Steel Shares Lead Decline On N. Y. Mart

BY FREDERICK GARDNER
Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Jan. 26 —(AP)— A heavy selling blast blew the stock market off its recent narrow course and tumbled many shares 2 to 7 points today. It was the widest break of the New Year and put the market almost back to where it started on an early January upturn.

Transactions about trembled, totalling 1,616,330 against 535,430 shares in the preceding session. The Associated Press average price of 60 stocks was down 1.8 points at 43.4, leaving a small margin separating it from the 1937 low at 41.7. The average for 15 rail stocks sank to the lowest since April 17, 1933, at 18.4, off .8.

General easiness prevailed among Canadian stocks. International Nickel dropped 1 5-8 points to 47 1-2. Fractionally lower were Distillers-Seagram, Dome, Ford, Imperial Tobacco, Massey Harris and Power Corporation. Imperial oil, Industrial Alcohol, McIntyre and Walkers improved slightly.

Steel shares led the retreat. U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, National, Youngstown and Republic were down 1 to about 4 at the finish, "big steel" ending off nearly 3 at 54 5-8.

Among the heavier share losers were Chrysler at 53 1-2, Sears Roebuck 57 3-8, Allied Chemical 162, Westinghouse 94 1-2, General Electric 40, General Motors 33 3-8, J. I. Case 86 1-4, Anaconda Copper 30 1-8, Kennecott 35 1-2, and Johns Manville 69.

Losses Are Sustained On Montreal Mart

MONTREAL, Jan. 26 —(CP)— Selling pressure lifted a trifle in late stock market trading today and a few leaders rallied narrowly.

C. P. R. rallied smartly, finishing up 1-4 at 7 3-4, but drops of 3-4 to more than a point were shown by Canadian car, the preferred and National Steel car. In papers, St. Lawrence paper preferred sold two points lower.

Issues closing with declines of fractions of more than a point included Brazilian, Power Corp., Gatineau power preferred, Shawinigan, Canada cement, Dominion Steel B, Dominion bridge, and foundation.

Total sales: 92,000 shares: Industrials 27,000; Mines 64,800. Bonds $600.

Currencies

MONTREAL, Jan. 26 —(CP)— Pound Sterling firmed 1-16 cent on Montreal foreign exchanges today to $4.99 13-16 while the French franc eased .02 7-8 cent to 3.25 7-8 cents. The United States dollar was unchanged at par.

The Pound Sterling was up 1-16 of a cent at 4.99 7-8, while the Netherlands guilder gained .03 of a cent. Both the Belga and Swiss franc closed up .00 1-2 of a cent. The Canadian dollar was unchanged at par.

TORONTO, Jan. 26 —(CP)— Charting a course in sympathy with New York market action, Toronto Mining exchange listings moved to lower levels today in a moderate volume of selling.

O'Brien was in the spotlight in the first hour as it receded back to 3.25 for a loss of 35 cents. The loss was cut to [illegible] when the price tightened up to 3.45 in the final stage.

A dozen or more golds down 5 to 10 cents included Perron, Powell Rouyn, Read-Authier, Pickle Crow, Pamour Premier, Siscoe, Sylvanite and Wright-Hargreaves. GRAIN

WINNIPEG, Jan. 26 —(CP)— Scattered export buying blocked a landslide decline in wheat futures on the Winnipeg grain exchange today after losses of more than two cents were posted.

Abrupt setbacks of Liverpool and Buenos Aires wheat quotations followed by the sharpest break in security markets this year forced stop-loss orders onto the market. Final values were 2 1-4-1 1-2 cents under yesterday's close, May at 1.-25 5-8, July 1.18 1-8 and October 1.00 3-8.

Chicago closed 2 1-2 cents lower Liverpool, reflecting decline in Argentine shippers' offers and weak trend at Buenos Aires, closed 1 5-8d-1 1-2d lower.

