

MONDAY

BRIDAL SHOWER — On the evening of Jan. 6, a goodly number of friends, both young and old, from Augustine Cove, Trvon and vicinity, gathered at the home of Mr. John Howatt, to shower Mr. and Mrs. George Pratt, who were married a few weeks previous...

New System Of Fat Reduction

Here's a new way for all fat people to laugh together at that old bogey—Obesity. The saying that "there is nothing new under the sun" does not now apply to fat people any more. Here is something new for them—a new sensation, a new pleasure, a new and graceful figure, easily found by anyone who is passing beyond the limits of slimness...

By the death of Mr. Philip Large, another landmark of Charlottetown has been removed. He had almost reached the century mark, being in the 96th year of his age. The allotted span of man's life is 70 years, yet by greater strength, Mr. Large passed it by over a score of years...

TUESDAY

HOME FOR A REST — Mr. Lynn Giddings, a theological student at Mt. Allison University, has been obliged to give up his studies and return to his home, Murray River, on account of ill health. It is sincerely hoped that a complete rest will restore him to his usual robust health...

Sad it is to die so young, with life so full of promise and sadder still, is death when a life is translated from the happy scenes of domestic bliss, and loved ones are left to mourn.

It is with feeling of profound regret that we today chronicle the death of Edward Kelly, which occurred at his home, Waterville after a lingering illness. Although deceased had not been enjoying robust health for some time past, it was hoped by his friends that through medical aid and assiduous nursing that he would ere long be restored to his former vigor...

When their course of life seemed to glide along smoothly and evenly in their young existence, disease that tell destroyer, smote her and marked her for a victim. Truly she was the model wife, attending to the duties of a home which always marks the personality of the ideal woman. She realized that the family is the unit of society, and the nearer perfection approaches the merit, the nearer idealism will advance society...

There are hushes in the earth. Houses of mourning stand. Leave a dark and dismal place. Mr. J. A. Clark, Superintendent Experimental Farm, returned Sunday night from a three weeks trip to Ottawa, Montreal, Toronto and other points.

When their course of life seemed to glide along smoothly and evenly in their young existence, disease that tell destroyer, smote her and marked her for a victim. Truly she was the model wife, attending to the duties of a home which always marks the personality of the ideal woman. She realized that the family is the unit of society, and the nearer perfection approaches the merit, the nearer idealism will advance society...

There are hushes in the earth. Houses of mourning stand. Leave a dark and dismal place. Mr. J. A. Clark, Superintendent Experimental Farm, returned Sunday night from a three weeks trip to Ottawa, Montreal, Toronto and other points.

When their course of life seemed to glide along smoothly and evenly in their young existence, disease that tell destroyer, smote her and marked her for a victim. Truly she was the model wife, attending to the duties of a home which always marks the personality of the ideal woman. She realized that the family is the unit of society, and the nearer perfection approaches the merit, the nearer idealism will advance society...

There are hushes in the earth. Houses of mourning stand. Leave a dark and dismal place. Mr. J. A. Clark, Superintendent Experimental Farm, returned Sunday night from a three weeks trip to Ottawa, Montreal, Toronto and other points.

When their course of life seemed to glide along smoothly and evenly in their young existence, disease that tell destroyer, smote her and marked her for a victim. Truly she was the model wife, attending to the duties of a home which always marks the personality of the ideal woman. She realized that the family is the unit of society, and the nearer perfection approaches the merit, the nearer idealism will advance society...

There are hushes in the earth. Houses of mourning stand. Leave a dark and dismal place. Mr. J. A. Clark, Superintendent Experimental Farm, returned Sunday night from a three weeks trip to Ottawa, Montreal, Toronto and other points.

When their course of life seemed to glide along smoothly and evenly in their young existence, disease that tell destroyer, smote her and marked her for a victim. Truly she was the model wife, attending to the duties of a home which always marks the personality of the ideal woman. She realized that the family is the unit of society, and the nearer perfection approaches the merit, the nearer idealism will advance society...

