Rovers Tied With Anchors As Result Of 9-5 Victory

The North End Rovers batted their way into a second section tie with the L.P.U. Anchors by virtue of their 9-5 victory over the Legionaires last night in the final game of the second section.

Both teams played loose ball in the early innings with the Legion taking a two-run lead in their first time at bat. The Rovers, however, replied with a four-run burst in the top of the third to go into a one-run lead and were never headed during the remaining innings as Freddy Dillon was finding his stuff and holding the Legion runners scoreless in the last five innings.

A pair of doubles by Carl MacDonald and Hunter accounted for the Rovers' first tally in the second innings as they trailed the Vets by a run, but a big four-run burst in the third put them in front 5-2. Singles by Higson and Whalen and a long triple by Buck Whitlock to deep center field did the damage. The North End crew counted one in the fourth and split single runs with the Legion in the fifth as both teams tightened up in the field. At this point Dillon started to bear down on the Legion batters and only gave up two singles in the last five innings he worked while his teammates got to Jack Cairns for a run in the sixth on singles by Higson and LeClair and two more runs in the eighth on two walks and two hits.

McIsaac came in from right field in the ninth to hurl for the Legionaires and set the Rovers down in order, but Dillon put the finishing touches on his well-pitched game when he struck out Perry and forced Hennessey and MacLennan to pop to the infield.

MacIsaac drove in Perry and Goodwin wiht the Vets' first two runs in the first innings on a well placed single and they added two more in the third when Perry and MacIsaac scored on a Rover error, a walk, and Mike Hennessey's single. Teddy Strain accounted for their lone run in the fifth after leading off with a double.

Dillon struck out ten Legion batters and only granted six hits and two walks in the nine innings he hurled. Cairns fanned four and was touched for ten hits in the eight innings he worked while issuing four walks.

Is Delighted With Win Of Swedish Team

(By Gayle Talbot)

NEW YORK, July 18—(AP)—Walter Pate, captain of the American Davis Cup tennis team, said today he was "delighted" that Sweden won the European zone final from Yugoslavia Wednesday and would meet the United States in the inter-zone final at Forest Hills Aug. 16-18.

"That was what we were hoping for," he said. "The Swedes already had promised to play us here if they won, but Yugoslavia had not. There might have been some bickering about where we would have played. This straightens everything out fine."

Pate said the four-man American squad for the match with Sweden would have to be chosen by Aug. 6 under Davis Cup rules, and that he would call the players together about a week before the matches for intensive practice.

"I think you can safely say that the team will be chosen from among Frankie Parker, Jack Kramer, Billy Talbert, Ted Schroeder and Gardnar Mulloy," he said. "I would like very much to have Tom Brown around for the pre-match practice, and Don McNeill, too, if he should change his mind about not playing for the Davis Cup."

Brown is the 23-year-old San Francisco comet who reached the semi-final of the recent Wimbledon championships.

"Atomic Power" Wins Soap Box Derby Contest

"Atomic Power" a golden-colored soap box special, driven by Wilfred Garnhum and "powerized" by Charles Hine won the "push-mobile" classic staged at Gallows Hill last night.

"Dodge", a wooden, whippet-like creation, built along more conservative lines, driven by Junior MacNeill with mechanic Don Ryan, was second. In third position were Hubert Murnaghan and Bobby Kelly in a streamlined, sturdy, low-slung wheeled crate.

A large crowd gathered to witness the soap box derby and were treated to excitement and thrills with the odd spill adding color to the event.

The race was run - off in two heats with the first two finishers in each competing in the final.

Winners of the first heat were MacNeill and Ryan with Garnhum and Hine second. The second heat was won by Hambley and Diamond with Kelly and Murnaghan second.

Prises for the best design went to MacNeill and Ryan.

The race was staged by Bill Hine of the Connaught Square Play ground Committee.

The officials were:

REMEMBER WHEN

Hank Cleman, lanky Toronto walker, cracked George Goulding's 1910 Canadian mark for the two miles at Toronto 15 years ago today. Cleman covered the distance in the Ontario Track Championships in 13.54:4, compared with Goulding's 14:07.4.

Freddie Whalen's Rovers did it again last night and as a result of their victory over the Legionaires now have better than an even chance of adding 2nd section city league honors to the first section ones they already hold.

As has been the case the most of the season the Legion were right in the thick of things for over half the game giving the northend crew many anxious moments as they got runners on the sacks but it was the Rovers that pushed across two runs in the eighth that really sewed up the ball game.

