STRAW HATS, ETC.
SANTIAGO, Chile, Feb. 26.—The Prince of Wales and Prince George who arrived yesterday by plane from Antofagasta, may set new styles in this Latin American land which is one of the last to adhere to the traditional dark dress.
 When the British Princes arrived they were wearing straw hats of the sailor type, with light grey suits and colored shirts, and Santiago hatters said today there had been a considerable rush for sailor hats as a result. Straws have been little worn here before, and some of them were black.
 It is Prince George who has set the hearts of Chilean girls fluttering rather than his elder brother, the Prince of Wales.
 Prince George's smile, his reserved manner and his striking good looks have drawn the opinions of the Chilen maidens so that the Prince of Wales, hitherto known as the conqueror of feminine hearts the world over, now has a great competitor in his younger brother.

EARTH
LONDON, Feb. 26.—Professor J. B.
 Haldane, famous British biologist, has given the weight of his great authority to support the theory that the human race did not originate in any one place on earth. It is his belief that at least four different places cradled the human race.
 He bases his conclusions on a study of blood transfusions, which has shown that people of the world are divided into four blood groups, each type being quite distinct and unaffected by environments.
 A study of these blood groups, he says, have enabled modern peoples to be divided on broad lines according to their origin. It has shed a new light on the migration of peoples and has tended to discount accepted theories of anthropology.

NO DEPRESSION TALK
IN PRETORIA'S TRADE
PRETORIA, South Africa, Feb. 26.— There is no serious depression talk in Pretoria and the leading merchants here appear to take a very optimistic view of the alleged "depression" in Pretoria at least. The general opinion is that Pretoria's trade has been quite fair during the past year, though the public in many cases have been looking for less luxurious articles than previously. Where there is a drop in business, it is invariably attributed to decrease in prices and not to a tendency to buy. Signs of improvement are evident and, with confidence in the future, Pretoria can be said to have passed the worst of the bad times.
 One merchant says he thinks the merchants all have less stock than a year ago. This is a good sign, as it enables them to buy on a large scale when times improve. The manager of a music salon says the average trade during the year has been reasonable.
 An outfitter says Pretoria has passed the worst. Over-trading and the bad state of the agricultural industry has influenced trade. Things might improve quickly if the banks were not so stringent with their money.
 A manager of a draper's store says he has never sold so many luxury articles as during this past Christmas season. The public bought freely.
 Judging from their trade, there was no depression in Pretoria at the end of 1930.

Text Of By-Law
Re Fire Brigade
Provision Made For Complete Re- organization Of Department.

Following is the text of the by-law regulating the Charlottetown Fire Department as passed by the City Council this week:
 1. The Fire Department of the City of Charlottetown shall consist of a chief, who shall be styled "the fire chief" and shall be chief of the fire brigade of the said city, an assistant chief, who shall be first lieutenant of the brigade, a fire hall engineer, an assistant engineer, and a fire brigade, consisting of two fire companies organized as hereinafter provided.
 2. There shall be a Fire Board which shall consist of the members of the fire committee of the City Council (whose Chairman shall be chairman of the board). The chairman of the Commissioners of Sewers and Water Supply of the said City, or a member thereof, designated by them, and the fire chief; such board shall, subject to control of expenditure by the City Council, have full control of the organization and maintenance of efficiency of the department, shall hear and determine all matters of dispute between or among officers and members as they may deem to be properly cognizable by them, and shall recommend to the council all changes, improvements or additions to the efficiency of the department which may require the action of the council. They shall exercise no control of or authority over the actual working or conduct of the department while engaged at a fire.
 They may appoint a competent person to be secretary of the Board and to be paid as the council may direct.
 3. The Fire Chief, assistant fire chief, fire hall engineer and assistant fire hall engineer shall each be appointed by the City Council, to hold their respective positions during the pleasure of the Council, and shall receive such salary as the City Council shall from time to time determine.

Duties of Fire Chief 4. The Fire Chief shall have full command and control at all fires.
 He shall direct all proper measures for extinguishing fires, protecting property therefrom, preserving order thereat, and enforcing the laws, ordinances and regulations respecting fires. All members of the fire department and all fire apparatus shall be under his control until dismissed or returned to the fire hall.
 He shall at any fire have authority by himself or through his fire captains to require any person there present to assist in the extinguishment of such fire in such reasonable manner as he may deem fit, or in the protection or removal of property thereat or therefrom, and to require the use of any vehicle readily accessible for the like purpose; and any person refusing or failing to assist as so required or to allow the use of such vehicle when required shall be guilty of an infraction of this by-law. The fire chief shall keep records of all fires and calls in such form and with such particulars as the fire board may require, and keep such other records and make reports as said board may direct.
 5. The Assistant Fire Chief shall assist the Chief in all his duties, and shall in the absence of the Fire Chief at a fire perform his duties and exercise his authority. The Fire Chief shall not absent himself from the City or make himself unavailable for duty without first informing the chairman of the Fire Board and the Assistant Fire Chief of the intended absence or unavailability and its probable duration. In the absence of both Fire Chief and As-

Provision For Two Companies.
 7. There shall be two companies, one a hose company, which will have the operation at fires of all hose, chemical engines, extinguishers, and pumping engines, and which will consist of a captain and nineteen members, and the other a hook and ladder company, which will have the working at fires of the ladder trucks and all ladders carried thereon, and which will consist of a captain and nine men. Either company may be enlarged on the order of the Fire Board with the authority of the Council to include a Salvage Corps or otherwise to increase efficiency.
 8. The first volunteer captain of each company shall be chosen by the Fire Chief, on approval of the Council, and shall be removable by them in their discretion. All succeeding captains shall be chosen in accordance with the regulation of the company as properly passed and approved, but shall be subject to approval of the Fire Chief, who may appoint a captain to act pending such approved choice.
 9. Each company may by majority of its members pass such regulations as it thinks fit governing the organization and conduct of the company, provided that such shall not be repugnant to any part of this by-law, or in any way limit the authority of the Fire Chief as hereinbefore set out; such regulations shall require the approval of the Fire Board and shall not otherwise have any force or effect.

