

MONDAY

ADDRESS BY CAPT. READ—Capt. Joseph Read, of Summerside, P. E. I., who was in Halifax attending the Lobster Conference was the guest of honor at the Commercial Club's luncheon Thursday, and delivered an interesting address on Maritime Union says the Chronicle.

POLICE COURT—One drunk graded (or disgraced) the docket on Saturday. He was fined $5 or twenty days. The unknown man "from Halifax" who figured so frequently in the prohibition cases in the early days of prohibition is again on the job. He supplied the liquor in this city.

The sympathy of the entire community goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Murdoch Hetherington in the loss of their only daughter at the tender age of seven years and three months. Going to the hospital for treatment she was attacked with pleuro-pneumonia and suddenly passed into the spirit world. The funeral was very largely attended considering the busy season of the year, and all that was mortal of little Marjorie was laid to rest in the Kirk Cemetery at Lot 48. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Daniel MacLean. But a short time ago one brave boy of this family was "killed in action" another young and exceedingly brilliant young man died after a lingering sickness and now their only daughter is called away. "Whom the Lord loveth He chasteneth and scourgeth every son whom He loveth." Suffer the little children to come unto me and forbid them not for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven.

WEDDING BELLS—The home of Rev. and Mrs. Wm. MacLeod, Court St., Summerside, was the scene of a quiet wedding on the morning of July 30th, when their only daughter, Marion Malcolm, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Sergeant Allan Wilnot Wadman, Summerside, in the presence of a few intimate friends. The bride was given away by her father who also performed the ceremony. After breakfast was served the happy couple motored to the S. S. Northumberland en route to St. John. The bride wore a travelling suit of sand serge with hat to match and was unattended. They were the recipients of many useful and beautiful gifts, consisting of silver, cut glass and a number of very suitable cheeses. Sergeant Wadman has a splendid military record having served in France nearly two years and was severely wounded twice. He is now serving on the Dominion Police Force. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wadman wish them a long and happy married life.

THE NEW DALTON SANATORIUM—Recent visitors to the Dalton Sanatorium were greatly impressed with the magnitude and beauty of the reconstructed and enlarged building and quite ready to realize that when completed it will be one of the finest convalescent homes in Canada. Two new wings have been added to the original Dalton building making the whole structure 550 feet in length and three storeys in height. Only a comparatively few of the wards and rooms have been completed but those now receiving the finishing touches give a good idea of the elegance and the beauty of the home when completed. Any attempt at description at this stage would be useless as only a general conception of the whole plant can be gathered in its present form. The amount of work already done and yet to be done, the immense quantity of lumber used and the difficulty of transportation involved, for there are hills in the neighborhood, give an idea not only of the size of the contract undertaken by the Messrs. H. and S. Lowe but of the immense preparation being made by the Government throughout Canada for the care of the soldiers. The new Dalton Sanatorium will be one of Prince Edward Island's greatest landmarks and beauty spots for many years to come not only because of the magnificence of the building but of the scenic beauty of the location.

BACK FROM HALIFAX—Senator McLean, of Souris, was in the city on Saturday on his way home from Halifax, where he attended the meeting of Lobster packers and others interested in that industry. He reports a very harmonious and profitable meeting of lobster packers and others interested. With regard to the lobster season for the Island it was agreed that it should be opened during May and June, with the understanding that if conditions warranted cutting off any day, this should be done the latter part of June. The late season for the south of the Island was fixed at August 10th to October 10th.

DIED SATURDAY—Mr. A. F. Bell of the Marine and Fisheries Office, Charlottetown, and his family will have the deep sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement, sustained by the death of Mrs. Bell, who passed away on Saturday afternoon at her home, Grafton Street West. She had been a sufferer with bronchitis for some years but it was only the first part of last week that acute bronchitis set in and caused her death. Her maiden name was Sarah McKenzie, she being a daughter of the late Mr. John McKenzie of North Wilshire. There are left to mourn besides her husband, six children Aubrey, (Sergt. in the A. M. C.) Wesley, (Lieut. R. A. F.), Reggie Florence, Susie and Eva.

The sad news was received at 9.20 o'clock Saturday evening by Mrs. A. A. Pomeroy, Brighton Road, City, that her son Lieut. Ernest Auld, had been killed in action in France. The news came in a despatch from her eldest son, Lieut. Clyde Auld, of the 10th Canadian Siege Battery in France and was as follows: "I mourn with you in our common sorrow, I have lost the dearest of brothers. Death was instantaneous. Attended funeral today. Writing. Fondest love, Clyde." Deep sympathy will go out to the family in this very sudden bereavement. Ernest was the second son of the late Mr. George Auld and was a particularly bright and promising youth. He was not eighteen years of age when he answered the call of the Motherland in 1915 to do his share in the Empire's defence and yielded up his life just as he was entering upon manhood. He enlisted in the 56th Battalion and later was transferred to the 42nd Royal Highlanders of Montreal. The 10th Siege Battery to which his brother Lieut. Clyde belongs, evidently was fighting quite close to the 42nd in view of the fact that he was able to attend the funeral. To the bereaved mother, the sorrowing brothers, Clyde and George, and a sister, Mrs. R. H. Beale, (Marion) and other relatives The Guardian unites with the many friends in extending sincere sympathy.

