In Memoriam RUSSELL S. BURNS The death of Russell S. Burns occurred on January 9th, 1948 at his home in Freetown. Born on December 11th, 1882, he was a son of the late William Burns and Ellen Baker Burns. Practically all his life had been spent on the old homestead, Freetown, until about three years ago, owing to ill health, he had to give up farming. Since that time he had been a great sufferer, but he bore it all with Christian fortitude, seeming to accept suffering as his lot.

Russell possessed many fine qualities; his humor and original wit won for him countless friends, both old and young. Nothing seemed too much trouble to him and his generosity and kind-hearted acts will long be remembered by all who were privileged to know him. He was active in all community affairs and also church activities. For years he had been a member of the choir and was on the board of stewards of the United Church. A kind friend and neighbor is gone; he will be missed in the community but in the home that presence of a kind father and husband will be most keenly felt.

Left to mourn are his wife, the former Anna Rogers of Bedouque and his two sons, Ralph R. of Freetown, and Wilfred S. of Summerside. Of a large family only one sister, Mrs. Charlotte Scott, of Maine, and two brothers, Arthur of Charlottetown, and Joseph of Boston are left to cherish his memory.

Following a short service at the home of his son Ralph, his remains were taken to the United Church where the service was continued by his pastor, Rev. R. Wagner assisted by Revs. Britten of Bedouque Baptist Church and Sullivan of Summerside United Church. Comforting words to the bereaved and to the large congregation were brought by Rev. Mr. Sullivan. Requested hymns of the deceased were sung by a mixed choir: "Forever With the Lord," and "Lead Kindly Light." A solo, "When I Go Home," was feelingly rendered by Mr. J.B. Lewis. The hymn "Good-bye" was sung at the graveside. The pall bearers were: John Lewis, Ray Lidstone, Donald Baker, Roy Burns, Frank Deacon and Preston Reeves. Interment was in the family plot of the Freetown People's Cemetery. Many beautiful flowers and messages of sympathy were extended to the bereaved family.
