AGNES AYRES

WILL MAKE A PERSONAL STAGE APPEARANCE AT THE PRINCE EDWARD

3-DAYS—STARTING THURSDAY

John Barrymore At Prince Edward

Every once in a while there are movies that make you think and enjoy it.

Such a film is "A Bill of Divorcement," starring John Barrymore which opened yesterday at the Prince Edward Theatre.

Primarily superb entertainment with brilliant performances by Barrymore, Billie Burke and Katharine Hepburn, this film also is one which raises questions you carry out of the theatre to think and talk about at home.

Barrymore as the shell-shocked soldier has one of the most appealing and forceful roles of his long and colorful career.

Katharine Hepburn, in the role in which Katharine Cornell won her first great stage triumph captures a large share of the plaudits for this beautifully balanced cast. New to the screen, Miss Hepburn proves one of the dramatic finds of the year.

Paul Cavanagh, Henry Stephenson, David Manners, Elizabeth Patterson and Gayle Evers round out a distinguished cast which was directed with telling effect by George Cukor, maker of "What Price Hollywood?"

There is drama and entertainment and food for thought for all ages in "A Bill of Divorcement." This department recommends it as one of the films you should see.

"Alias The Doctor" Fine Drama

Surrounded by a powerful cast, in a powerful and novel story Richard Barthelmess, First National star, opened at the Capitol Theatre yesterday in "Alias The Doctor." It is an adaptation of an Hungarian story play one of the best vehicles Dick ever had. Sharing honors with him are Marian Marsh, Adrienne Dore, Norman Foster, John St. Polis, George Rosener and others.

The treatment is intensely dramatic. The scenes are skilfully worked up from one high point to another until the final smashing climax which is full of suspense and gripping power.

Lighter moments relieve the tension and strengthen the succession of highly dramatic situations.

"The wife and I decided to plant a tree in the garden every time we had a quarrel," said Banks.

"And I suppose you sit under the trees and think how foolish you were to have quarrelled?" asked Brown.

"Not exactly," Banks replied.

"We're moving to a place with bigger grounds."

PANMURE ISLAND WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The January meeting of the Panmure Island Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Hubert Campbell with an attendance of eight members.

The meeting opened by singing "Silent Night" and the roll call was responded by jokes and riddles.

The minutes of the December meeting were read and approved. A financial report of the dance held recently in the school was given.

The programme for the evening consisted of a reading "Prince Edward Island Day" by Stella Murphy and a sewing contest.

Mrs. Lawrence Campbell kindly invited the members to her house for the February meeting. This meeting is to be opened by singing "Springtime In the Rockies" and the roll call is to be responded by a valentine verse.

The meeting then adjourned after which a dainty lunch was served by Mrs. Campbell and a very pleasant hour spent in vocal and instrumental music.

MORELL SCHOOL

The standing of the pupils of Morell School for the month of November was as follows:—

Senior Department, E. S. Leslie, teacher:

Grade X.—1, Frankie Kelly; 2, Heber McEwen.

Grade IX.—1, Edith Baker; 2, Maurice Coffin; 3, Raymond Jay.

Grade VIII.—1, Linus Rossiter; 2, Clarice McGrath; 3, Marion Geldert.

BEDEQUE

Miss Alma Moase of Knutsford has been spending a holiday with relatives and friends in Wilmot Valley.

The many friends of Mrs. Charles Black of Centreville Bedeque, will regret to hear that her condition remains unchanged at time of writing.

Mrs. L. Mulligan of Kinkora, has been spending a very enjoyable holiday with her daughter, Mrs. Leo Hughes at Kensington.

Miss Patricia Callaghan, teacher at Richmond, spent last weekend in Norborough, the guest of her sister, Mrs. James Lawless.

The many friends of Mr. Charles Wright of Centreville Bedeque, will be pleased to hear that he is convalescing nicely from his serious illness.

Mr. Bruce Bowness of Moncton, N. B., has returned after spending a very pleasant holiday with relatives in Norboro.

The many friends of Mrs. Harry Simmons, of Wilmot Valley, who is receiving treatment in the Prince County Hospital, will be pleased to hear that she is now on the road to ultimate recovery.

The many friends of Mrs. Owen Connolly of Central Bedeque will regret to hear that she is again seriously ill.

