

WEEK'S NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

TUESDAY

ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS—The matriculation examinations at the University of New Brunswick...

DEATH OF MRS. LOUIS SPENCE—There passed away at her home in Bedouet about 11.20 Saturday night...

TEACHER APPOINTED—Mr. Roy Gilmore, Belfast, has been appointed teacher for York School for the present year...

THOUGHTFUL GIFT—Mr. George P. Nicholson, City Clerk, has generously presented to the hospital a handsome flag pole...

TEACHER APPOINTED—At a meeting of the School Board last evening, the resignation of Miss Elaine Bennett and Nora MacKenzie...

MONCTON MAN IS FREED—Carl Steves, Moncton, was acquitted Saturday of a charge of attempting to murder Miss Luella Lund, Moncton...

FAREWELL SERMON—The United Church (Moncton) was packed Sunday evening June 24 when Rev. E. S. Weeks, M. A. B. D. following a successful eight weeks' tour of the Salubrious United Church group...

ISLAND LADY DEAD—Friends in Grand River and vicinity will regret to hear of the sudden death of Mrs. Alfred Pitts of Quincy, Mass. who died at her home in Grand River...

FORMERLY OF CHARLOTTETOWN—Rev. W. M. Ryan, D. D. reached his farewell sermons here Trinity United Church, Windsor, N. S. on Sunday evening June 24th...

RELATIVES IN P. E. I.—Miss Annette Chappell, Tokyo, Japan, is visiting on her way to the United States at the home of Dr. E. K. Shedd, the home of Dr. E. K. Shedd, the home of Dr. E. K. Shedd...

INJURED IN ACCIDENT—An elderly man, Alvin Hastings, of St. John's, was struck by a car on Saturday morning at 9.20 a.m. on the corner of St. John's Street and the main highway...

PASSING OF MRS. PAUL WEDGE—There passed away in the home of her son, Mr. Paul Wedge, on Saturday morning, June 27th, at the age of 72 years...

PRETTY WEDDING—A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday morning, June 27th in St. John's Church at Misouche, when Miss Adeline Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Perry, of St. Nicholas, was united in marriage to Albert Arsenault, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Arsenault, of St. Charles, Charlottetown...

ESCAPED SERIOUS INJURY—Cyril H. Little, six years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Little, of Bangor, Maine, narrowly escaped serious injury on Saturday evening when she fell from the door of her father's car while it was travelling at about thirty miles an hour...

WEDDING BELLS—A very pretty wedding was effected in the home of Mr. C. P. Yeo, Kensington, at 8 p. m. on June 27th. The daughter, Miss Florence Dunbar Yeo, was given in marriage to Mr. David Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Loring, performed the ceremony. The contracting parties were unattended. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Loring. The bride-plecpicked up and was taken immediately to the Prince County Hospital, where the little one received medical attention. It was found that her injuries were merely superficial ones and on Sunday evening Miss Cynthia was feeling well enough to get up. She had suffered mostly from shock. Her family expect to return to Bangor today.

ON VACATION—Miss Betty MacLeod, switchboard operator of the Carleton Hotel, is at present on her vacation, and is visiting her home in Prince Edward Island. Halifax Chronicle.

TEACHER APPOINTED—Mr. Roy Gilmore, Belfast, has been appointed teacher for York School for the present year. Mr. Roy Vesey, the former teacher is returning to college.

THOUGHTFUL GIFT—Mr. George P. Nicholson, City Clerk, has generously presented to the hospital a handsome flag pole, which was used for the first time on Dominion Day and which was much appreciated by the hospital management.

TEACHER APPOINTED—At a meeting of the School Board last evening, the resignation of Miss Elaine Bennett and Nora MacKenzie from the staff of Prince Street School were accepted with regret. Miss Jean Ross was appointed to the staff of the school. Other appointments were allowed to stand over.

MONCTON MAN IS FREED—Carl Steves, Moncton, was acquitted Saturday of a charge of attempting to murder Miss Luella Lund, Moncton, daughter of Rev. J. L. Lund, Tryon, P. E. I. Evidence showed Miss Lund had been struck over the head with a bottle and piece of pipe on the night of May 9. She was not badly injured.

