LACONIC NOTE SENT EGYPT'S PREMIER

Coalition Gravely Compromised, Says His Majesty in Message —Prime Minister Accused of Helping Prince to Regain Property.

CAIRO, June 27.—"Dear Nahas Pasha: "As the coalition on the basis of which the Cabinet was constituted has been gravely compromised, we have decided to dismiss you. Thanking you and your colleagues for your work in the service of Fuad."

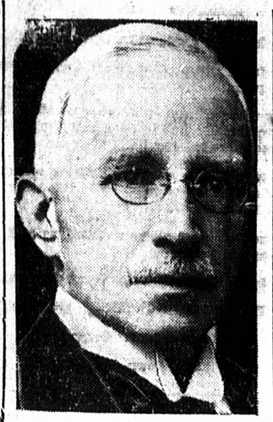
This was the laconic note with which King Fuad of Egypt yesterday discharged the Prime Minister and Cabinet from office, to the surprise of the nation. It was true the coalition was crumbling owing to the resignations of three ministers, but it was surmised the rival camp de grace was more closely connected with newspaper publication of a damaging document attleged to have been signed by Premier Nahas Pasha, Wisa Wassef, president of the chamber, and Gafar Fakhry, leading Nationalist deputy.

This document indicated the three as lawyers, were engaged last year by the mother of Prince Ahmed Seifeddin to obtain removal of the restraint under which the court had placed Seifeddin and to try and enable the Prince to regain control of his estates, in consideration of a fee of $585.000 if they were successful. The Prince for 23 years had been imprisoned at a private mental asylum in Sussex, England, and with his escape to the continent with the assistance of some keepers, caused a sensation some time ago.

It appears the document was stolen from Fakhry's house three months ago, Wassef declared today the high fees mentioned were justified by the enormous interest involved and neither he nor Nahas Pasha had done anything in the affair since assuming political office. Fakhry asserted the document was falsified and all three were taking criminal court action for defamation of character.

The Premier read the King's note to the chamber with the comment, "We thank God the dismissal came while we were enjoying your confidence." The chamber warmly reciprocated with cries of "Long Live Nahas," "Long Live the President of the Nationalists," "Long Live the Constitution."

One of the Egyptian newspapers remarks: "This is the first time since the British occupation that an Egyptian ministry has been dismissed without Britain having a hand in the matter."



Hon.J.H. Whitely, retiring Speaker of the British House of Commons, an office he has held since 1921. He was the first trader in 650 years to occupy the chair and the first Free Churchman to ever hold the position. He was the originator of the joint councils for settlement of industrial disputes, and in his patient dealing with the unruliness that characterized sessions of the past few years he exercised a wise discretion. He will probaly be raised to the peerage, with a pension of $20,000. Capt. A. E. Fitzroy, Conservative, is the successor.

Two Killed When Church Was Struck By Lightning

(Special to The Guardian)

HELSINGFORS, June 27.—Two were killed, 30 were seriously injured and 30 slightly hurt including many women and children, when lightning struck a church at Parkano during a confirmation service in which 800 people were participating. A number of young girls dressed in white were gathered before the altar when lightning struck the belfry, setting fire to the roof of the church and causing the stonework to split and fall.

Panic ensued as the debris fell. Windows were smashed, women and children rushed for the exits and many were trampled underfoot. One of the casualties was a young policeman who was burned to death by a flash of lightning.

PARTY STANDS FOR RIGHTS OF MINORITY

Hon. R. B. Bennett, in Stirring Address at Magog, Que., Ably Deals With Canada's Position.

MAGOG, Que., June 27. — "You cannot develop a country by ill-will, hatred or contempt," Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader stated here tonight in an address. Mr. Bennett is conducting a tour in the province of Quebec and spoke earlier in the day at Knowlton.

Mr. Bennett declared tonight that the Conservative party had always stood for the rights of the minority under the constitution.

