

OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY
SAD FATALITY—Mr. Felix Herrell, 43-year-old employee of the C. N. R. in Charlottetown was found dead in sad circumstances in the bedroom of his home at noon Saturday. An inquest was considered unnecessary by the coroner, Dr. J. J. Yeo.

ATTENDED GRADUATION—Mr. and Mrs. P. R. MacLaine were at St. Paul's last week accompanied by their daughter, Miss Elizabeth MacLaine, who was also the valedictorian for the class of 1940. Miss MacLaine received many congratulations on the excellence of her valedictory.

Mr. E. B. S. Ling of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Saint John, N. B., left recently for Montreal where he will relieve at their Sherbrooke & Greene branch. Mr. Ling was branch for ten years before going to Saint John.

AT GYRO—Mr. Bramwell Chandler was speaker at the weekly dinner meeting of the GYRO Club last night. He told of the surprise party which was given in conjunction with Dr. J. J. Yeo, the reading habits of Prince Edward Islanders. Mr. Gordon Graham of Moncton was a guest. Mr. R. D. Scott was chairman.

BRIDAL SHOWER—An enjoyable function was held at the home of Miss Dorothy McAleer, Westmouth Street last Tuesday night when a number of friends gathered for a social and very robust health for the last couple of years she was able to attend to her household duties and receive and entertain her many friends who were always so welcome at her home.

DRAMATIC CLUB MEETING—The annual meeting of the Baseline Dramatic Club was held at the Name Hall at 8 p. m. on Thursday, May 23rd with a large crowd in attendance. A report on the club's activities was given by the President, Mr. J. Austin Trainor. The following list of officers was elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. William Brown, Vice-President, Mrs. Fred MacMillan, Secretary, Miss Patricia Mahar, and Treasurer, Rev. Thomas McCormack.

ARTILLERY ATTENDS MASS—On the morning of their departure for the mainland, the members of the 8th Medium Battery attended Mass at the barracks which was conducted by Rev. Thomas McCormack. They also received Holy Communion from Rev. McCormack.

FUNERAL SATURDAY—The funeral of the late Alexander Campbell was held Saturday morning from the residence of his brother, Capt. Archibald Campbell, South Bay where Solemn Requiem High Mass was sung by the pastor, Rev. A. J. Macdonald. Rev. C. M. McCarthy as sub-deacon. Assisting in the Sanctuary was Rev. G. McKenna. C. S. R. The Rev. Messrs. H. D. McInnes, Brent Matthews, Thomas Klockner, Lawrence Lunnigan, Andrew MacNeil, and Rev. McInnes, Internment Rollo Bay Cemetery.

ISLAND STUDENTS AT MCGILL—The following Prince Edward Island students at McGill were successful in their studies at the University. Convocation will be held on Wednesday, June 13th for the degree of B. A. C. M., two Islanders, James Dods, B. Sc., Summerside and J. M. Malcolm Putnam, B. A., Eldon. Have been successful. Bachelor of Arts degrees will be awarded to the following: John Russell Carson, Harold Lloyd Henderson and James Fraser MacMillan, all of Charlottetown.

NEW POLICE RADIO OPERATING—The Charlottetown Police patrol is now radio equipped. The transmitter was set up at the station last week and Saturday a receiver was installed in the car. The patrol is able to maintain constant contact with the Police Headquarters by means of the new equipment. The machine is in first class working order and a man in the car can hear orders from the desk, which come over the receiver in a clear voice, without the least bit of difficulty. A minute after the telephone in the station, the officer at the desk relays the call to the patrol and this no time is lost by waiting for the call to be received at the station. This new equipment should prove of great assistance in combating crime in the city.

THE annual church parade of the Sons of England was held yesterday afternoon at about 4 o'clock. The society left the Hall and attended service at St. Paul's Church where an inspiring sermon was preached by Rev. LeDrew Gartner. In the absence, marshalled by Past President A. G. Ford proceeded by way of Richmond Street, St. Paul's Church and Church Streets to St. Paul's Church. After the service it was reformed and returned to the station by way of Grafton, Prince Kent Queen and Richmond Streets. The parade was led by the newly formed band of the Sons of England. After returning to their hall, the members listened to a few remarks by His Worship, Mayor B. Roy Holman.

