In Memoriam

GEORGE T. BINNS

Citizens learned with surprise and regret of the death of George Thorne Binns which occurred at his home on Thursday, February 28th after a brief illness.

The late Mr. Binns, who held the responsible position of Inter-into Auditor of the Dominion Income Tax Office for the past twelve years, was popular not only with the members of the staff but with the general public.

Reduced Railway Fares Again Effective

MONCTON, N. B., March 16.—As previously announced by the Canadian passenger association, reduced railway fares which were suspended during the war have again been put into effect on Canadian railroads.

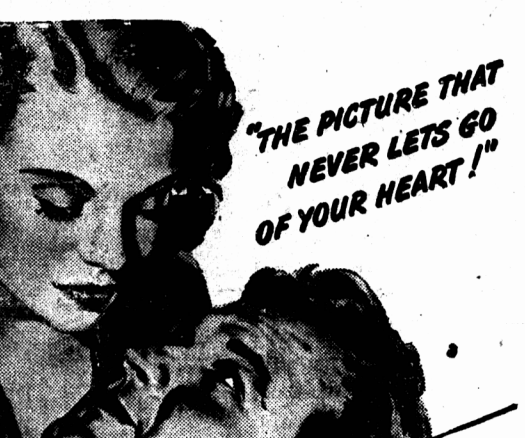

Following the close of the war, he remarked, there has been a great desire for travel, particularly for week-end holidays and longer vacation periods and these reduced fares will be greatly welcomed by the public.

Continuing, Mr. Norton said, "It is expected that this year will witness a major revival in tourist travel and the railways are making preparations to handle it although somewhat handicapped
