AFTERNOON TEA - A successful afternoon tea, sponsored by the Ladies Club of Summerside Presbyterian Church, was held on Wednesday afternoon in the church hall with Mrs. G. Franklin Chairman on the convener. The hall was artistically decorated with pine, running spruce and red berries and the tables were centered with Christmas candles and evergreens. Presiding over the tea cups were Mrs. Charles Carnegie and Mrs. Donald Baker, while the members of the Club assisted in serving. Mrs. Frank MacNeill was in charge of the bazaar table; Mrs. J. O. Cobb, the home cooking; and Miss Jean MacFadyen, the candy booth. During the afternoon soft music was played on the piano by Mrs. Cleve Whalen. A gratifying surprise was realized and the members were deeply appreciative of the assistance of those who contributed in any way to the success of the afternoon. -S

LINKLETTER W. L. - The Linkletter Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Winslow Morrison on Thursday evening with the president, Mrs. Evald Lewin, in the chair. The meeting opened with the singing of a Christmas carol after which roll call was answered by nineteen members and five visitors were welcomed. The sick committee reported four calls with a basket of fruit to each. New committees were appointed: Sick, Mrs. Walter Schurman and Mrs. Frank Linkletter; School, Mrs. Chester Murray; Program, Mrs. Roland Thompson and Mrs. Emery Linkletter. $5.00 was voted for Save the Children's Fund. It was decided that each should make a box of candy and buy apples and nuts for the school Christmas treat, also to send cards to shut-ins and members away from home. An exchange of Christmas gifts followed. During the social hour there were Christmas contests and games in which the men participated. The hostess was assisted by the committee in charge in serving delicious refreshments. During the evening a surprise gift of a beautiful pyrex set was presented to Mrs. Brenton Clark, retiring secretary in recognition of her four year's service. -S