DUPLICATE SERVICE—News that the S. E. Hochelega is to be operated again this summer between Charlottetown and Petou has occasioned much surprise locally. The Hochelega runs on the route on Tuesday next, and it is understood will operate for at least two months on a federal subsidy of $7,000 per month. The Prince Roy is being prepared to inaugurate the service between Wood Islands, and Caribou, N. S. early next month and it was understood that this would replace the service previously given by the Hochelega between Charlottetown and Petou. Local business men interviewed on the subject could see no reason for the duplication of services this year and expressed surprise that the federal subsidy for the Hochelega should be renewed.

TUESDAY
Mrs. Collum Bruce, Montague, and her sister, Mrs. N. Gay left for St. John's, N. S., on Wednesday to attend the wedding of their niece Miss Vivian Jenkins—L.

Mr. E. B. S. Ling of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Saint John, N. B., left recently for Montreal where he will relieve at their Sherbrooke & Greene branch. Mr. Ling was branch for ten years before going to Saint John.

VISITING IN S'IDE—Mr. W. R. Brennan and his wife, Miss Constance Eleanor Homer of Kansas City arrived in Summerside last night. Mr. Brennan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Brennan, Mr. Brennan and his fiancée are to be married on the first day of June at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brennan.

AT GYRO—Mr. Bramwell Chandler was speaker at the weekly dinner meeting of the GYRO Club last night. He told of the surprise party which was given in conjunction with Dr. J. J. Yeo, the reading habits of Prince Edward Islanders. Mr. Gordon Graham of Moncton was a guest. Mr. R. D. Scott was chairman.

BRIDAL SHOWER—An enjoyable function was held at the home of Miss Dorothy McAleer, Westmouth Street last Tuesday night when a number of friends gathered for a social and very robust health for the last couple of years she was able to attend to her household duties and receive and entertain her many friends who were always so welcome at her home.

DRAMATIC CLUB MEETING—The annual meeting of the Baseline Dramatic Club was held at the Name Hall at 8 p. m. on Thursday, May 23rd with a large crowd in attendance. A report on the club's activities was given by the President, Mr. J. Austin Trainor. The following list of officers was elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. William Brown, Vice-President, Mrs. Fred MacMillan, Secretary, Miss Patricia Mahar, and Treasurer, Rev. Thomas McCormack.

ARTILLERY ATTENDS MASS—On the morning of their departure for the mainland, the members of the 8th Medium Battery attended Mass at the barracks which was conducted by Rev. Thomas McCormack. They also received Holy Communion from Rev. McCormack.

FUNERAL SATURDAY—The funeral of the late Alexander Campbell was held Saturday morning from the residence of his brother, Capt. Archibald Campbell, South Bay where Solemn Requiem High Mass was sung by the pastor, Rev. A. J. Macdonald. Rev. C. M. McCarthy as sub-deacon. Assisting in the Sanctuary was Rev. G. McKenna. C. S. R. The Rev. Messrs. H. D. McInnes, Brent Matthews, Thomas Klockner, Lawrence Lunnigan, Andrew MacNeil, and Rev. McInnes, Internment Rollo Bay Cemetery.

ISLAND STUDENTS AT MCGILL—The following Prince Edward Island students at McGill were successful in their studies at the University. Convocation will be held on Wednesday, June 13th for the degree of B. A. C. M., two Islanders, James Dods, B. Sc., Summerside and J. M. Malcolm Putnam, B. A., Eldon. Have been successful. Bachelor of Arts degrees will be awarded to the following: John Russell Carson, Harold Lloyd Henderson and James Fraser MacMillan, all of Charlottetown.

NEW POLICE RADIO OPERATING—The Charlottetown Police patrol is now radio equipped. The transmitter was set up at the station last week and Saturday a receiver was installed in the car. The patrol is able to maintain constant contact with the Police Headquarters by means of the new equipment. The machine is in first class working order and a man in the car can hear orders from the desk, which come over the receiver in a clear voice, without the least bit of difficulty. A minute after the telephone in the station, the officer at the desk relays the call to the patrol and this no time is lost by waiting for the call to be received at the station. This new equipment should prove of great assistance in combating crime in the city.