Ah! Backache Gone! Rub Lumbago Away

Ah! Pain is gone! St. Jacobs Oil acts almost like magic. Quickly?—Yes. Almost instant relief from soreness, stiffness, lameness and pain follows a gentle rubbing with St. Jacobs Oil. But this soothing, penetrating oil right on your painful back, and relief comes. St. Jacobs Oil is a harmless backache, lumbago and sciatica remedy which never disappears and doesn't burn the skin. Straighten up! Quit complaining! Stop those torturous stitches. In a moment you will forget that you ever had a weak back, because it can't hurt or be stiff or lame. Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest St. Jacobs Oil from your druggist now and get this lasting relief.

ISLAND LADY DEAD.—The death occurred at her home, Hope Farm, Summer Street, N. Easton, Mass., after a few days illness of Mrs. Ambrose Callaghan, youngest daughter of the late Nicholas Conroy, M. L. A., Prince Edward Island.

There are left to cherish her memory a sorrowing daughter, also one sister, Miss Conroy, nurse of Boston, and three brothers, Frederick on the homestead, Tignish, George of Chicago and James of Pittsburg.

THURSDAY FROM ALBANY — Mr. Joseph Noonan, Albany, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Noonan informs the Guardian that the coal situation in his neighborhood was very trying during the cold weather.

In fact there was no coal to be had and owing to the depth of snow wood was almost impossible to procure. Mr. Noonan, in order to relieve the situation was fortunate in being able to secure a carload of coal which he purposes beginning to deliver today.

TEACHER APPOINTED.—At a special meeting of the School Board recently Mr. Hudson Morris was appointed teacher at Queen Square School in the place of Mr. John Cass, who is at present at St. Stanislaus Novitiate, Guelph, Ont. Miss Minnie McCourt, teacher at Queen Square was granted a month's leave of absence. It was regretted that Mr. Henry Smith, chairman of the Board, was unable to be present at the meeting.

MADE ROUND TRIP.—For the first time in several days the car ferry made the round trip yesterday. She left Borden at 9.30 a. m., reaching Tormentine at 3.15 p. m., leaving again at 6.20 p. m. and arriving at Borden just two hours later, 8.20 p. m. This is a promising sign that the ice conditions in the Straits are moderating. Capt. Reid intends leaving between 3 and 4 o'clock this morning to make a freight trip if the weather continues favorable. The Borden train reached Charlottetown last night at 12 o'clock.

OBSTINATE COUGH

When resistance is lowered and you come with a cold that runs into an obstinate cough, trouble is more than surface deep. You need a tonic to get your blood to nourish and enable you to get a fresh hold on strength. For nearly fifty years Scott's has been breaking up colds by building up strength.

On January 25th the death occurred at his home in Bedoue of Albert Aeneault at the age of 75. Although he was ailing for some time he was only confined to his bed a week when he passed away. Rev. Father Monaghan visited him and he died fortified by the last rites of the Catholic Church of which he was a true member all his life. He leaves to mourn three sons, Lawrence, Stephen and Fred and two daughters, Mrs. Moses DesRoche and Mrs. Anthony DesRoche; also one brother and two sisters. The funeral took place on Sunday the 28th at Seven Mile Bay Church and he was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery beside his wife who predeceased him just a year ago. May his soul rest in peace.

WEDNESDAY FIRE DAMAGES ROOF.—The firemen were called to the residence of Mr. A. A. Pomeroy, shortly after 1 p. m. yesterday for a blaze which did considerable damage to the roof. There was considerable damage throughout the house by water and smoke.

SAD BEREAVEMENT.—The death occurred in Summerside on Tuesday last of Miss Laura Baker, aged 29 years, daughter of Mrs. Barbour, Beaver Street. Deceased had suffered for eight months with an illness which she bore with patience and true Christian fortitude. She is survived by her mother and one sister, Rev. George S. Mitchell officiated at the funeral service at the house on Wednesday afternoon. The remains were forwarded later to Alma, her former home for interment.

THE YOUNG MEN'S CLUB OF St. James Church last evening enjoyed an interesting Radiophone concert accompanied by a short address upon the subject by Major Keith Rogers who reviewed the history of Radiophone from 1920 and the developments of broadcasting stations and between two and three million receiving stations, mostly in private houses. Broadcasting messages have been heard 4,500 miles distant, and on the occasion simultaneously in Hawaii and England.

