..IT PAYS to buy in this Province.

..MR. HAROLD P. GORDON is the Georgetown Guardian representative.

..WELCOME VISITOR.—Rev. Wm. Hartman, a former pastor of the Methodist Church, in Montague visited that place for a few days last week, renewing old acquaintances and making new ones.—T.

..MENTIONED IN DESPATCHES.—Miss Eleanor Gordon of Brudenell, who left New York with the Howard Nursing Unit, and who is now one of the nurses in No. 2 Canadian Stationary Hospital, France, has recently been mentioned by Sir Douglas Haig for valuable services rendered. Miss Pope, of Charlottetown, is matron of the above named hospital. G.

..SERIOUSLY ILL.—Mrs. Capt. Porrior, Montague, who has been so very ill for the past few weeks, is in just about the same condition. Her two sons Harry and Willie, who were called to her bedside, have returned to their respective homes. Harry to Halifax in the service of his country, and Willie to Quebec, where he holds a position in a bank. Capt. Porrior will remain at home until there is a change in his wife's condition.—T.

..A TRIBUTE.—At the home of Capt. Dewar, Montague, on Wednesday morning, June 19th, there passed to the world beyond, Linsay Moore, eldest son of the late Dr. Moore of this place. It seems young to die at 21 years, but Linsay had been ill for many months. In his last illness he was waited on patiently and lovingly, by his mother, Mrs. Ethel Moore who had been a nurse of high standing in Boston, for a number of years. His friends cannot but admire the courage and endurance of this brave woman through all her life, and especially as she bore this great sorrow, the loss of her son, alone; for her husband was taken from her several years ago. Surely God who loves righteousness and hates iniquity, will give this Christian mother a crown of life, adorned with many jewels, for all the trials through which she has passed. Besides the mother there is left to mourn one brother John, and two sisters, Ena and Mrs. Nelson, all at home. The funeral services, which were conducted by the Rev. C. E. Armstrong, of the Christian Church were held on Friday afternoon, June 21st, and was largely attended. The floral tributes were magnificent, among them being a pillow from Christian Church Sunday School and a wreath from the choir. The burial was in Lower Montague Cemetery.—T.

..SCHOOL CLOSING.—Montague school closed on June 28th, and on July 2nd, a number of its students will commence taking the examinations for entrance to P. W. College. This school has done splendid work, for the past year. In all departments except one, in this room the teachers were changed three times during the year, thereby making it impossible for the most enthusiastic student to do his best work. It is hoped this year, that this room of bright students will have a fair chance, and that no teacher will engage who does not intend to stay the entire year. It is pleasing to report that the capable and efficient principle Miss Bearsto, will be here another year. No teacher could be ore painstaking and thorough than Miss Bearsto has been for the past year, and her friends are glad of this opportunity of showing their appreciation.—T.

HE HOLDS MY HAND

Altho' afflictions path I tread, I read it not alone, For the dear Hand that placed me here Is clasped within my own, Oh, do not think my way is drear, Tho' it may seem to be, For my Lord walks close beside me—Light of my life is He.

I lean upon the arm which He Did unto me extend; He came to me Himself and said, "I'll be to thee a Friend." Yea, more than a friend He's proved to be, My Jesus Whom I love, For He to save my soul from death, Came down from heaven above.

He speaks sweet words of comfort, "Lo, I am with thee still, Tho' dark clouds round thee gather, "I forsake thee never will." I'm thankful that He drew me in From the rude world's rough high-way.

That I might learn His precepts, And love His law alway. I thank Him for the things I've missed The fleeting joys of time; They would but dull my senses For the things that are sublime.

The purer joys which unto all Who seek are freely given— The blessed assurance of God's love The sweet foretastes of heaven.

This joy perpetual flows to me, Out from the throne of grace; I'll praise Him 'mong His people Within His holy place. None from His hand can pluck me now.

For He supreme in power, Doth hold me fast beyond the reach Of foes that would devour.

Flow on ye deeps, swell high ye tides, Earthquake or rocks be riven, My bark shall weather every storm, For my anchor is in heaven. I will not fear, for day and night God's angels round me stand, In health or sickness, pain or death, My God will hold my hand.

..RECUPERATING IN ENGLAND.—William McLaren, son of Lemuel McLaren, Brudenell, who has been in France for some time, fighting the Hun, is now in Roxburgh, England qualifying for a gas instructor.—T.

..CHILDRENS DAY.—Next Sunday will be Childrens Day at the Christain Church, Montague. The program this year is very educating along missionary lines, and it is hoped everyone will find it entertaining as well. The offering this year as usual, is for Foreign Missions.—T.

..A NARROW ESCAPE.—As Mr. Joseph Mellish, Union Road, King's Co., was sitting quietly in his home last week, his house took fire from a defective chimney, and but for the timely school lance of the neighbors it was, the roof is almost completely gone, and a lot of damage done by water. Thinking they could not save the house, the firemen removed all furniture, etc., took off doors, and out-windows, and now, as Mr. Mellish has no housekeeper, he will have quite a time to get his house in apple-pie order again. The writer thinks it is up to the girls of the community to see that this gentleman has his house straightened up. There was no insurance. T

WELL SATISFIED WITH BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Once a mother has used Baby's Own Tablets for her little ones she will use nothing else. Experience teaches her that the Tablets are the very best medicine she can give her baby. They are a gentle laxative, mild but thorough in action and never fail to banish constipation, colic, colds or any other of the many minor ailments of childhood. Concerning them Mrs. J. Bte. Charest, St. Leon, Que., writes:—"My baby cried continually and nothing seemed to help her till I began using Baby's Own Tablets. These Tablets soon set her right and now I would not be without them." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

"I want you, Henry, to help me to make him jealous—awfully, wildly jealous." "All right—let's get married."

Why He Kept Moving A Richmond darkey called upon an old friend, who received him in a rocking chair. The visitor at once observed not only that his host did not rise, but that he continued to rock himself to and fro in a most curious way, similar to that of a person suffering from a colic. "You ain't sick, is you, Harrison?" asked the caller anxiously. "No, I ain't sick, Mose," said Harrison. A moment's silence, during which the caller gazed wide-eyed at the rocking cure. "Den," continued Mose, "why in goodness does you rock yo'self dat way all de time?" Harrison paused not in his oscillations, as he explained: "Yo' know dat 'good-fur-nothin' Bill Blott? Well, he done sold me a silver watch fo' five dollars, an' ef I stops movin' like dis, dat watch don't go!"

SUPPLICATION. Oh God, our sons are toiling up the road, To Calvary, With wounded feet and sweat of agony. They follow thee. Great Christ, do Thou go with them up that way, They travel now, Lighten their load and wipe the bloody sweat From off their brow. Grant that from this their cup of bitter woe They may not shrink, But know that Love Divine that fail eth not Hath bid them drink. Dear Jesu, guard their lips lest bitterly They curse the foe; Thy great forgiveness of Thine enemies Teach them to know, In this their crucifixion hour we beg That they may be E'en as the dying thief upon the cross— Quite safe with Thee. In Sad Gethsemane the mothers pray, "Thy will be done," Grant to each heart the Comforter may say, "He keeps thy son." —Lillie A. Brooks.
