The missionary and society of the Long Creek Baptist church was entertained at the home of Joseph and Mrs. Inman, Nine Mile Creek on Monday, August 1st. A large number of members was present and a pleasant evening was spent. A most successful year has closed for the Baptist Society. A large number of new members have joined the society and now they began another year with a full assurance of having God's blessings in the world in the future as well as in the past. The meeting was brought to a close with some beautiful music rendered by Mrs. W. E. Stetch and Miss Ethel Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Inman very cordially invited the Society to meet again in the near future. The Long Creek Baptist Church is now closed to be rebuilt.

At the Police Court yesterday a young man named John McHaffie appeared charged with assault on a woman and bodily harm. The young man who it appears has respectable connections in New Brunswick has led a life of dissipation in this city and has for some time been a bartender in different resorts in the city. The only evidence of yesterday was that of Sergeant Bradley who arrested the defendant at the home of Mrs. Cavanagh about half past one yesterday morning as reported in yesterday's Guardian. The sergeant testified that he had been taken as he answered the description given to the lady who was assaulted. He was remanded in his own recognizance until today when further testimony will be given. Peter McCate and Walter Burns were not fined for corner loafing as previously stated but dismissed. P. J. Tralor appeared for McCate and A. J. B. Mellish for McHaffie.
