Mr. J. Smart, assistant controller of Canadian National Parks; Mr. R. W. Cautley, inspector of Parks; and Mr. Thomas Fenlon, all of the Parks Branch, of Ottawa, arrived in Charlottetown Saturday night.

THE NEW STAMPS—New postage stamps representative of the reign of King George VI have made their appearance in great quantities. The three-cent stamp carries the bust of the new monarch and is unique in that never before has a British monarch been pictured on a stamp without ceremonial robes.

"China is being made over again by the young men," Dr. A. J. Brace, F.R.C.S., of the foreign work department of the Y. M. C. A., said last night at a meeting in the local Y. He was speaking at a general gathering composed of representatives of the board of directors, the Y's Men's Club, and the Hi-Y Grads. Mr. J. W. Boulter, chairman of the religious work committee, presided. Dr. Brace has completed 45 years of Y. M. C. A. work in China, the capital of the province of Sze-Chwan in China.

Charlottetown music lovers last night again had the privilege of hearing the Charlottetown Male Chorus in a splendid new program of choral music at the P.W.C. hall. The chorus was interspersed with the enjoyable vocal solos of Mr. Arthur Bruce, Mr. Roy Metzler, and Mr. Charles Earle, and music by an instrumental trio consisting of Messrs. A. Blanchard, C. McGregor and R. McGregor, each number on the program being received with enthusiastic applause.

After watching helplessly while a fire, originating in the engine house, gradually ate its way toward the gasoline tank of their lobster fishing boat, Mr. Chester Llewellyn and his 16-year-old son, James, were able to relate their "breath-taking" experience recently following help given by two more of Llewellyn's sons from another boat who succeeded in throwing the tank overboard.

DOING NICELY—It is pleasing to report that Mrs. A. F. Murray of Richmond, who has been seriously ill in the Prince County Hospital is making a good recovery. Mr. Murray is a frequent visitor to Summerside to be near his wife during her illness.

WINS DISTINCTION—On Saturday last the results of the medical examinations in Dalhousie University were published. In the first year medicine, Mr. George Inman, son of Judge Inman and Mrs. Inman of Summerside passed all subjects and with distinction in embryology and in histology.

ACCEPTS CALL—Rev. J. A. Nicholson of Biddeford has indicated his acceptance of the call extended to him by the York Pastoral Charge of the United Church to become the successor of Rev. G. A. Christie. Mr. Nicholson will begin work in his new sphere early in July.

FINE HORSES—Two beautiful horses left Fredericton a few days ago, one owned by Mr. Chester Weeks and the other by Mr. Arnold Weeks. These horses were bought by the well known cattle buyer, Mr. Fred Turner, Winsloe. It is understood the price paid for the team was around the $400 mark. Mr. Turner is to be congratulated on securing such fine animals.

DEFICIT SHOWN—The Summerside Town Council brought down their budget for 1937 last night at their regular monthly meeting, Mayor Robinson presiding. Councilor Nicholson, chairman of the finance committee, gave an estimate of the year's revenue and expenses, and showing a deficit of $2,281.25. Total revenue $80,643; total expenditure $82,924.25. Tax real and personal property remained the same as last year, but the poll tax was set at $4.25 an increase of one dollar.

DEATH OF MR. LAWRENCE KEOGH—There passed away last Thursday at his home in Borden, Mr. Lawrence Keogh, at 73 years of age. He was survived by his widow and the following sons and daughters: Wilfred, in Victoria; Edward and William, Borden; Mrs. John Bruce and Mrs. Madeline, Charlottetown; Miss Hattie, of Summerside and Miss Lucy at home. The funeral took place on Saturday morning at the R. C. Church at Seven Mile Bay. Rev. Father Monaghan officiated at both church and grave.

LADES QUARTETTE SCORES SUCCESS—Regrettably omitted from yesterday's report of the Charlottetown Male Chorus concert at P. W. C. Hall was a most enjoyable feature, namely a ladies' quartette consisting of Mrs. Jack MacRae, Mrs. J. J. Mutch, Mrs. W. A. Jenkins and Miss A. S. W. of Cherry Valley. The quartette appeared in two groups of songs, the first consisting of "A Dream Boat Passes By" (Loward) and "Barcarole" from "Tales of Hoffman" (Offenbach-Warhurs), the second "The Lord Is My Shepherd" (Schubert) and "Good Night". The ladies were enthusiastically applauded on their splendid performance, and the hope was expressed that another opportunity of hearing this fine quartette would be given at an early date.