Visit of Pictou Red Sox on Sunday should add a lot of interest to local baseball. With Bert Steele, Tic Williams and Ab McKinnon on the lineup, boys who are well known to sport followers here, it will be interesting to note just how the locals will fare off when pitted against some of their former teammates. All three have been starring in hockey circles in Pictou County for the past number of years and although their baseball activities have not received much publicity nevertheless it is rumored that they are quite adept at this game also.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

Charlottetown golfers have been prominent in two New Brunswick-P. E. I. tournaments so far this season with the senior and junior crowns just eluding their grasp and it goes to show that a pretty fair brand of golf is being dished out over the rolling fairways of Belvedere.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

In both instances disastrous last rounds have proved their undoing. In the senior event Joe Mahar more or less blew up on the last eighteen holes to lose his chance while Wednesday young Cecil Dowling after leading the junior field in the first round slipped off his game in the final eighteen holes to card an 82 while the new champion Doig, of Halifax, was red-hot with a sparkling 76 that not only gave him the title but also a free trip to the Canadian junior championships.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

All Island golfers showed up real well in the senior event and Pete Kelly driving from tee to tee on a bicycle stayed right up with the leaders until the final round in what must have been a remarkable performance. Pete, just recovering from a broken leg, was at a distinct advantage but nevertheless the determination and courage he has shown so often in hockey battles was again evidenced by his plucky fight. Kelly is a former holder of the title.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

Boxing czar Mike Jacobs has found that you can lead fans to a box office but you can't make 'em pay cash and as a result when Bomber Joe Louis puts his title on the line against thumpin' Tami Mauriello in September Mike will mark the entry fees down to $30 tops—and $3 bottoms. He thinks the "take" will hit seven figures and there will be more cash customers on hand than the 45,226 who saw the Louis-Conn affair.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

Louis will weigh about 208 and Tami, whose real name is Steve, will tip the scales at 194. In the record books Tami's age is 26, but he's actually three years younger. It was that back in '39 when he first started in the pro fight business, he was only 16. As a result, he used his older brother's name and started on the trail. Reports have it that he is an orthodox-style, stand-up swatter with a good straight left and a hard right. Tami's had 77 fights, lost only seven, and has flattened 51 opponents. Although he's hit the canvas on several occasions he's never been knocked out.

✦ ✦ ✦

This is not the only neck-of-the woods where the severe shortage of baseballs is presenting a thorny problem to officials of amateur teams. Word has it that in the border cities of Ontario and even in Detroit the horsehide pellets are at a premium and a baseball goes through a rigid inspection before being tossed out of the game. The teams have to use every available ball be it even old, black and slightly the worse for wear. It is doubtful if there will be any early easing of the "famine" and the boys have been cautioned to go easy on those out-of-the park homers.

Gordon's Home Run Gives Yanks Win

By The Canadian Press

Joe Gordon blasted a two-run fourth inning homer to pace the New York Yankees to a 3-1 victory over the St. Louis Browns. Mel Queen went the route for the Yanks, limiting the Browns to eight hits.

Doubles by Aaron Robinson and Frankie Crosetti produced the Yanks' first score in the second inning off southpaw Stan Ferens who yielded all three New York scores in his five inning stretch.

Gordon's eighth homer followed a pass to Robinson to give Queen the margin for his first victory since his discharge from the army.

Lesnevich To Fight Woodcock

(By Stuart Underhill, Canadian Press Staff Writer)

LONDON, July 17—(CP Cable)—British fight fans tonight looked to square-jawed Bruce Woodcock to end the legend of "horizontal heavyweight" which has dogged British boxers for more than a decade.

Promoter Jack Solomons, fresh from recent talks in New York with Mike Jacobs, announced today that Woodcock will meet Gus Lesnevich of Cliffside, N. J., in Harringay arena here Sept. 17.

It was at Harringay last May that Lesnevich, United States light heavyweight champion, knocked out England's Freddie Mills after a long, bloody contest. A few nights later, in New York, Woodcock was flattened by Tami Mauriellí of the Bronx, who is slated for a September shot at Joe Louis.

After the punishment absorbed by Mills and Woodcock against United States opponents, sports writers in London blamed the twin defeat on the lack of ring experience of the British boxers. They hope that Woodcock may have learned enough since his defeat to take the measure of the hard-hitting Lesnevich.

Woodcock, 24 and holder of the British and British Empire heavyweight crowns, has had only one important fight since returning from New York. Last month he took on Mills, British light heavyweight champion, and defeated him in 12 fierce rounds.

In this fight Woodcock showed little improvement in defence and had Mills been a harder hitter the result might have been different.

Bulla Is Top Money Winner

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, July 18—Towering Johnny Bulla of Chicago, fashioning a five-under-par 137, today was top money winner in a complicated 36-hole warm-up for the $10,000 victory national open golf tournament which starts tomorrow at Medinah Country Club.

Bulla, who today added a one-under-par 70 to his 67 of yesterday, failed to figure in any of the three preliminary championships—for pro-amateur, pro-lady and pro-senior titles—but as low professional, Johnny walked off with the top prize, a $1,000 war bond.