THE annual church parade of the Sons of England was held yesterday afternoon at about 4 o'clock. The society left the Hall and attended service at St. Paul's Church where an inspiring sermon was preached by Rev. LeDrew Gartner. In the absence, marshalled by Past President A. G. Ford proceeded by way of Richmond Street, St. Paul's Church and Church Streets to St. Paul's Church. After the service it was reformed and returned to the station by way of Grafton, Prince Kent Queen and Richmond Streets. The parade was led by the newly formed band of the Sons of England. After returning to their hall, the members listened to a few remarks by His Worship, Mayor B. Roy Holman.

DUPLICATE SERVICE—News that the S. E. Hochelega is to be operated again this summer between Charlottetown and Petou has occasioned much surprise locally. The Hochelega runs on the route on Tuesday next, and it is understood will operate for at least two months on a federal subsidy of $7,000 per month. The Prince Roy is being prepared to inaugurate the service between Wood Islands, and Caribou, N. S. early next month and it was understood that this would replace the service previously given by the Hochelega between Charlottetown and Petou. Local business men interviewed on the subject could see no reason for the duplication of services this year and expressed surprise that the federal subsidy for the Hochelega should be renewed.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Ralph Brannigan of Sherbrook, Que., and Miss Margaret Glasgow, N. S., on Wednesday, are visitors to Montague. The guests of their sister, Mrs. A. G. Parks—L.

The Town of Castor was saddened when it became known of the passing of one of the towns early citizens, Dr. J. J. McPherson, who passed away on Friday night at the age of 62 years.

At a special meeting of the City Council held last night, the Mayor gave notice of motion that he intended to introduce a By-Law making Daylight Saving official time as it is applied to the City by-law, the same to be applicable to such time as Daylight Saving Time is in force as a result of the resolution of the City Council.

CAR FERRY SUMMER SCHEDULE—The Car ferry at Borden indicated its regular summer schedule yesterday. There will be three sailings from both Port Borden and Cape Tormentine each day instead of two. The extra late trip, the boat leaves Borden at 10 p. m. and starts on its return trip from Cape Tormentine at 6:20 p. m.

Mr. (Capt.) John Baines, who was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. G. O. MacNeil, returned to her home in Port Hawkesbury, N. S. last week. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. B. B. Baines, who visited her son, Blair, who has had a very successful year at Mount Allison University, left for Sussex, N. B. where he will take a two weeks training course with the Mount Allison Canadian Officers Training Corps.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Mr. Felix Herrell, 43-year-old C. N. R. employee, whose death occurred at his home on Saturday morning from the effects of a heart attack, was held yesterday morning from his late residence, 48 Westmouth Street to St. Dunstan's Basilica where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. George McCormack, who also held service at the grave. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Charles Doyle, Patrick Dennis, Michael Griffith, and Fred Tierney.

HAD ISLAND RELATIVES—The death occurred at Edmondton on May 19th of Rev. W. A. Mason, a native of Nova Scotia. He ministered to the following congregations on P. E. Island: Long River, Georgetown and Lot 14. He moved to Edmondton in 1912 and worked as a printer in several places in the west. He is survived by his widow, formerly Martha Johnston, and three children: William Johnston, Long River, and three daughters: Mrs. Forbes, Mrs. Herd and Mrs. Jones, all of Edmondton.

JOINS THE COLORS—Mr. Arthur J. Orford of this city has reached London, England and intends to join the British Army, having been accepted for the first day of September, the day war was declared and his father is hoping to meet with them in England before they proceed to a war area.

John Clark of Annandale, King's County, was burned seriously yesterday when gasoline he was pouring into a can exploded. He was preparing for an early start to visit his lobster traps when the accident occurred. The gasoline was in a can in the building on the wharf. A lantern Clark was using to provide light was thought to have touched off the blast. George Clark, the fire chief, extinguished the fire which started from the explosion, using wet sacks to beat out the flames.

A doctor summoned to treat the man who was burned yesterday, reported to hospital he was taken to the Charlottetown Hospital by a neighbor, Alex A. MacDonald. His injuries were burns on his hands, arms and face. Tonight his condition was described as fair.

Leadership is the crying need of the present time," Lieut.-Col. Most Rev. G. L. Neilligan, D. D., Bishop of Pembroke, said yesterday in addressing the graduates of St. Dunstan's College at the annual commencement exercises.

