Gillis when Joseph Reid, of Campbellton, New London, was united in Holy marriage to Miss Flora O'Connor, of Clinton. The morning was an ideal one and the church beautifully decorated by the friends of the bride with potted plants and a wealth of cut flowers. The aisle was carpeted from the driveway to the altar, and the bride, accompanied by her bridesmaid, Miss Myrtle K. Burke, looked charming in a beautiful gown of reseda green silk with black picture hat with white willow plumes. The bridesmaid's dress was shot tafeta silk and black beaver hat with ostrich feathers. The groom was supported by Leo P. Reid of Bay View, in his usual happy manner. Mrs. J. Croken presided at the organ and during the High Nuptial Mass that followed the marriage service Leonard McDonald sang two solos in splendid voice, a hymn to the Sacred Heart and Veni Spiritus. The church was filled with friends of the happy couple and was truly edified at the words of love and fatherly advice given at the last Gospel by the Rev. Mgr. Gillis, who accompanied the wedding party to the home of the bride's parents, John and Mrs. O'Connor, of Clinton, and presided at an elaborate wedding breakfast to about forty guests. The wedding presents were beautiful, including cheques, cut glass, china, etc., testifying to the popularity of the bride and groom. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Reid left for the exhibition in Charlottetown and on Thursday returned to their residence in Campbellton followed by the good wishes of their many friends for a long and happy wedded life.

The marriage of Miss Edna Grace Cook, daughter of Captain Clinton Cook, now of Sydney, C. B., but formerly of Parrsboro, N. S., to Gordon S. Hughes, of Charlottetown, took place at 9.30 a. m. yesterday, in the North Avenue Baptist Church, Cambridge, Mass., the ceremony being performed by the pastor, Rev. E. A. Palmquist. The bride was attired in a grey tweed traveling suit. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hughes left on a honeymoon trip to Montreal and other Canadian cities. The bride is a cultured and accomplished young lady, and a graduate of the Acadia College. The groom is one of the most popular young men of Charlottetown, and has many friends in the athletic fraternity.

The Methodist Church at Bidford P. E. I., was the scene of a very interesting event on the evening of Sept. 25th, when Miss Mary E. Morrison of Ellerslie became the wife of Oliver R. McKay of East Bidford. The bridesmaid was Miss Lily Morrison, sister of the bride, while the groom was supported by Augustine McKinnon. The bride was gowned in a beautiful dress of white mosquitote, wearing the bridal veil and orange blossoms, and carrying a bouquet of white sweet peas and white roses. The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. L. J. Lear in the presence of a large number of the friends of the contracting parties. After the ceremony the guests repaired to the home of the bride's father, John Morrison, where a dainty wedding supper was served. The presents were numerous and beautiful.

The Abegweit Athletic Association of Charlottetown sustained a big loss yesterday when fire broke out in their buildings at the O. A. A. sporting fields. Their large grandstand was totally destroyed and 200 yards of fence. When first discovered, about 5 p. m. the building was a mass of leaping flames and shortly afterwards crashed to the ground, falling southward. It had evidently been started in the interior and cannot be believed that it was other than of incendiary origin. The fire brigade was called out, but from the first it was known to be a hopeless fight, and the firefighters were hindered in their work by lack of water pressure. This was owing to the distance of the hydrant, some 2,000 feet from the ground. The general public sympathize with the association which has for years made a name for itself as the foremost athletic club in the maritime provinces. The grounds were held under lease by the association from the Connolly estate and in recent years much has been expended in perfecting the buildings and stand. Rumor has it that for some time past the Abegweits have been negotiating for the purchase of the property. The place was not insured. Although nothing official has yet been given out it is understood that the association will replace the burned structure and it can only be expected that the citizens will heartily support them in their laudable efforts to maintain clean athletics in view of the continued reputation held by the club in their successful activities in all lines of sport. The board of directors are: F. R. Hearty, Dr. Dorey, G. Hughes, Dr. Yeo, R. B. Brown, H. L. Bethune, J. A. Webster, J. A. McMillan, Jas. Coyle, L. B. McMillan, J. R. Drake, W. A. Gaudet and Geo. Lewis. If the fire was due to incendiarism, as thought, it is to be hoped that the culprit will be discovered.

