WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday evening, Sept. 26th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Bulman, New Glasgow, when their daughter, Mabel Alma was united in marriage to William Ernest Clark, Cavendish. The bride looked charming as she entered the parlor, leaning on the arm of her father to the strains of the bridal chorus played by Miss Margaret Stewart of Bay View. Rev. John Sterling of Cavendish performed the ceremony while Mrs. Sterling sang softly "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden." The bride was beautifully dressed in white silk with bead trimmings and was attended by her cousin Miss Ruth Dickenson, New Glasgow, who was tastefully dressed in pale blue georgette crepe with bead ornaments, while Mr. Clarence Stewart, Bay View ably supported the groom. After the ceremony and usual congratulations, the party all repaired to the dining room where a sumptuous supper, gotten up in Mrs. Bulman's best style, was served to about sixty invited guests. The many presents go to show the popularity of the young couple including a number of cheques, the evening being pleasantly spent in music and games was interspersed with a large number of serenaders, who came to offer their congratulations, came to a close by singing the National Anthem. All wishing the bride and groom a long, happy and prosperous journey through life.

QUAHAUG FISHING.—Following representations with regard to the extension and opening up of areas for Quahaug fishing with the Marine Dept., during the past few weeks Mr. A. A. Lefurgey wired the Minister under date of Oct. 10th as follows: "On account of the absolute failure of oysters would recommend advising the Inspector of Fisheries as already recommended by him to your Department to re-open the season for Quahaugs if advisable in the interests of the fishermen. I brought this matter to the attention of the last Inspector some time ago for attention. It is necessary to act promptly." The following reply was received by Mr. Lefurgey from Hon. Mr. Hazen, Minister of Marine on the 11th. "Considering your previous representations and the recommendation received from Mr. Gallant Inspector of Fisheries owing to failure of oysters are arranging an extension of Quahaug season."

A GOOD YEAR'S WORK.—The ladies of Grace and First Methodist Churches at a meeting recently held summed up the results of their knitting for the soldiers during the past year. The count was a surprise to themselves as it will no doubt be to the public also. They knitted and forwarded to the boys in the trenches 1629 pairs of socks. Besides this they donated 73 suits of pyjamas and 30 night shirts to the Red Cross. The following have acknowledged receipt of socks for themselves or their comrades: Buller Murley, Charles Beer, Lem McDougall, Capt. Cross, Major Stanley, Wilfrid Dawson, Harold Weeks, Russel McDougall, Ernest Moore, Fred Moore, Gordon Haszard, Lieut. Hammond Johnson, Major Prowse, Major McKinnon and a number of others. The socks were done up in parcels of sixteen pairs each. The ladies are certainly to be congratulated in their magnificent work. They meet only once a week in the Hertz Memorial Hall where most of the knitting is done and all the plans made.

HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK

Mrs. J. A. Matheson entertained Friday evening of last week at four tables of bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Coombs are at present in Halifax spending a month at the Birchdale.

The Carpet Slipper Club is still keeping up its good work for patriotic purposes, while the meetings socially are just as enthusiastic as ever.

The many friends of Miss Olive Ings, daughter of Col. Ings of the 104th Batt. who is a V.A.D. in a London Hospital will regret to hear she has had her hand and arm severely burned by the explosion of a bottle of ether. It will be some months before she is able to resume her work.

Mrs. MacCreedy was hostess last Saturday evening at four tables of bridge.

Deepest Sympathy is being extended to His Honor the Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Macdonald in the death of their daughter Miss Helena which came as a shock to her many friends on Sunday last.

The best-known woman soldier is Mme. Vera Butchkaroff, the Colonel of a regular woman's regiment, listed in the Russian Army and serving under the same regulations as the men. The regimental clerk is Mme. Barbara Bukovskoff, editor of "The Weekly Woman and Economy." Another officer of this "Command of Death" is Miss Mary Skryatoff, daughter of the former Minister of the Baltic Fleet and Minister of Marine. It is composed almost entirely of women of the upper classes, many of whom were utterly unused to manual labor.

FOX BOOSTING NECESSARY

own hands, and without something is done to offset it, prices of ranch bred fox pelts will be forced down.

Mr. McClure, the sales manager of the P. E. Island association, is doing splendid work, but he should be backed up in his work by the ranchers. He cannot obtain high prices if the market price is low. What is the remedy, or is there one? There certainly is but it rests with the ranchers themselves. This remedy is to give the industry publicity and in this way educate the public and make them understand that ranch raised foxes are not only the equal but superior to the wild caught silvers.

The price of breeding foxes today is on a par with the pelt value. I contend that if a regular publicity campaign had been conducted during the past two years, good quality foxes would be selling at $3000 to $4000 a pair right at the present time; instead of at pelt prices, and my reason for making this statement is because if the publicity had been given probably 500 or 1,000 more people would have engaged in the industry which would have increased the demand.

Now without a publicity campaign is inaugurated, the furriers by their action will force the price of silver fox pelts much lower, and prices of breeding stock will also go down. This publicity campaign should take the form of articles and letters from prominent fox men, telling the public about this great industry, and should be given prominence in every magazine and newspaper in the country.

