NORAH WATSON
86 Drayton Ave., Toronto.
Nov. 10th, 1915.

A beautiful complexion is a handsome woman's chief glory and the envy of her less fortunate rivals. Yet a soft, clear skin—glowing with health—is only the natural result of pure blood.

"I was troubled for a considerable time with a very unpleasant, disfiguring rash, which covered my face and for which I used applications and remedies without relief. After using 'Fruit-a-tives' for one week, the rash is completely gone. I am deeply thankful for the relief and in the future, I will not be without 'Fruit-a-tives'."

SOME "FARMER."—Mr. B. W. MacArthur of Kensington is a farmer "par excellence." He is now the owner of a herd of registered shorthorn cattle including the silver cup cow of Halifax 1915 Exhibition. The rapid strides made by Mr. MacArthur within the last few years demonstrates the possibilities of farming on P. E. I. Six bales of binder twine were required to bind his 1916 crop of oats. He took in $297 worth of potatoes on last Tuesday to Kensington dealers. He is also a large breeder of foxes.—K.

MARINE EXAMINATION.—The numerous friends throughout the Province of Captain Frank Peter Gallant, acting master of the C. G. S. "Brant," are congratulating the popular captain on having last week passed a highly creditable examination for Master of Passenger Steamers in the Coasting Trade, before Captain Cameron, Examiner of Masters and Mates. Captain Gallant for many years been one of the island's most successful master mariners in sailing vessels, and for several years past has been in the Government supply and buoy service around the coasts and in Halifax. WEDDING BELLS.—The marriage of Miss Francis MacLaughlan daughter of Mr. Angus MacLaughlan of Dunedin, West River, to Mr. Percy L. Smallwood, grocer, of this city took place at an early hour yesterday morning at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. J. D. McKenzie, pastor of Zion Church. The bride was gowned in a travelling suit of navy blue serge, with black hat, and wore a corsage bouquet of white roses. The wedding was a quiet one, only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom being in attendance. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Smallwood left the city by the home train on a honeymoon trip. The bride was the recipient of many valuable and handsome presents.

It will be remembered that Fred was wounded 23rd of January, and is now in hospital in England. He is a son of Mr. Ronald Drake, St. Peter's Harbor, and enlisted in August, 1914. He has been wounded twice. His last wound was a fractured knee and flesh wounds in the thigh. His friends will be glad to hear that he will be up soon.

The special will call at Charlottetown and other stations along the line, to give an opportunity to all who wish to attend the funeral. The services will be conducted by Rev. D. MacLean, at 7:15 Friday morning at the Orphanage.

DINED WITH ROYALTY.—Friends here will be very much interested to hear that Lieut. Victor Morris of Summerside, who sometime ago won the Merit Medal, has had the distinguished honor of being the guest at afternoon tea of Her Majesty, King George, Queen Mary and the Princess Mary at Buckingham Palace. Lieut. Morris was on another occasion invited to dine at Buckingham Palace by one of the royal family, a relative of Lady Minto, with whom he had become acquainted while in the Military Hospital, West River.

Lieut. James Lightizer, in writing to a friend in this city, gives the pleasing information that Sergeant L. W. Jenkins of the 98th Siege Battery, received the Italian Bronze Medal from the King of Italy, for conspicuous bravery, and that no one was more deserving of it. This bronze medal is the only one won by a Canadian corps of a distinctive one, and the honor is with the many. At Woodstock, Prince County, on March 22nd, after a few days' illness of pneumonia, Jennie, beloved wife of Mr. Thomas Dignan, aged 54 years, deceased was a daughter of the late Robert H. Home, of Bloomfield, and leaves to mourn a sorrowing husband one son, and one daughter. Also two brothers and six sisters mourn the break in the family circle. The sisters are: Mrs. James Smallman, Mrs. Edward Dignan, Mrs. William McAusland, Mrs. Harry Metherell, Mrs. Roseneath, Mrs. William Gavin, residing in Florida, and Mrs. Edward Jelly, of Summerside. The brothers are: George Home, of O'Leary, and Robert Dignan was a friend beloved and most sweet, unselfish and kind. In her case we are assured as in that of every true follower of Christ "the day of death is better than the day of birth," and so though we miss her and mourn we are not comfortless and can say it is well—"the will of the Lord be done." The estimation in which the deceased was held was very manifest in the large concourse of people who attended the funeral and followed the remains to the Bloomfield cemetery. The funeral services were solemn and impressive and were conducted by Revs. Murray and Davison. The floral tribute was a beautiful wreath from the family.

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY.—On the evening of March 17th a number of the people of Murray River and vicinity met at the home of Mr. Robert Sanders one of the most respected citizens of that place. The occasion was the eve of the eightieth anniversary of his birth. A pleasant and profitable time was spent. Mr. William Grant in behalf of those present read the following address and made the presentation to which Mr. Sanders suitably replied. Dear Mr. Sanders:—We are assembled here on this the eve of the eightieth anniversary of your birth to offer you our congratulations on the measure of health and strength you and to be pleased to grant that you spend a social hour with you. You have been spared to see many of your friends and neighbors as well as your life's partner and several of your family pass away to our eternal home. While we sympathize with you and each other on the separation yet as visible members of the blessed family we have the hope implanted within us that there will be a glorious reunion with those who are gone before, when all shall enjoy the full blessing of the eternal covenant made sure by the blood of Christ our true friends and brother. We now wish you to accept this small token not for its intrinsic value but as it intends a kindly remembrance of love and esteem from our relatives, friends and neighbors.

WINNER OF ITALIAN CROSS.—The Sergeant L. W. Jenkins of the 98th Siege Battery, referred to in yesterday's issue as having won the Italian bronze cross for bravery on the field of action is understood to be Sgt. Lawson W. Jenkins, of Alberton Plains. His many friends will be delighted to hear of the great honor conferred upon him.

TO DOCK AT STEWART & CO'S WHARF.—Arrangements have been completed whereby the car-ferry steamer when she comes to Charlottetown, will dock at Bruce Stewart & Company's wharf. This will be a great convenience as there is much more better room accommodation and better facilities for handling the freight. The steamer will come to Charlottetown just as soon as ice conditions permit. Captain Murchison yesterday reported much heavy ice to the westward and as soon as this is cleared out the steamer will come here.

UNFAIR COMPARISON.—An anonymous critic, writing in Monday's Patriot, observed with feigned wisdom that he has discovered in Dr. Goodwill's last report of the Falcoo Hospital that only one resignation took place during the year. This is quite true, but Dr. Goodwill's report had reference only to the official staff of the institution. The report for last year of which the writer wishes to give a wrong impression, reports the resignation of only two officials, namely the housekeeper and the Superintendent of Nurses, and the 39 attendants, nurses and laborers that are being counted in as dismissals or resignations. The coming and going of these during Dr. Goodwill's incumbency differed little from those of the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fay, of Newport, will have the sympathy of the whole community in the death of their second oldest son, John Daniel, which took place at his home on March 24, after a brief illness, at the early age of sixteen years. The deceased who was about entering upon the threshold of manhood entered St. Dunstan's College after the Christmas holidays in order to equip himself with a practical and religious education. He had scarcely been within its walls a month when a severe attack of rheumatic neuritis, which was tenderly nursed with kind expectations that this dreaded disease would respond to treatment and soon be restored to his usual health. But Divine Providence saw otherwise, (complications set in and despite all that medical skill and lov-