The death of the late Bishop of Antigonish, who had the same time that whilst wishing you every success and happiness in your new sphere of activity, your native province is sustaining a distinct loss by your removal to Nova Scotia. We have been associated with you in three relations: first, as working together in the ordinary tasks of the clergy of the diocese, secondly, as Vicar-general, and thirdly, as Apostolic Administrator, in all three relations you have given proof of rare and exceptional qualities of mind and heart. As Rector of St. Dunstan's Cathedral you had occasion of often meeting the clergy, and we can all bear testimony of how kind and sympathetic you always were to us; as Vicar-General you freely and cheerfully gave us the benefits of your experience and prudence in the way that leads to success in the discharge of our duties in the sacred ministry; and lastly your relation as Apostolic Administrator has been such in point of Justice and Charity as to elicit the praise and confidence of clergy and laity alike. We would have been pleased to have seen you named Bishop of your native diocese, but God has willed otherwise and we must submit. You are now going to fix your residence among a people noted for their high sense of honor, religion and Hospitality. The reception they so cordially gave you on your arrival among them as Bishop-elect, and afterwards, on the day of your consecration, argues well for the success of your episcopal administration. In bidding you farewell the clergy of the Diocese of Charlottetown trust that health, happiness and length of days may be your portion, and we beg of you to accept the accompanying purse as a small token of our friendship, respect and esteem. Signed on behalf of the clergy of the Diocese of Charlottetown:—

His Lordship replied, in feeling terms, referring to the very cordial relations which had always existed between himself and the priests of the diocese and assured them that their kindness and sympathy of which he had so many and striking evidences were duly appreciated by him. He could not soon forget the happy days he spent laboring with his fellow-priests in the Diocese of Charlottetown. He thanked them for the very substantial way they had remembered him and said it was another of the very many acts of kindness he had received at their hands.

Range Talks By The Housekeeper

No. 3 - Subject - "Fire Box and Grates"

"WE women folks will always consider the Oven all-important, but my husband—he knows how a range should be made—attaches a great deal of importance to both Fire-box and Grates—they are just as important, in his opinion, as the Oven.

"John likes our 'Kootenay' Range, because it has a real Fire-box—a big, long deep, Fire-box with plenty of heating capacity. —Yet he says it is not too big but nicely proportioned to size of oven. And of course, it is very plain that he is right.

"The 'KOOTENAY' Fire-box makes cooking easy all over the top—it heats the Oven so evenly that one can cook and roast a large joint perfectly at the same time. No waste of time with this dependable Fire-box, so—it is quite evident that it saves fuel—reduces coal bills because one can do so much at once with it.

"The linings of the 'KOOTENAY' Fire-box are made in nine separate pieces—3 in front, 4 in back, and 1 on each end. This allows for contraction and expansion, and—these linings are made of extra heavy, durable semi-steel—they resist the strongest heat for a very long time."

"And the semi-steel GRATES—made in two styles—wood and coal—are remarkable for endurance.

The Coal Grate is made in two pieces, and is easily shaken.

The wood Grates very simple and strong. You can take out back end lining when using it, there's a special pocket behind this lining which allows one to burn long pieces of wood.

"It's easy to change the Grates—just slip the steel buttons aside and out they come. My little boy can change them in a few minutes.

Ashes cannot get into the Fish pan—Flanges sloped inward, below the Grate, guide all ashes into the big rooimy pan.

"The 'KOOTENAY' burns any sort of fuel and makes cooking and baking easy! Yes! It's the best range I know anything about."
