesbit, which took place on Sunday afternoon. S.

—Miss Norma Callbeck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Callbeck of Summerside, who underwent a slight operation in the Prince County Hospital last week, is now quite well and has returned to her studies at Notre Dame Academy, Miscouche. S.

—Miss Murray, of Wilmot Valley, who is in the office of McQuarrie's creamery at Read's Corner, is in the Prince County Hospital very seriously ill. The latest report is that she is somewhat improved but is not yet out of danger. Her many friends are in hopes that Miss Murray will make a speedy recovery. S.

—Mr. Edward Fitzgerald, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Fitzgerald, of Portage, was brought to the Prince County Hospital on Saturday morning in a critical condition with a bad case of appendicitis and was operated on immediately. His many friends will be pleased to hear that the operation was successful and that the young man is resting comfortably. S.

MONTREAL, May 12.—Russian coal will penetrate further into the Canadian market than heretofore with the transshipment from the Voluntas, first vessel of this season with this product, of a part of its cargo of Russian fuel to Port William. The Voluntas arrived today from Maripol. The steamer Belvoir will take 2,500 tons to Port William and the steamer Londonderry will take 1,800 tons of the same cargo to Brockville, Ont.