Those receiving bachelor of arts degrees included: Leonard Connolly, B. A., Morell, P. E. I.; John Coyle, B. A., Charlottetown, P. E. I.; Roland DesChamps, B. A., Grand-Mere, P. Q.; Albert DuPont, B. A., Almatville, P. Q.; Thomas Holland, B. A., Souris, P. E. I.; Harold Landry, B. A., Montague, N. S.; James McCarthy, B. A., Amherst, N. S.; James McCaughey, B. A., (cum laude), Bonshaw, P. E. I.; Joseph Maher, B. A., Frampton, P. Q.; Jean Marcotte, B. A., Shawingam Falls, P. Q.; Howard Wright, B. A., Georgetown, P. E. I.; Mr. James McCaughey, Bonshaw, read the valedictory. The program opened with the Gloria, "O Canada" by the Glee Club of the college, and the presentation of special prizes followed by the annual report of Rector Mear J. A. Murphy, D. D. The Glee Club again furnished entertainment with a selection, "With Songs and Glee." Mr. McCaughey's valedictory and conferring of degrees was followed by the address to the graduates by Bishop Neilligan.

Other speakers were: His Excellency, Bishop J. A. O'Sullivan, His Honour Lieut.-Governor, B. W. LePage, Premier Thane A. Campbell, His Worship Mayor B. Roy Holman.

The death occurred in this city on Friday, May 24th, of Michael E. Berrigan, who had reached the four score and ten mark and who until almost up to the time of his death, had enjoyed excellent health.

MACDONALD HEARTZ WEDDING—St. Paul's Anglican Church received a quiet but pretty wedding yesterday morning at eight-thirty, when Miss Doris Gertrude Hertz and the late Mr. Ernest Macdonald, became the bride of the groom.

PRIZE WINNERS AT ACADIA—Among the Prize winners at Acadia University this year are three Charlottetown students. Miss Katherine Bagnall, received a continuation Scholarship, Mr. George Hart, the class of 1936 Scholarship and Mr. Neil Fries Cray Bligh Trophy.

SISTER DIES—Mrs. Michael J. Cameron, 11 Cheapside street, has received the sad news of the death of her niece, Charles Wall, in Saint John. She was formerly Miss Mae Nell, of Wellington, P. E. I. Miss Mary Cameron was in Saint John Thursday attending the funeral—Moncton Transcript.

SYMPATHY EXTENDED—Much sympathy is extended to Mr. George Compton of St. Eleonor in the death of their little daughter of six months, who passed away early Monday morning. The little one was laid to rest on Monday afternoon, Rev. G. E. Harrison officiating at the service.

A joyous event that gathered together a host of their friends and well-wishers took place Thursday morning at 8:30 at the church of the Most Holy Redeemer, where Helen Patricia Hughes, daughter of Mr. John Hughes and Mrs. Everett Toombs, R.C.A.M.C. son of Harry Toombs and the late Mrs. M. J. Toombs, was united in matrimony to Mr. Geo. McKenna, Mass.

Mr. John Shirling MacDonald, son of Mr. Peter MacDonald of Charlottetown, the Rev. LeDrew Gartner officiating in marriage by Mr. Walter N. Wilson, the bride was attractively attired in a dressmaker suit of sheldrake, wearing a small red rose, a silver, silver fox scarf, with black patent, silver shoes and shoulder corsage of Br. Br. During the signing of the register, Miss Pearl Carson gave a beautiful rendition of Bohm's "Calm as the Night." Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald left on honeymoon trip to the White Mountains amidst showers of confetti and the best wishes of their friends in which the Gleaner joins.

WEDNESDAY—Mr. and Mrs. Austin Hamill accompanied by Miss Pauline Hamill and Mrs. Russell MacCarville, motored to Charlottetown on Friday, May 24, where they attended the blessing and presentation of the Holy Giver to four of the "Sisters of Martha" St. Clare's, St. Eugene being Mrs. Hamill's niece. They had dinner at Mount St. Mary's where they were beautifully received.

There are three essentials which a good nurse must possess: knowledge, skill and character. Fact, sympathy and the ability of self and faith in oneself are also very important. Dr. J. D. McQuigan, Charlottetown, the fourteen graduates of the Charlottetown Hospital School of Nursing, who received their diplomas from Rev. LeDrew Gartner, at the annual commencement exercises held in the Name Hall last night.

