ALL NEWS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Music, mirth, color. Carnival to-night. THE case of Welsh vs. Guard is still before the Supreme Court.

THE Stanley arrived at Picton on Wednesday night at nine o'clock. She left yesterday morning for Georgetown reaching there at 3.15. The Minto left Georgetown yesterday morning and arrived in Picton at 2.30.

THE funeral of the late Lemuel Phillips will take place from his late residence Hillsborough Street tomorrow at 2.45 p. m., sharp, thence by train to Sherwood Cemetery. Friends will kindly take this as notice of same.

M. P. A. A. A. suspension.—Fred Logan of St. John, N. B., and P. Bouche, of Springhill Mines, N. S., are hereby suspended for competing in an unsanctioned race at Springhill Mines on Thursday, January 21st, 1904.

THE mails which arrived in Sackville Tuesday were brought to the City last evening at half past seven. The boats left Cape Tormentine yesterday morning at eleven o'clock with 30 bags and reached Cape Traverse at five o'clock.

THE annual business meeting of the Natural History and Antiquarian Society was held last night but owing to the enforced absence of some of the officials the business was not completed. The meeting was adjourned till Tuesday next.

REV. G. P. RAYMOND will preach on Sunday, Jan. 31st, in the Methodist Church at Hunter River, at 4.30 p. m. and in the Methodist Church at Wheatley River at three p. m. Offerings at both services in aid of the Sunday School Association.

JOSEPH PALMER BERNARD, formerly of Kensington, P. E. I., who for the past year has been engaged in the insurance business in Dover, N. H., U. S. A., has recently secured a situation in Boston, Mass., as a conductor on the Grove Hall division of surface cars of the Boston Elevated Railway Company.

THE Tea in the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon was largely attended and highly successful in every way. Prof. Watts' orchestra added much to the pleasure of the entertainment. All are warm in praise of the Ladies' Auxiliary for their earnest work, skill and taste in providing the good things. Quite a handsome sum was realized.

THE funeral of little Willie Bourke, the thirteen year old son of C. W. and Mrs. Bourke took place yesterday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. Leo Williams at St. Paul's Church and the remains were interred in Sherwood Cemetery. The pupils of West Kent School walked in a body behind the hearse. The pallbearers were Leith Coombs, Roy Fitzgerald, George Stanway, Russell Watson, Roy Crosbie, Harry Pierson.

At the annual business meeting of the Prince Street Baptist Street church and congregation the reports from the various committees and societies of the church were all carefully prepared and well presented. The work of the church was in a healthful condition presented in the reports and the outlook for the future hopeful. The estimates for the present year were presented by the treasurer, and cheerfully voted by the church. The report of the Trustees reopened the question of a parsonage, and encouraging remarks were made. The hope was cherished, if not openly expressed by some, that the coming summer might see that long felt need supplied. The finance committee will discuss the whole matter soon and report to the church. The financial report of the year which was carefully prepared and printed was read by the treasurer. The report showed that the amount raised during the year was $2716.97.

FOUNDED ON FACT.
THE MAN FELL down, down, down,
10 feet, 20 feet, 40 feet. Far below could dimly be discerned turbulent waters and jagged edges of rocks.
MUST HE DIE? And he so young. Just as he had given up all hope, his fierce descent was suddenly checked—his coat made from caught on the sharp edge of a rock and in spite of the awful strain, it stood firm, not a thread gave way.
THE MAN WAS SAVED.
