

OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY
EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS—In all Roman Catholic Churches throughout the Charlottetown diocese yesterday a pastoral letter of His Excellency Bishop O'Sullivan was read, emphasizing the significance of the annual Eucharistic Congress, which takes place this year, August 8-11, at Kinkora.

RECEIVES SAD NEWS—Mr. Hugh Hennessey of the C. N. R. yesterday received a telegram stating that his brother Alfred Hennessey had passed away in Bellevue Hospital, New York City. Miss Edie Hennessey and Mrs. James McLean of this city are accompanying the remains home.

At Earmacrae, June 17th, 1937, three young boys, apparently to their death, were murdered. The victim was a young boy named James, who had been in the hospital for some months and had been discharged for his recovery and had then come as a great shock to his many friends. He was a young man of beautiful physique, an active and ambitious young man and a very popular one. He was only 17 years old. His father, Mr. J. J. Hennessey, who lives in the city, had been told that his son was in the hospital and had been discharged for his recovery and had then come as a great shock to his many friends.

The death occurred at her father's home in Charlottetown early in the morning of July 28th. Mr. Cecil Lamb, who is the father of the deceased, was notified of the death and arrived in the city on Saturday. Besides the bereaved husband, three survive two brothers, Rev. Robert B. Messervy, Toronto, who is expected home today and Mr. H. A. Messervy, Charlottetown, also one sister, Mrs. Grace Marr, Montreal, and two aunts, Mrs. Daniel Gordon and Miss Mary Wingo, Charlottetown, to all of whom the Guardian extends deepest sympathy on this occasion.

Many friends learned with regret of the passing of William H. Casey of Kelvin, who passed away in the Prince County Hospital on Tuesday July 20th after only a few days illness.

Mr. Casey was 64 years of age and was born near Kensington, the son of the late Samuel Casey and Mary A. Moase Casey, of New Annapolis.

He leaves to mourn his widow, formerly Margaret E. Hogg of Kelvin, three daughters, Mrs. M. E. Ellis, Profit, Burlington; (Marion) Mrs. Heath Mayhew, Margate; (Catherine) Mrs. Stanley Thompson, Margate; two sons, Morris of Fern and Leaman on the home-land.

At the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. John W. Hogg, Summerside; Mrs. John MacLeod, Coleman; Mrs. George Harbour, Coleman; Mrs. A. Essamer MacLure, Peace River, Alberta; Mr. Edward Casey of Wilmet; Mr. Stanley Casey, Kensington, to all of whom much sympathy is extended. The funeral was held on Thursday afternoon from his late residence to the People's Cemetery at Kensington.

Rev. B. C. Salter, pastor of the United Church, Kensington, conducted the service assisted by Rev. Sir. Somers. The choir of Kensington Church sang appropriate hymns during the service. Mr. T. W. Bentley of Summerside rendered with much feeling, "When I Have Crossed the Bar."

The pall bearers were Messrs. J. M. Lewis, C. C. Baker, Wm. Cotton, W. L. Johnson, A. L. Rogers, Wesley Champion all of Kensington.

Mr. Poirier leaves to mourn the loss of a devoted husband and loving father, his wife, nee Ursula Poirier, four daughters and five sons. Mr. Arsene Poirier and Mrs. Ernest Gaudet, St. Nicholas; Philip of Somerville, Mass.; and Mrs. Henry Arsenault of Charlottetown; Edmond, Azade, Urbain, Telmon and Aldene at home.

The funeral was held Wednesday morning to St. John the Baptist Church, Miscouche, Rev. Martin Monaghan said the Requiem Mass and officiated at the grave. The pall bearers were Felix and Martin (grandsons), Willard and Aiyre (nephews), and Mr. Henry and Ernest, sons-in-law of the deceased.

The funeral services were largely attended.

THE REV. MR. MULLIGAN LEAVES FOR C. B.—Rev. W. Orr Mulligan, who has been supplying for the Rev. Dr. Lesage, St. James Church, during the month of July, preached at Marshfield on Sunday afternoon and left yesterday by S. S. Hochelaga en route for Cape Breton to join his wife and family there for the remainder of his holiday. The Rev. Dr. Lesage is expected home on Thursday. The Rev. Mr. Mulligan has proved a popular and appreciated locum tenens and has a warm and cordial welcome from members of his old congregation and especially the "shut-ins" on whom he made calls during his month in Charlottetown.

The death occurred in Charlottetown yesterday afternoon after some ten weeks illness of Rowland L. Day, aged 72.

Mr. Day, a native of Manchester, England, came to this country twenty five years ago, and for the first six years was engaged in farming in York. In 1919 he came to Charlottetown, where he has been conducting a grocery business.

He is survived by a widow and the following sons and daughters: Cecil G. Day, Editor of the "Advantage," Liverpool, N. S., (who is at present in Charlottetown, having arrived with his wife some days ago); Harry Day, at home; Mrs. Waddell, of New York; and Mrs. A. MacAnulay of Charlottetown.

