WEDDING BELLS.—A quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Jardine, Orwell when the charming daughter of the home and popular nurse of the community, became the wife of Mr. Neil R. McKinnon of Earncliffe. Rev. Dr. McEwen, pastor of Orwell Presbyterian Church performed the ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in white satin and carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and carnations. The bride was attended by her sister Miss Edith and the groom was ably supported by his brother Mr. Robert McKinnon. Under a beautifully festooned arch the vows were pledged which made the happy couple one. A simple impressive ring service was used by the officiating minister. After hearty congratulations and bounteous and delicious full supper was enjoyed by the large company present. It was a real community wedding where all denominations were present, and prominent among the guests were patients of the bride. The presents to the bride were abundant and valuable. If the happy couple as they go to housekeeping fully enjoy the wishes of their many friends, their pathway through life will be rosy indeed. 3026

WEDDING BELLS.—In Mount Carmel church on Tuesday, July 31st took place a very pretty wedding when Mr. Guillaume Arsenault son of Mrs. Francois Arsenault, of Mont Carmel was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Miss Nora Pitre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pitre, of Chanaan, N. B. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. P. Arsenault, P. P. The bride was supported by Miss Rosella Arsenault, whilst the groom was ably attended by his brother Mr. Benj. Arsenault, Mail Clerk on the P. E. I. R. The bride was attired in blue silk with hat to match. As the groom has been choir master for many years, the young ladies of the parish prepared a selection of music which was rendered admirably during the ceremony. Miss Josephine Gallant teacher from Mont Carmel performed on the organ. Ave Maria by Gounod was sung in a fitting manner by Miss Clarice Gallant of Moose Jaw, Sask. The wedding march was also played. Misses Eugene and Juliane Gallant and others also helped to make the vocal selections worthy of the occasion. After the ceremony the bridal party proceeded to the home of the groom where they partook of the delicacies of diet. The large number of friends and relatives present showed that Mr. Guillaume Arsenault was held in high esteem by all. Mr. Arsenault has been manager of the egg circle since its inauguration in this section and always performed his duties towards the patrons in an honest and satisfactory way. This goes to show that Mr. Arsenault is in close touch with an unlimited number of friends, hence the large number gathered to wish him abundant joy. The Guardian unites in wishing the many friends and relatives in wishing the newly married couple a happy pilgrimage through life. 3026

NO. 2 REINFORCEMENTS DRAFT OFF FOR FRANCE.—Gr. E. P. Boulter, formerly of the Guardian staff and who enlisted with the reinforcements draft for No. 2 P. E. I. Siege Battery, in a private letter dated July 15th at Folkestone, says: "On July 14th eight P. E. I. soldiers of the draft were chosen to go on ahead to France while the rest of the draft trained at Horsham. Before starting we were given six days leave which we all spent in Edinburgh. The following were in the party: Grs. A. H. McLean, W. Doyle, A. Johnstone, J. A. McLeod, A. McLeod, F. McFarlane, F. T. Stevenson and E. P. Boulter. On our return we found the draft had gone, so we were put in the next draft which we learned yesterday is so much assorted that we are all divided up. Grs. McLean and J. A. McLeod will go to No. 5 Hall, No. 9 Siege Battery from Western Canada and Gr. E. P. Boulter to No. 2 Heavy Battery now under command of Major Webb Stanley of Charlottetown. The other four are going with No. 2 Battery (the 98th) so they are sure of lots of friends. Joyable one and we made the most of our time. This is our last Sunday night out and we expect to cross to France in a day or two." Gr. Boulter's address is No. 2040158 C. E. F. No. 2 Canadian Heavy Battery, France. 3026
