With so thorough a preparation at hand as Miller's Worm Powders the mother who allows her children to suffer from the ravages of worms is unwise and culpably careless. A child subject to the attacks of worms is always unhealthy and will be stunted in its growth. It is a merciful act to rid it of these destructive parasites, especially when it can be done without difficulty.

DEBATING SOCIETY—At a meeting held in Glenfinnan School Tuesday night, Dec. 2nd, it was decided to organize a Debating Society to hold weekly debates in the school house during the winter months. Bye-laws were drawn up to govern the Society and Mr. Alban MacDonald and Mr. Donald MacDonald were respectively appointed as President and Secretary. On Thursday night, Dec. 4th, the opening debate was held, the subject being “Resolved that the Soldier does more for the advancement of his country than the Statesman.” After an able discussion of the subject pro and con, the judges' decision was rendered in favor of those supporting the resolution. The speakers were as follows: Pro, J. A. MacDonald, A. R. MacDonald, Peter Trainor; Con, H. Trainor, D. A. MacDonald, A. A. MacDonald. The next debate will be held on Thursday, Dec. 11, when the subject for debate will be “Resolved that Anticipation affords more pleasure than Realization.”

INSTITUTE REPORT—The fourth annual meeting of the Donaldston Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Chas. Lowe, on November 11th. Eleven members and four visitors were present. Meeting opened by singing “We'll Never Let the Old Flag Fall” and roll call was answered by “An Allied Leader in the Great War.” Minutes of both the annual and monthly meeting were read and approved off. The retiring president and secretary then gave their reports of the year's work and a vote of thanks was tendered the retiring president, Mrs. Theo. Ellis, for her work in the past year. The election of officers then resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Leonard Court; Vice-President, Mrs. Theo. Ellis; Secretary, Charlotte Rowe, (re-elected); Directors, Mrs. A. E. Best, Mrs. William Arling, Miss Tilly Court; Auditors, Misses Edith Court and Margaret Ellis. Ten members were then enrolled for the coming year. A discussion took place about having the platform in school remodelled and buying new blackboards for the school house. The following program was then enjoyed: Reading, Miss Helen McDonald; Duet, Misses Tilly and Edith Court.

Reading, Miss Clara Bowlan. Luncheon was then served by the hostess, assisted by Misses Helen McDonald and Tilly Court. Meeting then closed by singing the National Anthem.

The best friend you have is the man who turns the conversation when the laugh is on you.

To some people the year is divided into only two seasons—the baseball and football seasons.

Most fixed opinions can stand a lot of fixing.
