

THE SUMMERSIDE GUARDIAN

and PRINCE COUNTY CHRONICLE

The Western Guardian

ITALIANS

(Continued from Page 1)

This column is reserved for news of local interest but advertising of a new nature may be inserted at a rate of a word strictly payable in advance.

FILMS DEVELOPED promptly. Taylor Drug Co., Kensington. L-8669.

THE ISLAND farm buildings are the best and most attractively painted in Canada. Buy pure paint at Braze's. L-8602-7-10-21.

FOR RENT—August first, seven room house, 72 Fitzroy Street, hot water, heating, modern conveniences. P. L. Bowness. L-8558-7-4-9-11-18.

HOT DOG ROLLS for Tea Parties on Glenora. No order too large. Robinson's Bakery, Summerside. L-8211-6-Tues-Thurs-Sat.

FRESH CEMENT in many ply paper sacks; Snowflake lime, hard-wall plaster and all building hardware in stock at Braze's. L-9542-7-11-21.

SPECIAL hand and power meat grinders only $7.50 each, complete with 9 inch pulley and 11 inch heavy crank, at Braze's. L-8542-7-11-21.

SOCIAL ENJOYED—A most enjoyable ice cream social was held on the lawn of Mr. Lloyd Howard, the efficient postmaster of Kensington, and a most pleasant evening was spent.—Y

DON'T MISS official ringside pictures of the Baer-Braddock fight at Capitol Theatre, Summerside, next Monday and Tuesday. L-8200-7-11-31

SONG RECITAL—A very large concert was enjoyed to the full, the delightful sacred song recital given in Princeton United Church Sunday evening, June 30th, by the double male quartette of the Charlottetown male chorus. These artists are very welcome wherever they go, and have given great pleasure to many. The following is the program: Sacred music: Prelude "Marche De Fete"; offertory, "Romance"; Zitterwort; octette, "My Anchor Holds"; solo "The Prodigious Son"; Mr. Craswell; organ solo, "At Dawning"; Cadman, "Camellia"; octette, "The Lost Chord"; Mrs. Campbell; organ; octette, "What Did He Do?"; solo, "The King of Love"; Mr. MacKinnon; octette, "Still, Still With Thee"; "The Beautiful Land"; duet "Come Happy Spirit"; Messrs. Craswell, Craswell, Jones, and Jones; Mrs. M. J. Shepherd; postlude, "Pestal March"; Kroegen. Rev. M. A. MacMillan, minister, officiated. Mrs. S. L. Campbell presided at organ, and the following are the members of the quartette: 1st tenors, Messrs. Craswell, Jones, and Jones; 2nd tenors, Messrs. Robinson, Dennis; 1st bass, MacKinnon; 2nd bass, Small, MacMillan.

member of the League of Nations. Assuming the reference was to the possibility of Italy resorting to war, Eden replied: "The situation has not yet arisen and I earnestly trust will not arise."

According to the Daily Telegraph, Premier Benito Mussolini is waiting on the advice of his General Staff, until he has 400,000 men in East Africa before beginning hostilities. Less than half that number have been landed there up to the present.

Demands Convocation of League Council

ADDIS ABABA, July 10—Emperor Haile Selassie's Government, blaming Italy for the breakdown of efforts to arbitrate Italo-Ethiopian differences, today demanded immediate convocation of the League of Nations Council.

At the same time, it pleaded for the appointment of a number of ministers as well as the Prime Minister himself. Mr. Lansbury among other things cited the creation of numerous new ministers in recent years. He declared Ministers now were selected not for their ability but for their partisan political usefulness; he spoke of Mr. Baldwin's "cheap impudence" in going around talking of the need for unity when "there has been no political unity."

The Labor leader challenged the appointment to the cabinet of both Eden and Malcolm MacDonald, and said the latter's father represented a constituency but not a single trade union nor Cooperative Society. He asked if it was not true that Sir John Simon had been shifted to the Home Office because "he was the worst Foreign Secretary in years," and asked why Lord Sankey, a former colleague, had been "sacked" from the Lord Chancellorship.

Tom Smith, another Labor member, charged that the younger MacDonald received the appointment of Secretary for Colonies because his father had demanded it from Mr. Baldwin as the price of his own resignation and Mr. Lansbury said the appointment with a salary of about $25,000 a year "leaves a very ugly taste in the mouth."