FAREWELL SERMON—The United Church (Moncton) was packed Sunday evening June 24 when Rev. E. S. Weeks, M. A. B. D. following a successful eight weeks' tour of the Salubrious United Church group, visited at the farewell sermon. Many from the other churches were present. Mr. Weeks worked harmoniously and fraternally with the other churches here and was deservedly popular with all. In their departure for their new home at Millville, they were accompanied by a large number of neighbors. (Moncton Times). Prior to leaving for Millstream, Rev. and Mrs. Weeks and daughter Jean were the recipients of several addresses and tangible tokens of good will and esteem.

ISLAND LADY DEAD—Friends in Grand River and vicinity will regret to hear of the sudden death of Mrs. Alfred Pitts of Quincy, Mass. who died at her home in Grand River, N. S. on Saturday evening June 24th. Mrs. Pitts, who was in the prime of life, was suddenly stricken and removed to a Boston hospital. All that medical skill and kind nursing could do was of no avail and she passed peacefully away. Deceased was possessed of a very kind, jovial disposition and in places of affliction her entrance was like a ray of sunshine. She leaves to mourn a son, Alfred Pitts, and two daughters, Mrs. R. A. MacDougall, of Elm-street, and Mrs. J. H. Deane, of St. John's, Quincey, Mass. Requiescat in Pace.

RELATIVES IN P. E. I.—Miss Annette Chappell, Tokyo, Japan, is visiting on her way to the United States at the home of Dr. E. K. Shedd, the home of Dr. E. K. Shedd, the home of Dr. E. K. Shedd...

INJURED IN ACCIDENT—An elderly man, Alvin Hastings, of St. John's, was struck by a car on Saturday morning at 9.20 a.m. on the corner of St. John's Street and the main highway...

PASSING OF MRS. PAUL WEDGE—There passed away in the home of her son, Mr. Paul Wedge, on Saturday morning, June 27th, at the age of 72 years...

PRETTY WEDDING—A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday morning, June 27th in St. John's Church at Misouche, when Miss Adeline Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Perry, of St. Nicholas, was united in marriage to Albert Arsenault, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Arsenault, of St. Charles, Charlottetown...

ESCAPED SERIOUS INJURY—Cyril H. Little, six years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Little, of Bangor, Maine, narrowly escaped serious injury on Saturday evening when she fell from the door of her father's car while it was travelling at about thirty miles an hour...

WEDDING BELLS—A very pretty wedding was effected in the home of Mr. C. P. Yeo, Kensington, at 8 p. m. on June 27th. The daughter, Miss Florence Dunbar Yeo, was given in marriage to Mr. David Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Loring, performed the ceremony. The contracting parties were unattended. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Loring. The bride-plec-

THAT THE CITY COUNCIL should accede to any request for a reasonable reduction in rates on the Charlottetown Forum was the opinion expressed by a resolution of a meeting of citizens held in the Board Room of the City Building last evening. His Worship Mayor Kennedy, who occupied the chair, announced the purpose of the meeting, remarking that the Forum was a community project, an artificial link, begun by a number of prominent public citizens.

THE death occurred at Newton, Upper Falls, Mass., on Wednesday last of Arthur S. J. Gillis, aged 48, a son of Mr. Neil Gillis and the late Mrs. Gillis of Belfast. The deceased was employed in the Concrete Pipe Company and was so badly injured by an explosion which followed the ignition of a barrel of tar and gas that he passed away later in the Newton Hospital. The body arrived on the Island Monday night.

ON FRIDAY EVENING, June 15th, the members of the "Busy Bee" class of Zion Sunday School held a very enjoyable social at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Fred Shaw, the object of the social being to present one of their members, Miss Pauline McKinnon, to the teaching staff of the Sunday School, with a little token of remembrance of the pleasant hours spent together.

DIED IN BOSTON—Word was received yesterday morning by Mr. D. B. Macdonald of Bedouet, the death that morning of Daniel D. Macdonald of Boston, after an illness of about three months. Mr. Macdonald was a native of Seven Mile Bay and had resided in Summerside for many years before he went to the United States. He was a chartered member of the Summerside branch of the C. M. B. A.

FUNERAL OF MRS. PAUL WEDGE—The funeral of Mrs. Paul Wedge was held on Tuesday morning from her late residence to St. Paul's Church, at 10 a.m. There was a large attendance of friends to pay their last respects to the deceased. Rev. Bennett Macdonald celebrated the Requiem Mass, while Rev. G. J. MacLellan, D.D., V.G. read the last rites at the grave. The pall bearers were Mr. J. MacKay, Fred Murphy, Henry Gaudet, Henry Perry, S.