The ideal character in the type that radiates health in the sick-room and hospital. She is of sunny disposition, of a cheerful and active of movement, considerate in her handling of patients and constant in the observance of rules. Her who character is absorbed in her desire to serve others and alleviate suffering in body and mind." Dr. McQuigan said.

In the absence of Rt. Rev. J. A. O'Sullivan, Bishop of Charlottetown, the diplomas were presented by Msgr. Murphy to the following young nurses: Helen Mae Sullivan, Vernon; Edna Mary Richard, Charlottetown; Dorothy Agnes Graham, Kells; Eleanore Constance O'Meara, Charlottetown; Mary Katherine Collins, Montague; Sister Mary Patricia, Charlottetown; Mary Margaret McEwen, Grand Tracadie; Helen Marie Sexton, Borden; Anna Eileen Whelan, Charlottetown; Eleanore; Rita Frances Norris, Charlottetown; Mary Frances Handran, Montague; Mary Helen Lunnigan, Sturgeon; and Anna Marie Blanchard, Summerside.

Kept Minard's in the home.

RETURNED HOME—Mrs. D. R. Morrison has returned to her home in Bedouque, after spending the winter with friends in Montreal.

HOCHELAGA IN PORT—The Hochelega arrived in port last night. It is understood that the ferry will commence her regular route between this city and P. E. I., N. S. in the near future.

RETURNED HOME—Dr. and Mrs. A. Lockhart have returned to their home in Summerside from an enjoyable motor trip to Halifax and other points in Nova Scotia. On their way home they visited in Moncton—S.

Work on the car ferry Prince Nova has been suspended indefinitely according to word received yesterday from the Halifax shipyard. It is also rumored that the work on the Caribou terminal has been held up.

Lieut.-Col. Most Rev. G. L. Neilligan, D.D., Bishop of Pembroke leaves the Province today after a two-day visit. While here he addressed the graduates of St. Dunstan's College at the annual commencement exercises held Monday afternoon.

Gunner Edwin Thomson, of the 51st Heavy Battery and Private Daniel Thomson of the P. E. I. Highlanders (Black Watch) are spending their furlough at their home on Pleasant Street, Charlottetown.

TAKEN UP RESIDENCE AT SUMMER HOME—Mr. and Mrs. Richardson and their daughter, Mrs. V. Macdonald and her little daughter, Sandra who have been spending the winter in Summerside have taken up their residence at their summer cottage at St. Davids' Shore.

Mrs. C. R. Rogers has returned to her home in Summerside from Charlottetown where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Woodman Springpark Road; and also her sister Mrs. Bell, of Newfoundland who is at present the guest of Mrs. Woodman. It is pleasing to report that Mrs. Rogers is very much improved after her recent indisposition.

POST NUPITAL SHOWER—Mrs. Clavis Perry (nee Vivian Carver) who was recently married in Charlottetown, was tendered a miscellaneous shower by her friends recently in the C. M. B. A. hall. There were about 250 guests present. The bride was played by Miss Yvonne Arsenault as the bride was escorted to the seat of honor by Mrs. Leonard Peters. The very lovely gifts were opened by Mrs. Albert Gault and Mrs. Carl Delaney and the verses read by Miss Lena MacQuarrie and Miss Lena MacQuarrie.

Mr. George W. Wakelord, a highly esteemed resident of Charlottetown, had the misfortune of breaking his arm between the shoulder and elbow in a fall yesterday. The accident occurred when Mr. Wakelord missed a step coming out of his house. He was taken to the Prince Edward Island Hospital where he received medical aid.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY—The funeral of the late Winnie Dalziel was held yesterday afternoon from the residence of her brother, John Dalziel, Victory Avenue. The service at the house and grave was conducted by Adjutant Lynch. The pallbearers were: Messrs. John Castrod, Alva Ford, George Bell, John Thorne, Harry Murphy and Peter Connolly. Internment People's cemetery.

Sunday May 26th, Corpus Christi Sunday was fittingly celebrated in Sacred Heart Chapel in Borden. High Mass was celebrated in the morning by the pastor Rev. W. E. Monaghan. Special month of May services in honour of the Blessed Virgin were held in the evening consisting of Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and procession around the interior of the church. The procession was made up of the Girl Guides and little girls of the parish, headed by the pastor and altar boys. While the procession was being formed and also during the procession the choir sang appropriate hymns. Rev. Fr. Monaghan preached a sermon on the Blessed Virgin during the services which closed with Benediction.