COLLEGE DEBATE.—The debate Tuesday morning was the one honored subject "The Pen versus The Sword." Notwithstanding the antiquated nature of the subject a great many original arguments were introduced. Forceful addresses were made by all the speakers but the speech of the leader of the "Con" side is especially praiseworthy. The result of the vote was a tie. The critic censured the speakers on each side to consult together, divide the points and so prevent over-leaping. The speakers were: Pro—Jean Miller, Ruth Michon, Con—Ruth Ross, Horace Nelson, Verna Newsum.

LAI D TO REST.—The funeral of the late Mr. Henry Hine, whose death at the advanced age of 82 years, occurred in this city on Feb. 19th, took place Tuesday afternoon from St. Peter's Cathedral, thence to St. Peter's Cemetery. The late Mr. Hine was one of the few remaining Army pensioners on the Island and had served with the British forces in many parts of the world before coming here. He was for years caretaker at St. Peter's Cathedral and recently celebrated with Mrs. Hines the 60th anniversary of their marriage. His death occurred at the home of his son Mr. Chas. Hine, Rochford Street. Rev. Mr. Malone officiated at the funeral service Tuesday, the pall bearers being Messrs Henry Lowe, Harry Foster, Jas. Eden, T. E. MacNutt and Mr. Kelly.

WEDDING BELLS.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Palmer, Summerside, was the scene of a travelling, the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. A. MacQuarrie, M. D., who was to assist, was unable to be present. Miss A. Louise MacQuarrie, R. N., of Providence, R. I., was the bride's attendant, while John S. Mitchell, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, was the officiating clergyman. The bride wore an imported gown of ivory duchesse satin with long side panels of radium lace, looking very charming. Her bridegroom wore a tuxedo of black and white, a band of pearls. She carried a beautiful bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair fern, and she wore a magnificent rope of solid pearls, the gift of the groom. Miss Louise looked winsome in a gown of pink tulle with a white chentle and pearl trimmings. Her only ornament was a diamond ring on her finger, the gift to her by her groom. The groomsmen were Mr. and Mrs. A. MacQuarrie, M. D., who was to assist, was unable to be present. Miss A. Louise MacQuarrie, R. N., of Providence, R. I., was the bride's attendant, while John S. Mitchell, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, was the officiating clergyman. The bride wore an imported gown of ivory duchesse satin with long side panels of radium lace, looking very charming. Her bridegroom wore a tuxedo of black and white, a band of pearls. She carried a beautiful bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair fern, and she wore a magnificent rope of solid pearls, the gift of the groom. Miss Louise looked winsome in a gown of pink tulle with a white chentle and pearl trimmings. Her only ornament was a diamond ring on her finger, the gift to her by her groom.

RISE IN SUGAR AND TEA.—Two advances aggregating $1.00 per hundred pounds have been reported by wholesalers recently in sugar. This advance follows one of fifteen cents a week ago Saturday and ten cents the day previous, which, with two others of ten cents each, makes a total gain of $1.45 per hundred pounds since early 1923 to date. Local retail dealers, having former supplies on hand, are now selling at 10 cents a pound. The wholesale price is now about a hundred pounds is only a temporary advance in price, from ten to fifteen cents a pound, standard brands. A local merchant suggested to the Guardian that the people might use a great deal more bulk cocoa to advantage. The best grades of this commodity retail at 20 cents a pound. It is hoped that the advance in tea is also of a temporary nature, but in the meantime a general rush to purchase larger supplies would have the effect of keeping up the price.

ACCIDENT AT BORDEN.—Mr. J. A. Gaudet, Electrical Engineer at Borden Terminal sustained severe injuries yesterday morning about 11 o'clock. While oiling the overhead machinery which operates the aprons at the ferry, through some mishap he slipped and fell from the framework, falling quite a distance. He was severely hurt about the face, arms, and legs, as well as possibly some internal injuries about his chest. A doctor was summoned, and he is now resting easier. The doctor states, he does not think the internal injuries will prove serious, as there were no bones broken. Mr. Gaudet is a brother of Mr. Arthur Gaudet, business manager of the Patriot Publishing Company.