ISLANDER TAKES COMMAND—A Prince Edward Island master mariner, Captain W. G. MacLellan, Charlottetown, is now in command of the United Fruit Company passenger liner Tivives which is engaged in the trade out of New York City. Captain MacLellan is a son of Mr. Horace MacEwan, former superintendent of the Island division C. N. R. and Mrs. MacEwan and a brother of Mr. Ross MacEwan, chief train despatcher C. N. R. here.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Mrs. Louis Spence was held on Tuesday afternoon from her late home in Bedouet to Searlestown Cemetery and there was a very large attendance. Rev. Mr. Archibald conducted the service and was assisted by Messrs. Elias Schurman, Edward Gardiner, Louis Pearson and Frank Jewell. Interment was in the family plot at Searlestown.

FUNERAL OF EDMUND E. DOYLE—The funeral of Edmund E. Doyle was held on Thursday morning from the residence of his uncle, Mr. John J. MacNally of Summerside, to St. Paul's Church and cemetery. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends. Rev. Bennett Macdonald celebrated the Requiem High Mass and was assisted by Rev. J. MacLellan, D.D., V.G. The pall bearers were Messrs. Hazen MacLellan, Fred Daley, Fred MacLeod, Fred Callaghan, Benjamin Schurman and Dr. R. L. Noonan, S.

ATTENDING PROFIT-HILLS WEDDING—Among the guests at the wedding of Rev. Samuel B. Profit and Mrs. Muriel Eileen Hills at North Bedouet on Wednesday afternoon, June 27th, were Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Dewar of Summerside; Mr. and Mrs. John King, Mrs. Herbert Kingsbury and little son, Buddy, of Halifax, N. S.; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morehouse, Montserrat, and Mr. Charles Ritchie of St. John's, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Profit of Preetown, S.

BITTEN BY A DOG—Mr. Joseph M. Hardman of Dorchester, Mass., was brought to the Prince County Hospital on Wednesday evening suffering from the effects of a bite from a dog. Mr. Hardman is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gaudet of St. Christopher, near Tignish, and while in the house the dog rushed at him inflicting a bad wound on his right arm. Mr. Hardman is now resting comfortably and it is hoped will not have any serious after effects from the wound. Mr. Hardman is a man about fifty years of age.

FAREWELL PARTY—Miss Blanche Hughes, Kensington, who is leaving town to enter a training school for nurses in the near future, was given a farewell party by the young people on Thursday night, June 27th, when all the guests had assembled, Miss Edna Champion was called on to read an address to the guest of honor, while Miss Mary Power presented the accompanying gift. Miss Hughes expressed her gratitude in a few heart felt remarks. Delicious refreshments were served by the girls and an enjoyable dance program was carried out. Miss Hughes' many friends wish her every success in her chosen profession.—K.

FRASER-THOMPSON—At St. Andrew's Church, Westville, N. S., Saturday evening, June 30th, with Rev. Roy J. Stewart as the officiating clergyman, a marriage ceremony was performed, the contracting parties being Miss Agnes Thompson, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Thompson, Westville, and William Thomas Fraser, Rocklin. The young couple were unattended and they will visit a few days at Charlottetown and other places before returning to Upper Church Street and will be followed by the best wishes of their Westville relatives and friends.—Halifax Herald.

MOTORED FROM CALIFORNIA—Mrs. Charlott Allen Langer and son, Allen, are visiting on the Island, the guests of Mrs. Langer's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Percy F. Allen of Albany. Mrs. Langer is the daughter of the late Gabriel and Mrs. Allen and has a host of friends on the Island who are delighted to welcome her back. Mrs. Langer motored from California and will return after a short stay, visiting the World's Fair in Chicago on her return to California where she has made her home for the past twelve years. Her many friends wish her a pleasant trip and a bon voyage.

WEDDING BELLS—A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock in North Bedouet United Church when Mrs. Muriel Eileen Hills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John King of Halifax, N. S., was united in marriage to Rev. Samuel Bernhart Profit, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Profit of Preetown. The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and

DAMAGES CASE—The case of Wong Fong vs. Frederick D. Cordwell an action for damages, was heard on Friday at the Supreme Court. The case was argued by Mr. J. J. Johnston, K.C., for the plaintiff and by Mr. J. J. Johnston, K.C., for the defendant. The jury will return a verdict on the case on Saturday.