Mr. Baldwin flatly denied Smith's charges concerning the MacDonalds.

As for Eden, the Prime Minister said the relation between the Foreign Secretary (Sir Samuel Hoare) and the Minister for League Affairs was temporary and would not last more than 10 or 12 months. "There has never been a time when there have been more matters of the utmost gravity to Britain, Europe and the world than exist today in Foreign Affairs," he said, adding that Sir Samuel and Mr. Eden worked in closest concert.

Declaring the Prime Minister had sole responsibility in the selection of Ministers, Mr. Baldwin forecast the appointment of Lord Cranborne as the new under-secretary for Foreign Affairs.

Tense Situation Cited By Baldwin As Reason For Creation Of New Govt. Post

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) LONDON, July 10.—The tense situation in foreign affairs was cited by Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin in the House of Commons today as adequate for creation of the new cabinet post of Minister of League of Nations Affairs, for Anthony Eden.

The Prime Minister stoutly defended the ministry against bitter charges levelled by George Lansbury, leader of the Labor Opposition, who made personal attacks against a number of ministers as well as the Prime Minister himself.

Mr. Lansbury among other things cited the creation of numerous new ministers in recent years. He declared Ministers now were selected not for their ability but for their partisan political usefulness; he spoke of Mr. Baldwin's "cheap impudence" in going around talking of the need for unity when "there has been no political unity."

The Labor leader challenged the appointment to the cabinet of both Eden and Malcolm MacDonald, and said the latter's father represented a constituency but not a single trade union nor Cooperative Society. He asked if it was not true that Sir John Simon had been shifted to the Home Office because "he was the worst Foreign Secretary in years," and asked why Lord Sankey, a former colleague, had been "sacked" from the Lord Chancellorship.

Tom Smith, another Labor member, charged that the younger MacDonald received the appointment of Secretary for Colonies because his father had demanded it from Mr. Baldwin as the price of his own resignation and Mr. Lansbury said the appointment with a salary of about $25,000 a year "leaves a very ugly taste in the mouth."

Mr. Baldwin flatly denied Smith's charges concerning the MacDonalds.

As for Eden, the Prime Minister said the relation between the Foreign Secretary (Sir Samuel Hoare) and the Minister for League Affairs was temporary and would not last more than 10 or 12 months. "There has never been a time when there have been more matters of the utmost gravity to Britain, Europe and the world than exist today in Foreign Affairs," he said, adding that Sir Samuel and Mr. Eden worked in closest concert.

Declaring the Prime Minister had sole responsibility in the selection of Ministers, Mr. Baldwin forecast the appointment of Lord Cranborne as the new under-secretary for Foreign Affairs.

NEW PERTH MAN BEGINS 2ND CENTURY

Mr. Robert Shaw Celebrated Centenary At His Home Yesterday—Was Born at Pictou.

On July 10, 1836, a child was born at Pictou, N. S. to Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Shaw, who had but a few years before had arrived in this country from the Hebridean island of Colonsay. Yesterday, one century later Robert Shaw, New Perth, celebrated his centenary. Old and full of years as he is, Mr. Shaw is still active in body and as keen an intellect as a man many years his junior. When he was three years of age, Mr. Shaw's parents removed from Pictou to New Perth where he spent his life, as a farmer.

He has lived in the reigns of four British sovereigns, William IV, Victoria, Edward VII and George V. During his life time some of the most important political, economic, and social changes in the world's history have taken place. Responsible government in British North America at the time of his birth was but a dream. Even Prince Edward Island was still covered in large part by the primeval forest. When the Dominion of Canada was born, Mr. Shaw was a young man.

He has seen the growth of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

Slashing Attack

(Continued from Page 1)

building was not a necessity. The speaker said he would prefer to take up the matter of travelling expenses with the Premier present.

Mr. Stewart criticized the bills of the members attending conferences at Ottawa.

Mr. Stewart found fault with the prospective expenditures on the Charlottetown-Borden highway.

Mr. Stewart said that all cars except that of the Public Works Department should be eliminated.

New Candidate Cheered

Mr. Theophilus Beaton, although a complete stranger to the audience, greeted with hearty cheers and applause.

Refuting Mr. MacKay's statements regarding the bond issue, he corrected Mr. MacKay's figures. He also corrected dates given by Mr. Stewart as to the time when the machinery had been put on the ground, pointing out that the equipment had been in use more than a month earlier than Mr. Stewart had stated.

