Low Mass was celebrated by His Lordship, assisted by the Revs. Frs. Boudreau, John A. McDonald and James C. McGuigan. THE FISH MARKET.—There was a decided improvement in the condition of affairs in the fish market yesterday. The catch continued to be good and the premises bore indications of having undergone something of a cleaning-up. It is hoped by all citizens that the good work will be continued. There was a good supply of cod and haddock on sale at 8c. per pound and some fresh mackerel at 25 cents each.

—DR. FRANK'S CASE.—Dr. Frank was not convicted for speeding because he arrived at 9.10 instead of 9, but the case was decided on its merits by the Stipendiary Magistrate Mr. Wyatt. This is why quite a lot of interest is being taken in this case both in Summerside and Charlottetown, and interesting developments are looked for. The doctor on being twitted with his fast clip in Summerside declined to make any statement on a case which is sub judice but intimated that there are things in heaven and earth that are dreamed of in connection with the Summerside speed laws. He quoted Premier Asquith, "wait and see".