Cash wheat demand was slow but prices generally closed unchanged, except for No. 2 northern which eased one cent to 10 cents premiums over the May future.

All coarse grains closed lower. Oats 1-8-3-8, barley 5-8-3-4, flax 3-4-1 1-2, and rye 2 1-8-2 cents.

RUSH FOR SEATS IN BLACK MARIA

VANCOUVER, Jan. 26 — (CP)— Police told in court of unemployed men rushing to get places in the police van after a massed begging demonstration in the down-town section.

Spokesman for the men explained, "if the government can not see fit to keep us out of jail at a cost of 43 cents daily, we will go to jail where it costs a dollar a day."

The magistrate found the men guilty of obstructing the police. They were remanded for sentence.

Called By Death

HON. W. L. WALSH
former Lieutenant-Governor of Alberta, who died in Victoria.

A SALUTE TO P. E. I.

(Dedicated to all old timers who enjoyed a good old "Come-All-You". This may be sung to tune of, "Moonlight and Skies.")

My name is MacDonald, but what's in a name,
It's good as another, there's many the same;
I was born on the Island, I don't know just why,
The place called Lorne Valley, a name on P. I.

When I was a young lad, I wanted to roam,
I never was pleased with the place we called home,
But now that I'm older, and live far away,
I've lots of respect for my old home today.

The years have rolled onward, since I went away,
But in my fondest mem'ries, it seems yesterday,
I still well remember the friends that I knew,
For friends, like the fortunes we seek for, are few.

At home with your loved ones, where ever it be,
Is better than riches, just take it from me;
So let's all remember, on land or on foam,
Tho' ever so humble, there's no place like home.

There's pleasure in travel, sometimes there is pain,
But mem'ries of childhood will ever remain;
And after you've travelled, I'll bet you will find
The times you enjoyed most, you've left them behind.

If your not contented, and start out to roam,
You'll find rainbows end, right back at your home.
You may live in riches, or dwell in a shack,
But home, like a mother, will beckon you back.

And after we've lived we will most all agree,
The best things in life are the things that are free.
Whoever you are or wherever you roam,
Don't ever go back on the place you call home!

Here's luck to all those who wish me luck today,
You never can tell, we might all meet some day.
Young men of tomorrow, hark well to my cry,
An old timer's salute, to his home on P. I.

—W. L. MACDONALD,
Watertown, Mass.

METIS CELEBRATE IN ANCIENT WAY

LEBERT, Sask., Jan. 26—Tales of a vanished era when hunters ruled the plains of Western Canada were related as Metis of the Qu'Appelle Valley, 10 miles north of Regina, celebrated New Year's Eve in the old way at a function in Lebret with pioneers as guests of honor. Metis are descendants of the French-Canadian settlers in the West.

Oldest at the colorful party was Mrs. Joseph Racette, aged 104, with Mrs. Thomas Kavanaugh, active at 93, the next oldest. Mrs. Kavanaugh recalled how the first wheat was sown in the Qu'Appelle settlement in 1875 by her husband, the late Staff Sergeant Thomas Kavanaugh. It was threshed by a flail.

For many of the pioneers it was a rare occasion for they were served pemmican made from fresh buffalo meat. Ancient Red River jigs wer danced again.

Speakers at the party protested against the poverty-stricken condition of many Metis, declaring some were unable to get relief while others received only four cents a day each. Saskatchewan government investigation of the situation was reported under way.

AUSTRALIA PLANS TO INSURE STARS

SYDNEY, N.S.W., Jan 26 —(CP)— Officials of the Lawn Tennis Association of Australia today considered a plan for a nation-wide insurance of amateur tennis players.

The scheme offers insurance for 10 years to the 10 ranked men players of Australia between the ages of 16 and 20, provided they are ranked for four years during that period.

In event of a player, once insured, not fulfilling the ranking conditions, the policy would revert to the association or be carried by the player at his own expense.