DRIVING ACCIDENT.—Slight injuries were sustained yesterday by Mr. J. F. Reardon, city, while driving a team into the gateway of his sample rooms Queen Street, slipped on the sleigh. His many friends hope to see him around again in a few days.

RE-BUILDING WORK ON Mr. S. A. MacDonald's store recently destroyed by fire, has commenced and it is expected that the new building when completed will be one of the most modern in the province. It will be four stories high, equipped with a modern electric passenger elevator. The Guardian was shown the plans yesterday. The building will be entirely of brick. The exterior design will contain more than eight large panels of plate glass. The interior arrangement of the new building will be entirely different to that of the old. The offices and stairways to the second floor are arranged at the rear of the building. A large light well on the roof will light the second and third floors, and a large gallery is situated so as to shed light to the center of the lower floor as well. Large plate glass windows have been placed in the rear and will afford excellent light throughout the building. A unique feature of the new store will be a bargain basement, used entirely for bargain purposes. The new store when completed will be larger and better than the old one, and will undoubtedly be a decided addition to Queen Street.

NEW LITERARY SOCIETY.—On February 17th a meeting was held in Wheatley River hall for the purpose of reorganizing the Literary and Debating Society. Mr. Norman Ling was appointed chairman. The election of officers followed: President—D. McDonald; Vice-Pres. T. D. Ling, Secy. T. W. Murrigh Treasurer, Harold Chandler, Committee, W. Ling, L. McCoubrey, H. Chandler. About thirty signed on as members and judging from the varied opinions which they hold about questions of the day we are assured that this will be the banner year of the society. The committee in charge of entertainment are determined to uphold their end of the bargain. The first debate will be held Saturday night. Subject resolved that disarmament is conducive of world peace.

ISLANDER DEAD.—Mrs. Malcolm Gillis of this city received a telegram Wednesday of this week announcing the death of her brother, Mr. Jacob C. Stewart, of Marshfield, in the Boston City Hospital, on Feb. 17th. The remains are being forwarded home for burial and funeral notice will be announced later. No particulars have been received as to the cause of death.

INTERESTING ADDRESS.—A very interesting talk on geology was given before the Rotary Club last evening by Mr. Hugh McKay of Sapulpa, Oklahoma, who is on the Island in connection with geological survey work for parties interested in oil and gas concessions. Mr. McKay illustrated his remarks with black-board illustrations. He outlined the geologic ages of the earth, described the theory of the formation of oil and gas deposits and handled the subject throughout in a most informative manner. A warm vote of thanks was tendered him at the conclusion of his address. A solo by Prof. Fletcher was also heard with pleasure. Rotarian J. A. Robertson presided at last night's largely attended meeting. Dr. Jas. Warburton and Dr. Alex. Ross were present as guests and were introduced by Rotarian J. A. Webster.

RE-BUILDING WORK ON Mr. S. A. MacDonald's store recently destroyed by fire, has commenced and it is expected that the new building when completed will be one of the most modern in the province. It will be four stories high, equipped with a modern electric passenger elevator. The Guardian was shown the plans yesterday. The building will be entirely of brick. The exterior design will contain more than eight large panels of plate glass. The interior arrangement of the new building will be entirely different to that of the old. The offices and stairways to the second floor are arranged at the rear of the building. A large light well on the roof will light the second and third floors, and a large gallery is situated so as to shed light to the center of the lower floor as well. Large plate glass windows have been placed in the rear and will afford excellent light throughout the building. A unique feature of the new store will be a bargain basement, used entirely for bargain purposes. The new store when completed will be larger and better than the old one, and will undoubtedly be a decided addition to Queen Street.

RE-BUILDING WORK ON Mr. S. A. MacDonald's store recently destroyed by fire, has commenced and it is expected that the new building when completed will be one of the most modern in the province. It will be four stories high, equipped with a modern electric passenger elevator. The Guardian was shown the plans yesterday. The building will be entirely of brick. The exterior design will contain more than eight large panels of plate glass. The interior arrangement of the new building will be entirely different to that of the old. The offices and stairways to the second floor are arranged at the rear of the building. A large light well on the roof will light the second and third floors, and a large gallery is situated so as to shed light to the center of the lower floor as well. Large plate glass windows have been placed in the rear and will afford excellent light throughout the building. A unique feature of the new store will be a bargain basement, used entirely for bargain purposes. The new store when completed will be larger and better than the old one, and will undoubtedly be a decided addition to Queen Street.