DEATHS—SPENCE—At Bedouet on June 30, 1934, Lewis W. Spence, aged 77 years. SPENCE—At Bedouet on June 30, 1934, Mrs. Lewis W. Spence, aged 77 years. EASTER—At the P. E. I. Hospital on Sunday July 1, 1934, Charles Nelson Easter in his 73rd year. NICHOLSON—Suddenly at her home in Mount Stewart, June 29, 1934, Mrs. Samuel Nicholson, aged 54 years. MACGIGAN—In this City, July 4, Kathleen A. MacGigian, dearly beloved wife of Dr. J. D. MacGigian, aged 50 years.

HUNT—At Seattle, Wash., on Sunday, July 1st, Emma Louise Hunt, widow of the late Douglas S. Hunt, in her 77th year. WEDGE—At the Prince County Hospital Saturday, June 30, 1934, Mary Anselmi, beloved wife of Paul Wedge, Summerside. GILLIS—At Walsley, Mass., on Thursday, June 28, 1934, Arthur S. Gillis. Funeral on Tuesday July 3rd, leaving the Montserrat plants. Rev. J. W. A. Nicholson performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and friends of the bride and groom. The ushers were Mr. Robert Dewar and Mr. Arthur Morehouse. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely wedding gown of green silk organza with hat and accessories in matching shades. She carried a lovely bouquet of bridal roses. Her sister, Mrs. Arthur Morehouse, of Montreal, was matron of honor, and was attired in white silk organza with hat and shoes to match. She carried a bouquet of spring flowers. Mr. Allison Profit acted as best man. The wedding was officiated by Rev. J. D. Lewis, who was very effectively "At Dawning." Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Profit. After a short honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Profit will reside in Sussex, N. B. where Rev. Mr. Profit has accepted the pastorate of the United Church. The Guardian joins their many friends in hearty congratulations.

Melville Edward, dearly beloved son of Mr. and Mrs. Kasey Macdonald, passed away at the City Hospital June 30, 1934, at the age of 18 months. The service was held from the home of his parents, 51 King St.

At a meeting of the unemployed held last evening in the L. E. U. Hall, a resolution was adopted whereby it was agreed that in the event of a man being refused relief by a clergyman that the matter be placed in the hands of the Unemployed Committee for adjustment. The meeting was called for the purpose of hearing the report of the committee appointed some time ago to wait on the Government and the City Council. Mr. Daniel Coughlin presided.

C. P. R. REPRESENTATIVE HERE—Mr. C. B. Andrews, District Passenger Agent, Canadian Pacific Railway, Saint John, N. B., was in the city yesterday, and in company with the local representative, Col. Davidson, called upon a number of the company's customers. Mr. Andrews is optimistic regarding business in general and the C. P. R. is in particular, being of the opinion from experience and survey of the situation that the tide has turned toward renewed prosperity.

THE death occurred at Donaldson, City Hospital, June 15th, of William King, aged 56 years. The deceased King apparently in good health was stricken suddenly at 9 A. M. and passed away about two hours later. The late Mr. King was born at St. James, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Stewart King, but the greater part of his life was spent in Donaldson where his cheerful disposition and unassuming manner won him a host of friends.

FUNERAL OF EDMUND E. DOYLE—The funeral of Edmund E. Doyle was held on Thursday morning from the residence of his uncle, Mr. John J. MacNally of Summerside, to St. Paul's Church and cemetery. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends. Rev. Bennett Macdonald celebrated the Requiem High Mass and was assisted by Rev. J. MacLellan, D.D., V.G. The pall bearers were Messrs. Hazen MacLellan, Fred Daley, Fred MacLeod, Fred Callaghan, Benjamin Schurman and Dr. R. L. Noonan, S.

ATTENDING PROFIT-HILLS WEDDING—Among the guests at the wedding of Rev. Samuel B. Profit and Mrs. Muriel Eileen Hills at North Bedouet on Wednesday afternoon, June 27th, were Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Dewar of Summerside; Mr. and Mrs. John King, Mrs. Herbert Kingsbury and little son, Buddy, of Halifax, N. S.; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morehouse, Montserrat, and Mr. Charles Ritchie of St. John's, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Profit of Preetown, S.