"You may be certain," he asserted, "that the Conservative party will go down to ignominous defeat; it will be annihilated and destroyed before it will for a minute permit the loss of your rights under the constitution."

Mr. Bennett proceeded to discuss exports and imports. In the month of April and May last exports of the Dominion had decreased as compared with the corresponding period of 1927. At the same time imports had increased from $168,000,000 to $192,000,000.

What does this increase in imports for two months of $26,000,000 mean to you people of the eastern townships; to the people of Canada?" he asked. "It meant the loss of that much work in production for Canadian workmen. Why, when you go into the United States can you always find Canadian men and women. Because there is no work for them in Canada." "My business in life is to see that men have work in this country and stay in Canada," he declared. The United States where there was a slackening of industrial life was looking for Canadian markets so as to dispose of surplus American products Mr. Bennett asserted. The increase of $26,000,000 in imports for two months represented the surplus products of the United States and other countries, the speaker held.

"Yet," Mr. Bennett declared," while the surplus products of other countries are being brought in on an increasing scale, Canadians are denied the opportunity of manfacturing for Canadian needs and are forced to go to the United States to find employment."

Mr. Bennett pointed out that the Dominion parliament had in its hands the tool with which to remedy this condition. The government had the power through parliament to impose excise taxes, tariff duties and grant bonuses. But in the seven years during which the King government had been in office, the tariff had been lowered four times he continued.

"They revise the tariff but they always revise downward," Mr. Bennett remarked, "the natural resources of the country cannot be developed to reduce our national debt under the present policy of sending our raw material for manufacture in the United States by American workmen."

Mr. Bennett stated that he was not appearing to ask for political support in any narrow conception of the term, but he did ask that the audience think the situation over in their minds, calmly and impartially and decide what was the best policy for the welfare, health and happiness of the Canadian people.

Labor Party Oppose Speaker's Pension

(Canadian Press)

LONDON, June 27. — The customary pension of $20.000 annually for retired speakers of the House of Commons was attacked in the House by the labor party this afternoon when Premier Baldwin moved a resolution granting the annuity to Right Hon. J. H. Whitley.

The official labor party amendment moved by Hon. J. R. Clines would have made the pension $5,000 but it was defeated by a vote of 224 against, to 13 in favor. The resolution favoring the customary pension was then passed.

Chicken Thieves Get Three Years

(Special to The Guardian)

WINNIPEG, Man., June 2.—A six months career of chicken thieving, which had taken toll of more than a thousand birds, was brought to an abrupt end in Provincial court today when Norman Domento and Thomas Rossi, described as "the star chicken thieves of the province" were sentenced to three years in Stony Mountain Penitentiary. Travelling in a big automobile specially equipped for carrying away the plunder, the two men operated on a wholesale scale in rural districts.

Captain Courtney Returns To Lisbon

(Canadian Press)

LISBON, June 27. —Capt. Frank T. Courtney, British Aviator, who hopped off this morning for the Azores en route to the United States returned to Lisbon this afternoon. Captain Courtney said that a slight leak in the water tube of his seaplane developed when he was about 150 miles out of Lisbon.

He might possibly have reached Saint Michael, the nearest Island of the Azores, using only one engine, but he felt that this was inadvisable since the repairs could be made at Lisbon more quickly. He intends to leave Lisbon again tomorrow morning with the expectation of reaching Horta by nightfall. There he will refuel and take off in the dark for Cape Race.

Amundsen Plane Sighted, Is Report

(Canadian Press)

BERLIN, June 27.—A second version containing additional details of a report received in Norway that the plane of Roauld Amundsen was sighted by a Norwegian sealer on June 20th, is contained in a special despatch from Tromsoe to the Lokal Anzeiger.