RE-BUILDING WORK ON Mr. S. A. MacDonald's store recently destroyed by fire, has commenced and it is expected that the new building when completed will be one of the most modern in the province. It will be four stories high, equipped with a modern electric passenger elevator. The Guardian was shown the plans yesterday. The building will be entirely of brick. The exterior design will contain more than eight large panels of plate glass. The interior arrangement of the new building will be entirely different to that of the old. The offices and stairways to the second floor are arranged at the rear of the building. A large light well on the roof will light the second and third floors, and a large gallery is situated so as to shed light to the center of the lower floor as well. Large plate glass windows have been placed in the rear and will afford excellent light throughout the building. A unique feature of the new store will be a bargain basement, used entirely for bargain purposes. The new store when completed will be larger and better than the old one, and will undoubtedly be a decided addition to Queen Street.

WEDDING BELLS.—At St. Joseph's Church, Edmonton, on Dec. 31st, a very pretty wedding was solemnized when Mr. W. J. Fleming Clyde, Alberta, and Miss Alberta MacNeill, formerly of Grand River, Lot 14, P. E. I., were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Patton in the presence of a large number of the friends and relatives. The bride looked charming in a navy blue tulle and hat to match. She was attended by her friend, Miss Gertrude MacKinnon of Edmonton, while Mr. William Mann, bank manager, Kissella, Alberta, kindly supported the groom. The bride and newlyweds were escorted to the altar by a young couple who were the recipients of a fully furnished bungalow at Clyde, where the groom's manager of Royal Bank, from the groom's father, Mr. William Fleming of Edmonton. A reception was held at the MacDonald Hotel where the friends of the bride and groom accompanied them to the honor to the occasion. The bride's evening gown was mustard satin crepe de chene with a corsage of roses, the bridesmaid's being black satin with silver trimmings. The following evening a banquet in honor of the happy young couple was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herb MacDonald, 106th St., in Mrs. MacDonald's usual good style. The groomsmen's gift to the bride was a set of Hudson seal fur, to the bridesmaid, a set of gold and jade earrings and to the groomsmen a pair of gold initialed cuff links. After a short honeymoon spent in Edmonton the happy couple left for their long, thin, strong and beautiful home in Clyde, where they reside.

RE-BUILDING WORK ON Mr. S. A. MacDonald's store recently destroyed by fire, has commenced and it is expected that the new building when completed will be one of the most modern in the province. It will be four stories high, equipped with a modern electric passenger elevator. The Guardian was shown the plans yesterday. The building will be entirely of brick. The exterior design will contain more than eight large panels of plate glass. The interior arrangement of the new building will be entirely different to that of the old. The offices and stairways to the second floor are arranged at the rear of the building. A large light well on the roof will light the second and third floors, and a large gallery is situated so as to shed light to the center of the lower floor as well. Large plate glass windows have been placed in the rear and will afford excellent light throughout the building. A unique feature of the new store will be a bargain basement, used entirely for bargain purposes. The new store when completed will be larger and better than the old one, and will undoubtedly be a decided addition to Queen Street.

RE-BUILDING WORK ON Mr. S. A. MacDonald's store recently destroyed by fire, has commenced and it is expected that the new building when completed will be one of the most modern in the province. It will be four stories high, equipped with a modern electric passenger elevator. The Guardian was shown the plans yesterday. The building will be entirely of brick. The exterior design will contain more than eight large panels of plate glass. The interior arrangement of the new building will be entirely different to that of the old. The offices and stairways to the second floor are arranged at the rear of the building. A large light well on the roof will light the second and third floors, and a large gallery is situated so as to shed light to the center of the lower floor as well. Large plate glass windows have been placed in the rear and will afford excellent light throughout the building. A unique feature of the new store will be a bargain basement, used entirely for bargain purposes. The new store when completed will be larger and better than the old one, and will undoubtedly be a decided addition to Queen Street.

