OUT THIS OUT AND PASTE IT UP

It is surprising the large number of people in Charlottetown who, when they want to inquire about their Morning Daily Guardian or subscription, ask Central for the News Phone No. 133, or for the Advertising Phone No. 132.3, instead of 132.2, or when they want to inquire about advertising ask Central for the Subscription Phone No. 132-2, or for the News Phone No. 133, instead of 132-3; or when they want the News or Editorial department ask Central for the Subscription Phone No. 132-2, or the Advertising Phone No. 132-3, instead of 133, although all those departments and their respective phone numbers are plainly given in the telephone book. Some people, instead of looking at the book, even phone one of the above departments to find out what number to ask for to get another department. All this is a great waste of time on the part of the person phoning, the operator at the Central, and the clerk in the department wrongly phoned. The news staff, on an upper floor, cannot give the necessary information about either advertising or subscriptions, nor the advertising staff about subscriptions or news, nor the subscription staff about advertising or news. In other words the clerks know and can do but their own work in their own departments, and if it were otherwise they would be continually running from one department to another, up stairs and down, mixing work, wearing themselves out and causing the greatest possible confusion. On and after 6 p. m. daily it is useless to ask for any phone number except 133, and 132-3.

Patrons who consult their phone books for the numbers they really want will greatly lessen the work of the patient Central telephone and their lives much brighter and happier.

is still issued each morning with the latest local and foreign news, including the Canadian Press and a special telegraphic service.

In 1887 The Weekly Guardian was established, but its issue proved too infrequent for readers as the Province advanced, and from time to time was changed, first to a Semi-Weekly, then to a Tri-Weekly, and later to a Rural Daily, so that for years The Guardian has issued two dailies, as at present - one in the morning as a Morning Daily, and the other in the afternoon as a Rural Daily. As the name of the latter was never sufficiently clear as to what it implied and always required much explanation, it was in May last changed to Evening Daily, and continued as an afternoon paper.

For some time past the management has felt that Prince Edward Island is justly entitled to a twenty-four hour telegraphic news service, as enjoyed by the other Provinces of Canada, rather than the night wire service only, as up to June 30th last supplied by The Morning Guardian and afterwards printed in The Evening Guardian. Accordingly a representative visited St. John and arranged for a Canadian Press day service, which is appreciated by the general public.

It is thus that The Guardian that the people of Prince Edward Island are indebted, first for a night Canadian Press service and now for the day Canadian Press and Special Telegrams, well as several hundred for The Morning Daily.

The friends of both The Morning Guardian and The Evening Guardian are quite expressive of their appreciation that their favorite paper contains the latest day and night, as well as night and day Canadian Press and Special Telegrams and local news, and thus a complete twenty-four hour service. Advertisers are also more than pleased with the rapid increase of fully two thousand readers already in The Evening Guardian's circulation, as well as several hundred for The Morning Daily.

The Guardian ever realizes its obligation to furnish its readers with the latest and best news service obtainable, and to give to its advertisers the largest and most valuable circulation possible.

The Guardian is now but issuing two dailies, one in the morning and the other in the afternoon, as it has been doing for years, but since July first its afternoon paper contains its own day's news in addition to that of The Morning Guardian, or, in other words, the news of the twenty-four hours immediately before it goes to press. The Morning Guardian occupies a similar position.

Purchasers are Entitled To a Common Stock Bonus

Have you ever thought of the advantage of buying bonds or preferred stocks with a common stock bonus?

It often turns out to be a very profitable investment. Take, as an instance, the undermentioned securities, which we offer in lots to suit purchasers, and with which is given a substantial bonus of common stock.

Hewson Pure Wool Textiles p. c. Bonds.

Hewson Pure Wool Textiles p. c. Preferred Stock.

Nova Scotia Clay Works p. c. Preferred Stock.

North Atlantic Fisheries p. c. Preferred Stock.

In the first place, these securities afford a safe investment, yielding a good interest return, and then there is a possibility of a very profitable investment in the common stock.

As the position of the companies improve, the price of the common stock will increase, and when, in a few years, these companies are in a position to pay dividends investors can sell their common stock holdings at a good profit, or retain them and further increase their interest income.

Full particulars regarding any of the above issues will be sent upon application.

More Money for the Small Dealers

The big man isn't big in spite of the telephone - it's because of it, to a certain extent.

If you're satisfied with the profits your great-grandfather made, if you just want to eke out a bare existence from your business, if more business don't look good to you--well, a phone will be just in the way--a bothersome ornament.

But, mark it down plain, if you want more business, a larger and better class of customers, straight tips on all the markets, the most profitable of inside information and the respect of your customers and envy of your competitors--in short if you want success--you'll see what we can do for you, and you won't waste time over it either.

The phone will bring you business--it will prove its worth in better returns, in actual additional cash in your till.

Let Contract Dept. prove these facts to you.
