WOMAN A PHYSICAL WRECK

Tells in Following Letter How She Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Milwaukee, Wis.—"Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was a physical wreck. I had been going to a doctor for several years but he did me no good. A friend told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I decided to give it a fair trial, and it gave me relief from bearing down pains which had been so bad that I would have to lie down. I also used the Sensitive Wash, and I am not troubled with a weakness any more."—Mrs. P. L. BRILL, 1299 Booth Street, Milwaukee, Wis.

POPULAR NEWSPAPER MAN KILLED IN ACTION

The following clipping from an Ottawa paper has been handed to Mr. D. O'M. Reddin of this city, who is a second cousin of Joe Gorman referred to. Gorman is a son of the late Thomas Gorman, for a time editor of the Summerside Journal and subsequently of the Ottawa Citizen.

"Another good sportsman gone. Joe Gorman. Bright, vivacious, virile, Joe, and though as far as youth and health and energy were concerned he had the world at his feet; he died as he no doubt would have chosen to die, in action, doing the best for his country. An example to those other perfect athletes who have tried every possible dodge to keep away from the front or who, after once joining, made every effort to either get discharged from some minor detail or to keep out of the danger zone."

"Joe Gorman was one of the hundreds of Canadian sportsmen, one of the flower of the lot, who went into the big fight at the start, because they thought it their duty to go, an brave to recklessness and an accomplished motor cycle rider he was essentially of the type of which aviators are made. For a couple of years he had a pleasant time of it at Malta riding hydro-aeroplanes, on patrol for submarines. Then he was transferred to the Italian front, where, according to the meagre reports, he met his death."

SERBIA CONFIDENT OF VICTORY

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 3.—Confidence in the ability of the Allies to secure a complete victory over the Central Powers was expressed by the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Serbia, in his New Year's greeting to the State Department. The message, made public today, said: "I hasten to tender to you my excellent wishes in the name of the Royal Government of Serbia and my own name, our best wishes in the firm conviction that it will bring us final victory over the common foe. I doubt not that it will open a new era which will insure the reign of justice, equality and liberty to all peoples, great and small, as a lasting and prosperous peace in which mankind will find guarantees for a new future of free development of all its intellectual and economic forces." (Sgd.) Paschitch, Foreign Minister.

HOW THE CANADIAN SITUATION DIFFERS

MONTREAL, Jan. 4.—"The so called Government ownership of American Railways is in reality no such a thing," said W. M. Neal, general secretary of the Canadian Railway War Board, in an interview with the Canadian Press yesterday. "The Government at Washington have simply adopted something like the English system of guaranteeing certain net returns to the railways, presumably adequate, and securing in return for this guarantee the elimination of competitive features which have hitherto been thought necessary by competing roads, but which from the point of view of national necessity."

TO FARADOR PEOPLE OF THE ISLAND

At the commencement of my seventh year of work I desire to thank all those friends, known and unknown, for their kindly words which have done so much to promote the spread of the Farador in this province. The year 1917 was a record breaker for the Farador a larger number being placed in P. E. Island homes than in the previous years, and the results obtained have been little short of marvellous. The results would be still more satisfactory if the Farador could get something like a fair show in the treatment of disease, for it still continues to be taken as a last resort.

Nation's Interests Protected

"Those in charge of the American roads are after all men with a sense of business honor and therefore of responsibility for the welfare of the properties in their charge. Anyone will admit that. Each of these managers, up to the present, has been bound to feel that he could not afford to have the earnings of his road sacrificed by reduction of special services which would reduce the income of his road, and give his competitors undue advantage in the struggle for patronage. He is now to be relieved of his worries in this respect. With his net profits guaranteed, his road will be able to eliminate competitive features. The immediate convenience of the public may suffer to some extent, but the real interests of the nation will be protected."

Canadian Situation Different

"How does the American situation differ from the situation in Canada?" Mr. Neal was asked. "It differs in three things. "First—The Canadian roads have been dealing with war conditions since August 1914; the Americans for only a few months. "Second—Canada's chief railways, unlike the American roads, are nationwide in organization and operation. In dealing with nation wide-conditions each Canadian transcontinental has unity of control over its own coast to coast traffic. But in the Uni-

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

JOHN PREPARES THE WAY FOR JESUS. (Mark 1:1-11) If Lesson. "Behold the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world.—Golden Text.—John 1:29.

From the history of the captivity of God's people, their struggles to regain their nationhood, their lapses into heathenism and their return to the worship of Jehovah, we turn at the first of the year to the beginning of a new era, with the coming of the herald of the Great Deliverer. Four centuries before the events in our lesson the prophet Malachi predicted the coming of the day of the Lord and of Elijah.

At this time all Palestine was stirred over the expected coming of the Messiah. John the Baptist had descended from a proud and priestly line, and had abundant opportunity of knowledge of the hopes and wishes of the nation, and the formalism of the Jews. We are not told at what age he withdrew to the Judean hills, overlooking the Dead Sea, where he spent some time in solitude until he felt impelled by Divine leading to come forth and sound his warning to the people. They were wrought up to the highest pitch of excitement by his trumpet blast, and he had him for a prophet, many believing him to be the Messiah. In their excitement they were ready to do all that he commanded.

A BOLD GERMAN LIKELY TO GET HIS

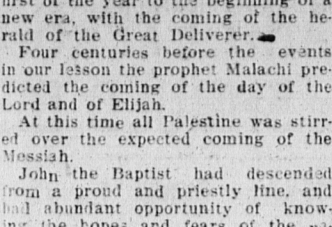

(Canadian Press Despatch.) NEW HAVEN, CONN., Jan. 4.—Maximilian Von Hogen, a young lawyer of this city, who has at times attracted public notice by pro-German utterances returned his draft questionnaire to the sixth division draft board here, it was learned today, with "Deutschland Uber Alles" written on it and stating in it that he has an "overwhelming desire to see Germany victorious in the war." At the same time he is to be an agent of the German Government and a representative of former German Ambassador to Washington, Count Von Bernstorff. Secretary Elliot Watrose of the Board, said today that the paper had been turned over to the federal authorities for action.

TO FARADOR PEOPLE OF THE ISLAND

"I would again remind my patrons of the advisability of sending their Faradors to me occasionally in order that they may be tested and any needed repairs made. The Farador sometimes gets a bad name because the cord connection has become broken or defective. With best wishes for the New Year, I remain,
Yours for health,
W. EDGAR ENMAN,
Farador Representative,