RE-BUILDING WORK ON Mr. S. A. MacDonald's store recently destroyed by fire, has commenced and it is expected that the new building when completed will be one of the most modern in the province. It will be four stories high, equipped with a modern electric passenger elevator. The Guardian was shown the plans yesterday. The building will be entirely of brick. The exterior design will contain more than eight large panels of plate glass. The interior arrangement of the new building will be entirely different to that of the old. The offices and stairways to the second floor are arranged at the rear of the building. A large light well on the roof will light the second and third floors, and a large gallery is situated so as to shed light to the center of the lower floor as well. Large plate glass windows have been placed in the rear and will afford excellent light throughout the building. A unique feature of the new store will be a bargain basement, used entirely for bargain purposes. The new store when completed will be larger and better than the old one, and will undoubtedly be a decided addition to Queen Street.

WEDDING BELLS.—At St. Joseph's Church, Edmonton, on Dec. 31st, a very pretty wedding was solemnized when Mr. W. J. Fleming Clyde, Alberta, and Miss Alberta MacNeill, formerly of Grand River, Lot 14, P. E. I., were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Patton in the presence of a large number of the friends and relatives. The bride looked charming in a navy blue tulle and hat to match. She was attended by her friend, Miss Gertrude MacKinnon of Edmonton, while Mr. William Mann, bank manager, Kissella, Alberta, kindly supported the groom. The bride and newlyweds were escorted to the altar by a young couple who were the recipients of a fully furnished bungalow at Clyde, where the groom's manager of Royal Bank, from the groom's father, Mr. William Fleming of Edmonton. A reception was held at the MacDonald Hotel where the friends of the bride and groom accompanied them to the honor to the occasion. The bride's evening gown was mustard satin crepe de chene with a corsage of roses, the bridesmaid's being black satin with silver trimmings. The following evening a banquet in honor of the happy young couple was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herb MacDonald, 106th St., in Mrs. MacDonald's usual good style. The groomsmen's gift to the bride was a set of Hudson seal fur, to the bridesmaid, a set of gold and jade earrings and to the groomsmen a pair of gold initialed cuff links. After a short honeymoon spent in Edmonton the happy couple left for their long, thin, strong and beautiful home in Clyde, where they reside.

RE-BUILDING WORK ON Mr. S. A. MacDonald's store recently destroyed by fire, has commenced and it is expected that the new building when completed will be one of the most modern in the province. It will be four stories high, equipped with a modern electric passenger elevator. The Guardian was shown the plans yesterday. The building will be entirely of brick. The exterior design will contain more than eight large panels of plate glass. The interior arrangement of the new building will be entirely different to that of the old. The offices and stairways to the second floor are arranged at the rear of the building. A large light well on the roof will light the second and third floors, and a large gallery is situated so as to shed light to the center of the lower floor as well. Large plate glass windows have been placed in the rear and will afford excellent light throughout the building. A unique feature of the new store will be a bargain basement, used entirely for bargain purposes. The new store when completed will be larger and better than the old one, and will undoubtedly be a decided addition to Queen Street.

RE-BUILDING WORK ON Mr. S. A. MacDonald's store recently destroyed by fire, has commenced and it is expected that the new building when completed will be one of the most modern in the province. It will be four stories high, equipped with a modern electric passenger elevator. The Guardian was shown the plans yesterday. The building will be entirely of brick. The exterior design will contain more than eight large panels of plate glass. The interior arrangement of the new building will be entirely different to that of the old. The offices and stairways to the second floor are arranged at the rear of the building. A large light well on the roof will light the second and third floors, and a large gallery is situated so as to shed light to the center of the lower floor as well. Large plate glass windows have been placed in the rear and will afford excellent light throughout the building. A unique feature of the new store will be a bargain basement, used entirely for bargain purposes. The new store when completed will be larger and better than the old one, and will undoubtedly be a decided addition to Queen Street.

