Being of a quiet and retiring disposition he lived much on himself, but to those who knew him he was a man of true worth. He leaves to mourn the loss of a thoughtful and considerate father, two sons—J. D. Stewart, Georgetown; and D. J. Stewart, Lower Montague. The funeral, which was largely attended, was from his late residence to Lower Montague Cemetery, the services being conducted by the Rev. W. D. Wilson, Montague.—B.