The sincere sympathy of the entire community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Curley of Freetown, in the passing of their darling infant son, on Friday. This little one who came to bring happiness and sunshine in the home, will be sadly missed. And so fittingly these words apply to this little infant. "Truly, there's another star in Heaven."

Mrs. J. Murphy of Kinkora, has been spending a few days in Kensington, the welcome guest of her niece, Mrs. Leo Hughes.

Miss Jean Clarke of Wilmot Valley, has been spending a few days in Kensington, the guest of Miss Doris MacKenzie.—B

After a short rest he distributed the many gifts found on the heavily laden tree. All of the children received a bag of candy each and all of these taking part in the programme were presented with gifts.

Besides the gifts to the children the Minister, Rev. R. Hensley Stavert the three organists of the evening, Mrs. Geo. Gamester, Miss La-belle McDonald and Miss Ruth Dickleson and all of the other grown up people who took part in the programme were also remembered. When Santa Claus had completed the work he bade all present a fond adieu and set out for his home in the frozen north.

The meeting was closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

Neighbor (to woman whose husband has fallen off a scaffolding): "I ope yer good man is gettin' on all right, Mrs. Bangs?"

Mrs. Bangs: "Oh, yes, 'e will be out of the 'ospital in a week or two, but it smashed 'is watch up somethin' crue'!"

Addresses Large Sunday Meeting At Winnipeg

A recent issue of the Winnipeg Free Press reports a mass meeting held in the Winnipeg Auditorium, addressed by three outstanding Clergymen of the city, one of whom Rev. S. J. Bonnell is a native of Charlottetown and a former pastor at Cavendish. The other speakers were Rev. Msgr. T. W. Norton and Rev. Dr. G. A. Wells. The meeting was called by the young men's section of the Winnipeg Board of Trade and was attended by His Grace Archbishop I. O. Stringer, His Worship Mayor R. H. Webb, foreign consuls of many nations, and representatives of service clubs and various other business and fraternal organizations.

Insisting on the teachings of Christ as the only way out of present world troubles, the speaker made a stirring appeal to the vast audience. A summary of Rev. Mr. Bonnell's remarks follows:

"The needs of the day are more understanding and good will, was the message of Rev. J. S. Bonnell the title of whose address was "Building for a Better Tomorrow."

"We are all worshipping the same God. This is a period of great test. It has been a glorious innings for the pessimists whose prophecies of gloom are always sounding in our ears."

He reminded his audience of the remarkable resources of Canada. "We are a people with confidence and courage, also resources of good will that will be brought into operation. I would not exchange the future of Canada for that of any other nation on God's earth."

"We must have the courage of the pioneers which was founded on faith in God. We must silence the pessimist by displaying that courage that has ever been characteristic of the British breed. Our backs are against the wall. From now on we go forward. We must have faith in ourselves, in our country, and in our God, and march forward to the future for which this nation is destined."

"We must have an objective to march forward to. I have not the faintest doubt of our recovery, but what I am afraid of is that we will start to build again on the old foundations of greed and selfishness, and the ethics of the card table. Let us instead build on faith in God and the brotherhood of man. Human welfare must have first consideration. The making of men is more important than the making of money."

"We must make provision for safe-guarding the investment of labor, the same as we safeguard the investment of capital, because it is infinitely more important. Let us apply the spiritual doctrine of the brotherhood of man to all classes."

"If we build on these principles, we will have a national structure that will meet all the storms that may buffet it."

JAMES A. MACKAY

There passed peacefully away at his home in DeSable on Jan. 7th, 1933, James A. MacKay in his 75th year. Although in failing health for some time, he was able to attend to his daily duties until a couple of days previous to his death. Of a quiet and jovial disposition he was a good neighbor and when his health permitted was a regular attendant at the church services. In politics he was a staunch supporter of the Liberal party.

There are left to cherish his memory an aged sister Mary, on the homestead, and several nieces and nephews in New Brunswick.

The funeral, which was largely attended, was held Monday, Jan. 9th, from his late residence to Argyle Shore Cemetery. The service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. Ewen MacDougall. The pall bearers were: Alex. MacKay, James MacKay, Hector MacKay, Hecto MacNevin, Duncan MacKinnon and Fred Campbell.
