

CHARLOTTETOWN AND QUEEN'S COUNTY

It pays to buy in this Province. There were no cases before the police court in this city yesterday.

John Horne, Winsloe, recently shipped fifteen fine horses to the mainland via the Earl Grey.

James Gordon, Appin Road, was a visitor to this city yesterday.

Miss Katie Deegan, Cape Traverse, was among the recent visitors to the city.

H. O. Vaughan, Montreal, the well known commercial man, was among the passengers to Georgetown yesterday afternoon.

Ernest McInnis, China Pt. who has been spending a week in this city the guest of James Eden, has returned to his home.

Notice of appeal to the Supreme Court at Ottawa from the Court of Appeal in Equity here has been given in the case of Carvell vs Aitken and others.

Mrs. W. E. Callbeck and son who have been visiting the former's parents, John and Mrs. Way of Hunter River, leave this morning en route for their home in Calgary, Alta. Her father will accompany them as far as Pictou.

The Canada Monthly for February gives a glimpse into some Ottawa homes and illustrates the article very nicely.

The following note from Haverhill will be of interest to the many friends here of Mr. Costello: "Louis Costello, of Haverhill, Mass., has secured a position as agent for the Pueloan Loan Insurance Co. of America. His many friends here join in wishing him success in his new business."

The death occurred at his home in Lower Kingscler, N.B., on the 10th inst of George Kitchen, retired contractor and father of Willard Kitchen the contractor who built the Murray Harbor Branch of the P. E. Island Railway. Deceased was reported to be one of the wealthiest men in New Brunswick.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Ellen Doyle, City, took place yesterday afternoon from her late residence to St. Andrew's Cathedral and thence to the R. C. Cemetery. There was a large following of friends of the deceased. She is survived by four sisters and two brothers, her husband having predeceased her some years.

The St. Croix, N.B., Courier says that Cyrus McKinnon, ledger keeper in the Bank of Nova Scotia, has been granted a month's leave of absence on account of poor health and left this week for his home in Charlottetown, P.E.I. His duties are being performed by Ellery Johnson of St. George, who has been with the St. John branch of the bank for some time.

Since the opening of the iceboat mail service at St. John's this year 19th crews have been doing commendable work. The ice and weather conditions have often been extremely unfavorable yet but few trips were missed and in nearly all cases good time was made in crossing. Their work has been heartily commended on all sides.

Another of the popular carnivals of the Arena Rink was held on Tuesday evening, a large number of skaters and promenaders being in attendance. The costumes were varied nicely, the humorous predominating, and a splendid evening of hearty recreation and amusement was pleasantly spent.

A teacher's Bible was presented to Mrs. John Waye, Hunter River, recently by nine of the young women of her Sunday School Bible Class. The gift was highly appreciated, and the names of the donors were as follows:—Mae Silliphant, Louisa Andrews, Martha Beaton, Alice Large, Margaretta Smith, Hazel Van der Vliet, Lizzie Silliphant, Beatrice Van der Vliet, Lulu Silliphant.

The government steamer Aberdeen was ordered by the marine department to proceed to Cape Race on lightship work. She was to have sailed on Saturday afternoon but at 4 o'clock the firemen struck and refused to go, alleging that a voyage to the lighthouse at this time of year would be dangerous on account of ice. Chief Engineer Stewart tried to get other firemen to take their places but so far has failed. About 18 men went on strike and last night only one had been secured.—Halifax Exc. (The Aberdeen is frequently here on Marine Department service.)

Then we operate a Lens grinding plant, the only one on the Island—by which we can turn out almost any special kind of lens required, without loss of time.

The West Kent School hockey team of this city planning an excursion to Montague where they are to play a game with the High School team of that place. The W. K. S. boys are eagerly looking forward to their trip and are prepared to give a good account of themselves in the match.

If we are not now doing your optical work, we would like to be given a trial.

The High School team of Montague have several victories to their credit, as also have the W. K. S. team, and they will prove worthy foemen for the latter. They are anxious to meet a Charlottetown School team and as the trip will necessitate the boys remaining in Montague over night they will be the guests of the Montague boys at Smith's Hotel. Arrangements are now being completed and the trip will be made this or the following Friday. When the West Kent team goes to the enterprising eastern town, they will be accompanied by quite a number of their friends and schoolmates.
