ing, at all as to what Mr. Carter thinks about the St. Peter's Starch Co., representing the views of the Island Starch industry of this province, and if he takes the trouble to consult some of our leading starch men he will learn that the Island Starch interests resent strongly the action of the council of the Board of Trade. In regard to Mr. Carter belittling the St. Peter's Starch Company, Limited, we think his remarks considering that he represents the Board of Trade, were to say the least in bad taste. We imagined that the policy of the Board of Trade was to encourage local industries, instead of knocking them. Thanking you for your space, Sir. We are, etc. ST. PETERS STARCH COMPANY LIMITED.

In Memoriam

MRS. WILLIAM MUTCH

The death occurred Sunday, Feb. 15, 1920, of Mrs. William E. Mutch, wife of the superintendent of the machinery department of the Great Lakes Dredging Company. Death was caused by pneumonia. Mrs. Mutch leaves, besides a husband two children, Harold and Keith. The funeral will take place from the family residence, 114 Peter St. to Riverside Cemetery, Rev. A. W. McIntosh, of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church will conduct the service. Mr. Mutch is a brother of Mr. Perley Mutch, Southport and Mrs. Charles Stewart, Keppoch.

WILLIAM R. McLEOD.

It is with much regret that The Guardian is called upon to chronicle the sudden and untimely death of William R. McLeod, son of Murdoch E. McLeod, which occurred at his home, Uigg East, March 3rd.

Willis, as he had been favorably known, contracted influenza and despite medical skill and tender nursing his gentle spirit passed away after a few days illness at the age of seventeen years.

He was a boy of quiet unassuming disposition, greatly beloved by all who knew him and his death at this early age has been a great blow to his parents, sisters and brother.

His funeral which took place Friday, March 5th was largely attended, services being conducted by Rev. Dr. McEwen of Orwell after which the remains were laid to rest in the Uigg cemetery. The pall-bearers were, Frank Colling; Clarence Carver; Joe Chisholm; J. McDonald; Willie McKinnon; Mackie McLeod.

MRS. ANDREW McDONALD.

Died at Cable Head East on March 9th, Mrs. Andrew McDonald, leaving three sons and one daughter to mourn, two sons having died in infancy. Deceased who was born at Priest Pond was in the seventy-eight year of his age. Although an invalid for seventeen years and at times a sufferer she was always comforted by the hope of a happier life beyond the grave. The funeral on March 11th was largely attended, Rev. A. McAuly Pastor of St. Peter's Church officiating at high mass and at the grave. R. I. P.

No matter how little a man believes in religion he detests irreverence in a woman.

Ice in winter and banana peel in summer have much to do with the downfall of a man.

All men are born free and equal—and some remain in the bachelor class to the end.

Silence is anything but golden to the poor girl who is dumb to the entreaties of a wealthy suitor.

It's the natural faith of a woman which enables her to believe the things she wants to when she knows she doesn't.

It is never too late to learn that it is best to be early.

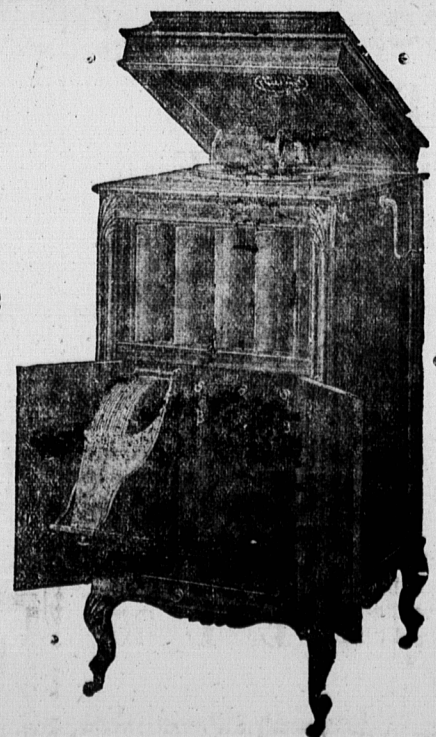

Happiness doesn't consist of having everything you want, but in the ability to get more.

Yes, Rose, whenever a man makes a mistake you expect a tidal wave of explanation.

Often a man's character would be unable to recognize his reputation if they were to meet.