Age Limit Specified
 10. Each fire captain shall choose from volunteers (out of the present Fire Brigade so far as possible) such number of members, to be approved by the Fire Chief to form his company as herebefore provided, such men to be of good character and physical ability and to be between the ages of 21 and 50 years, and shall thereafter keep his company up to such number (not retaining any man permanently impaired in physique or over 50 years of age, which requirement of physique and age shall also apply to the Fire Captains) by adding members approved by the Fire Chief, and as described above, by appointing, election or otherwise as his company's regulations shall require; it shall be his duty to remove any member for cause, or repeated or unwarranted failure to respond to call, and shall, if his company to such remuneration therefor as the City may provide by way of insurance for our benefit. We undertake to accept all grants of money made us hereafter by the City as gratuities given in appreciation of regularity of service and not otherwise.

Speaking
Of Sports
BY HENRY McLEMORE
 United Press Staff Correspondent
Ruth Looks Ahead
 For Three Seasons
 George Herman Ruth, the well-known man about the bases, is just about ready to begin his 17th year in major league baseball.
 Now 17 years is a long time even in a cork factory with work no more strenuous than tossing the light stuff about in baseball, 17 years is a lifetime.
 Thus, the question naturally arises
 "How much longer will the Babe be around?"
 Ruth, just before embarking upon Florida, said he felt much younger than 37 years and argued he would be in big league baseball for at least three more years. He reinforced his argument by saying he never felt better in his life and that his legs—the same pair which have carried his big frame all these years—seem in perfect condition.
 "It is to be hoped that the Babe is right in his prediction. Not until he passes will the national sport know how much Ruth has meant, not only in the little matter of drawing people through the gate, but in the more important matter of making the business of walking through the turnstiles worth while.

Badge of Authority
 12. The Fire Chief and Assistant Fire Chief or acting Fire Chief shall at every fire plainly display a badge indicating their respective ranks so that their authority over all persons thereat may not be questioned.
 13. No person shall at any time by any means impede free and ready access to any fire hydrant, nor shall any person do anything at or near a fire whereby any equipment or apparatus of the fire department might reasonably be injured or made unavailable for immediate use.
 14. The Fire Chief shall at every fire procure a proper area about the fire to be kept clear of persons and vehicles for the free operation of the department. He may mark off and limit by ropes or otherwise such areas of the streets and adjacent properties as he shall think fit, and remove and keep all persons and vehicles therefrom, except such as he may for special reasons admit. Any person entering upon such areas so limited without his consent or failing or delaying upon request to remove himself or his vehicle from such area whether limited or not, shall be guilty of an infraction of this by-law.
 15. Any person guilty of an infraction of any of the provisions of this by-law shall upon conviction by the Stipendiary Magistrate of the said City forfeit and pay in the discretion of said Magistrate a penalty not exceeding Thirty Dollars, exclusive of costs, and in default of payment thereof it shall be lawful for said Magistrate to commit the offender to the common jail of said City for a period not exceeding Thirty Days unless the said penalty and all costs and charges be sooner paid.

MARKS OFFERINGS
OF PARIS HOUSES
PARIS, Feb. 26.—The average woman is to have it all her own way this season when it comes to dress, if we are to judge by the collections shown by Paris couturiers up to date.
 There is a definite reaction away from romantic periods and too distinctive styles, though there is plenty of variety in details and fabrics.
 Garconne suits will be revived by O'Rossen, and chemise frocks, belted at the normal waist, by Lyolene, but they are fitted in such a fashion as to escape the ban of mannishness.
 Suits are offered for every possible occasion from morn till midnight.
 For morning they are apt to be like O'Rossen's, so we will describe his.
 They have short jackets, fitted in back but not flaring, or three-quarter skirted coats or nearly long coats with a low flare by means of stitched pleats. Skirts are invariably false wrap-arounds, which means that they have a flat trouser seam on the right side, and on the left a generous low-stitched pleat. Inside blouses may be very feminine in lace or lace-trimmed georgette, or semi-dressy in checked printed mousseline or faconne tub silk, or they may be quite masculine in plain cotton with plastron collar and wash tie of checked cotton.
 Color contrasts are rampant, and a plain one-color suit or dress is rare.
 Lyolene makes very gay, youthful suits with checked or striped flannel skirt, cotton tunic or waistcoat, and plaincoat, and plain wool packet, very short and fitted. Her tunic blouses have the loose, easy fitting of peasant blouses, but they are so short they barely cover the hip bones. They are worn with string or leather belts tied in back by a bow of the skirt fabric.
 A man may be ungainly and still
 win out.

 George Herman Ruth, the well-
 in major league baseball.
 in a cork factory with work no more
 time.
 Thus, the question naturally arises
 be around?"
 Ruth, just before embarking upon
 in perfect condition.
 "It is to be hoped that the Babe
 is right in his prediction. Not until
 know how much Ruth has meant,
 the turnstiles worth while.

 shown by Paris couturiers up to date.
 of variety in details and fabrics.
 to escape the ban of mannishness.
 occasion from morn till midnight.
 For morning they are apt to be like O'Rossen's, so we will describe his.
 lace-trimmed georgette, or semi-
 checked cotton.
 Color contrasts are rampant, and a
 plain one-color suit or dress is rare.
 plaincoat, and plain wool packet,
 very short and fitted. Her tunic
 of the skirt fabric.
 win out.