Departed this life Sunday evening, July 21, Alexander McGregor, aged 88 years, 4 months and 4 days. To those who have known this intelligent old gentleman for the past thirty-six years he was familiarly known as "Uncle Mac." He made his home with his sister, Mrs. Anne Cobb all these years. "Uncle Mac" was of a quiet, unobtrusive nature. Years ago a spell of typhoid fever felt him dead and a partial invalid, compelling him to give up a fine position of Collector of Internal Revenue in the Sacramento district. He came to Gilroy, and for years did lighter work, being a first class gardener. He was somewhat of a recluse, and an omnivorous reader. He was one of the brightest and best informed men in our city, being a graduate of Prince of Wales College, Prince Edward Island. He retained his faculties to the last, but prayed to be released from suffering. About a year ago a cancer developed on his ear, which eventually caused his death. To give him proper care and attention, he was taken to the pay ward of the County Hospital near San Jose, just six months ago.

Mac was one of the early pioneers of the state. Previous to coming here in 1850, he lived in New York City, where he was head bookkeeper of a large mercantile house. The discovery of gold brought him out west, and he spent years in the mines of Calaveras county, amassing considerable wealth. He gave liberally of his means to charity. Later through the influence of his old friend, Senator Stanford, he was appointed collector of internal revenue in Sacramento, which position he held for several years. He was a staunch Republican all his life.

He never married. In addition to his two sisters, Mrs. Anne Cobb of Gilroy and Mrs. Kate Hall of San Jose, he leaves two brothers, Duncan and Archibald in Nine Mile Creek, P.E.I. One of his brothers is over 90 years of age, and all are over 75 years of age. Mac was of Scotch descent, and full of original wit. He was of a kind and gentle nature, and his good deeds will long be cherished by his friends and relatives. The funeral took place on Tuesday from Farmalee & Barahinger's mortuary chapel. Rev. Wm. Higgs read the Episcopal burial service at the grave, and Messdames H. E. Robinson and D. J. Riley and Miss Lavin furnished hymns. The grave was covered with beautiful flowers, which he loved so well. — San Francisco ex.

This is Mr. McNeill's second visit to the Island, the previous being twelve years ago. He reports that business in Sydney is booming in all lines. The principal business is being done in shell steel and the manufacturing of rails which are sent to all parts of the Province.

THE GERMANS AT BORDEN—The German prisoners engaged on the Borden branch line are composed principally of soldiers from the big liner Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse. There are several first class engineers among the number. The prisoners are good workers and seem to be quite satisfied with their quarters and the treatment accorded them. They evidently realize that they are much better off where they are than risking their lives trying to carry out the mad ideals of the Kaiser.

School Girls' Nerve

Dr. Hall afterwards conducted the afternoon service and gave an address on "Looking Seaward."

Mr. Macdonald is a brother of Mr. Donald Macdonald and Mrs. John Ross of Wheatley River. His many friends and relatives are delighted to see him. On his way he stopped at Portland, Oregon, to see his brother, Malcolm. He also visited his nephews, Mr. David A. Macdonald, of Seattle, Wash., and John M. Macdonald, of Portland, Maine. The latter accompanied him and is spending a few days at his home at Ebenezer.

ABLE SERMON—Rev. Dr. Abbott Smith of Montreal was the preacher in St. Peter's Cathedral on Sunday evening and preached a very scholarly and impressive discourse his text being selected from the Book of Job. He dealt with the manner in which a righteous man was singled out for affliction for no apparent reason and Job's unshattered trust in the mercy of God in the face of all his miseries. The preacher made a comparison to some extent of the times in which Job lived to those of today when sorrow is coming into many homes and the innocent in many lands are suffering the loss of homes and everything dear to them on earth. Job's faith found amply justified and the lesson conveyed was that while it may not be discerned or understood why affliction should come to the innocent yet this chastening in time will be over-ruled for good and bring about a desirable condition.

OLD FRIENDS MEET—At the morning session of the most worthy Grand Lodge L. O. A. on the 3rd Rev. Wm. McLeod amid the goodly number present, recognized five acquaintances. Rev. Mr. Orman of New Brunswick, Rev. Mr. Bamford, Port Hill, Rev. Daniel McLean, People's Church Charlottetown; Mr. William McNeill West River and Mr. Henry Armstrong merchant of Burlington, Hants Co., N. S. More of the Island Brethren were present in other sessions. The demand of the hayting season kept quite a number but the expense and time peculiar to the coming of so many from far away provinces reaching to the Pacific shore reminds one of the great interest they have in the L. O. A. surpassing that of some living near the place of meeting of this great organization.