BITTEN BY A DOG—Mr. Joseph M. Hardman of Dorchester, Mass., was brought to the Prince County Hospital on Wednesday evening suffering from the effects of a bite from a dog. Mr. Hardman is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gaudet of St. Christopher, near Tignish, and while in the house the dog rushed at him inflicting a bad wound on his right arm. Mr. Hardman is now resting comfortably and it is hoped will not have any serious after effects from the wound. Mr. Hardman is a man about fifty years of age.

FAREWELL PARTY—Miss Blanche Hughes, Kensington, who is leaving town to enter a training school for nurses in the near future, was given a farewell party by the young people on Thursday night, June 27th, when all the guests had assembled, Miss Edna Champion was called on to read an address to the guest of honor, while Miss Mary Power presented the accompanying gift. Miss Hughes expressed her gratitude in a few heart felt remarks. Delicious refreshments were served by the girls and an enjoyable dance program was carried out. Miss Hughes' many friends wish her every success in her chosen profession.—K.

FRASER-THOMPSON—At St. Andrew's Church, Westville, N. S., Saturday evening, June 30th, with Rev. Roy J. Stewart as the officiating clergyman, a marriage ceremony was performed, the contracting parties being Miss Agnes Thompson, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Thompson, Westville, and William Thomas Fraser, Rocklin. The young couple were unattended and they will visit a few days at Charlottetown and other places before returning to Upper Church Street and will be followed by the best wishes of their Westville relatives and friends.—Halifax Herald.

MOTORED FROM CALIFORNIA—Mrs. Charlott Allen Langer and son, Allen, are visiting on the Island, the guests of Mrs. Langer's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Percy F. Allen of Albany. Mrs. Langer is the daughter of the late Gabriel and Mrs. Allen and has a host of friends on the Island who are delighted to welcome her back. Mrs. Langer motored from California and will return after a short stay, visiting the World's Fair in Chicago on her return to California where she has made her home for the past twelve years. Her many friends wish her a pleasant trip and a bon voyage.

WEDDING BELLS—A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock in North Bedouet United Church when Mrs. Muriel Eileen Hills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John King of Halifax, N. S., was united in marriage to Rev. Samuel Bernhart Profit, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Profit of Preetown. The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and

DAMAGES CASE—The case of Wong Fong vs. Frederick D. Cordwell an action for damages, was heard on Friday at the Supreme Court. The case was argued by Mr. J. J. Johnston, K.C., for the plaintiff and by Mr. J. J. Johnston, K.C., for the defendant. The jury will return a verdict on the case on Saturday.

DEATHS—SPENCE—At Bedouet on June 30, 1934, Lewis W. Spence, aged 77 years. SPENCE—At Bedouet on June 30, 1934, Mrs. Lewis W. Spence, aged 77 years. EASTER—At the P. E. I. Hospital on Sunday July 1, 1934, Charles Nelson Easter in his 73rd year. NICHOLSON—Suddenly at her home in Mount Stewart, June 29, 1934, Mrs. Samuel Nicholson, aged 54 years. MACGIGAN—In this City, July 4, Kathleen A. MacGigian, dearly beloved wife of Dr. J. D. MacGigian, aged 50 years.

HUNT—At Seattle, Wash., on Sunday, July 1st, Emma Louise Hunt, widow of the late Douglas S. Hunt, in her 77th year. WEDGE—At the Prince County Hospital Saturday, June 30, 1934, Mary Anselmi, beloved wife of Paul Wedge, Summerside. GILLIS—At Walsley, Mass., on Thursday, June 28, 1934, Arthur S. Gillis. Funeral on Tuesday July 3rd, leaving the Montserrat

plants. Rev. J. W. A. Nicholson performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and friends of the bride and groom. The ushers were Mr. Robert Dewar and Mr. Arthur Morehouse. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely wedding gown of green silk organza with hat and accessories in matching shades. She carried a lovely bouquet of bridal roses. Her sister, Mrs. Arthur Morehouse, of Montreal, was matron of honor, and was attired in white silk organza with hat and shoes to match. She carried a bouquet of spring flowers. Mr. Allison Profit acted as best man. The wedding was officiated by Rev. J. D. Lewis, who was very effectively "At Dawning." Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Profit. After a short honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Profit will reside in Sussex, N. B. where Rev. Mr. Profit has accepted the pastorate of the United Church. The Guardian joins their many friends in hearty congratulations.

