Rev. A. D. ARCHIBALD preached to a large congregation Sunday evening at Union Lot 33, choosing for his text II Tim. 3:15. He explained in eloquent terms the meaning of Salvation, the message of Christ in its adaptation to the needs of humanity, and the great need of parents to instruct their children in the truths contained in the Bible. The session of the Sunday School in the morning was well attended, thus showing the great interest taken in Sabbath School work under the efficient Superintendent, James Essery.

A VERY enjoyable party was given at the residence of William and Mrs. Alchorn, Rocky Point, for their daughter Miss Ethel who intends leaving for Portland this week. All the guests present thoroughly enjoyed themselves with dancing, games, music and songs. A MEDAL has been presented to A. G. Cameron, Montague, by the Royal Canadian Humane Association "for conspicuous courage in rescuing Mall Gills from drowning at Montague on August 19th, 1903." The presentation was made by Sheriff MacDonald, Saturday evening in Stipendiary Inman's office in an appropriate speech which was replied to by Mr. Cameron in his usual modest and unassuming way. Speeches were also made by other gentlemen present. The rescue for which the above mentioned medal was presented took place near the wharves where the little boy had been playing and had accidentally fallen over into the water. Mr. Cameron heard the shout of his playmates and knowing something was wrong hastened to the spot, shedding his coat as he went. He plunged in and succeeded in reaching the boy just as he went down for the third time.

Harry is well and favorably known throughout the provinces, and the appointment, which is a very important one, will be received with much satisfaction by his host of friends. Like other successful young men he claims that the Charlottetown Business College put him on the right road.

A MEDAL has been presented to A. G. Cameron, Montague, by the Royal Canadian Humane Association "for conspicuous courage in rescuing Mall Gills from drowning at Montague on August 19th, 1903." The presentation was made by Sheriff MacDonald, Saturday evening in Stipendiary Inman's office in an appropriate speech which was replied to by Mr. Cameron in his usual modest and unassuming way. Speeches were also made by other gentlemen present. The rescue for which the above mentioned medal was presented took place near the wharves where the little boy had been playing and had accidentally fallen over into the water. Mr. Cameron heard the shout of his playmates and knowing something was wrong hastened to the spot, shedding his coat as he went. He plunged in and succeeded in reaching the boy just as he went down for the third time.

Rev. A. D. ARCHIBALD preached to a large congregation Sunday evening at Union Lot 33, choosing for his text II Tim. 3:15. He explained in eloquent terms the meaning of Salvation, the message of Christ in its adaptation to the needs of humanity, and the great need of parents to instruct their children in the truths contained in the Bible. The session of the Sunday School in the morning was well attended, thus showing the great interest taken in Sabbath School work under the efficient Superintendent, James Essery.

A VERY enjoyable party was given at the residence of William and Mrs. Alchorn, Rocky Point, for their daughter Miss Ethel who intends leaving for Portland this week. All the guests present thoroughly enjoyed themselves with dancing, games, music and songs. At a late hour they were invited by their hostess, to the dining room where the table was spread in Mrs. Alchorn's best style. Justice being done the good things provided, dancing was resumed and all enjoyed themselves, till the wee sma hours of morning, when the guests departed wishing Miss Alchorn a safe trip and a happy return.

THE High Court of Foresters meets in Castle Hall, this city, Wednesday and Thursday, the 13th and 14th. On Thursday at 1 p. m. an outing will be held in the harbor on the S. S. City of London. The steamer will pass through the Hillsborough Bridge but will go only a short distance up the Hillsborough. Retracing her course she will pass outside the harbor. While passing the old French Fort, John Newson, Esq., will give the excursionists a talk on the early occupation of Port La Jole and its historic environments, and as Mr. Newson's talks are always of the most interesting nature the Foresteric friends can anticipate a very pleasant outing.

At a meeting of the Directors of the Charlottetown Condensed Milk Co., held yesterday, Harry Winchester, salesman for the firm of Carvell, Rattenbury & Messervey, was appointed general manager in succession to Mr. Lockhart, resigned. Mr. Winchester enters upon his new duties at once, and will bring to his position a large amount of active business experience founded on a good business education. Harry is well and favorably known throughout the provinces, and the appointment, which is a very important one, will be received with much satisfaction by his host of friends. Like other successful young men he claims that the Charlottetown Business College put him on the right road.
