

No Reason for Doubt

We want your confidence—want you to feel you can depend on our honesty and sincerity. When we say ReXall Orderlies will give you better results than any similar remedy, and promise your money back if they don't, you ought to believe us.

ReXall Orderlies

Just like candy. They act easy. They cause no inconvenience whatever. Our faith in them is backed by knowledge of what they are made of and observation of severe cases of constipation and other forms of bowel troubles in which they gave prompt and pleasant relief.

damage, distress and depression always caused by irregular bowel action—all these beneficial results from the use of ReXall Orderlies help dispel gloom, improve the spirits and add to the joy of living. Very often they ward off serious ills that frequently result from continued constipation.

Their Easy Action

Don't take our word—make us prove it. Use ReXall Orderlies, and if you don't feel like coming back to thank us for telling you about them, then come back and we will return the money you paid us for them. We won't obligate you in any way whatever. Merely ask and back goes your money to you.

ReXall Orderlies are a common-sense remedy for bowel disorders. Easy in action, they do not purge, grip, nauseate or cause excessive looseness.

Make You Feel Great

That's what ReXall Orderlies do, because the thorough cleansing they give the bowels—their toning and strengthening effect upon the bowels—the influence they exert toward promoting prompt, easy and regular action of the bowels, thus freeing the system and keeping it free from the

They tend to tone and strengthen the delicate intestinal nerves and muscles, promptly relieve constipation and help to overcome its cause and make its recurrence improbable. In these things they differ from old-fashioned, harsh, disagreeable physic, which usually gives only temporary relief and often leaves the bowels in worse condition than ever.

We particularly recommend ReXall Orderlies for delicate and aged persons and for children. In vest-pocket-size tin boxes, 12 tablets, 10c; 36 tablets, 25c; 90 tablets, 50c. Usual dose one tablet.

CAUTION: Please bear in mind that ReXall Orderlies are not sold by all drug stores. You can buy ReXall Orderlies only at the ReXall Stores. You can buy ReXall Orderlies in this community only at our store:

KILLED THE MAN HE FOUND IN HIS WIFE'S ROOM.

HAMILTON, Ont., April 4—Boyko, tried on the charge of murder, was found guilty of manslaughter tonight and sentenced by Justice Middleton to ten years' imprisonment. His victim, Casimir Linkie Witz, was a boarder in Boyko's home. Boyko found the man in his wife's bedroom asleep on a sofa and killed him with an axe, dragging the body to a shed in the rear of the house, where it was found next morning. The prisoner admitted killing Linkie Witz.

SPECIAL SERVICES.—Special services will be held in South Winsloe Methodist church every night this week with the exception of Saturday.

SPECIAL SERVICES.—The special evangelistic services in the Baptist Church begin at 8 o'clock tonight. There will be special music. There is much interest in the services.

THE MINTO.—The Minto left Picton yesterday morning at 7 o'clock and docked in Charlottetown at 10.35 with 37 1/2 tons freight, 20 passengers and 40 bags mail.

EMPRESS SAILS.—The Empress did not leave for Summerside yesterday but leaves this morning at 8 o'clock to take up her regular summer service. The Northumberland will not leave for a day or so.

THE INWARD TRAINS.—The southern accommodation arrived in Charlottetown yesterday at 11.10 a. m. forty-five minutes late; the eastern at 11.20 a. m., fifteen minutes late; the western at 12.20 p. m. on time and the Summerside at 5.50 p. m., thirty-five minutes late.

KODIAK BLUE FOX CO.—An act of incorporation for the Kodiak Blue Fox Co., of P. E. I. is now before the Legislature—the Provisional directors are James Eden, President; William Moran, Secretary; Murdoch McLeod, Treasurer; with James England, Traveller's Rest and H. C. Connolly of Charlottetown.

CONCERT.—On Saturday afternoon the patients at Falconwood had the pleasure of listening to a very enjoyable musical entertainment given by Mr. P. C. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Delay and the Misses Blanchard and Mr. Hughes. Thanks are due Mr. P. C. Brown for his thoughtfulness in providing the concert and candy treat.

WILL OF LATE J. C. CLARK.—The will of the late J. C. Clark, Charlottetown, was entered for Probate on March 20th, 1913. The estate is valued at $9,462 and he leaves his wife and two daughters, Mrs. Wallace Hill, Amherst, and Mrs. Fritz Ploeg, Corona, California. The executors are his widow and Mr. Wallace Hill. Messrs McLean & McKinnon are Proctors.

