Accommodation For Exhibition Patrons

From inquiries and information which we have received we believe that the number of visitors from the neighboring provinces to the Provincial Exhibition this year will be much greater than last year. It is likely that the hotel accommodation will be insufficient.

We would therefore ask all those who have rooms or accommodation to please send or telephone any names, addresses and other particulars to the Prince Edward Island Tourist Association, Riley Building, Queen St., telephone 1100.

J. W. BOULTER, Secretary, Provincial Exhibition Association.

Entertainment At Community Boys Camp

Tuesday evening, August 10th, the community campers at Canoe Cove were entertained by the Quints Orchestra to a delightful musical program.

The numbers consisted of old time jigs and reels, and songs dear to the hearts of boys. They in their enthusiasm lustily joined the singing which added greatly to the pleasure of the occasion.

The boys so enjoyed the music by the Quints that to show their appreciation they had Walter Hennessey, one of the campers,
