

TOOTH TROUBLES OFTEN START WITH tender gums

WAKE UP THOSE LAZY GUMS

Switch to-day to IPANA AND MASSAGE

OUR modern menus are often a menace to our gums. Soft, creamy, well-cooked foods deprive gums of stimulation; allow them to become tender, flabby, susceptible to serious gum disorders. That's why so many dentists recommend Ipana Tooth Paste and massage. For Ipana, with massage, is especially designed to help keep gums firm and healthy as well as clean the teeth.

... MAKE THIS TEST ...
See the improvement Ipana and Massage will make in your teeth and your gums. Try just one tube of Ipana Tooth Paste. Brush your teeth with it after each meal. And, each time, rub a little extra Ipana into your gums with tooth brush or fingertip. Before the tube is finished you'll find your teeth whiter, more sparkling—your gums firmer, healthier—your smile brighter, more attractive. Buy a tube of Ipana Tooth Paste today!

Interchange Of High Commissioners Urged

MONTREAL, Oct. 31—Dominions of the British Commonwealth of Nations should exchange high commissioners among their capitals, Hon. C. H. Cahain, Conservative member of parliament for St. Lawrence-St. George and former Dominion Secretary of State, suggested here today before the Royal Empire Society.
The dominions should cooperate with the British Government in developing a joint foreign policy, he said. To meet the trust reposed in the dominions, the former Secretary of State urged "that each Dominion of the Commonwealth should be invited to send a high commissioner to represent it at Ottawa, and that in like manner Canada should appoint a similar representative at each capital of the several dominions, whose chief duty should be to assist in developing, so far as possible, a joint policy in respect of all international affairs of common interest and concern."

In Memoriam

MR. GEORGE H. HOLBROOK

One of our most esteemed citizens passed away at his home in Charlottetown on October 25th, after an illness of three weeks, in his eighty-first year, in the person of George H. Holbrook.

He was a native of Brockton, Mass., and came to P. E. Island when a young boy. In early life he was in the mercantile business, but for the last forty years he was in the insurance business, representing the Dominion of Canada General Insurance Co., Toronto, Ont., and was regarded by the companies as a faithful, capable and conscientious agent. He was a loyal member of the former Methodist Church, and since the union an esteemed and faithful Elder of Trinity United Church, Charlottetown.

His kindness and goodness, his courtesy and uprightness, made him a man greatly beloved. In the home, he was an ideal husband and father. In the church, he set an example of devotion, loyalty and service, and in the community, he set an example of fine citizenship and high principles. He was always a champion of the temperance cause.

After a private service in the home, the funeral service was held October 27th in Trinity United Church, conducted by his pastor, Rev. Hugh Miller, assisted by Rev. J. M. McLeod and Rev. G. C. Webster representing the Temperance Federation.

In his address the pastor referred to three characteristics of his life: his sincerity, his gentleness and his faithfulness.

Interment was in the People's Cemetery, with many floral tributes.

He is survived by his wife, (nee Miss Emma Wright, Charlottetown) one son, Harold S. Holbrook, Tor-

SOCIAL GATHERING

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell MacKay, Kensington, on Friday, Oct. 22nd when upwards of twenty members and visitors of the Anglican Young People's Association gathered together to express in some way their deep gratitude to Mrs. MacKay for her kindness in giving of her time and talent to the A.Y.P.A. Rev. B. Freeman read a very fitting address and the presentation was made by Mrs. E. T. Mill.

Although Mrs. MacKay was taken utterly by surprise she made a very suitable reply thanking her friends for their thoughtfulness.

The remainder of the evening was spent in pleasant diversion and instrumental music by Ferdie Kilbride and Mrs. MacKay.

A daily lunch was then served, followed by a sing-song. After the singing of the National Anthem the guests departed.

Following is the address: Mrs. Russell MacKay,

Dear Mamie!—We, the members of the Anglican Young People's Association have gathered here this evening to extend to you in some way our sincere thanks for your untiring efforts as accompanist with our play "That's One On Bill."

Please accept this small gift as a token of our appreciation. Signed on behalf of the A.Y.P.A.