If this was done, it would not be long before the price of breeding foxes and fox pelts would be found to bring much higher figures than is now the case.

Where are all the men who used to write on this fox industry during 1912 and 1914. Are not the ranchers interested in making as much money as possible out of the industry in which they have their money invested?

I trust that these ranchers and writers will begin to realize the situation and become fully awake to it, and do their share towards preventing this industry from experiencing further reverses.

I am Sir, etc.,

LIEUT. MCLEOD'S FIRST FLIGHT

The following are extracts from letters, which have been received by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. D. McLeod, of Hunter River, from their son, Lieut. Elmer G. McLeod, since his return to France:

42 Squadron,
R.F.C., B.E.F.,
France.
6-9-17.

Dear Folks.—Wrote the whole family last Saturday and Sunday and sent you all a copy of my face. Trust they arrived in good condition.

I left Monday to report in London, but did not leave England till Wednesday, arriving at Squadron Thursday noon. They were just getting ready to move and we came away this morning. Am rather glad because our new place is behind the old battery, and some dull day I will be able to get up to see them.

Haven't had a chance to fly yet out here on account of the move, but next time I write I shall tell you about my first trip over the line. We are having this afternoon off till the mechanics get things in shape. Am sitting outside my hut in a French orchard. I remember rightly I wrote my first letter from France to you last year in an orchard. One thing, when not on duty we are in peace and quietness. This front is quiet now, and I am lucky in that since I will have an opportunity of learning the ropes without being shot down by an experienced Hun the first trip or so. Nash did not come with me. He will probably be out in a short time, and I am hoping it will be this squadron. Shall close now. Send my address to the girls. Don't worry about me. Love to you all.

ELMER.

Dear Folks.—I wrote you last week from this place. We were first getting settled then, and I hadn't been over the line. Have since. I was too busy keeping my place in the formation to know very much of what was going on, or even to know where we were. For mutual protection scouts fly in groups of four, five and upwards. Each machine has to keep a certain place relative to the other, and to a new man it is most difficult. Besides, there is the engine to watch an eye to be kept for enemy machines above or below, ears open for the burst of anti-aircraft shells, or Archie's as they are known, or for the pop-pop-pop of a Hun on your trail. To add to it there was a thick cloud bank directly over the lines and Hun land at a height of 20,000 feet—you can fancy, or perhaps you can't, just how busy I was—work is a good antidote to worry and consequently with so much on my mind at once there was no room for fear. We were Archie's as a matter of fact though I wasn't sure of it at the time. They burst high above us and were easy to elude. We had come down below the clouds and were crossing the trenches, going like fury for home. The Hun tried a shot or two at us but were soon away. So much for my first trip over. Haven't had any mail sent me from England yet, but come to think I could hardly expect any so soon. Told you that the Battery wasn't far away. One officer

RHEUMATISM GIVES IF HOOD'S IS USED

The genuine old reliable Hood's Sarsaparilla corrects the acid condition of the blood and builds up the whole system. It drives out rheumatism because it cleanses the blood. It has been successfully used for forty years in many thousands of cases the world over.

There is no better remedy for skin and blood diseases, for loss of appetite, rheumatism, stomach and kidney troubles, general debility and all ailments arising from impure, impoverished, devaluated blood.

It is unnecessary to suffer. Start treatment at once. Get a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla from your nearest druggist. You will be pleased with the results.

was down to see me on Friday. Will try to get up to see them all soon. Am keeping a diary or at least have up to date since going into R.F.C. Trust you are all well. Don't worry. With love to all.

ELMER.

THINK WAR WILL END THIS WINTER

BUENOS AYRES, Oct. 10.—Coincident with the American demand for Argentine hides to meet military orders and British buying as a result of the lifting of the leather embargo, the Germans here are buying heavily and their competition in the market is helping to increase prices. German brokers say they are buying on German government orders. They express confidence that the war will end in January or February. Prices of hides have risen twelve percent in the past ten days.

BEAVER BOARD FOR WALLS OF CHARACTER

If it hasn't the Beaver trade-mark it isn't Beaver Board

Finish off your attic—partition off a room in the basement—put new walls in your garage. Do it with Beaver Board. For your summer cottage, for your new home, for the club, the store or the office—Beaver Board. It takes the place of lath, plaster and wallpaper, gives you better walls and ceilings, more handsome, more sanitary, more durable.

There is every reason for—and none against your using Beaver Board. Get the genuine. It will pay you to be particular.

Better Walls and Ceilings

Use BEAVER BOARD instead of Lath and Plaster. It never cracks, needs repairing, does away with unsanitary wall paper; easily and quickly put up at any time of the year. Suits any kind of building.

Beaver Board is Specially Adapted for Cold Weather Repairing

No waiting as with Plaster. Beaver Board does not chip, crack, disintegrate or deteriorate. It makes the house warmer in winter, and cooler in summer. The first cost of Beaver Board is the only cost, and it improves with age.

Improved Sized Beaver Board is ready to be painted—no priming Coat required. Send for descriptive circulars.