The pro-amateur title went to a unheralded team, Jim Ferrier of San Francisco, who finished today with a sizzling 67, equalling the course competitive record, and Simon-pure Mike Stefancik of Hobart, Ind., with a 36-hole aggregate of 291.

The leading United States money-winner, Ben Hogan, and Georgian Louise Suggs, winner of the recent women's western open, teamed to take the pro-lady crown with 301. The pro-senior title went to Harold (Jug) McSpaden, who fired a 68 today for a 138 total, a stroke behind Bulla, and Arnold Minkley of Chicago with 301.

GOLF

By BYRON NELSON

One of the old adages of golf that has been outmoded by time is "Slow back."

All of which does not mean that I am advocating that you check your backswing, but a check of the backswings of all the top players will reveal that they no longer delay on the backswing in the manner once considered fashionable.

Ralph Guldahl, who won the Open in 1937 and 1938, when he was at his peak had the fastest backswing of any topnotch player. He took his club back with the speed of a cobra striking and yet there was nothing jerky about the way he did it. It seemed to be the most natural thing in the world for him to do, in spite of the fact that the old time teachers would have frowned on the way he did it.

To get distance, terrific hand speed at impact is essential. Which means that a fast downswing is essential, but yet if you watch the top players you are not conscious that they are making any great effort to get the clubhead into the ball with any extra burst of speed.

The reason you don't get that idea from observing them in action is that all of the good players have an ability to accelerate this flow of speed into their swing with smoothness. Of all the players I can think of as I write this, only the aforementioned Guldahl and Johnny Revolta, the latter one of the greatest maten play golfers the game has known when he was at his peak, left me with the impression that they were swinging the clubhead down from the top of the arc.

Olin Dutra might be offered as the perfect example of the opposite extreme. Watching him play in some of the tournaments out on the coast last winter, I get the impression that he had the slowest backswing of any of the name pros. He sweeps through in a lazy, languid manner, but I think Dutra's backswing only seems slow by comparison with the players he is now competing against.

Probably the answer to all these theories on the backswing is that modern golfers have a better control of their short, snappy backswing. George Jacobus says that I was a body swinger when I first reported to him at Ridgewood and that one of the things he had to eliminate from my game was that same body sway by shortening my swing. It was his theory that a tall fellow like me couldn't control a full swing.

He advised me to make my swing more compact with my hands and arms in closer to my body than I had been playing. Before I left him to go to Reading my hands and arms were doing a lot of the work I used to make my body do. Within a year's time I had no sway or body weave.

I thought I was a good golfer when I came North to work, but I didn't learn to fade an iron shot from right to left with any accuracy until I got up here. I learned to hit a straight ball and I had to learn to control a hook because there are courses which require an ability to control that hook if you are going to score well over them.

Speaking of the full swing, I used to sweep my irons the same as I did my woods. I had to learn to punch them by opening the blade of my iron and punching down on them.

Golf is a game that defies complete mastery, as you can see from my above remarks. There is something new to learn every day if we are to improve.

Trying To Limit Williams To Singles

PHILADELPHIA July 18 —(CP) — Manager Lou Boudreau, who cheerfully accepts any credit—or blame—for Cleveland Indians' novel "Williams shift," says it was designed to limit the great Boston Red Sox slugger to singles.

"Holding that guy to a single isn't bad baseball," Lou maintained today. "He's the greatest hitter I ever saw."

"By moving six players, including the whole infield, over to the right of the diamond, wth the second baseman dropping back as a half way outfielder, it was pretty tough for Ted to get a hit in that direction unless he clouted the ball over or against the fence," Lou explained.

"What many people didn't realize is that we used the shift only under certain conditions. A lot depends on the score at the time and we never played Ted that way with men on bases."

May Marriages Show Increase

(By The Canadian Press)

OTTAWA, July 18—Possibly due in part to the repatriation of service personnel, May marriages, registered in Canadian cities and towns with a population of more than 10,000, have increased 39 per cent over May of the previous year, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported today.

Births and deaths also showed increases, births numbering 13,769 compared with 11,634 in May, 1945 and deaths 5,116 compared with 4,947.

Sox Make It Three In A Row; "Tribe" Beats Athletics 7-3

(Canadian Press)

Tom McBride's third hit, his second double of the day, scored Mickey Harris from first base in the sixth inning yesterday to give the Red Sox a 3-2 victory over Chicago White Sox at Boston.

The triumph was the third straight over the Pale Hose for the American League leading Boston club and the 13th of the year for Harris, who was replaced in the seventh by sinker ball Bob Klinger.

Both of Chicago's runs came on home runs high into the left field screen by Frankie Hayes and Bob Kennedy, lead off batters in the fourth and six innings.

Cleveland got to Russ Christopher for five hits and six runs in the second inning and defeated Philadelphia Athletics 7-3.