RE-BUILDING WORK ON Mr. S. A. MacDonald's store recently destroyed by fire, has commenced and it is expected that the new building when completed will be one of the most modern in the province. It will be four stories high, equipped with a modern electric passenger elevator. The Guardian was shown the plans yesterday. The building will be entirely of brick. The exterior design will contain more than eight large panels of plate glass. The interior arrangement of the new building will be entirely different to that of the old. The offices and stairways to the second floor are arranged at the rear of the building. A large light well on the roof will light the second and third floors, and a large gallery is situated so as to shed light to the center of the lower floor as well. Large plate glass windows have been placed in the rear and will afford excellent light throughout the building. A unique feature of the new store will be a bargain basement, used entirely for bargain purposes. The new store when completed will be larger and better than the old one, and will undoubtedly be a decided addition to Queen Street.

WEDDING BELLS.—At St. Joseph's Church, Edmonton, on Dec. 31st, a very pretty wedding was solemnized when Mr. W. J. Fleming Clyde, Alberta, and Miss Alberta MacNeill, formerly of Grand River, Lot 14, P. E. I., were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Patton in the presence of a large number of the friends and relatives. The bride looked charming in a navy blue tulle and hat to match. She was attended by her friend, Miss Gertrude MacKinnon of Edmonton, while Mr. William Mann, bank manager, Kissella, Alberta, kindly supported the groom. The bride and newlyweds were escorted to the altar by a young couple who were the recipients of a fully furnished bungalow at Clyde, where the groom's manager of Royal Bank, from the groom's father, Mr. William Fleming of Edmonton. A reception was held at the MacDonald Hotel where the friends of the bride and groom accompanied them to the honor to the occasion. The bride's evening gown was mustard satin crepe de chene with a corsage of roses, the bridesmaid's being black satin with silver trimmings. The following evening a banquet in honor of the happy young couple was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herb MacDonald, 106th St., in Mrs. MacDonald's usual good style. The groomsmen's gift to the bride was a set of Hudson seal fur, to the bridesmaid, a set of gold and jade earrings and to the groomsmen a pair of gold initialed cuff links. After a short honeymoon spent in Edmonton the happy couple left for their long, thin, strong and beautiful home in Clyde, where they reside.

RE-BUILDING WORK ON Mr. S. A. MacDonald's store recently destroyed by fire, has commenced and it is expected that the new building when completed will be one of the most modern in the province. It will be four stories high, equipped with a modern electric passenger elevator. The Guardian was shown the plans yesterday. The building will be entirely of brick. The exterior design will contain more than eight large panels of plate glass. The interior arrangement of the new building will be entirely different to that of the old. The offices and stairways to the second floor are arranged at the rear of the building. A large light well on the roof will light the second and third floors, and a large gallery is situated so as to shed light to the center of the lower floor as well. Large plate glass windows have been placed in the rear and will afford excellent light throughout the building. A unique feature of the new store will be a bargain basement, used entirely for bargain purposes. The new store when completed will be larger and better than the old one, and will undoubtedly be a decided addition to Queen Street.

RE-BUILDING WORK ON Mr. S. A. MacDonald's store recently destroyed by fire, has commenced and it is expected that the new building when completed will be one of the most modern in the province. It will be four stories high, equipped with a modern electric passenger elevator. The Guardian was shown the plans yesterday. The building will be entirely of brick. The exterior design will contain more than eight large panels of plate glass. The interior arrangement of the new building will be entirely different to that of the old. The offices and stairways to the second floor are arranged at the rear of the building. A large light well on the roof will light the second and third floors, and a large gallery is situated so as to shed light to the center of the lower floor as well. Large plate glass windows have been placed in the rear and will afford excellent light throughout the building. A unique feature of the new store will be a bargain basement, used entirely for bargain purposes. The new store when completed will be larger and better than the old one, and will undoubtedly be a decided addition to Queen Street.

RE-BUILDING WORK ON Mr. S. A. MacDonald's store recently destroyed by fire, has commenced and it is expected that the new building when completed will be one of the most modern in the province. It will be four stories high, equipped with a modern electric passenger elevator. The Guardian was shown the plans yesterday. The building will be entirely of brick. The exterior design will contain more than eight large panels of plate glass. The interior arrangement of the new building will be entirely different to that of the old. The offices and stairways to the second floor are arranged at the rear of the building. A large light well on the roof will light the second and third floors, and a large gallery is situated so as to shed light to the center of the lower floor as well. Large plate glass windows have been placed in the rear and will afford excellent light throughout the building. A unique feature of the new store will be a bargain basement, used entirely for bargain purposes. The new store when completed will be larger and better than the old one, and will undoubtedly be a decided addition to Queen Street.

