EGMONT PRIZE WINNER—In the summary of Egmont Bay Exhibition a slight error occurred. Emanuel Gallant of Abrams Village is designated as 1st prize winner in 2 year old Holsteins. This should be John F. Arseneault, winner of Holman's special. J. F. Arseneault also won first in class of Holstein cows.

SPECIAL W. M. S. SERVICE AT VICTORIA—There was a special W. M. S. service in the United Church at Victoria on Sunday evening. Rev. L. B. Campbell of Summerside was the speaker of the evening. The Summerside quartette, Messrs. Bowness, Forbes, Schurman and Huestis, contributed special numbers. Miss Sue Meadows of Summerside accompanied them on the organ. Rev. Mr. Ayers, pastor of the Victoria United Church, preached at Summerside that evening. S.

HEAVY LOADS—Many people in the Kensington district have a penchant for hauling heavy loads. As already noted in the press items Mr. W. L. Cotton hauled a load of 155 bus. of oats a distance of five miles with a team of horses. McNell's and McNutt's trucks transport very large loads in quick time. Probably the banner large load was taken by Thomas Tuplin from Indian River Mills to Kensington (2 1/2 miles) 163 bus. and 25 lbs. of oats on one team weighing 2400 lbs. The fact that such heavy loads may be hauled is a testimonial to the good condition of the road.—K.

RALLY DAY SERVICE—There was a record attendance at Trinity United Church, Summerside, on Sunday afternoon for the Rally Day service. Mr. Robert Gordon, superintendent of the Sunday School, presided and gave a short address. The theme for this year's Rally Day was "Serving Jesus Today." Rev. L. B. Campbell, the pastor of the church, gave a helpful address along these lines. Miss Estelle Bowness' reading on "Truly Brothers" was much appreciated. Worthy of special notice was the beautiful promotion card presented by Mrs. C. C. Dickie to the children graduating out of the Cradle Roll of which she is the superintendent. Diplomas and grading cards were awarded to pupils graduating from their respective classes. The service opened with the hymn "O Worship the King." Scripture reading, Luke 10, 25-27. Story, "Truly Brothers," Miss Estelle Bowness; hymn, "Praise Him, Praise Him, all Ye Little Children," by the primary class; recitation, "What Can a Little Chap Do," Master Charles Llewellyn; hymn, "Father Lead Me Day by Day," talk by the superintendent, Mr. R. A. Gordon; story, "Ko-sin Finds the Way to Save His Country," Miss Lottie McCallum. The closing hymn was "Jesus Calls Us."—K.

CARD PARTIES—The card parties conducted under the auspices of the C.W.L. of Indian River were resumed earlier than usual this season with an increased attendance each week. The first party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Curley, Clermont, on Aug.

Benediction. A large number of new members were enrolled. S.

WEDDING BELLS—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Church of the Immaculate Conception at Wellington on Monday morning at 5.45, when Miss Marie Lydia Delaney, daughter of Dr. Mark and Mrs. Delaney of Wellington was united in marriage to Mr. Henry Walter Wedge, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Wedge of Summerside. Rev. Urban Gillis officiated at the nuptial mass, while the girls choir of the parish sang very sweetly appropriate hymns. Many friends of the bride and groom attended the ceremony. The bride was very charming in a wedding dress of brown chiffon velvet with hat and accessories to match, and carried a bouquet of white and pink snap-dragon. She was attended by Miss Edna DesRoches who was also attired in brown velvet. Mr. Percy Wedge acted as groomsmen. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party motored to Summerside and had breakfast at the Clifton Hotel. Covers were laid for fifteen. Besides the parents of the bride and groom and their attendants, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Delaney, and others were present. Accompanying the bride and groom to Borden were Mr. Timothy Arseneault, Mrs. Medus Wedge and Mrs. Carl Delaney. Mr. and Mrs. Wedge will reside in Halifax, N. S., where Mr. Wedge will continue his studies at Dalhousie University. Their many friends extend congratulations. The bride travelled in brown velvet with brown coat and squirrel fur. S.

A large number were in attendance and thoroughly enjoyed the cards, refreshments and dancing. Prizes were won by Mr. N. J. McNeill, New Annan and Miss Anna Coady, Sea View. On Aug. 30th Mr. and Mrs. N. J. McNeill and Mr. and Mrs. Allie McNeill, New Annan were hosts and hostesses to another large crowd. Prizes were won by Miss Annie McNeill, Sherbrooke and Mr. D. McKinnon, New Annan, on Sept. 13th Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Delaney, Malpeque entertained a record number of merry makers. Bridge and auction forty-fives were played and prizes were won by Miss Tessie MacNeill, Summerside and Mr. Alfred McGougan, Kensington for Bridge. Auction prizes were won by Miss Margaret Gillis, Kensington and Mr. Charles Gillis, Indian River. On September 18th the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Pendergast, Kensington, was the scene of another enjoyable card party. Bridge prizes were won by Mrs. Joseph Sheen, Kensington and Mr. W. S. Delaney, Malpeque. Auction prizes went to Mrs. Lloyd Howard, Kensington, and Mr. Alban Murphy, Clermont. At each of those parties refreshments were served by a number of ladies and thus the burden of catering to a large number of people does not fall on one individual. In like manner the musicians of the parish co-operate in providing the music, each one giving generously of time and talents. This co-operative spirit is a big factor in the success of those card parties.—K.

ST. PATRICK'S ROAD WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

On Sept. 13th, the members met for their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. James Birt, with ten members and several visitors in attendance. The meeting opened by singing "It's a Good Time to Get Acquainted." Minutes of last meeting were read and signed. A neat sum was realized at dance in School Sept. 6th. Mrs. John W. Birt, invited the members to her home for the next meeting, roll call to be answered by members paying fees. Lunch was then served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. W. McKay, Mrs. C. Kneebone and Miss Violet Kneebone. Meeting was brought to a close by gramophone selections. On August 17th, St. Patrick's Road Women's Institute members met for their monthly meeting in the school room, with six members and several visitors in attendance. Meeting opened by singing Institute Ode, followed by Creed. Roll call was answered by "the most important part of the Creed." Minutes of last meeting were read and signed. A discussion then took place on raising funds for the Institute. It was decided to hold an ice cream festival and dance in the school on Sept. 6th. Meeting then closed by singing the National Anthem. Mrs. Walter Rodgeron and Mrs. Ed. Donnelly were appointed on the programme committee for next month. Next meeting to be at the home of Mrs. James Birt, roll call to be answered by Whistling or Jigging a tune.