While the audience cheered, Mr. Beaton answered complaints of Mr. Stewart regarding the road at his own gate.

Mr. Beaton paid a tribute to his predecessor, Mr. Walter MacKenzie, and remarked that if he could do as well as had Mr. MacKenzie while in office, he would be well satisfied.

Quietly Received

Mr. D. N. MacKay, who was very quietly received reviewed some of the vicissitudes of his life as a farmer. The people were interested in debts, revenues, and expenditures, which, he admitted, the Liberals had accumulated in good part.

Mr. MacKay stated that the Government had not carried out its policy of "rigid economy." The permanent highway work should have begun several years earlier, moreover the people had not asked for the highway. Where was the money coming from, Mr. MacKay asked. He referred to the proposed Rustico Highway.

It was estimated that a thousand dollars could have been saved by making use of the old foundation of Prince of Wales College. Mr. MacKay said. He spoke of the desirability of cheaper school books and criticized the government's road policy. Road masters were not treating the people fairly, he said.

Mr. MacKay corrected the figures he had given at the Irish town meeting.

The transfer of clay from the Exhibition grounds had been of no value to the country, he believed.

"For my part if I am elected"—he began.

"Every item is costing the province more under the Conservatives than under the Liberals." "Does that include Falconwood?"

Tremendous Ovation

When Mr. Wigmore rose to speak, he was given a tremendous ovation. First he held up in ridicule Mr. Stewart's statement that the government was responsible for the increase in insurance rates.

Mr. Stewart in referring to the gasoline tax had not stated that the Government had reduced the gasoline price by 1-2c, and that every attempt was being made to reduce the price still further. Answering criticism regarding excessive expenditure on Prince of Wales College, Mr. Wigmore reminded the audience that Prince of Wales College was today not too large, and the staff had increased due to the broadening of the course. There was a tremendous reduction, however, in the cost per pupil for education in Prince of Wales College. Mr. Wigmore pointed out triumphantly.

Ottawa Expenses

As regards the travelling expenses of Ministers to Ottawa, Mr. Wigmore reminded his hearers that these Ministers had always brought home something with them from Ottawa, unlike the Liberal Ministers preceding them.

Mr. Wigmore revealed the futility of the arguments advanced by the Saunders Government for the implementation of the Duncan Report.

The opposition candidates could not point to where one single dollar could have been saved, without reducing efficiency. If the Liberals had investigated the gravel pits as had the Conservatives they could have saved much money. Gravel roads had been built at the rate of $1.20 by the Conservatives, as contrasted with $3.00, the rate of

NEW PERTH MAN BEGINS 2ND CENTURY

On July 10, 1836, a child was born at Pictou, N. S. to Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Shaw, who had but a few years before had arrived in this country from the Hebridean island of Colonsay. Yesterday, one century later Robert Shaw, New Perth, celebrated his centenary. Old and full of years as he is, Mr. Shaw is still active in body and as keen an intellect as a man many years his junior. When he was three years of age, Mr. Shaw's parents removed from Pictou to New Perth where he spent his life, as a farmer.

He has lived in the reigns of four British sovereigns, William IV, Victoria, Edward VII and George V. During his life time some of the most important political, economic, and social changes in the world's history have taken place. Responsible government in British North America at the time of his birth was but a dream. Even Prince Edward Island was still covered in large part by the primeval forest. When the Dominion of Canada was born, Mr. Shaw was a young man.

He has seen the growth of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today. He has seen the rise of the Dominion of Canada from a small settlement on the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the vast continent of today.

Slashing Attack

(Continued from Page 1)

building was not a necessity. The speaker said he would prefer to take up the matter of travelling expenses with the Premier present.

Mr. Stewart criticized the bills of the members attending conferences at Ottawa.

Mr. Stewart found fault with the prospective expenditures on the Charlottetown-Borden highway.

Mr. Stewart said that all cars except that of the Public Works Department should be eliminated.

New Candidate Cheered

Mr. Theophilus Beaton, although a complete stranger to the audience, greeted with hearty cheers and applause.

Refuting Mr. MacKay's statements regarding the bond issue, he corrected Mr. MacKay's figures. He also corrected dates given by Mr. Stewart as to the time when the machinery had been put on the ground, pointing out that the equipment had been in use more than a month earlier than Mr. Stewart had stated.

