BIRTHDAY GREETINGS—The many friends of Mr. John Williams, florist, one of Charlottetown's oldest citizens is today celebrating his 83th birthday. Although confined to his bed for some weeks Mr. Williams is keenly alert to the news of the day and looking forward to renewed health as the Spring advances.

ISLANDER HONORED.—Mr. William B. MacInnis of Concord, New Hampshire, who was recently nominated to the Council in the State Republican Primary election, has also been assigned by the Governor to represent him on the Board of Trustees for the New Hampshire Hospital. Mr. MacInnis is a former Islander and a brother of Mr. Alexander MacInnis of Lorne Valley. He is one of the leading business men of Concord, being connected with the Thorne Shoe Company one of the oldest and most exclusive shoe stores in New Hampshire. His recent appointment is a popular one, as everyone connected with the State Hospital, is very pleased to work with Mr. MacInnis in advancing the work this institution is doing in the care of the insane.

Messrs Geo. F. Ferguson and R. Allan Campbell, New London, were visitors to the city on Tuesday.

GLENWOOD AND VICINITY

Mr. Jago Sabine has returned to his home in West Point, after having undergone a successful operation for throat trouble in Prince County Hospital.

Mr. Ernest McPherson, who went to Summerside on a business trip on Monday, the 23rd, was among those who were storm-stayed. He arrived at his home in Dunblane on Friday night.

Quite a number of hockey fans from this vicinity attended the game played on Saturday evening between the O'Leary team and a team composed of members of the Glenwood and Milburn teams.

Her friends in this vicinity are pleased to learn that Mrs. John T. Stewart, formerly of West Point and now resident in O'Leary, is making satisfactory recovery, after a serious illness. Miss Erma Clements, R. N., of Hebron, Lot 8, has been in attendance.

The regular monthly meeting of Dunblane Women's Institute was held on Feb. 20th at the home of Mrs. Percy McPherson. Owing to the inclemency of the weather, the attendance was not as large as usual.

The meeting opened with singing, followed by the creed in union. Roll call was answered by valentine verse. In the absence of Mrs. Gillcash, Miss Jennie McPherson was appointed secretary. The minutes of last meeting were read and adopted.

Motion passed that all business arising out of the minutes be left over until next meeting. The sick committee reported having visited Mrs. Wm. A. Gilcash, Mrs. Chas. Livingstone and Mr. John A. McPherson. A bill for fruit for the sick was presented and paid.

The school committee reported that a blackboard brush was required. Motion passed that this brush be ordered. The secretary was authorized to purchase a map of the Maritimes which had been among the requirements previously reported. New committees were appointed as follows: Sick committee, The Misses Jennie McPherson and Margaret McDonald; School Committee, Mrs. Ralph McIsaac and Mrs. D. A. McPherson.

A report from the concert committee gave the proceeds of the concert at $650.50. The next meeting is to be answered with jokes. The place of meeting was not decided definitely. Meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem. Members present, 5; visitors, 12; receipts, $235.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, of Springfield, were visitors to this vicinity on Sunday, when they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bulger.

Mr. Ernest McPherson, who went to Summerside on a business trip on Monday, the 23rd, was among those who were storm-stayed. He arrived at his home in Dunblane on Friday night.
