Harold Jenkins gave his very interesting lecture on Pioneer days in Prince Edward Island in St. James' schoolroom last evening to a well filled house. Mr. Jenkins is a very able and pleasing speaker and thoroughly understands his subject. He graphically compared Prince Edward Island in its primitive days with the present time. The lecture was beautifully illustrated by excellent views. T. C. James moved a hearty vote of thanks which was ably seconded by Dr. McNeill. Rev. T. F. Fullerton presided in his usual capable manner.

The lecture given by James Paton, in the First Methodist church last evening was highly interesting to those present. Mr. Paton vividly portrayed his recent visit to Egypt and the Holy Land, both by word picture and views, the latter being very especially interesting. Among the views shown were the Mount of Olives, the Garden of Gethsemane, the Jordan River, the City of Jerusalem and many other places of great interest, closely related to the Savior while on earth. John Newson very ably moved a vote of thanks, which was heartily seconded by F. Nash. His Worship Mayor Prowse presided very acceptably.

The third of the series of the "Winter Courses" given by Lodge Prince Edward, S. O. E. was held in their hall in this City last evening and was very largely attended by the members of both lodges. The principal event of the evening was an address by Brother C. H. Pruner on the life of the late Dr. Drummond. Those who had the pleasure of hearing Bro Pruner describe the life and wosks of this noted author were certainly treated to an hour of rare enjoyment—The address throughout was a good one, and well delivered, receiving merited applause from time to time—A hearty vote of thanks to the speaker brought the meeting to a close.

PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE

Provinces had a land tax, much higher than ours but it is paid to the municipalities. What difference whether it is paid to the county council or the Government?

Proceeding, he referred to the Infirmary now completed and for which he thought the Government entitled to credit. We had not many poor, but we still had some not provided for—not adapted to the poorhouse, the asylum or the hospital. These had to be cared for in private houses. Some of them had incurable diseases. Some place ought to be provided for these in the future, but in the meantime the poor and the insane have better provision made for them than ever before.

Coming to the telephone extension the Premier spoke of the great convenience and utility of the telephone and the desirability of the Government further assisting the work. Exhibitions last year had fine weather. He had formerly favored one central fair, but the county exhibitions had shown marked growth and improvement, and had abundantly justified themselves. He believed the Agricultural Department had done and would yet do a great work in promoting the welfare of this splendid Province of ours.

HON. JOSEPH READ remarked upon no one rising on the Oppotition side and commended their silence. Too often they talked ad nanseam. He proceeded to pay a tribute to the late Speaker Douglas. A Toronto paper had quoted a statement of the Opposition leader's idea of our claims at about $78,000,000. This was reducing our position to absurdity. He contended that our fishery claim is a good one. The jurisdiction is divided, as shown by the Privy Council decision. The foreshore fisheries belong to the Provinces, and the award should go to them. The bounties paid the fishermen are not the interest on the award. The Dominion would probably pay bounties as they now do, if the award was paid over to the Provinces. The claim for damage owing to the non fulfilment of the terms of union is a very difficult one. One element is that we have to throw our products on the market in the fall of the year. In this and other ways the amount cannot be computed. The interruption of cable service was like it in that the loss cannot be accurately estimated.

The constitution of Canada is an absolute absurdity as applied to Prince Edward Island. In the States Rhode Island has the same number of Senaeors as New York or Pennsylvania. Our constitution makes no provision for the protection of provincial rights. The unit of representation is one sixty-fifth of the population of Quebec under which provision we may cease to have any representation in the Commons at all. Quebec is rapidly growing. We are losing our representation. Quebec is being enlarged. Now is the time to assert our claim to our former representation before the next census reduces us to three members of the Commons. Proceeding Mr. Read touched upon the difficulties of marketing our produce to advantage, particularly potatoes which are perishable, will not keep in quantities and are destroyed by freezing. He enlarged upon the importance and necessity for the Tunnel. With that work completed we would have the same advantages as Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. We can produce sixty million bushels of potatoes as easy as we now grow six millions, if we had the market which the Tunnel will give us.

He was sorry to find the Ppposition still "chewing hay." He never handled a dollar of the hay money, or got a dollar of it. He had sacrificed his business interests in that matter for the public good. He felt that he was doing a public duty. He hoped to see double the entries at the Prince County exhibition this year. The seed fairs were of prime importance. Our seed oats sent to Manitoba was admittedly the best there and if prudence and judgment were exercised our trade in seed grain would become very large and profitable.

CAPT. READ continued till six o'clock when the House adjourned till 3 o'clock tomorrow.