DEATH OF MR. JOHN MURPHY—The community at Middlebury was shocked to learn of the sudden passing of John Murphy, whose death occurred at his home on Sunday morning. Mr. Murphy, who was 76 years of age, was taken suddenly ill on Saturday and only lived a few hours. Before he died he received the last rites of his church from the hands of Rev. Father McCabe and Rev. Fr. Smith. Mr. Murphy was born in Kinkora and had lived all his life in the community. He was a most successful farmer and a man of high character and heart. He leaves to mourn, his widow, formerly Sarah Johnson of Kinkora, five sons, Felix and Mark of Boston; Wallace in Saskatchewan; Rev. Vincent Murphy, S.J., of Montreal; and Percy on the homestead; and two daughters, Mrs. Joseph Murphy of Vancouver, B.C.; and one sister, Mrs. Scribner of Boston, to all of whom sympathy is extended. The funeral is taking place this morning. Rev. Vincent Murphy, S.J., arrived last night to attend the funeral.

TRAGIC ACCIDENT—Word has been received by Mr. C. W. MacLeod, Belfast, of his grandniece Miss Jessie Simpson, Hantsack, New Jersey, meeting with a tragic accident recently. As she attempted to board a train on her way to work she slipped and fell in some unknown way, beneath the wheels and had her two legs severed from her body, one above the ankle and the other above the knee. At last report she was in hospital, lying as well as could be expected at the time of her illness. Miss Simpson visited in Belfast last summer in company with her mother and grandparents and made many warm friends during her short stay, who received the news of her accident with great regret. She was a very clever musician and dancer, and also possessed an unusually fine figure and a beautiful complexion. Her beauty contest which was rightly awarded, her many friends in Belfast and elsewhere wish for her as speedily a recovery as can be possible under the circumstances.

With these words Lt.-Col. G. Elliot Pull V.D., A.D.C., concluded an exceptionally fine address on the British Empire before the Charlottetown Rotary Club at its weekly luncheon yesterday.

In keeping with the spirit of the day, several of the officers commanding the military and naval units were present as guests. They included Major F. B. Conrad, M.M., O.C. No. 2 Co. 6 Divisional Signals, Lt.-Col. R. C. Chandler, Lt.-Col. P. E. Fielding, O.C. 1st P. E. Medium Brigade, Lt.-Commander J. J. Connolly, O.C. Local Division R.C. N.V.R. and Lt.-Col. F. I. Andrews, M.M. Other guests were Kenneth Ross, St. John's, Nfld.; Gordon Hutchison, City; and Dr. J. A. Brace, National Secretary of the Foreign Work Department Canadian Y.M.C.A.

AT GYRO—At the business meeting of the Gyro Club held Monday evening in the Canadian National Hotel, Dr. Alex J. Murdoch presided. Messrs. Red C. MacDonald of Moncton and Alex McLean, City, were guests, the latter rendering several piano solos, including the "Coronation March."

INJURED IN FALL—Mr. William Roach, ex-service man, was in a Charlottetown hospital last night suffering from a fractured leg after he fell from a ladder at the Canadian Legion Home yesterday to the concrete sidewalk. Roach was engaged in completing decorations on the building when the accident occurred.

ATTENDING CORONATION—Robert Crosby, son of Louis Crosby of Banff, Alberta, and a grandnephew of Mrs. Albert Crosby, Summerside, who will be remembered as the noted junior speed skater, was chosen to represent Alberta at the National Educational Council in London and also to attend the coronation. He left with the other boys who arrived in England last week.

CAUGHT A LARGE TROUT—While fishing Saturday evening in the Dunk River, Master Gordon Hamill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Redvers Hamill, Fredericton, caught a trout 23 inches long and weighing four pounds. The young lad was so excited that he was pulled from the bank into the river and the younger brother Preston was injured in landing safely on the bank.

