MRS. JOHN HILL

The death of Mrs John Hill, a lifelong resident of Murray Harbor South occurred on Saturday, June 15, 1929. Mrs. Hill had been in ill-health for a number of years and had been confined to her bed for some months. She was born in Guernsey Cover on August 4, 1857, and lived her whole life near her natal place and was a much loved and respected lady in the community.

She is survived by her husband, Mr. John Hill, and by five sons, Mr. Wallace Hill, of the Amherst Hotel, Amherst N. S., Mr. Harry Hill, of the S. S. 'Arammore', of the Marine Fisheries Dept., Mr. Melville Hill, of Pictou, and Messrs. Lorne and Wilbert Hill both of Los Angeles, Calif., and by two daughters, Mrs. Ernest Bell, of White Sands and Mrs. Harry Webb, of Boston, and by three sisters, Mrs. A. K. Miller of Murray Harbor North, Mrs. James Reid, of Franklin, Mass., and Miss Priscilla Brehaut, of White Sands, and by one brother, Mr. Peter Brehaut of White Sands.

Mrs. Hill was a member of the Presbyterian Church of Murray Harbor South. Funeral services were conducted at the home on Tuesday, June 18, by the Rev. Quincy A. McDowell. Interment in Murray Harbor South Cemetery.

LETTER OF SYMPATHY

To Mrs. William McDonald, Glen Valley.

Dear Friend,—We the officers and members of Glen Valley Women's Institute wish to convey to you our deepest sympathy in the loss of your dear husband which you have been called upon to bear. He will not only be missed in the home where he was so kind and sympathetic, but also in the church and community where he was always willing to lend a helping hand.

May our Heavenly Father comfort and sustain you in your lonely hours, and may you realize that he is only gone on before, that God has but called him to a higher service, while we are left amid life's shadows a little longer. Signed on behalf of the Glen Valley Women's Institute.

Nitrates Found in Africa

Nitrate deposits are reported to have been discovered in Southwest Africa. Practically all the nitrate supply in the past has come from the mines of Chile, in South America. The African product of the salts, so essential in producing explosives and as a fertilizer, is declared to be superior to that from Chile.

Valentines in Museum

Valentines have gone out of style among young lovers in England, and the tender missives of long ago are acquiring a museum value. An exhibition of 400 varieties was recently held in a London museum. With them was shown an old Post Office sign urging the public to mail their Valentines early.
