GIVEN FAREWELL PARTY — Mr. Spurgeon Jenkins of Mt. Herbert who recently joined the R.C.A.F., and leaves Tuesday morning for training somewhere in Canada, was given tangible proof of his standing in the community on Friday evening last when his friends young and old from surrounding districts, met at the Assembly Hall of the Protestant Orphanage for a farewell party. During the course of the evening Mr. Russell Driscoll called meeting to order. Mr. Ralph Raynor read a complimentary address, a valuable wrist watch and money belt were presented to the guest of honor on behalf of those assembled by Mr. Dewar Ballem. Mr. Earl Ings spoke briefly. The ladies of the district supplied dainty refreshments. "Spud" for once had no words to express his surprise and pleasure, but rose to the occasion and expressed his gratitude. Mrs. Walter Wood at the piano struck up the chords of "He's a Jolly Good Fellow and "The King" brought a very enjoyable evening to a close wishing "Spud" safe flying and happy landings.

REVISITS NATIVE PROVINCE—Rev. John E. O'Brien, visiting Prince Edward Island the past three months will leave here Wednesday morning for his home in Seattle, State of Washington, U. S. A. Father O'Brien left the Island 42 years ago and has been a resident of Seattle most of this time, serving as assistant priest, rector of St. James Cathedral for ten years and parish priest during the remaining years. It is about 20 years since he last visited his native province. "I have spent a lovely vacation during the past three months," says Father O'Brien, "and have seen the entire Island for the first time, enjoying the kind hospitality of my many good friends, for whom I shall be very lonesome. My native parish, Fort Augustus, spent itself in making me feel happy and at home. Rev. Father Thomas Callaghan, pastor of the parish of Fort Augustus, made me feel at home, and did all in his power to make my time pass pleasantly. In visiting the Island I find that it has advanced somewhat, to make it a better place to live in. A great deal more could be done to make these good people more prosperous and happy, I love the Island and its people."

WEDDING BELLS — One of the prettiest of the Autumn weddings took place at St. Peter's on the morning of October 8th, when the Rt. Rev. Monsignor A. A. McAulay united in holy wedlock Miss Elizabeth McDonald, adopted daughter of Augustine and Mrs. O'Hanley, and Pte. Andrew J Gallant of the P E. Island Highlanders. The winsome bride was charming, dressed in royal blue transparent velvet with hat and accessories to match and carried a beautiful pearl rosary and prayer book, the gift of the groom. The matron of honor, Mrs. Wm. McDonald of Halifax was becomingly dressed in Burgundy crepe, with blue hat and accessories. The groom wearing the dress uniform of his regiment, was assisted by his brother-in-arms Pte. James McIntyre of Souris, while another comrade Pte. Eugene O'Hanley of St. Peter's was acolyte during the Nuptial Mass. After the marriage a delicious wedding breakfast was served to the bridal party and a large number of guests at the bride's adopted home, the dining room presenting an inviting appearance being tastefully decorated with wedding bells and streamers. Following the breakfast the happy young couple motored to Charlottetown chauffered by the groom's brother-in-law, Mr. Ivan Cheverie, returning in the evening to Mr. Stephen Gallant's, Souris, the home of the groom, where a large number of guests were served a bountiful supper and enjoyed an extremely pleasant evening. Among the guests were several representatives of the Canadian navy and army, among whom was Sergeant James McDonald of Peake's. The groom is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Gallant serving his country, a brother Lambert of the R C. A. being stationed at Sydney, N. S. The many handsome and valuable gifts received by Pte. and Mrs. Gallant testify to the esteem with which they are held by all who know them. Before her marriage Mrs. Gallant was tendered a miscellaneous shower by her young friends of St. Peter's.

The lifeless body of Mr. Charles McDougall, 61-year-old resident of Rice Point, was found shortly after 11 o'clock Saturday morning on the shore to the east of the wharf on lower Prince Street which is the terminus for the Charlottetown-Rock Point ferry. He had been visiting the City Friday but failed to return on the ferry that day.

During the summer months developments have been made at East Bideford in bringing a new industry into being in that section of Prince County which is likely to prove of lasting benefit to that community.

Mr. George Miller, B.Sc., in mining and Metallurgy, and representing the firm of F. M. Connell of Toronto, (Mr. Connell is Deputy Metal Controller of Canada) has just returned to Toronto after spending some months in East Bideford looking into this new industry and organizing the preliminary arrangements for the development of the industry.

The peat bog from which this new industry is to be developed comprises about 600 acres and is situated on land owned by G. Shelton Sharp, Russell E. Ellis and J. Russell Murray about three quarters of a mile off the highway at East Bideford School and some distance in from the shore.

On Oct. 20, 1941, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. MacKenzie, Brooklyn, P. E. I., there passed suddenly and peacefully away Donald MacPherson, a most highly esteemed citizen.

Friends here regret to hear of the sudden passing of Mrs. Frederick Weeks of Fredericton which occurred at the home of her two daughters the Mmes Frank and Russel Nicholson of Hazel Grove on Nov. 13th where she was convalescing after a serious illness, sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

NEW DECK HOUSE FOR FERRY—A contract for the erection of of new deck house on the car ferry S.S. Prince Edward Island, has recently been awarded to Bruce Stewart and Company, Limited, Charlottetown, and it is expected work will get under way soon. In the meantime workmen of the same firm are busy changing the boat from a coal burner to an oil burner. At present the bunkers are being cut away. The work of converting the ferry to an oil burner will not interfere with regular crossings. The new steel contruction to be built on the top deck is to be utilized for passenger quarters. It will be about 60 feet long and 30 feet wide. Several years ago, when the boat was an auxiliary to the S.S. Charlottetown, which was lost last summer, the passenger deck was removed to make room for automobiles travelling between the province and the mainland. The new deck house will be above the one which carries autos and the lower deck will still be used for ferrying railway cars.

—WEDDING OF INTEREST TO ISLAND FRIENDS — The following wedding clipped from the Moncton Times will be of interest to Island relatives and friends: Barton—Buchanan Wedding—A wedding of interest to a large circle of young people of Moncton took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. The wreckage of a Harvard aircraft from the Summerside airport was located yesterday at Point Prim. It crashed Tuesday afternoon. The plane was found by boats using grappling equipment. There was still no trace of the body of LAC. S. M. Levine of Montreal, student pilot who died in the crash.

The death occurred at Victoria Thursday, November 6th, of Mrs. Charles Fleigher aged 66, at the home of her sister, Mrs. K. C. Holm, after a lingering illness. Mrs. Fleigher was born in West Royalty, but had lived in Victoria for several years before her death. Her sunny disposition and kindly personality made her a friend of all. She was a devout member of the United Church and gave unstintingly of her time and effort to all worthy causes.

Salvage operations which were carried on all day yesterday, failed to bring to the surface the Harvard training plane which crashed in 30 feet of water off Point Prim Tuesday; nor was any trace of the pilot's body found by the divers. LAC. S. M. Levine, RC.A.F., who was on a solo flight from the Summerside Airport, is presumed to have been killed when the machine crashed into the sea about a mile from the shore.
