Rev. J. W. McConnell formerly of Grace Church, City, writes: "I am a layman: Just a line to say that 20 were baptized yesterday and 79 received into membership with the church. The most of them are the result of the Torrey services 'Not unto us—not unto us,' etc."

The Guardian understands that at the commencement of the next session of the Prince of Wales College, Manual Training Director J. D. Collier will not resume his duties as usual. The reason given for the change is that the Government will thereby lessen the expenses of the institution.

The ladies of the W. M. S. of Crapaud held a very successful lawn social on the grounds of Geo. L. Nicholson on Wednesday last. Although the evening was unfavorable a large crowd assembled who fully enjoyed all the good things provided in the eating line, including ice-cream and cake, strawberries, home-made candy etc. A snug sum was realized in aid of missions. Crapaud is ever noted for its enjoyable little affairs of this kind.

On Dominion day two excellent baskets of sea and river trout were captured at New Glasgow by two citizens, assisted by Hammond Binns, New Glasgow's well known fly-caster. Parties who had the pleasure of examining the speckled beauties pronounced them the best catch made in the vicinity of New Glasgow this season. The fish ran in size from about a pound to one pound, and among the catch was a number of young salmon.

The following is from the Wesleyan and will be of interest in this Province:—That most wretched evil, the White Slave Traffic, is a shameful fact in our Dominion and indeed in our own Province. We therefore urge upon all who are in places of authority to enact and enforce such legislation as shall forthwith rid our fair country of this dead evil. We further suggest that it be a careful practice of our ministers to allow a young girl to go forth from one of the homes of our people without due advice and suggestion, and, if at all possible, to direct such a person by letters of introduction to the church in the particular town or city to which she is intending to move. That in compliance with a request from the Moral and Social reform council of Nova Scotia, we appoint ten members of this Conference to said council and suggest the following persons:—Revs. Benjamin Hills, W. I. Croft, W. H. Langille, A. S. Rogers, G. M. Young, and Messrs. A. M. Bell, M. O. Crowell, Dr. A. J. Fuller, Jas. T. Burchill and R. B. Dakin.

The marriage of Miss Doris Hammond Henderson, daughter of Charles and Mrs. Henderson, to Harold Lindsay Alcorn, son of George O. Alcorn, K. C., and Mrs. Alcorn, Toronto, took place very quietly at the home of the bride's parents, Edmondston, N. B., on June 22, 1910. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. R. Hopkins, rector of Trinity Church, Andover. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore her travelling suit of blue French serge and tucan turban, and carried a shower bouquet of cream roses. She was attended by Miss Sara Taylor, of Grand Falls, while E. M. Ackman, of the Bank of Montreal, Moncton, supported the groom. Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Alcorn left for their future home in Charlottetown (P.E.I.), at which place Mr. Alcorn is accountant in the Bank of Montreal. The bride received many very beautiful presents, the gift of the groom being a handsome fitted traveling bag and signet ring, with crest. Mrs. Alcorn, who attended Mt. Allison Ladies' College (1905-1908) has many friends throughout the Maritime Provinces, who wish her every happiness.—St. John Telegraph.

Mr. MacRae's addresses are heartily appreciated by those who have heard him and as it is his first visit West all farmers should take in these meetings.

The half-yearly examination was held in the Strathcona School, Tuesday morning, June 28th. A number of parents and visitors were present and expressed their hearty appreciation of the work done by the teacher, Miss Florence L. Matheson. All were well pleased with the ready answers and good manners of the pupils who showed by their bright, animated faces that they were deeply interested in their studies and glad to see their parents present. After being examined in the various subjects the children entertained the visitors with recitations and readings, very acceptable to all. The visitors then spoke of the thorough work done by their pains-taking teacher and their sorrow at the intended departure of Miss Matheson.