RETURNED TO AMHERST—Mr. Norman Sarge, divinity student at Kings College, who has been visiting in Summerside and assisted with the services in St. Mary's Church on Sunday, has returned to his home in Amherst.

The teachers and pupils of Queen Square assembled in the school auditorium at 9:30 yesterday morning to welcome a former teacher of the school, Lieut. Col. Most Rev. G. L. Neilligan, Bishop of Pembroke, Ont., and now chief Catholic Chaplain of the Canadian Forces both in Canada and overseas. He was accompanied by Rev. Louis Dougan, Fr. Keefe and Fr. McCormack of the Basilica Staff.

ADDRESSES GIRL GUIDES—Last night's night Camp of Girl Guides of Prince William held a church parade to Riverside Presbyterian Church, Prince William, N. S. The girls were welcomed by the student minister, Mr. MacKay, who spoke of the growth and importance of the Girl Guide and Boy Scout movement, and the part they have played and are playing in the world today. (Frederick Gleaner). Mr. MacKay is from Charlottetown and left recently for Prince William to take over his duties there.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Mr. Harold Gallant took place yesterday morning from the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Gallant, Oyster Bed Bridge and was largely attended. High Mass was celebrated at St. Augustine Church by Rev. Father Clarence Pitre who also conducted the service at the grave. The pallbearers were Messrs. John Peterson, Addie Peterson Dawson Peterson, Edgar Peters, E. Peters, Angus Gallant. He leaves to mourn besides his sorrowing parents, Mrs. Elizabeth Gallant, Oyster Bed Bridge, Mrs. Leo Gallant, Oyster Bed Bridge, Mrs. John Garthum City, Mrs. Pat Hughes, Mrs. E. Doreen, Mrs. Joseph Clifford, Russell, Stephen and Wendell, all at home.

CREIGHAN-CORCORAN—A pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Dunstan's Basilica at 7 o'clock yesterday morning when Mary Elizabeth, daughter of the late John Creighan and Mrs. J. Alfred Egan was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. John Corcoran, son of Harry and the late Mrs. Corcoran. The ceremony was performed at St. Augustine Church by Rev. Father Clarence Pitre who also conducted the service at the grave. The pallbearers were Messrs. John Peterson, Addie Peterson Dawson Peterson, Edgar Peters, E. Peters, Angus Gallant. He leaves to mourn besides his sorrowing parents, Mrs. Elizabeth Gallant, Oyster Bed Bridge, Mrs. Leo Gallant, Oyster Bed Bridge, Mrs. John Garthum City, Mrs. Pat Hughes, Mrs. E. Doreen, Mrs. Joseph Clifford, Russell, Stephen and Wendell, all at home.

Friends will mourn the passing of Mr. Harry G. Rogers, a resident of St. John's, for thirty-eight years, who passed away quietly at his residence 58 Orange Street. He resided in Saint John from 1894 until 1930, when he moved to Charlottetown. He returned and took up his residence in Saint John again in 1936.

SSIDE TO LIGHT AIRPORT—Mr. Ainsworth of Ottawa met the Mayor and Town Council of Summerside yesterday afternoon in connection with the lighting of the new light tower at the factory arrangements were made between the council and the Department of Transport in connection with the matter. Mr. Ainsworth came by plane from Ottawa.

HOME FOR BURIAL—The body of the late Archibald Dalziel, who formerly of Elmsdale, P. E. I., who passed away in Moncton, N. B., on Monday was sent home for burial. The funeral took place on Thursday from the home of the daughter, Mrs. Hugh Williams. Mr. Matthews has resided in Moncton for the past 15 years but will be returning to Charlottetown with his friends. He leaves a wife and several sons and daughters—S.