THE death occurred at Newton, Upper Falls, Mass., on Wednesday last of Arthur S. J. Gillis, aged 48, a son of Mr. Neil Gillis and the late Mrs. Gillis of Belfast. The deceased was employed in the Concrete Pipe Company and was so badly injured by an explosion which followed the ignition of a barrel of tar and gas that he passed away later in the Newton Hospital. The body arrived on the Island Monday night.

ON FRIDAY EVENING, June 15th, the members of the "Busy Bee" class of Zion Sunday School held a very enjoyable social at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Fred Shaw, the object of the social being to present one of their members, Miss Pauline McKinnon, to the teaching staff of the Sunday School, with a little token of remembrance of the pleasant hours spent together.

DIED IN BOSTON—Word was received yesterday morning by Mr. D. B. Macdonald of Bedouet, the death that morning of Daniel D. Macdonald of Boston, after an illness of about three months. Mr. Macdonald was a native of Seven Mile Bay and had resided in Summerside for many years before he went to the United States. He was a chartered member of the Summerside branch of the C. M. B. A.

FUNERAL OF MRS. PAUL WEDGE—The funeral of Mrs. Paul Wedge was held on Tuesday morning from her late residence to St. Paul's Church, at 10 a.m. There was a large attendance of friends to pay their last respects to the deceased. Rev. Bennett Macdonald celebrated the Requiem Mass, while Rev. G. J. MacLellan, D.D., V.G. read the last rites at the grave. The pall bearers were Mr. J. MacKay, Fred Murphy, Henry Gaudet, Henry Perry, S.

ISLANDER TAKES COMMAND—A Prince Edward Island master mariner, Captain W. G. MacLellan, Charlottetown, is now in command of the United Fruit Company passenger liner Tivives which is engaged in the trade out of New York City. Captain MacLellan is a son of Mr. Horace MacEwan, former superintendent of the Island division C. N. R. and Mrs. MacEwan and a brother of Mr. Ross MacEwan, chief train despatcher C. N. R. here.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Mrs. Louis Spence was held on Tuesday afternoon from her late home in Bedouet to Searlestown Cemetery and there was a very large attendance. Rev. Mr. Archibald conducted the service and was assisted by Messrs. Elias Schurman, Edward Gardiner, Louis Pearson and Frank Jewell. Interment was in the family plot at Searlestown.

FUNERAL OF EDMUND E. DOYLE—The funeral of Edmund E. Doyle was held on Thursday morning from the residence of his uncle, Mr. John J. MacNally of Summerside, to St. Paul's Church and cemetery. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends. Rev. Bennett Macdonald celebrated the Requiem High Mass and was assisted by Rev. J. MacLellan, D.D., V.G. The pall bearers were Messrs. Hazen MacLellan, Fred Daley, Fred MacLeod, Fred Callaghan, Benjamin Schurman and Dr. R. L. Noonan, S.

ATTENDING PROFIT-HILLS WEDDING—Among the guests at the wedding of Rev. Samuel B. Profit and Mrs. Muriel Eileen Hills at North Bedouet on Wednesday afternoon, June 27th, were Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Dewar of Summerside; Mr. and Mrs. John King, Mrs. Herbert Kingsbury and little son, Buddy, of Halifax, N. S.; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morehouse, Montserrat, and Mr. Charles Ritchie of St. John's, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Profit of Preetown, S.

BITTEN BY A DOG—Mr. Joseph M. Hardman of Dorchester, Mass., was brought to the Prince County Hospital on Wednesday evening suffering from the effects of a bite from a dog. Mr. Hardman is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gaudet of St. Christopher, near Tignish, and while in the house the dog rushed at him inflicting a bad wound on his right arm. Mr. Hardman is now resting comfortably and it is hoped will not have any serious after effects from the wound. Mr. Hardman is a man about fifty years of age.