This states that a telegram had been received from Archangel, Russia, stating that the Norwegian sealer, whose name was not mentioned had sighted the long missing plane on an ice floe southeast of Northeast Land. Dense ice prevented the approach of the sealer, but the crew of the plane could be discerned through a telescope repairing the machine. As the vessel was without radio it handed its message to a Russian steamer which in turn sent it by wireless to Archangelsk.

MODERNISM DENOUNCED AT CONGRESS

Delegates Discuss Teaching in Modern Baptist Colleges — Modernists and Fundamentalists Clash at Toronto.

TORONTO, Ont., June 27.—The hitherto peaceful atmosphere of the Baptist World Alliance was disturbed this afternoon when the modernist-fundamentalist controversy came to the surface. The occasion was a meeting of the Baptist Young People's Union of the World, at which that body voted to end its separate existence and become a department of the Baptist World Alliance. Strangely enough most of those at the Young People's meeting, as well as the leaders of the discussion, were persons comfortably past their early thirties, some of them even past their sixties.

Frank H. Leavell, a leader in Baptist work among students in universities and colleges, both denominational and non-denominational, had just completed an outline of his work and a discussion of the religious needs of students when an elderly man arose and launched into a denunciation of the teaching in modern Baptist institutions. Two of his children, he declared, had been sent to Baptist colleges and had lost their primitive faith. He did not know of a college or university in the United States safe enough for a good Baptist to send his children if he wished to keep them free from virus of modernism. The teaching in modern colleges tended to destroy belief in the bible and reverence for Christ.

Some delegates were eager to refute the allegations while others felt the same way as he did. For a time the chairman, Rev. J. Asa White, of Berkerly, Calif., had a brisk time in keeping order.

Adam Essential

An elderly colored pastor from Virginia, L. F. Morris, declared the greatest danger to the youth of the present age was false teachings. In the schools they were taught here was no such person as Adam. "The whole of our theology rests on the fact that there was an Adam," he maintained, "nearly all the schools of the United States accept the unproved theory of Darwin and attack the person of 'Our Lord,'" he said.

Rev. Mark F. Sanford, past-president of the Baptist Young People of America, Detroit, came to the defence of the colleges.

At this moment, some one thought it might be a good idea to hear from the young people who had come to this meeting of the Young People's Union. As time was getting short the chairman decided to cut each speaker down to three minutes, and in rapid succession a number of youthful men and women told of how they had gone to Baptist colleges and even to state universities and kept their faith in the bible as strong as ever.

Home Training

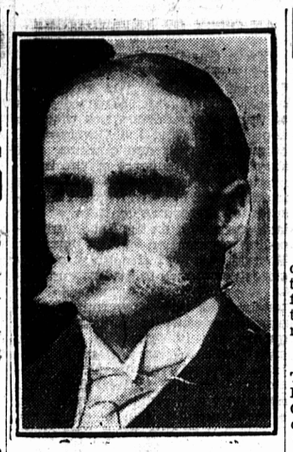
The consensus of opinion at the end of the discussion seemed to be that if boys and girls received proper instructions in their religion at home they would not be harmed by anything they might come in contact with at college.

At a largely-attended women's meeting this afternoon Mrs. W. J. Cos, of Memphis, Tenn., spoke of womanhood for the missions and pointed out that women in the mission field could make a distinct improvement. Fraulein Dr. E. Palm told of the work of women Baptists in Germany, and Mrs. C. C. Chen of Shanghai, told of the growing emancipation of Chinese women.

TORONTO, Ont., June 27.—Berlin will see the next Congress of the Baptist World Alliance held there in 1933. The southern convention is going to pull hard to have the congress held in Washington, but it will not avail because of a constitutional difficulty. As a matter of fact, as one of the most imporant officers of the Congress pointed out today "we had no right to allow Hilton Jackson to offer that invitation yesterday because the constitution provides that one time w eshall be in the eastern hemisphere and the next time in the western."

The matter will likely finally be fought out on the floor of the Convention, Southerners are now pointing out how five years ago they went all the way to Stockholm and this year they say they have come "all the way north" to Canada.