While the audience cheered, Mr. Beaton answered complaints of Mr. Stewart regarding the road at his own gate.

Mr. Beaton paid a tribute to his predecessor, Mr. Walter MacKenzie, and remarked that if he could do as well as had Mr. MacKenzie while in office, he would be well satisfied.

Quietly Received

Mr. D. N. MacKay, who was very quietly received reviewed some of the vicissitudes of his life as a farmer. The people were interested in debts, revenues, and expenditures, which, he admitted, the Liberals had accumulated in good part.

Mr. MacKay stated that the Government had not carried out its policy of "rigid economy." The permanent highway work should have begun several years earlier, moreover the people had not asked for the highway. Where was the money coming from, Mr. MacKay asked. He referred to the proposed Rustico Highway.

It was estimated that a thousand dollars could have been saved by making use of the old foundation of Prince of Wales College. Mr. MacKay said. He spoke of the desirability of cheaper school books and criticized the government's road policy. Road masters were not treating the people fairly, he said.

Mr. MacKay corrected the figures he had given at the Irish town meeting.

The transfer of clay from the Exhibition grounds had been of no value to the country, he believed.

"For my part if I am elected"—he began.

"Every item is costing the province more under the Conservatives than under the Liberals." "Does that include Falconwood?"

Tremendous Ovation

When Mr. Wigmore rose to speak, he was given a tremendous ovation. First he held up in ridicule Mr. Stewart's statement that the government was responsible for the increase in insurance rates.

Mr. Stewart in referring to the gasoline tax had not stated that the Government had reduced the gasoline price by 1-2c, and that every attempt was being made to reduce the price still further. Answering criticism regarding excessive expenditure on Prince of Wales College, Mr. Wigmore reminded the audience that Prince of Wales College was today not too large, and the staff had increased due to the broadening of the course. There was a tremendous reduction, however, in the cost per pupil for education in Prince of Wales College. Mr. Wigmore pointed out triumphantly.

Ottawa Expenses

As regards the travelling expenses of Ministers to Ottawa, Mr. Wigmore reminded his hearers that these Ministers had always brought home something with them from Ottawa, unlike the Liberal Ministers preceding them.

Mr. Wigmore revealed the futility of the arguments advanced by the Saunders Government for the implementation of the Duncan Report.

The opposition candidates could not point to where one single dollar could have been saved, without reducing efficiency. If the Liberals had investigated the gravel pits as had the Conservatives they could have saved much money. Gravel roads had been built at the rate of $1.20 by the Conservatives, as contrasted with $3.00, the rate of provinces $27,000 a year. Mr. MacKenzie reviewed the record of the two governments with regard to enforcement of the Prohibition Act, showing a steady increase in prosecutions under the R. C. M. P.

As regards the cheaper school books plank, Mr. MacKenzie revealed the condition of the school supply department when the Liberals left office. It was necessary to make revenue and expenditure meet. The department had paid back $10,000 of the $36,000 lost by the Liberals.

Mr. MacKenzie concluded a whirlwind speech with an admirable defence of the Ottawa "picnic" and a devastating attack on Liberal propaganda regarding Falconwood Hospital and on the failure of the Liberals to fund their overdrift.

Weak Rebuttal

Mr. Stewart in a feeble rebuttal which must have disappointed the few Liberals present stated that he did not believe that the bank had pressed the government to fund the overdrift. He reported that Mr. Leas was recovering his health, but that the doctors had ordered him not to attend political meetings.

Mr. Patrick Doyle, Hope River, a Conservative stalwart of 87 years, spoke briefly at the conclusion of the meeting.

Announces U.S. Naval Building Program For 1936

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) WASHINGTON, July 10.—Secretary Claude Swanson announced today that the United States navy's building program for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1936, would include 12 destroyers and six submarines, and possibly a battleship.

He explained at a press conference that under the Vinson Act 54 units—38 destroyers and 18 submarines—would be required to bring the fleet to treaty strength by 1942.

Swanson said the navy intended to go along under Washington and London quotas as long as other signatories stayed within treaty limits.

He insisted Germany's decision to increase her naval strength was a "European matter" and did not affect American plans.

MOHARR

Young Buyer at Christmas Fair! But aren't these shoeleaves rather dear? You see, they're real mohair, miss. It's a very risky job, shearing the mo!

RIVERSIDE INN AND COTTAGES