On Saturday night, Feb. 28 the O'Leary Midgets defeated the Knutsford Midgets at the O'Leary Rink.

The many friends of Mrs. Nelson Muirbridge, popular teacher at the Brae School, will be sorry to learn that she is confined to her home and has to temporarily give up her teaching for about a month but expects to resume her classes after the Easter holidays. Her many friends, both pupils and parents, all unite in wishing her a speedy return to health. During her absence, Mrs. Lorne MacNevin of Brae is teaching in the Brae School.

A splendid total of $374.35 was collected from the residents of O'Leary by collectors appointed by the Women's Institute for "The Canadian Appeal for Children." This sum was given by 137 individuals including $28.00 from the O'Leary United Church Sunday School, $25.00 from the O'Leary United Young Peoples Union, $5.00 from the O'Leary United C.G.I.T., $5.00 from the Baptist Young Peoples Union, etc. In addition $28.55 was collected by the residents of West Devon for the Children's Fund and which will be sent in with the totals from O'Leary.

As Rev. W. G. Dickson entered the Brae United Church on Sunday afternoon, Feb. 29th for the regular Church service, the choir and the large congregation assembled sang "Happy Birthday to You" as it was their Minister's ninth birthday having been born on a Leap Year. He was also congratulated by his congregations in Bloomfield in the morning and at O'Leary in the night and the Minister received cards and telegrams from his former charges in Alaska, Sask. and East River-Genelg, N. S. and Lawrenceton, N. S. and from his parents and relatives in Sydney, N. S. and St. John's Newfoundland.

It has been officially reported from Ottawa that an illustration Station will be placed in Knutsford on the farm of Robert Woodside in connection with the Experimental Farm in Charlottetown. This has been brought about by the untiring efforts of Mr. W. S. Black, Supervisor of Illustration Stations for P.E.I. Knutsford, about three miles from O'Leary, is one of the leading agricultural districts of the province and it is confidently believed that this illustration Station will be of major assistance to the farmers in helping them to grow even better crops. The residents all wish Mr. Woodside and his son, Heath, every success in this undertaking as it means a lot of extra work.

The O'Leary Young Peoples Union met for their regular meeting on Thursday night in the Sunday School room of the Church. There were twenty young people present. The President, Miss Jean Kennedy, presided. The Y. P. U. have added to the Canadian Appeal for Children Fund and it was

S'side Church Organizations Meet

The Y.P.S. of Summerside Presbyterian Church held its regular meeting on Tuesday evening in the church hall with the president in the chair. The Worship Convener was in charge of the devotions with the following taking part: Scripture reading by James Johnston, prayer by Jean Mathew, meditation on Galatians by the minister and the Offertory prayer by Kay Johnston. — S.

At the Summerside Y.P.U. on Tuesday evening the Juniors were guests of the Seniors at a combined Skating Party from 7 to 9 o'clock at the Kinsmen's Rink. They then adjourned to the Church Hall where they did justice to a bean supper, provided by the ladies. — S.

The Y.P.S. of Summerside Church of Christ held the regular meeting on Tuesday evening in the church hall with the president occupying the chair. The worship period was conducted by the minister. An impressive blackboard study on the life of Noah and the building of the Ark was given by Rev. William Wilson. Instead of the usual fellowship period the time was spent in the rehearsing of the Easter play. — S.

The March meeting of the W.M.S. Auxiliary of Summerside Trinity United Church was held in the Sunday School Auditorium on Tuesday afternoon with the president, Mrs. W.A. Allen in the chair. There was a good attendance. The singing of "O For A Thousand Tongues to Sing" with Mrs. B.R. Sharp at the piano, was followed by a timely article "A Pit Punishment" read by the Temperance Secretary, Mrs. J.S. Hinton, after which a committee was appointed to look into local affairs. The hymn "Jesus Stand Among Us" was sung as a prayer. The Scripture reading by the president was followed by prayer and the repeating of "The Lord's Prayer" in unison. The theme of the afternoon was "The Field is the World and the Seed is the Word" taken from the Study Book "Great is the Company" and was in charge of Mrs. G.L. Sheen, in the absence of Mrs. G.N. Somers, assisted by Mrs. J.L. Lund and Miss Millicent Strong, each giving highlights on a missionary's life. Program leaders for the Easter thanksgiving service and next regular meeting were appointed as follows: Mrs. Lea M. Callbeck, Mrs. W.K. Lixell and Mrs. John Sullivan. An impressive candle-lighting service was conducted by Mrs. John Scott, Vice-President of Y.P. Groups, when the "Guiding Light" C.G.I.T. was affiliated with the Auxiliary. Taking part were the leaders, Mrs. William Heckbert and Mrs. R.B. Dewar, assisted by Jeby Best, Marion Cook, Gloria Woodside and Doris Heckbert. Mrs. Allen presented each member with an affiliation badge. The singing of "These Things Shall Be" followed decided to hold a St. Patrick's tea and social with the proceeds going to aid little Velda Matthews of Emsdale, who has gone to Montreal for treatment after being so badly burned in a fire at Christmas time. The program of the evening was carried out by the Minister whose topic was the words of Jesus: "Follow Me." He was assisted by Marion MacPhee and Shirley Gorrill. Then followed a period of games and the meeting closed with the Mispah Benediction.

