—CARNIVAL ENJOYED.—A Carnival was held in the Crystal Rink on Friday last, about 150 persons participating. Before the Carnival closed everyone in costume or not was allowed to enjoy the ice and special music. Mr. Donald McDonald of Montreal, not knowing any of the participants, adjudged the prize winners. The first prize for the ladies was awarded to Miss Evelyn Sinclair who appeared as a bridegroom. The second prize by Mrs. Albert Woodside, as Miss Canada. The gentleman's first prize went to Mr. A. E. Jarvis of Toronto, who appeared as a Spanish Gypsy. Mr. Arthur Corney, attired as a Western Cowboy was a close second. Mayor Lidstone awarded the prizes congratulating the winners. Mr. Sandy MacGregor appeared on the ice with the box containing the duplicate tickets and called upon Miss Helen Milligan from the audience who skated over and breaking the seal of the box picked up No. 232—the lucky number—held by Mr. Hillard Cameron who became the owner of the 13 1/4 pound sugar bon.

—BRIDAL SHOWER.—A miscellaneous shower was held on Thursday evening, February 14th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Wedge, Summerside, in honor of Miss Celine Gallant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Gallant. Quite a number of her friends were invited and presented her with many useful articles. The evening was very pleasantly spent with music and games after which refreshments were served. This event thus fore-shadowed, takes place on the 27th inst.—S.

—SNOWSHOE PARTY.—A snowshoe party, led by Mr. Simpson the popular and energetic Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. and assisted by Mr. Enman, the esteemed Editor of the Summerside Journal, was enjoyed by about fifty of the young people of Summerside on Saturday night. The party left at about 12 p. m. and proceeded up Central Street to the Pope Road, thence in by the Summerside Driving Park back to the Y. M. C. A., where a lunch provided by the young ladies, was served and needless to say much appreciated after the long tramp in the "beautiful midnight air." This was followed by a sing song, the party breaking up about 12 p. m. loud in their praise of Mr. Simpson for arranging same and looking forward to the next, which we hope will be in the near future.—S.

THE EASTERN GUARDIAN

—SHOP from Holman's Catalog

—*FISH MARKET OPENED at Montague. Salt and fresh fish, prices right.—William Landrey, North Side Bridge. 71

—*HOME FOR BURIAL.—The death occurred at Boston of Mrs. Dougald McIsaac, formerly of Georgetown, after a short illness. Deceased was of a kind and gentle disposition, ever ready to lend a helping hand to those in need, and the sympathy of the community goes out to the family in their bereavement. The deceased was an estimable and hospitable and cheerful in her home. She was noted for her charm of manner and sweetness of disposition as well as for her hospitality. Her death comes as a great blow to a large circle of friends and acquaintances. Her remains were conveyed to Georgetown accompanied by her son. May her soul rest in peace.—Amen.

—*CONCERT AND SOCIAL.—A grand concert and basket social was held in St. Paul's Parish Hall, Sturgeon, Jan. 23rd in aid of the church fund. A well rendered program gotten up by local talent under the careful direction of the pastor, Rev. Theo. Gallant, proved to the numerous encores to be heartily enjoyed by all. A special feature of the evening was two beautiful solos by the Rev. B. Gillis, Cardigan, (encored). After the program came the sale of baskets which numbered fifty. The capacity of auctioneer was filled by J. Schrimgeour of Cardigan. The sum of $150.00 was realized. God save the King brought one of the best concerts held in Sturgeon to a close. Following is the program: Opening Chorus—Tumbled Down Shack. Solo—by Wm. Farrell, encored. Solo by Rev. Bernard Gillis, encored. Dialogue—Uncle Hiram's Bad Cold. Solo by William F. Steele. Step Dancing by John McKeen. Solo by Dollie Condon, encored. Dialogue—Stupid Servant. Solo, Rev. B. Gillis. Step Dancing, John J. McGuigan, Duet, Mary and Dollie Condon. Dialogue—Train to Mauro. Chorus, Let the rest of the World go By. God Save the King.

—*EASTERN AGENT.—Mr. J. W. Murdock is now Guardian Agent in Montague and will be pleased to receive news items, advertising, Job Printing, new and renewal subscriptions. 71

—*WHIST DRIVE.—The parishoners of St. Paul's Church, Sturgeon are holding a Whist Tournament during the winter months which is proving to be a grand success. The whist which was started Jan. 10th with ten tables has increased to fifteen, which goes to show that it is taking good with old and young alike. The gentlemen's prize for the five night's play was won by the following: Messrs. Frank Coyle, Harry Dunn, John James McGuigan, Fabian Murphy, and Edward Mahar. While the ladies' prize was won by Misses Mary A. Steele, Winnie Lannan, Bertell Neilligan, Mary Condon and Mrs. C. Steele. A short while in dancing brought the entertainments to a close.

—*PANMURE ISLAND.—Miss Blanche (Murphy), Panmure Island, who has been teaching in western Canada is spending the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Murphy.—Neil and Basil Lannigan Panmure Island have returned home after visiting in Lower Montague the guest of Mrs. Philip Steele.—Mr. John McKenzie, Gasperaux, has returned home from Stellarton, he being out of work caused by the strike there. We are pleased to learn that Mrs. Henry Llewellyn, who was operated on recently has fully recovered. The operation was performed by Drs. J. D. and Preston McIntyre and Dr. Grant.—Measles have been somewhat plentiful here of late, but are getting better. Among the serious cases were Mrs. A. L. Jackson and Mrs. Gerome Graham, but both are on the road to recovery.
