—WEDDING BELLS.— Saint Mary's church, Indian River, was the scene of a happy and interesting event on the morning of November 19th, when Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hynes, Spring Valley was united in marriage to Mr. Charles A. McLellan of Darnley. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mgr. D. J. Gillis, P. P. who also sang the nuptial mass, assisted by the choir, while Miss Kathleen Driscoll capably presided at the organ. The bride was handsomely gowned in white crepe de chine with silver and pearl beaded trimmings, and wore the bridal veil and orange blossoms and carried a pearl rosary. She was attended by her cousin Miss Mary White who wore a dress of crab apple silk crepe with trimmings of silver lace and gray hat. The groom was ably supported by his brother Mr. Ronald McLellan of Bayside. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride, where the wedding dinner was partaken of, and the afternoon pleasantly spent with music and soial intercourse, only the immediate friends of the contracting parties being present. On the following morning the happy couple left on a short honeymoon trip through the Maritime Provinces. The bride travelled in a suit of navy tricotine, opening over a gray blouse, with gray hat and wore a fitch choker the gift of the groom. The grooms gift to the bridesmaid was a pearl necklace and to the groomsman an eversharp pencil. On the evening of their return Tuesday, Nov. 25th, Mr. and Mrs. McLellan were tendered a reception at the home of the groom's uncle Mr. Cornelius Morrison Darnley and received many useful and handsome gifts, all of which testify to the esteem in which the young couple are held by their many friends. They will reside at Darnley and have the best wishes of a host of friends for every happiness in the future.

THE FOOL WITH THE GUN

There are many fools that worry this world,
Fools old, and fools who're young;
Fools with fortunes, and fools without,
Fools who dogmatize, fools who doubt,
Fools who snigger, and fools who shout,
Fools who never know what they're about,
And fools all cheek and tongue;
Fools who're gentlemen, fools who're cads,
Fools who're graybeards, and fools who're lads;
Fools with manias, fools with fads,
Fools with cameras, fools with tracts,
Fools who deny the stubbornest facts,
Fools in theories, fools in acts;
Fools who write Theosophist books,
Fools who believe in Fahatmas and spooks;
Fools who prophesy—races and Tophets—
Bigger fools who believe in prophets;
Fools who quarrel, and fools who quack:
In fact, there are al slorts of fools in the pack,
Fools fat, thin, short, tall;
But of all sorts of fools the fool wit ha gun
(Who points it at some one—of course. "In fun"—
And fools all around till chance murder is done.)
Is the very worse fool of them all!
