LIQUOR RATION INCREASE?

HALIFAX, Sept. 18—(CP)—Rumors that the Nova Scotia hard liquor ration may be increased by an extra quart next month were heard in authoritative circles today, but Liquor Commissioner A.S. Mahon would make no comment other than that the matter had not been taken into consideration yet.

The boost, if it materializes, would give each customer 78 ounces in every four-week period, compared with the present ration of 52 ounces.

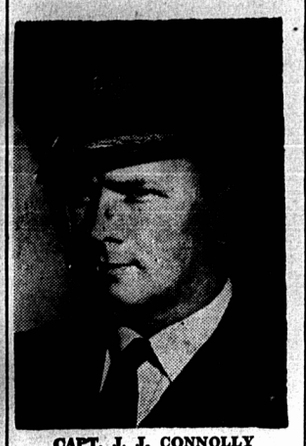
JUDY GARLAND, ROBERT WALKER AT TOP BEST IN M-G-M'S "CLOCK"

—With Judy Garland and Robert Walker at their best, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "The Clock," which opened at the Capitol Theatre, emerges as one of the most enchanting films of the year.

It's the tender, heart-warming story of the romance between Bob as a soldier in New York City for the first time, on a 48-hour pass, and Judy, as a lovely girl who takes the lonely serviceman to her heart.

The picture is full of beautiful moments as the two meet accidentally at Penn Station and begin a two-day romance which will enthrall everyone who sees the film. They have adventures, lose each other twice in the big city and finally have a heart-breakingly hilarious time trying to obtain a marriage license. And when they do there are further touching scenes as they try to find someone who will perform the marriage ceremony.

On Leave Home Prior To Discharge From Naval Service



CAPT. J. J. CONNOLLY

After six years of meritorious service, Acting-Captain J.J. Connolly, R.C.N.V.R. is home on leave prior to receiving his discharge from the Canadian Navy.

Captain Connolly's last station was H.M.C.S. Avalon, Newfoundland, where he was Commanding Officer.

Canada's entrance into the war in September, 1939, did not find Captain Connolly a novice in naval affairs. He joined the Canadian Navy in 1926 as a sub-Lieutenant and his peace-time training had included two six-month training cruises in the West Indies. He was promoted Lieutenant-Commander in 1937 and it was with this rank that he entered active hostilities in 1939.

For a year he was Commanding Officer of H.M.C.S. Queen Charlotte, Charlottetown. His next transfer was to H.M.C.S. Stadacona, Halifax. His next appointment was at sea as executive officer aboard H.M.C.S. Hamilton which was one of the American destroyers transferred to England in exchange for the 99-year lease of strategic land bases.

From sea duty Captain Connolly went to King's College, Halifax, for further study and then to H.M.C.S. York, Toronto, which he commanded for several months and where he received his fourth ring last June before taking command of the Newfoundland base.

Professor E.S. Snyder's lecture is a highlight. His topic, "Factors in Egg Quality" will be illustrated.

Poultry men are particularly interested in hearing Mr. W.A. Brown. His address "Planning our Future Markets" is of outstanding importance, since the future of our industry is wrapped up in markets.

Island Flier Joins Transport Command For Duty In Pacific

Following is a letter received via air mail by Mrs. Melvin Baglole, O'Leary, from her son, FO. Arthur Baglole in England.

Dear Mother and Dad:

I was very pleased to receive your letter the other day, and I'm sure you must be a bit surprised to get this one. Well anyway, I figured I'd be home by this time, but instead, I'm here in England. The reason is this: I had an offer to join Transport Command if I volunteered for the Pacific. If I did that, it would mean another year and a half of flying to all parts of the world. At $8.50 a day, that's a good job and I don't mean maybe. I was one of the few pilots asked to do this because I have experience in this line of work. I transported hundreds of troops to Belgium, Norway and Germany after VE-day, also brought back prisoners of war.

Before the war ended, I supplied the underground in France, Holland, Germany, Belgium, Denmark and Norway. Sometimes it would mean a ten-hour trip all done at night at only 500 ft. This I did in Halifax's. I have also flown Stirling's. I would bring the underground troops, who would parachute out at night, right under the enemy's nose. I would also bring them food, guns, ammunition, money, or what have you. It was dangerous but interesting.

Now Transport Command wanted someone experienced in carrying freight and people also a person who could fly four-engined aircraft, because I'll be going into Liberators now. That's why I had the chnace of getting this job. I'm quite sure they are going to continue with their plans. I heard today that after we finished our training here, that we would probably move to Canada and operate from there. That would be grand. I want to go home more than anything else, but what's the good of being home without a job. Anyway that's the story, and I expect to be home before Christmas.

