Bad Palpitation of The Heart

EVER SINCE SHE WAS NINE YEARS OLD,

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS EFFECTED A COMPLETE CURE.

If you find your health failing, your food apparently doing you no good, your heart beating irregularly—now slow, now fast—skipping a beat now and then, palpitations or throbbings on the slightest excitement or exertion, pain in the region of the heart, face pale, dizzy and faint spells, these all point to heart weakness, to nerve derangement, to a state of health consequent upon these, which, if not corrected and cured by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, will surely end in utter prostration and hopeless invalidism.

From the depths many have been raised by this remarkable remedy, as its power is beyond all question most marvellous; but, why wait until you have gone so far? Taking these pills now will turn you from the perilous path of sickness and put you on the highway to health.

Miss Mary Wilson, Toronto, Ont., writes: "It is with the greatest of pleasure that I recommend Millburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. Ever since I was nine years of age I have been afflicted with palpitation of the heart, pain in my side and nervousness. As I grew older it kept increasing. After having tried numerous doctors medicines, but to no avail, I was induced to try your pills, and after using several boxes I began to improve, so kept on taking them for some time until now I can truthfully say I am in perfect health."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50 cts. per box or three for $1.25, at all dealers or The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

That Smooth Feeling

The great point in favor of "Queen City" flour is its smoothness, that is its adaptability to all kinds of household purposes.

THE GUARDIAN COVERS THE FIELD

The Guardian covers the City and Province within which it is published more fully and completely than any other newspaper printed in Canada.

With a daily circulation of its morning and rural edition now about 8,000 and growing from day to day, it has broken all records for a daily publication in a small community.

Charlottetown has a population of 12,000 and Prince Edward Island has 103,000. The Guardian's daily circulation is therefore is 1 to 1½ of population in the city in which it is published, or 1 to 19 of the population of the Province. This is, the management believe unequalled by any daily newspaper published in Canada.

Take one or two comparisons with other leading newspapers in other cities and Provinces.

St. John has a population of 40,000 and the Province of New Brunswick 320,000 St. John has five newspapers and among these The Telegraph and The Sun are perhaps the foremost. Each claims a circulation of about 8,000 or say as 1 to 5 of the population of that city and 1 to 40 of the population of the Province.

Or again: Toronto has a population of some 250,000 and the Province of Ontario about 2,225,000. The Toronto Globe is a great Canadian newspaper, known all over the world as one of the foremost journals. The Globe's published daily circulation is slightly under 50,000. That is as 1 to 5 of the population of Toronto and 1 to 44 of the population of Ontario.

The point is this that The Guardian covers the field of its circulation three and a half times as well, if compared with population of the city, and over three times as well, taking the population of its Province, as the best New Brunswick and Ontario daily newspapers, and these are admittedly among the best in Canada.

These facts are printed in no spirit of boasting, but for the satisfaction of Guardian readers and advertising patrons alike. They have a right to know how completely their favorite Journal's endorsed by the reading public among whom it circulates and how completely it covers the field as an advertising medium in this City and Province.

GOLDEN TEXT.

Thou crownest the year with thy goodness.—Psa. 65. 11.

GENERAL REVIEW SUMMARY.

From what books are the lessons for this quarter taken? Concerning each of these books tell: 1. The significance of its name, that is, Why so named? 2. The general period which the narrative of the book covers. 3. Any data which you may have egarding the date and the authorship. What was the probable specific purpose of the Book of Ruth? What was the relation of the Books of Samuel to the Books of Kings? Give a brief character sketch of Caleb. Of Samson. Give a brief biographical sketch of Jabin. What light does the story of Samuel throw on religious conditions in Israel at that time? Name five nations or tribes inhabiting Palestine at the time of its conquest by Israel. Name and locate the Cities of Refuge. What was the significance of their establishment in the social and moral evolution of Israel? What lessons may we learn from the story of Gideon? What events of importance group themselves about Jephthah? Name and locate three important places not previously mentioned in this review. Name the twelve tribes. Locate in a general way the territory of each.

THE GOLDEN TEXT.

When we reflect to-day upon our experience during the days and months of the past year we are compelled to acknowledge the manifold mercies of Him who has guided our footsteps, and crowned our year with His goodness. Blessings of which we were not worthy have been our portion. Food, clothing, friendships health—at last in greater measure than these same blessings have been vouchsafed to many others—opportunity and growth in grace and knowledge have been to us an inspiration and an incentive to truer and more noble living. Our crosses and afflictions have assisted us in discovering the real significance of life and that purpose of good which we may be sure was in these experiences also. And it may be that to us this year has come some supreme good that has seemed, at its close to crown the year. For this supreme good, whatever it may be, and for the heavenly blessings of each separate day and hour, we should be thankful. Doubtless a thoughtful survey of the goodness and mercy of God toward us during the past year will constrain us to say with the psalmist, "Many, O Jehovah my God, are the wonderful works which thou has done, and thy thoughts which are to usward; they are more than can be numbered (Psa. 40. 5).
