"In my opinion, no other medicine is so curative for Constipation and Indigestion as 'Fruit-a-tives'."

I was a sufferer from these complaints for five years, and my sedentary occupation, Music, brought about a kind of Intestinal Paralysis, with nasty Headaches, belching gas, drowsiness after eating, and pain in the back.

I was induced to try 'Fruit-a-tives' and now for six months I have been entirely well". A. ROSENBERG,

AN AMERICAN TRIBUTE.

Mrs. R. Kaneen, St. Peter's Bay, has received the following statement, which speaks for itself:

G. H. Q. American
Expeditionary Forces.
My Fellow Soldier, Pte. Albert Kaneen.
Now that your service with the American Expeditionary Force is about to terminate I can not let you go without a personal word. At the call to arms, the patriotic young manhood of America eagerly responded and became the formidable army whose decisive victories testify to its efficiency and its valor. With the support of the nation firmly united to defend the cause of liberty, our army has executed the will of the people with resolute purpose. Our democracy has been tested, and the forces of autocracy have been defeated. To the glory of the citizen-soldier, our troops and a succession of brilliant offensives have overcome the menace to our civilization.

As an individual, your part in the world war has been an important one in the sum total of our achievements.
Whether keeping lonely vigil in the trenches, or gallantly storming the enemy's stronghold; whether enduring monotonous days of victory, or sustaining the fighting line at the front, each has bravely and efficiently played his part. By willing sacrifice of personal rights; by cheerful endurance of hardship and privation; by vigor, strength and indomitable will, made effective by thorough organization and cordial co-operation, you inspired the war-worn Allies with new life and turned the tide of threatened defeat into overwhelming victory.

With a consecrated devotion to duty and a will to conquer, you have loyally served your country. By your exemplary conduct a standard has been established and maintained never before gained by any army. With mind and body as clean and strong as the decisive blows you delivered against the foe, you are soon to return to the pursuits of peace. In leaving the scene of your victories, may I ask that you carry home your high ideals and continue to live as you have served—an honor to the principles for which you have fought and to the fallen comrades you leave behind.

It is with pride in our success that I extend to you my sincere thanks for your splendid service to the army and to the nation.

Faithfully,

JOHN J. PERSHING,

Commander-in-Chief, Private Albert Kaneen is a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Kaneen, St. Peter's Bay; also a brother of Sergt. J. R.
Kaneen, who is yet in England.

GRAND RECEPTION TO RETURNED SOLDIERS IN ANNANDALE

Tuesday evening July 8th the citizens of Annandale, Little Pond and Sailors Hope gathered at the new public hall, to welcome home some of their returned heroes from the war.
They were in and in some little way show their appreciation of the noble work done by them in the field of action. The new hall was crowded when the soldiers in uniform marched in to listen to one of the finest programs ever presented by the Annandale Dramatic Club. At an interval in the program an address was read by Mr. A. D. McDonald, and a most suitable gift made to all the returned men present, namely Pte.
Edward Robertson, Gr. Roy Howlett, Spr. C. M. Howlett, Gr. Harold Mc-Donald, Gr. Malo McDonald, Pte.
Cameron McDonald, Pte. Leman Black-ett, Lance Corporal Harry Tassell, Pte.
Joseph Mills, Pte. Samuel Chaffney, Pte. Charles Robertson. After the presentation a fitting reply was made by Gr. Roy Howlett, after which the returned men and friends set down to a table of good things provided by the ladies. The following is the address: To the veterans of the army and navy of the great war belonging to Annandale, Little Pond and Sailors Hope.—Oh, brave and noble fellow citizens we extend to you our gratitude for the splendid name you have won for yourselves through your heroic conduct wherever you have been sent during the great conflict that has largely through the bravery of you and your brother soldiers and sailors of the British Empire ended in victory to our Empire and its Allies.