Will have to close now, so will say bye-bye.

All my love,

Your son, Arthur.

In Memoriam

NORA BRIDGET GREENAN

On September 5, 1945, the family of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Greenan, Kinkora, was sadly bereaved when God asked them to relinquish the trust He had given them and surrender their daughter, Nora Bridget,, who passed away at the Charlottetown Hospital.

It is scarcely ten years since the day, October 22, 1935, that their hearts were gladdened when they received that charge that they might care for her and prepare her to return one day to God to be happy forever with Him. Joyfully did they undertake the task and the little girl grew to be beloved by all and especially dear to her Grandfather Greenan, and her paretns, brothers and sisters. At the age of six she began to attend Kinkora School where her diligence in her studies, her cheerful manner, and amiable unselfishness with her playmates, made her a very popular pupil. The following year she received her First Holy Communion and in September 1944 received the Sacrament of Confirmation that she might be strengthened to walk as a true Christian on the way of life and come safely home. But her journey was not long. On Augus 24th, 1945, she became seriously ill and when she was taken to the Hospital it was found that she had the dread disease of diphtheria. Her dear ones fondly hoped and prayed that she would recover but from the first she herself said that she was going to die, and after almost two weeks of patient suffering she calmly went to the Saviour, Friend of Little Ones.

Her parents, her Grandfather Mr. Michael Greenan, and her Grandmother, Mrs. Peter Connick, three sisters and one brother Irene, Genevieve, Wanda and Harold, all at home, mourn her with lonely hearts yet with trusted confidence that the innocent soul of their darling Nora is now rejoicing where "there is neither sorrow nor weeping."

On Friday, September 7th, her little white-robed body in a beautiful casket was conveyed to St. Malachy's Church, Kinkora, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rt. Rev. J. A. Murphy. The pupils of Kinkora School formed a guard of honor from the Church gate to the door,an d marched in a body among the mourners. The following acted as pall-bearers: Gerald McCarville, P. J. Greenan Leonard McCarville, Ignatius Lawless, Louis Connick, George Deighan.

Second Break At Souris Liquor Store

For the second time within the past six months, the Government retail liquor store at Souris has been broken into and a quantity of liquor, amounting to $350 worth stolen.

The break, which occurred over the week end, was made by the thieves using hacksaws to cut their way through three locks.

The larger portion of the stolen liquor was later recovered in a lilac bush near the scene of the theft by Cpl. W. Beatty, R.C.M.P.

While no arrests had been made up to last night, it is understood police are continuing the investigation.

Last April, about $150 of liquor was stolen from the same. The thief or thieves were not apprehended.

SEAMEN ON--

Co-incident with the arrival in Ottawa of a delegation of the Retail Merchants' Association of Canada to discuss meat rationing with Finance Minister Lisley and senior officials of the Prices Board, Mr. McLure asked on the House of Commons order paper:

1. What is the estimated slaughtering capacity of cattle, hogs, sheep and lambs in all the inspected plants of Canada?

2. Is any attempt being made by the Canadian Meat Board for the orderly receivings and marketings so as to avoid a glut on one cattle market and a scarcity on another?

Clarence Gillis, C.C.F., member for Cape Breton South filed a resolution on the order paper that the House of Commons approve that steps should be taken to bring the undeveloped material resources of Canada under Government control and operation.—S.

SALVATION ARMY—

Mrs. Major Pearo of Saint John who has been in the Province speaking on behalf of the campaign stated that the money would be used as intended for the "cause of Christianity and humanity."

Mr. Edwin C. Johnstone of the Advisory Committee expressed his thanks for the co-operation received making special mention of the fine work contributed by Mr. Montgomery.

The unavoidable absence from the meeting of Capt. N. W. Lowther, K.C., City Chairman, was referred to by various speakers.

Major T. B. Rogers spoke on behalf of the coming Clothing Collection Campaign and expressed the hope that the public would cooperate to the full towards the success of this most worthy cause. The clothing situation, he reported, in war-torn countries is desperate and the need great. "What can you spare that they can wear?" is the campaign cry for the National Clothing Collection drive which opens 1st of October.

A sing-song led by George J. Tweedy, K.C., was held during the course of the evening. Prof. Roy Kendall presided at the piano.

The canvassers for the campaign were arranged into five divisions whose leaders were Lieut.-Col. F. B. Conrad, M.M., E.D.; Lieut.-Col. J. D. Stewart, D.S.O., W. A. Rix; J. Andrew Likely and W. R LePage. Mr. Roy Cudmore was chairman of the "special names" division.