The Summerside A.Y.P.A. held its regular meeting in St. Mary's Hall on Tuesday evening with Mrs. Gale Woolley presiding. An interesting talk on Study Book Number Two was given by Mr. David Corahish. THIS LITTLE PILL Helps The LIVER

Why take Calomel?—far simpler to take your Liver more active. This little pill steps up the flow of bile overnight — next morning you feel brighter, happier, more full of pep. You have no more constipation! Poor digestion is the root of the past! Stomach-bloating relieved! How fine that would be! Make your Liver pour out two plates of bile into your bowels every day, then you'll start to feel like new. To help get new energy and feel once more like your own self, the remedy to assist you is DR. HAMILTON'S PILLS, 25c per box.

DR HAMILTON'S PILLS

by the benediction brought the meeting to a close. The affiliation service took the place of the regular evening meeting of the "Guiding Light." — S.

The Trinity Evening Auxiliary met on Tuesday in the Sunday School room of Summerside Trinity Church with the president, Mrs. Clifford Rankin, in the chair. The devotions were led by Mrs. Horace Rankin and Mrs. Eric Sheen presided at the piano. A most interesting study period followed with Mrs. MacFarlane taking the part of the enquirer and Mrs. Donald Lidstone, Mrs. James MacArthur and Mrs. William Roach answering on behalf of certain missionaries, the questions being asked "How does one learn the language of a primitive people?" "How does one learn to write the language?" and "Does the Bible really change the lives of primitive people?" The replies were most enlightening. A box of clothing to the amount of $155.00 was forwarded to the Children's Relief in Europe. It was announced that another Sewing Circle for the young women of the congregation be held once a month. Mrs. Allen Jenkins, on behalf of the Junior Choir, thanked the Auxiliary for the aid they had given in providing the new gowns. Three new members were added to the roll. The Mispah benediction brought the meeting to a close. — S.

An excellent attendance marked the regular meeting of the Ladies' Club of Summerside Presbyterian Church on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Maurice Mill. The president was in the chair. Details were arranged for the St. Patrick's Tea, Bazaar and Party Sale. As this was Red Cross evening the members were busy with knitting and sewing. It was moved that flowers be sent to a sick friend, also on motion that the members pay their annual dues to the League of Mercy which was organized last year. A new member was added to the roll. An ex-member, Mrs. George A. MacDougall, visiting from Vancouver, B.C. was welcomed by all. She is spending a few days in Summerside before returning to her home in British Columbia. — S.

The Summerside A.Y.P.A. held its regular meeting in St. Mary's Hall on Tuesday evening with Mrs. Gale Woolley presiding. An interesting talk on Study Book Number Two was given by Mr. David Corahish. LAKE PORT TO EXPAND?
SARNIA, Ont. (CP)—A highly developed and modernized port of Sarnia serving an expanding industrial community and acting as port of departure for farm exports to Britain, was envisaged for this city on Lake Huron in a speech here recently by John E. Goodison of the chamber of commerce.

MORE LAND FOR PARK
MONTREAL, March 2 (CP)—Montreal's properties division and the planning department have finally settled a long-standing argument about what to do with 129,000 square feet of land on the northwest slope of Mount Royal. The planning department is going to get 100,000 square feet of it to add to the big park atop the mountain.

NOTICE
 To whom it may concern:
 I, Edna Wealthy Jenkins, emphatically deny the accusation that I have left the bed and board of my husband, William E. Jenkins. It is public knowledge that our children and I are still living at our home, and that it is he who has left us and established another home. He is still legally responsible for the keep of my children and myself.
 Dated this 2nd day of March A.D. 1948.