Love that feeds on beauty alone is likely to die of starvation.



Hon. Frank Oliver, Dominion railway commissioner appointed to the board in 1923, is slated to retire this fall, it is reported, because he has reached the age limit of 75, even though he will have served only one-half of his ten-year period. Other rumored retirements are Dr. S. J. McLean, assistant chief commissioner and Chief Commissioner Hon. H. A. McKeown. During this month Chief Commissioner McKeown and Commissioners Oliver and Norris are holding hearings in the prairie provinces. They will return to Ottawa about July 9.

New Polish Cabinet Formed

(Canadian Press)

WARSAW, June 27. — The cabinet of Marshal Pilsudski resigned today and a new cabinet under M. Bartels has been formed.

Marshal Pilsudski relinquished only his Premiership, retaining his portfolio as Minister of War. The reorganization of the cabinet therefore involved merely the transfer to M. Bartel as vice premier, the leading post in the Cabinet.

There were also two minor changes, the appointments of M. S. Sfitalowski as Minister of Education and Tusin as Minister of Transportation. Marshal Pilsudski is planning to take an extended leave early in July.

New Barrister Admitted In Charlottetown

ONLY SON OF CHIEF JUSTICE MATHIESON ADMITTED TO THE BAR WITH HIGH DISTINCTIONS IN LOCAL LAW EXAMINATIONS AND AS A GRADUATE OF DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY.

Mr. David L. Mathieson, who was admitted to the Bar at the opening of the present term of the Supreme Court, was highly complimented by Mr. Justice Haszard upon his success as a law student and the high marks he had made in his examinations.

"Your career so far has been an excellent one," said Judge Haszard after expressing great pleasure upon Mr Mathieson's admission as a Barrister. "The results of your examinations show that you have given the best attention to your studies during the period which is now past. I am sure that if you continue as you have begun your success at the Bar will be something that not only yourself but this Province will have reason to be congratulated upon. Your high average percentage entitles you to be admitted immediately as a Barrister as well as Attorney. This does not always happen, unless the percentage is sufficiently high. Many who are admitted as Attorney have to wait for a year. That is not your case; you are entitled to be admitted as a Barrister on the same day. I congratulate you most sincerely, and I trust that you will have a very successful career as a member of the Bar of the Province."

Mr. Mathieson, who is a son of Chief Justice Mathieson, was admitted on motion of Mr. J. D. Stewart, K. C., with whom he was articled as a law student. Mr. Stewart pointed out that Mr. Mathieson had the unique distinction of being admitted to the Bar not only having passed high in his law examinations here but with his degree of B. law from Dalhousie University.

PROVINCIAL INSTITUTIONS IN EXCELLENT CONDITION

Grand Jury Tender Report. -- True Bill Found Against MacKinnon.

A true bill was found against Archibald Mackinnon for manslaughter by the Grand Jury yesterday forenoon. It was not until 4.30 p. m. that the report to His Lordship was read in court. It is as follows:

Charlottetown, P. E. I.
June 29th, 1923

To the
Honourable John A. Mathieson
Chief Justice and Associate Judges of the Supreme Court of Prince Edward Island.

We, the members of the Grand Jury of Queen's County, Prince Edward Island, beg to report as follows:

We have examined the various bills of indictment submitted to us and find true bills against the following:

The King vs. Clarence Power.
The King vs. Henry McAleer.
The King vs. Frank Weeks.
The King vs. Louis Binns.
The King vs. Emanuel Mallett.
The King vs. Archibald Mackinnon.

We have visited the Hospital for the insane and also the infirmary and adjoining premises and found them in excellent condition, being scrupulously clean and everything well arranged. We also examined the groceries, meat, bread and other supplies of both institutions and found in all cases they were satisfactory and according to requirements. We found the inmates of the institution slightly reduced in numbers.

The great majority of the reductions were discharges, which would indicate a satisfactory condition.

