Duds To Fit Taste Of "Teener"

By FREDERICA FROMM

(Canadian Press Staff Writer) TORONTO, Sept. 17 — (CP) — Teen-aged girls, once the forgotten group in the fashion field, now have come into their own with clothes to fit their needs and suit their tastes.

Whereas Miss Teen-age formerly emulated her mother, style experts this year have warned the high school group to "Find the skirt length that suits you best and stick to it."

Smart and Trims

A grey suit with winged reverses, silver buttons, straight skirt with centre pleat front and back, as smart and trim for the well-dressed young woman. Round-tooth check, a favorite in double-breasted suits with straight skirts is in classic carigan style that comes with matching slacks. A few bolero suits are shown, usually with contrasting skirts.

York And Vicinity

Mrs. E. J. Vessey, York, is visiting in Halifax.

Miss Marion Murray, Pleasant Grove, was a visitor to the City on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Ross, Fair River, attended the shower in York for Mr. and Mrs. Howard Watts.

Mr. Bertie Thomas, West Covehead, is doing a rushing business in York with his threshing machine.

Mr. Holmes, Freetown, is visiting in York, the guest of his two grandsons, Ira and Claude Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Heber Proffitt, Rosebank, spent Sunday in York, the guests of Mrs. Proffitt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Vessey.

Miss Alice Crockett, City, is spending this week in York, the guest of her mother, Mrs. Robert Crockett.

Miss Helen Lewis, employee of R.E. Mutch & Co. spent the week end at her home in York.

Mrs. Vernon Rodd, City, spent Sunday in York, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Crockett.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Rodd, City, spent Sunday in York, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Duck.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cooke, City, were visitors to York on Sunday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leith Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Murray and son Alfred, Brackley Point, spent Sunday in Pleasant Grove, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Murray.

Friends of Mrs. Eiby Hardy are sorry to hear that she is a patient in the P. E. I. Hospital. They wish her a speedy recovery.

On September 15th, over seventy-five people of York and surrounding districts gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vessey to tender a miscellaneous shower to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Watts, bride and groom. About 9 o'clock the bride and groom entered the room accompanied by Shirley Cooke and Rupert Vessey, then a huge basket filled to overflowing with valuable gifts was carried into the living-room by Miss Norma Lewis and Miss Vivian Andrews. The verses were read by Miss Gladys Crockett and the gifts arranged on the table by Miss Shirley Cooke. When all the gifts were opened Howard, in his usual manner thanked all for their lovely gifts. Then all joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows." Then refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing and social intercourse. Then all departed wishing Howard and Kay many years of happy wedded bliss.

STEELE-SIMPSON WEDDING

A pretty wedding of interest to their friends and relatives was solemnized at the home of the bride's foster mother, Mrs. Manfred Goodwin of Bale Verte, New Brunswick, when Hattie Mae Simpson was united in marriage to LeRoy Steele of Port Elgin. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Reverend Dr. W.S. Godfrey of Sackville under a floral arch. The bride entered the room to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mrs. I.T. ComEAU, and was given in marriage by Mrs. Manfred Goodwin. Miss Ruth Soller, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid and Mr. Amos Goodwin was groomsmen. The bride looked very winsome in a floor length gown of net over nylon silk and wore a trailing veil caught over the head with orange blossoms. She carried a colonial bouquet of Better Times roses and baby's breath and wore a string of pearls and a watch, gifts of the groom.

The bridesmaid wore a floor length gown of turquoise taffeta and a coronet headdress of matching ribbon with pink shoulder length veil and carried a bouquet of white gladioli and baby's breath. Mrs. Manfred Goodwin wore a grey crepe dress with black accessories and wore a corsage of pink carnations. During the signing of the register a solo was sung by Mrs. Ambrose Steele.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for sixty guests. The bride's table was covered with an ecru lace table cloth, centered by a three tier cake, topped by an appropriate motif and flanked by pink and white tapers and silver candleabra. Small nosegays of sweet peas marked each place. The bridal bouquet was placed beside the cake. Mrs. Ambrose Steele presided over the tea and Mrs. Siedman Goodwin replenished. Mrs. Basil Wood was in charge of the cake table. Mrs. A.J. Tingley served the bride's table. The following young ladies assisted at the table: Miss Marilyn Trenholme, Miss Marjorie Wood, Miss Noreen Goodwin, Miss Irene Trenholme and Miss Betty Goodwin.

The bride presented the bridesmaid with a locket, Mrs. I.T. ComEAU with a vanity case, Mrs. Ambrose J. Steele with a rosary and the groom gave the groomsmen a billfold.

For travelling the bride wore an aqua pencil stripe suit with white accessories and wore a corsage of Better Times roses.

The bride and groom left by motor to visit points on Prince Edward Island. The bride is a graduate of Port Elgin High School and Teacher's College, Fredericton, New Brunswick.

from Neglected Childhood to Helpless Old Age

victims of sin or circumstance can turn to the understanding heart and the human touch of THE SALVATION ARMY

At every milepost on the path of life, there is help and hope for the needy through The Salvation Army.

Many human by-products of sin and circumstance are children and old people, innocent of their plight.

In The Salvation Army's Children's Homes and Old Persons' Homes these receive the care that only the understanding heart and the human touch can give. In other departments of The Army's work, many kinds of material and spiritual needs are met.

It is YOUR dollars that make such help possible. There is no greater claim on your generosity than this work of YOUR Salvation Army.

PLEASANT CIRCLE W.I.

The September meeting of Pleasant Circle Institute was held at the home of Mrs. John Walker. The vice-president, Mrs. George MacKay presided. The meeting opened with the Ode and Collect followed by the roll call and minutes. There were seven members and four visitors present. We were pleased to welcome Miss Lois MacKay as a new member. The roll call was responded to with a donation for a grab bag. The articles were afterwards sold and realized $1.15. Twenty-five yards of material were received from the Red Cross to be made into dresses and panties. The next roll call is to be responded to by passing in a completed dress with an accessory to go with it such as a pin, ribbon or handkerchief.

GRAHAM'S ROAD W.I.

Mrs. Walter Wigmore and Mrs. Ray MacLeod were joint hostesses for the regular meeting of Success W.I. on Tuesday evening, Sept. 9th. Meeting opened in the usual manner and roll call was responded to by nine members relating their greatest enjoyment during the summer. For visitors were also present. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. The school committee visited the school, treated the children to fruit and reported a display board was needed. Plans were made to have one placed in the school. It was pleasing to note by Mrs. Ray MacLeod's report that the movement to have music taught in schools was progressing most favourably. Eleven rural schools and Kensington High are ready to participate and a qualified teacher has been procured and will begin work Sept. 12th.