FAREWELL PARTY—Miss Blanche Hughes, Kensington, who is leaving town to enter a training school for nurses in the near future, was given a farewell party by the young people on Thursday night, June 27th, when all the guests had assembled, Miss Edna Champion was called on to read an address to the guest of honor, while Miss Mary Power presented the accompanying gift. Miss Hughes expressed her gratitude in a few heart felt remarks. Delicious refreshments were served by the girls and an enjoyable dance program was carried out. Miss Hughes' many friends wish her every success in her chosen profession.—K.

FRASER-THOMPSON—At St. Andrew's Church, Westville, N. S., Saturday evening, June 30th, with Rev. Roy J. Stewart as the officiating clergyman, a marriage ceremony was performed, the contracting parties being Miss Agnes Thompson, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Thompson, Westville, and William Thomas Fraser, Rocklin. The young couple were unattended and they will visit a few days at Charlottetown and other places before returning to Upper Church Street and will be followed by the best wishes of their Westville relatives and friends.—Halifax Herald.

MOTORED FROM CALIFORNIA—Mrs. Charlott Allen Langer and son, Allen, are visiting on the Island, the guests of Mrs. Langer's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Percy F. Allen of Albany. Mrs. Langer is the daughter of the late Gabriel and Mrs. Allen and has a host of friends on the Island who are delighted to welcome her back. Mrs. Langer motored from California and will return after a short stay, visiting the World's Fair in Chicago on her return to California where she has made her home for the past twelve years. Her many friends wish her a pleasant trip and a bon voyage.

WEDDING BELLS—A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock in North Bedouet United Church when Mrs. Muriel Eileen Hills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John King of Halifax, N. S., was united in marriage to Rev. Samuel Bernhart Profit, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Profit of Preetown. The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and

DAMAGES CASE—The case of Wong Fong vs. Frederick D. Cordwell an action for damages, was heard on Friday at the Supreme Court. The case was argued by Mr. J. J. Johnston, K.C., for the plaintiff and by Mr. J. J. Johnston, K.C., for the defendant. The jury will return a verdict on the case on Saturday.

DEATHS—SPENCE—At Bedouet on June 30, 1934, Lewis W. Spence, aged 77 years. SPENCE—At Bedouet on June 30, 1934, Mrs. Lewis W. Spence, aged 77 years. EASTER—At the P. E. I. Hospital on Sunday July 1, 1934, Charles Nelson Easter in his 73rd year. NICHOLSON—Suddenly at her home in Mount Stewart, June 29, 1934, Mrs. Samuel Nicholson, aged 54 years. MACGIGAN—In this City, July 4, Kathleen A. MacGigian, dearly beloved wife of Dr. J. D. MacGigian, aged 50 years.

HUNT—At Seattle, Wash., on Sunday, July 1st, Emma Louise Hunt, widow of the late Douglas S. Hunt, in her 77th year. WEDGE—At the Prince County Hospital Saturday, June 30, 1934, Mary Anselmi, beloved wife of Paul Wedge, Summerside. GILLIS—At Walsley, Mass., on Thursday, June 28, 1934, Arthur S. Gillis. Funeral on Tuesday July 3rd, leaving the Montserrat

plants. Rev. J. W. A. Nicholson performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and friends of the bride and groom. The ushers were Mr. Robert Dewar and Mr. Arthur Morehouse. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely wedding gown of green silk organza with hat and accessories in matching shades. She carried a lovely bouquet of bridal roses. Her sister, Mrs. Arthur Morehouse, of Montreal, was matron of honor, and was attired in white silk organza with hat and shoes to match. She carried a bouquet of spring flowers. Mr. Allison Profit acted as best man. The wedding was officiated by Rev. J. D. Lewis, who was very effectively "At Dawning." Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Profit. After a short honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Profit will reside in Sussex, N. B. where Rev. Mr. Profit has accepted the pastorate of the United Church. The Guardian joins their many friends in hearty congratulations.

Melville Edward, dearly beloved son of Mr. and Mrs. Kasey Macdonald, passed away at the City Hospital June 30, 1934, at the age of 18 months. The service was held from the home of his parents, 51 King St.

At a meeting of the unemployed held last evening in the L. E. U. Hall, a resolution was adopted whereby it was agreed that in the event of a man being refused relief by a clergyman that the matter be placed in the hands of the Unemployed Committee for adjustment. The meeting was called for the purpose of hearing the report of the committee appointed some time ago to wait on the Government and the City Council. Mr. Daniel Coughlin presided.