DECORATED BUILDINGS—Included in the brilliantly decorated buildings in Charlottetown yesterday was Government House. Last night the thousands who attended the display at Victoria Park had an excellent view of the 100-year-old residence, brilliantly outlined in colored lights. Business houses which were lighted included Dr. Blair Bros. and the T.B. and D.J. Riley building, both on lower Queen Street.

FUNERAL OF EX-CONDUCTOR HUGHES—Ex-conductor John H. Hughes of Charlottetown was buried yesterday. High Mass of Requiem was celebrated by Rev. Wilfred Dunstan's Basilica. Rev. Wilfred Dunstan presided. Rev. Father Dougan conducted service at the grave site. Pallbearers were: Messrs. William Davey, James McAulay, Peter McCarron, John Macdonald, R. J. MacDonald, all retired railway conductors, and Mr. Urie Macdonald, active conductor.

Considerable damage was done by smoke and water. Some insurance was carried. It was said.

MRS. WM. HENNESSEY LAID TO REST—The funeral of Mrs. William J. Hennessey of Charlottetown, who died yesterday from the Holy Redeemer Church in the Roman Catholic Cemetery. Services at the Church were conducted by Rev. Father Fleming, C.S.S.R. and at the grave site by Rev. Father Baines. A group of graduate and student nurses from the Charlottetown Hospital preceded the remains to their last resting place. Mrs. Hennessey was formerly Miss Gertrude Coady, a graduate nurse of the Charlottetown Hospital. Honorary pall bearers were: Miss Florence MacElnnis, Miss Edna MacElnnis, Miss Edna Green, Miss Mary King, Miss Mary Devereaux and Mrs. C. McCarthy. Active pall bearers were: Dr. G. N. Conway, A. R. McInnis, Frank S. Storey and Arthur Tomlinson.

The many friends of Mrs. J. E. Wyatt will learn with sincere regret of her sudden passing on Tuesday at noon at her hotel in Boston, where she was staying with her daughters on their way home from the West Indies, where they had spent the winter.

Mrs. Wyatt was the widow of the late Hon. J. E. Wyatt, former speaker of the Provincial House in Charlottetown. She was the daughter of the late Hon. John Leffur and Dorothea Read, his wife, who was a sister of the late Capt. Joseph Read of Summerside. Mrs. Wyatt had resided in Summerside all her life except for visits abroad, and was held in high regard.

Mrs. Wyatt had a retiring disposition, but her sweet nature and cordial welcome that visitors all ways received at her lovely home endeared her to her friends which were many. Mrs. Wyatt interested herself in all matters that concerned the welfare of her country. She was a member of the Daughters of the Empire, and always took a keen interest in Empire organizations. She was kind, hospitable and fond of children. There are left to cherish her memory two daughters, Miss Dorothy and Miss Wanda, also two sisters, Mrs. W. A. Brennan of Edmonton and Mrs. Horace Roberts of Vancouver, to whom much sympathy is extended.

R. C. N. V. R. CORONATION BALL—Coronation celebrations continued in Charlottetown last night with a Coronation Ball at the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Reserve Headquarters. Hundreds of couples attended and with the Navy Boys celebrated the crowning of "The Sailor King." Al Blanchard's Orchestra supplied the music.

It is with profound sorrow that we announce the death on April 5th of Ambrose Boylan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Boylan, water-vale, in the 38th year of his age. He was a young man of the most exemplary character and of a very kind and friendly disposition, courteous and obliging in the extreme he was always ready to extend the helping hand.

CORONATION DANCE—Coronation celebrations were launched last night in Charlottetown with the Canadian Legion Dance at the hundred and fifty guests were in Canadian National Hotel. Two attendances. The reception committee included Captain and Mrs. A. B. Coth, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wacoott and Miss Ethel Sutherland. Music was furnished by Dixon's Orchestra.

The funeral of little Ida Gillis aged six, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Gillis took place at her home in Forest Hill, April 28th, in the 38th year of his age. The funeral was held at 8.30 p.m. at his home from the former home at Murray River. Mr. MacLeod, who took up residence in the United States in 1922, was returning on a visit to his native province. He was unwell when he left his home in Pennsylvania and became rapidly worse Tuesday. He died just after the Car Ferry docked at Borden on the evening crossing.