Les Webber started on the mound for the Indians but was relieved by Steve Gromek in the sixth.

Hank Edwards opened the big inning with a triple and scored on Lou Boudreau's single. Boudreau went to third on Ken Keltner's single and after Heinz Becker fanned, the Indians' manager came home on Jim Hegan's safety. Les Webber then walked to fill the bases. George Case quickly unloaded them with a triple to right centre, sending Christopher to the showers. Case scored when Jack Caulfield allowed Jack Conways roller to go through his legs.

Cardinals Take Lead In National

Regaining sole possession of the lead for the first time since May 21, the Cardinals virtually clinched the decision, their 12th in their last 15 games, with a four-run outburst in the fourth inning, touched off by Whitey Kurowski's ninth homer of the season.

After Kurowski's drive into the left field stands, Enos Slaughter doubled to the left field wall, Buster Adams was hit by a pitched ball and the two runners advanced on Marty Marion's infield out, Clyde Kluttz was passed purposely, Terry Moore batted for Red Barrett, the Card's starting hurler, and singled in Slaughter and Al Schoendienst drove two more across with a single.

Dodgers Still On Skids; Lose To Cincinnati

(By The Canadian Press)

Brooklyn's slumping Dodgers dropped their sixth straight and their eighth in nine western starts yesterday, bowing to Cincinnati's Ed Heusser 4-2 in a loosely played contest.

Kirby Higbe, one of the top pitchers in the league, failed to last through the third inning when the Reds notched three runs on three hits and an error.

Grady Hatton, who had forced Dain Clay at second base, came all the way around in the opening frame without benefit of a hit. He stole second and romped home when Ferrell Anderson's wild throw went past centre fielder Pewee Reiser for a two-base error.

A walk to Bobby Adams, singles by Bert Haas, Ed Lukon and Eddie Miller sandwiched around a boot by Pewee Reese accounted for the three Cincy scores in the third.

It was Heusser's seventh victory and Higbe's third loss.

Big Bill Lee pitched Boston Braves to a 9-3 victory over Chicago Cubs to even up the current series at a game apiece. Lee allowed six hits as he gained his seventh victory of the season.

Proving almost as hot as the 99 degree weather, the Braves shelled five Chicago pitchers for 13 hits. They started by chasing starter Claude Passeau before anybody was out in the second, and carried on against Russ Meers, Vern Olsen, Russ Bauers and Bill Fleming.

Johnny Hopp, the National League's leading batter, had two hits in four times at bat before retiring due to the heat in the eighth inning.

Pittsburgh Pirates swept their two game series from New York Giants by defeating the Polo Grounds crew 7-3.

Edson Bahr started for the Pirates but bowed out in favor of Preacher Roe after the first inning due to a pain in his side. Roe received credit for the win although he needed help from Johnny Lanning who twirled the last three frames.

Philippines Ask For Islands

MANILA, July 8— (AP)—Foreign Secretary Elphidio Quirino said today that the newly-sovereign Philippines would ask the United Nations for one group of French-claimed islands and several British-leased islets flanking British North Borneo.

Quirino told a press conference the Philippines republic would ask for sovereignty over the Shinan Gunto islets, 200 miles west of the southwestern Filipino island of Palawan, and the Turtle Islands off Borneo's northwest coast.

Chestertown Is Winner Of Rich Stake

(By The Associated Press)

OLD ORCHARD BEACH, Me., July 18—Chestertown, from Bill Cane's Good Time Stables at Goshen, N.Y., took both heats of a $1,000 three-year-old trotting stake from four other Hambletonian eligibles today.

The bay colt, with Harry Whitney on the reins, was timed at 2.06¼ and 2.06 over the hard kite track in the top race of a Grand Circuit card.

Chestertown overcame a break early in the second heat to nose out Sep Palin's Victory Song, which was a length and a half behind in the first dash. Walter Spencer and Ballad split third money.

COLGATE'S SMALL BUBBLES GIVE YOU SHAVES WITHOUT SKIN-STING!
Big Bubbles can't reach hairs at base where beard is toughest. Shaving hurts—stubble remains!
Colgate's Small Bubbles reach right down, soften every hair! Your razor glides — no pull, no sting. You get a comfortable shave!

THE SHAVE IS BETTER
BECAUSE THE LATHER STAYS WETTER
Yes; the WETTER the lather the BETTER the shave. A quick-drying lather will dry out on your face—give you a shave that stings and burns. What you want is a rich creamy EXTRA MOIST lather . . . the lather you get with Lifebuoy Shaving Cream . . . a lather that STAYS MOIST and keeps your beard soft and wet the whole shave through.
Recent tests prove that Lifebuoy holds up to 41% MORE MOISTURE than other leading brands tested. This is a matter of record; a scientific fact. Get Lifebuoy Shaving Cream for CLEANER, SMOOTHER shaves—even with cold water or a used blade.