There was a total in the hospital on December 15th last of 305, on January 1st 295, and at the present time 286, 140 males and 146 females. In the Infirmary there is a total of 91 inmates, 43 males and 48 females.

We wish to recommend that a coal shed or cover be built in connection with the institution for the purpose of storing coal, which is now piled in the open.

We also visited the Jail and found everything in a satisfactory condition. The inmates all appeared to be in good health and satisfied with their conditions. There are at present 16 inmates, 2 females and 14 males, 4 awaiting trial at the Supreme Court and 12 prohibition offenders. We inspected the bread, biscuit and other supplies or hand at the time and found everything satisfactory.

We have inspected the Court House, and find it is necessary to draw the attention of authorities to same. The interior and exterior of this building require attention. The Supreme Court Room, the Judges' chambers and offices throughout the building require renovating and redecorating.

It is quite evident that this property has had very little attention for a great number of years, and no blame therefore can be attached to any particular government, as it has been left in about the same condition under all Governments. We would request that our recommendations be carried out by the authorities at the earliest possible date, and we further recommend that a separate room be provided for women who may be attending the session of the Court as witnesses.

Respectfully submitted,
H. M. DAVISON,
Foreman
For self and fellows.

A civil law-suit, Sarah Jane Higgins vs. Charles Evans was heard before Mr. Justice Arsenault, that of Sarah Jane Higgins vs. Charles Evans. This was an action for payment of board bills for five years back, alleged to be due the plaintiff from the defendant. The following witnesses were called for the plaintiff: Sarah Jane Higgins (on her own behalf), Mrs. George Worth, George W. Gardiner, Preston Donovan; for the defendant: Mr. J. Augustine Macdonald, Charles Evans (on his own behalf), Mr. George J. Tweedy. Mr. J. J. Johnston, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff and Mr. C. G. Duffy, K. C., and Mr. G. J. Tweedy for the defendant. Judgment was reserved in this case.

At the conclusion of the sitting on Tuesday morning Mr. George W. Gardiner came forward and addressed the Court, asking leave to present a petition against one of the officers of the Court.

His Lordship the Chief Justice informed Mr. Gardiner that as no notice had been given to the Court, he could not read the petition. Mr. Gardiner accepted the ruling and intimated that he would give the required notice, which he later did, the notice and a copy of the petition being handed in to the Prothonotary.

Gordon Ray Holmes and David L. Mathieson have been appointed Commissioners for taking affidavits in the Supreme Court.

In the case of R. H. Jenkins vs. T. W. Morris, absent debtor, judgment was given for the plaintiff for $515.80. R. N. McNeill, K.C., for the plaintiff.

DeLaval Co., Ltd., vs. George W. McKenzie. Action for price of two separators and equipment. Judgment for plaintiff of $212.12. C. G. Duffy, K. C., for plaintiff.

Richard O'Leary and another vs. Andrew E. Doucette, action for breach of charter party. Judgment for plaintiff for $191.75. Johnson, K. C., for plaintiff.

Annie Belle Houston vs. William E. Callbeck, action of debt. Judgment for the plaintiff for $150.96. R. N. McNeill, K.C., for plaintiff.

These were all non jury cases.

Hotelkeeper's Appreciation

The Hon. Justice Arsenault, Chairman of the Publicity Association received the following letter of appreciation from Mr. J. Davidson, of the Windsor Hotel, Montreal:

My dear Mr. Arsenault:—

Upon my return to the office, I feel I must write a line to you to express my appreciation and thanks for the many kindnesses extended to me, as well as to the other members of our party, while touring through the Garden of the Gulf.

The trip was an education in itself, and I am sure will result in much benefit, not only in the interest of the Island, but equally so to the members of the Hotel Association.

If you will be good enough to send me some of your literature, I shall be glad to see that it is properly displayed.

With kindest personal regards, believe me,

Yours very sincerely,