BALLEN-TAYLOR—An exquisitely simple wedding took place at high noon on May 16th when Myrtle Alberta Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Taylor of Summerside, was united in marriage to Mr. Alex McLean, a Signal Corps soldier and son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ballen, of Mt. Allison, P. E. I. were united in marriage by Dr. Alexander A. Murray of the Westminster congregation in the presence of immediate relatives. The ceremony was performed at the home of the groom's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ballen, 88 George Street, Sydney, where, in the drawing-room, decorated with American Beauty roses, the nuptial union took place in a setting of beautiful old mahogany. Mrs. Ballen, mother of the groom, rendered the wedding marches and Mr. H. C. Ballen gave the bride in marriage. The bride was winnowed in a navy tailored suit with navy accessories, fox fur, and corsage of orchids and sweet peas. Her attendant was Miss Margaret Eleanor Ballen, sister of the groom, wearing dusky pink and Elizabeth blue. Mr. Perley Taylor, brother of the bride, attended the ceremony. The bride and groom left by motor on their wedding trip to Prince Edward Island and en route they will visit Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Ballen, of New Glasgow. The bride and groom will return to Sydney to join his regiment at the end of the month. The groom's gifts were: a white gold watch; to the bridesmaid, a gold locket and chain in antique setting; to the best man, a signet ring and pencil set. A reception and buffet luncheon were held prior to the departure of the bridal party.

FRIDAY
Mr. and Mrs. Roland Sheen and little son Gerald of Wallace, N.S., arrived in Kennington on Monday. Mr. Sheen will return to Wallace, N. S., on Wednesday but Mrs. Sheen and son Gerald will remain for a two weeks holiday with her father here.

Mr. Herbert G. Morris, Toronto, has been appointed Secretary of the local Y. M. C. A. and is expected to arrive in Charlottetown. He succeeds Mr. Norville E. Luck who will leave shortly to report to the Y. M. C. A. National Council for work.

TRANSFERRED—L. U. Berringer of Prince Edward Island, who formerly served with the P. E. I. Light Horse, N. F. A. M., has been accepted for service in the 1st Halifax Coast Brigade, R.C.A., and posted for duty with the 51st Heavy Battery, R.C.A.

GRADUATES IN MEDICINE—Mr. James Dods, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dods of Summerside is graduating in medicine from McGill University this year. Mr. and Mrs. Dods are attending the commencement exercises at the University which are taking place this week—S.

WEDDING BELLS—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Carew, Hunter River, announce the marriage of their daughter, Mildred, in Fredericton, N. B. Saturday, May 25th to Sergeant Major Kenneth G. W. Doull, R. C. A. District Depot, No. 7, Fredericton, only son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Doull of Moncton, N. B.

Friends will mourn the passing of Mr. Harry G. Rogers, a resident of St. John's, for thirty-eight years, who passed away quietly at his residence 58 Orange Street. He resided in Saint John from 1894 until 1930, when he moved to Charlottetown. He returned and took up his residence in Saint John again in 1936.

SSIDE TO LIGHT AIRPORT—Mr. Ainsworth of Ottawa met the Mayor and Town Council of Summerside yesterday afternoon in connection with the lighting of the new light tower at the factory arrangements were made between the council and the Department of Transport in connection with the matter. Mr. Ainsworth came by plane from Ottawa.

HOME FOR BURIAL—The body of the late Archibald Dalziel, who formerly of Elmsdale, P. E. I., who passed away in Moncton, N. B., on Monday was sent home for burial. The funeral took place on Thursday from the home of the daughter, Mrs. Hugh Williams. Mr. Matthews has resided in Moncton for the past 15 years but will be returning to Charlottetown with his friends. He leaves a wife and several sons and daughters—S.

BALLEN-TAYLOR—An exquisitely simple wedding took place at high noon on May 16th when Myrtle Alberta Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Taylor of Summerside, was united in marriage to Mr. Alex McLean, a Signal Corps soldier and son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ballen, of Mt. Allison, P. E. I. were united in marriage by Dr. Alexander A. Murray of the Westminster congregation in the presence of immediate relatives. The ceremony was performed at the home of the groom's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ballen, 88 George Street, Sydney, where, in the drawing-room, decorated with American Beauty roses, the nuptial union took place in a setting of beautiful old mahogany. Mrs. Ballen, mother of the groom, rendered the wedding marches and Mr. H. C. Ballen gave the bride in marriage. The bride was winnowed in a navy tailored suit with navy accessories, fox fur, and corsage of orchids and sweet peas. Her attendant was Miss Margaret Eleanor Ballen, sister of the groom, wearing dusky pink and Elizabeth blue. Mr. Perley Taylor, brother of the bride, attended the ceremony. The bride and groom left by motor on their wedding trip to Prince Edward Island and en route they will visit Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Ballen, of New Glasgow. The bride and groom will return to Sydney to join his regiment at the end of the month. The groom's gifts were: a white gold watch; to the bridesmaid, a gold locket and chain in antique setting; to the best man, a signet ring and pencil set. A reception and buffet luncheon were held prior to the departure of the bridal party.