C. P. R. REPRESENTATIVE HERE—Mr. C. B. Andrews, District Passenger Agent, Canadian Pacific Railway, Saint John, N. B., was in the city yesterday, and in company with the local representative, Col. Davidson, called upon a number of the company's customers. Mr. Andrews is optimistic regarding business in general and the C. P. R. is in particular, being of the opinion from experience and survey of the situation that the tide has turned toward renewed prosperity.

THE death occurred at Donaldson, City Hospital, June 15th, of William King, aged 56 years. The deceased King apparently in good health was stricken suddenly at 9 A. M. and passed away about two hours later. The late Mr. King was born at St. James, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Stewart King, but the greater part of his life was spent in Donaldson where his cheerful disposition and unassuming manner won him a host of friends.

FUNERAL OF EDMUND E. DOYLE—The funeral of Edmund E. Doyle was held on Thursday morning from the residence of his uncle, Mr. John J. MacNally of Summerside, to St. Paul's Church and cemetery. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends. Rev. Bennett Macdonald celebrated the Requiem High Mass and was assisted by Rev. J. MacLellan, D.D., V.G. The pall bearers were Messrs. Hazen MacLellan, Fred Daley, Fred MacLeod, Fred Callaghan, Benjamin Schurman and Dr. R. L. Noonan, S.

ATTENDING PROFIT-HILLS WEDDING—Among the guests at the wedding of Rev. Samuel B. Profit and Mrs. Muriel Eileen Hills at North Bedouet on Wednesday afternoon, June 27th, were Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Dewar of Summerside; Mr. and Mrs. John King, Mrs. Herbert Kingsbury and little son, Buddy, of Halifax, N. S.; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morehouse, Montserrat, and Mr. Charles Ritchie of St. John's, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Profit of Preetown, S.

BITTEN BY A DOG—Mr. Joseph M. Hardman of Dorchester, Mass., was brought to the Prince County Hospital on Wednesday evening suffering from the effects of a bite from a dog. Mr. Hardman is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gaudet of St. Christopher, near Tignish, and while in the house the dog rushed at him inflicting a bad wound on his right arm. Mr. Hardman is now resting comfortably and it is hoped will not have any serious after effects from the wound. Mr. Hardman is a man about fifty years of age.

FAREWELL PARTY—Miss Blanche Hughes, Kensington, who is leaving town to enter a training school for nurses in the near future, was given a farewell party by the young people on Thursday night, June 27th, when all the guests had assembled, Miss Edna Champion was called on to read an address to the guest of honor, while Miss Mary Power presented the accompanying gift. Miss Hughes expressed her gratitude in a few heart felt remarks. Delicious refreshments were served by the girls and an enjoyable dance program was carried out. Miss Hughes' many friends wish her every success in her chosen profession.—K.

FRASER-THOMPSON—At St. Andrew's Church, Westville, N. S., Saturday evening, June 30th, with Rev. Roy J. Stewart as the officiating clergyman, a marriage ceremony was performed, the contracting parties being Miss Agnes Thompson, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Thompson, Westville, and William Thomas Fraser, Rocklin. The young couple were unattended and they will visit a few days at Charlottetown and other places before returning to Upper Church Street and will be followed by the best wishes of their Westville relatives and friends.—Halifax Herald.

MOTORED FROM CALIFORNIA—Mrs. Charlott Allen Langer and son, Allen, are visiting on the Island, the guests of Mrs. Langer's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Percy F. Allen of Albany. Mrs. Langer is the daughter of the late Gabriel and Mrs. Allen and has a host of friends on the Island who are delighted to welcome her back. Mrs. Langer motored from California and will return after a short stay, visiting the World's Fair in Chicago on her return to California where she has made her home for the past twelve years. Her many friends wish her a pleasant trip and a bon voyage.

WEDDING BELLS—A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock in North Bedouet United Church when Mrs. Muriel Eileen Hills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John King of Halifax, N. S., was united in marriage to Rev. Samuel Bernhart Profit, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Profit of Preetown. The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and

DAMAGES CASE—The case of Wong Fong vs. Frederick D. Cordwell an action for damages, was heard on Friday at the Supreme Court. The case was argued by Mr. J. J. Johnston, K.C., for the plaintiff and by Mr. J. J. Johnston, K.C., for the defendant. The jury will return a verdict on the