LETTER OF SYMPATHY.—The officers and members of Union Division, No. 45, S. of T. Springfield, have forwarded to Miss Elizabeth MacKay a touching letter of condolence, telling of the heartfelt sympathy of the lodge for her in the sad bereavement she has been called upon to bear in the death of her beloved brother. The letter was signed in L. P. & F. by a committee.

MRS. WINSLOE DEAD.—Mr. John Watts, Hampshire, has received the sad news of the death of his sister Mrs. Agnes Winslow, widow of the late Mr. S. G. Winslow, Richmond, Maine. Mrs. Winslow passed away Monday, March 31st, after only a few days illness of bronchial pneumonia at the home of her brothers' Mr. Robert Watts, Roselindale, Mass. Burial took place Wednesday, April 2nd at her late home, Richmond, Maine.

NEW BUSINESS STAND.—Messrs Lowe Bros, Charlottetown, are now remodeling the store in which Mr. G. F. Hutcheson has carried on his jewelry business. The greater portion of the store is to be fitted up as a Book Store for Mr. G. E. Ritchie. Mr. Hutcheson retains a portion to clear out his jewelry stock and to carry on his optical business. Two front windows are being put in at angles for Mr. Ritchie and it is expected that he will move in about two or three weeks.

FURTHER PARTICULARS.—The sad news has been received this week of the tragic death of Mrs. Aubrey L. Fuller, of Appleton, Maine, formerly Miss Albinia Yend, daughter of Mr. George Yeo, of Knutsford, and a niece of Mr. T. C. Yeo, of Summerside. Mrs. Fuller was run over and killed by a train at West Medford, Mass., on March 27th. The deceased was a trained nurse in Boston before her marriage, which took place last summer and she and her husband spent their honeymoon on P. E. Island and visited her old home at Knutsford. She was of exceptionally bright, kind and happy disposition and a very general favorite with all.

RECOVERED FROM ILLNESS.—The many friends of Mr. Andrew McNair will be glad to see him able to be around again after his recent illness.

WINDOW DISPLAY.—Mr. Barrie, representing the Eastman Kodak people, says that the window display of the Geo. H. Cook Studio, on Queen Street, is one of the best that he has ever seen. The exhibit is indeed a remarkably good one—a neatly arranged set of hand-painted enlargements that bring out natural beauty and grace at its best. The exquisite coloring, delicate shading, and magnificent grouping effects, stamps this as one of the best art displays of the many made by this studio.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTES.—Women's Institutes were organized yesterday afternoon at Cornwall and Cornwall school districts will form one institute of which Mrs. George McDonald is President and Miss Emma McMillan, Secretary. Mrs. W. W. Crosby is President of the Meadowbank Institute and Mrs. M. E. Roper, Secretary. To-day Mrs. Dunbrack and Miss James go to Clyde River to organize an Institute in that district.

CHESS TOURNAMENT.—After a rest of two weeks the chess combats will be resumed last night in Harvie's Sample Rooms, on Sydney Street. There was great excitement and a number of former Napoleons met their Wellingtons. Disappointment and jubilation alternated as the results were bulletined and many who had never previously figured prominently either as geniuses or the reverse secured records. One prominent Napoleon of former battles carries on his brow a conspicuous scar but he informed the Guardian, on his honor, that it was received in defense of the queen and was inflicted by a dastardly black knight. The score was as follows: Mr. W. S. Louison lost one to Mr. L. P. Tanton; Mr. T. B. Woodman won two from Dr. Ross; Mr. L. C. Worthy won two from Mr. R. C. McRae; Mr. C. Toombs lost one to Mr. L. P. Tanton; Mr. R. McRae won two from Mr. E. Love; Mr. L. P. Tanton won three from Mr. R. C. McRae; Mr. W. S. Louison lost two to Dr. Lundie; Dr. Lundie won two from Mr. C. Toombs.

CHARGED WITH MURDER OF NEW JERSEY WOMAN.

TOMS RIVER, N. J., April 4—W. J. Leehan, formerly employed as a private secretary by Mrs. E. M. Horne of Pittsburg, is in jail here today, charged with the murder of Mrs. Charles L. Turner, of Lake Wood, N. J., who was the wife of an employee of the estate of George J. Gould. On April 26, 1911, her body was found in a clump of woods at Lake Wood, the face beaten into the earth. The skull fractured. She had apparently battled for her honor or before she died. Leehan lived at Lake Wood at the time, but subsequently moved to White Plains, N. Y. He is married and was at one time employed in Amoskege, Maine.