ATTENDING RETREAT—Mr. Archibald G. R. Harrison is attending a retreat at the Annapolis Priory, Prince Edward Island—S.

Mrs. James Creighton of Dartmouth, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. White in Charlottetown and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace J. Lidstone, Summerside, has returned to her home—S.

TRAVEL EXAMINATION—Dr. Owen H. Curtis left the city Monday morning to take the Dominion Medical Council examinations now being held at the University, Halifax. The exams continue one week. (Pat. Please Copy)

The closing meeting of the Junior W.A. of St. Mark's Church, Kennington, was recently held in St. Mark's hall. The President, Mrs. Gill, took charge of the business session and excellent reports were presented by the various officers. A short, but enjoyable program included the children's version of the Ten Commandments and a dialogue entitled, "Tommy and His Grandpa," with four juniors taking part. The guest speaker, the Rev. G. C. Gardner of St. Paul's Church, Charlottetown, was welcomed by the Rev. B. J. Gardner in speaking to the children. Mr. Gardner likened their lives to a sun, telling them that their faces and actions should reflect the light of the world, and that they should reach to every dark corner. The Junior W.A. Banner was used for the first time in this meeting and the things which have been made for the Bishop Holden Memorial School were on display. Other guests from Charlottetown were Mrs. A. LeDrew, Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. W. Weeks and Mrs. McLeod.

BIRTHS
FARMER—At the Charlottetown Hospital, on May 27, 1940, to Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Farmer, Charlottetown, a son.

GRIFFIN—At Tyrone Lot 65, May 21, 1940, to Mr. and Mrs. James Griffin a daughter, Mary Alice.

MARRIAGES
MORRISON-CAMPBELL—At Zion Mansions on Tuesday, May 28, by Rev. G. C. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Lottie Jane Campbell, Charlottetown, to Mr. John Emmet Morrison of Kinloch, Southport.

RANSAY-WILLIAMS—At Zion Mansions on Thursday, May 23, by Rev. G. C. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Margaret Elsie Williams, of Mount Pleasant, to Mr. Edgar Milligan Ramsay of the same place.

SOMERS-CUMMINGS—At Zion Mansions on Wednesday, May 29, by Rev. G. C. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Florence Isabel Cummings, of Bradabane to Mr. Ellen Bruce Somers of the same place.

DEATHS
HERRELL—At his residence, 48 Westmouth Street, on May 25, 1940, Felix H. Herrell, aged 43 years.

MEIKLE—At the home of her mother, Mrs. Malcolm Matheson on May 25, 1940, Mrs. Mary Jane Meikle in her 93rd year.

DIMOND—At her home in Bedford, Mass., Mrs. George M. Dimond, nee Helen Cavannah, formerly of New Haven, Prince Edward Island.

MACARTHUR—At Hamilton, P. E. I., May 25th, Mrs. Lillian MacArthur, aged 83 years.

GALLANT—At Oyster Bed Bridge, on May 27th, 1940, Harold Gallant, aged 27 years, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Gallant.

DALZIEL—Suddenly at 12 Upper George Street, Winnie Dalziel in her 65th year.

ROBBINS—At Morell on Wednesday, May 29, 1940, Mrs. James H. Robbins aged 73 years.

PERRY—At his home in Tangle on May 28, 1940, Gerard Perry, aged 77 years.

PERRY—At S'ide, May 30, 1940, Henry Perry, aged 74 years.

ROBBINS—At Morell, May 29, 1940, Mrs. James H. Robbins, aged 73 years.

TRAINOR—At Hope River, May 29, 1940, John T. Trainor, aged 74 years.

WAYE—At the P. E. I. Hospital, on Thursday, May 30, 1940, William David Waye in his 79th year.

VICKERSON—At 53 Upper Hillsboro Street, Wednesday May 29th, George Vickerson, in his 51st year.

TILLIE THE TOILER - THERE'S NO ESCAPING FAMS FOR GLENNY.