WEDDING BELLS.—At St. Joseph's Church, Edmonton, on Dec. 31st, a very pretty wedding was solemnized when Mr. W. J. Fleming Clyde, Alberta, and Miss Alberta MacNeill, formerly of Grand River, Lot 14, P. E. I., were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Patton in the presence of a large number of the friends and relatives. The bride looked charming in a navy blue tulle and hat to match. She was attended by her friend, Miss Gertrude MacKinnon of Edmonton, while Mr. William Mann, bank manager, Kissella, Alberta, kindly supported the groom. The bride and newlyweds were escorted to the altar by a young couple who were the recipients of a fully furnished bungalow at Clyde, where the groom's manager of Royal Bank, from the groom's father, Mr. William Fleming of Edmonton. A reception was held at the MacDonald Hotel where the friends of the bride and groom accompanied them to the honor to the occasion. The bride's evening gown was mustard satin crepe de chene with a corsage of roses, the bridesmaid's being black satin with silver trimmings. The following evening a banquet in honor of the happy young couple was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herb MacDonald, 106th St., in Mrs. MacDonald's usual good style. The groomsmen's gift to the bride was a set of Hudson seal fur, to the bridesmaid, a set of gold and jade earrings and to the groomsmen a pair of gold initialed cuff links. After a short honeymoon spent in Edmonton the happy couple left for their long, thin, strong and beautiful home in Clyde, where they reside.

Those dizzy spells—a danger signal. You have dizzy spells and frequent headaches, poor appetite, nausea after eating. You tire easily, feel depressed and have disturbed slumber. These symptoms clearly indicate kidney trouble. The system is being poisoned. Take Gin Pills and take them at once! They act quickly. The poison is removed, the blood purified and normal healthy condition restored. Don't delay! Get a box today. NATIONAL DRUG & CHEMICAL CO. OF CANADA, LIMITED, TORONTO.

Grandma Used Sage Tea To Darken Hair. She Mixed Sulphur With it to Restore Color, Gloss, Youthfulness. Common garden sage brewed in a heavy tea, with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous. Just a few applications will prove revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, is to get a bottle. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store, all ready for use. This is the old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and lustrous.

Grandma Used Sage Tea To Darken Hair. She Mixed Sulphur With it to Restore Color, Gloss, Youthfulness. Common garden sage brewed in a heavy tea, with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous. Just a few applications will prove revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, is to get a bottle. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store, all ready for use. This is the old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and lustrous.

Brew a cup of Celery King. A "tea" of Nature's own herbs and roots—the finest laxative and blood purifier you can get. It gently cleanses the system of all impurities, banishes headaches, etc. 30c and 60c packages, at druggists.

A Croupy Cough. Brings dread to the mother's heart. For safety's sake, keep a bottle of Shiloh, the old time remedy, at hand. A very few drops makes the cough easier to cope, and taken regularly gives complete relief. 30c, 50c and $1.20. All druggists.

Shiloh FOR COUGHS. Brings dread to the mother's heart. For safety's sake, keep a bottle of Shiloh, the old time remedy, at hand. A very few drops makes the cough easier to cope, and taken regularly gives complete relief. 30c, 50c and $1.20. All druggists.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR IN A MOMENT. Try This! A Gleamy Mass of Luxuriant Hair. At once you can transform your plain, dull hair. You can have it abundant, soft, glossy and full of life. Just get a 35 cent bottle of "Danderine" in any drug store. Then moisten a soft cloth with the "Danderine" and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Instantly, immediately, you have done it. The beauty of your hair, its softness, its mass, so soft, so lustrous and so easy to do up. All that and excess too, all is removed. Let "Danderine" put new vigor and brightness in your hair. This stimulating tonic will treat your scalp, check dandruff and give your hair and help your hair to grow thick, strong and beautiful.