During the months and years that you have been absent from us in body you have often been present in our thoughts in winning glory to yourselves. You have also brought glory to us and having you present with us again we hasten to make known to you how much we honor you and we believe we voice your thoughts as well as our own when we say we wish that those of your comrades belonging to those communities still absent were here tonight that we might honor them in this manner, knowing that what you have done is one of the things that is beyond all price. Yet believing it will be some small pleasure to you to this in a gathering of your fellow citizens on whose behalf you offered your lives to make it known to you that, that this will ever be one of the most sacred of our memories. We ask you to take this address and its accompanying gift as a tribute nobly earned and gratefully bestowed on behalf of the people of Annandale, John Norton, G. E. Laville.

Leod were presented with a purse of

Stockings That Cost Less Because They Wear Longer

Your boy is hard on stockings. Any normal, healthy boy is.
You can't keep him from climbing trees and fences. But you can get him stockings that will stand this usage—that will give him extra wear and look well too. Just ask your dealer for Buster Brown Stockings.

Buster Brown Stockings wear longer because we knit them from extra-long yarn with double-ply legs and three-ply heels and toes. We make sure of Buster Brown quality by spinning our own yarn. Our employees have had years of training, for special skill is necessary to knit Buster Brown Stockings.

You'll find them well-fitting and smoothly finished, for we knit good looks as well as durability into Buster Brown hosiery.
They look well at all times.

Sold everywhere. Ask your dealer for Buster Brown durable hosiery.

STOCKING

$25 each. Needless to say the gifts were much appreciated.

To our Returned Heroes:—We your friends and neighbors of Pt. Prim take this opportunity tonight to extend our heartiest welcome to you as possible for us, as a community and as individuals, to offer you on your return to your native land and home district.
After your brave and arduous work in defence of King and country and of those lofty ideals for which our nation and Allies have stood in this world wide war. When the call came in from our leaders for brave hearts to rise and front the foe you needed no pressure to make you respond you have fought and suffered that we at home might enjoy freedom and peace during those dreary years spent on the battlefields of France. Those years spent on the battlefields have brought you the record of duty bravely done we also wish to convey our heartfelt sympathy and gratitude to the parents of those brave boys who have made the supreme sacrifice for the cause of God and Humanity and now as God has seen fit to preserve you in the hour of danger we wish and pray that His protecting care will be with you in the future battle of life. In conclusion we ask you to accept this small gift as a token of our appreciation and best wishes for future happiness.
Signed on behalf of the inhabitants of Pt. Prim.

A GRAND RECEPTION

It is not often that one is privileged to participate in an affair so delightful as that which took place on Friday, June 20, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Jenkins, Albert Plains, when upwards of 130 friends and neighbors assembled together to welcome home their son, Lieut. W. L.
Jenkins, M.C., V.C., who enlisted in 1915 with the 98th Siege Battery and was with that unit all through his experiences in France. Special mention may be made of this brave hero, for he has won decorations that not only his parents, but his friends are proud. Mr. Wm. McMillan, on being elected chairman for the evening, welcomed home Lieut. Jenkins in a very appropriate speech. An address was then read by Mr. T. McLean, at the close of which he was presented with a substantial gift by Miss Martha Hynes. A very enjoyable program was arranged for the evening, being given on the illuminated lawn, which had been prepared for the occasion. At the close of the program luncheon was served in the house by the ladies. This enjoyable function was brought to a close by the singing of "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," and the National Anthem.
To Lieut. W. L. Jenkins, M.C., V.C.
We, your old friends, are gathered here this evening to congratulate you on your safe return from the most crucial war that has ever stained the annals of history. Indeed, you were the first in this community to listen to the call of duty. You did not wait for ennoblement but enlisted at the lowest step of the ladder and worked up bravely, honestly and honorably to enable you to merit the coveted honors you have won. Words of ours fall to express to you how greatly we appreciate the services you have rendered our King, our Country and our homes.

And now our sincere hope and wish is that the great Commander, who has watched over you in the past will do the same in the future and that you will be as successful in civil life as you have been in military.

Now, in conclusion, we ask you to accept this purse, not as a mere acknowledgement of our services, but as a small token of our respect for you. Hoping that you will enjoy health, strength and happiness, We are,

Your Friends.

To Our Country Customers

When we fitted up and moved into our new premises we had you all in our minds eye—it was our idea to have a