Re-opening of the Church of Christ in New Glasgow was held Sunday, service being presided over by the pastor, Rev. M. Quigley.

The morning service concluded with a communion service conducted by Rev. Mr. Quigley, Rev. W. H. Harding and A. S. McKay. In the afternoon, the speaker was Rev. S. C. Cooper of the Christian Church, Charlottetown. Rev. G. W. Titus, Maritime Evangelist of the Christian Church, was the preacher in the evening.

Rev. Mr. Harding dedicated the church 46 years ago and it was a coincidence he should re-dedicate it nearly a half century later. He requested all who attended the first service of the church to stand and 19 persons remained who were present 46 years ago.

The death occurred in the Prince County Hospital on July 19th of Mr. Clement Poirier of St. Nicholas at the age of 79 years. A week ago he had undergone a serious operation and he seemed at first to recover but Saturday last his condition became suddenly critical and he gradually weakened, until Monday morning, fortified by all the consoling rites of the Roman Catholic Church, he gently breathed his last.

The late Mr. Poirier was a lifelong resident of St. Nicholas and who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. His familiar figure will be sadly missed in the community.

This makes the third death in the family in a short period. The oldest son, John, in Boston, died last winter and his only brother, Joshua, died in the Prince County Hospital.

TUESDAY
FISHERIES MINISTER TO ARRIVE—Federal Minister of Fisheries Hon. J. E. Michaud will arrive in Charlottetown next Wednesday on the steamship Lady Grey from the Magdalen Islands, according to information received yesterday by Hon. B. W. LePage.

RETIRES OPENS—A Retreat for the Catholic Clergy of the diocese, conducted by His Excellency Bishop Kelly of Oklahoma, and a former resident of this city, opened at St. Dunstan's University yesterday. Bishop Kelly will also deliver the sermon at the Eucharistic Congress at Kinkora in August.

HAD ARM BROKEN?—A Charlottetown girl was reported to have had her arm broken in an automobile accident somewhere on the paved highway Sunday. A car slipped on the top of a hill and another machine crashed into it from behind, it was believed. Mounted Police said the accident had not been reported.

Friends throughout the Province extend their sincere sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Holland of Searletown in the death of their son, Champion Holland, M. D., who passed away in the Prince County Hospital on Friday evening from double pneumonia.

Dr. Holland was only thirty five years of age and his life seemed full of promise when he was suddenly stricken with pneumonia. Born in Chatham, Dr. Holland obtained his early education at Searletown and later at the Summerside High School. Graduating from there, he entered Prince of Wales College. He afterwards attended Mount Allison University and from there went to Dalhousie University where he received his Degree of Doctor of Medicine.

The sudden passing of Mr. C. Everett Clark early yesterday morning at his home in Linkletter Road, was a shock to his family and friends. He had complained of feeling well a week ago and it was discovered that he had a serious heart condition. In spite of loving care and the best of medical skill Mr. Clark did not rally and he passed away surrounded by his wife and family who felt keenly the loss of an affectionate husband and father.

There are left to mourn his widow, formerly Mary Anderson of Stanley Bridge; two sons, Mr. Brenton Clark and Dr. Hillard E. Clark of Linkletter and one daughter, Mrs. Harold Milligan, Summerside. Also two brothers, Edwin and Clark of Campbellton, N. B., and Mr. Bruce Clark of Linkletter and one sister, Mrs. Ida J. Murray, St. Eleonors, to all of whom much sympathy is extended.

The funeral is taking place on Wednesday from his late residence at two o'clock.

One tenth of an inch of rainfall in the past two weeks had been recorded at the Charlottetown Meteorological Station, Mr. Warren Burns said last night. Precipitation was considerably below normal but greater amounts of rain had fallen in the eastern and western parts of the province it was believed.

Maximum temperature yesterday was slightly above 86, almost three quarters of a degree below that of Friday last, the highest recorded for the year.

Dr. J. A. Clark, superintendent of the Charlottetown Experimental Station, said he believed crops, in some sections of the province at least, were suffering for want of moisture.

The continued dry and hot weather throughout the province was noticeable in the lowering of the water in wells, and Mr. James McMillan of the Charlottetown Department of Sewers and Water Supply stated the water in the Department's wells was "over than in the spring" due to the continued lack of rain.

Although no immediate scarcity was feared, consumers were urged not to be extravagant in the use of water.

WEDNESDAY
BAPTIST CHURCH OPEN—A new venture of Pastor H. L. Denton and the Religious Education Committee of the Charlottetown Baptist Church is the opening of a Baptist camping centre on the East River farm of Mr. Ludlow Jenkins at Marshfield. Four successive groups will hold their camps there. Cubs from July 26 to 28; Boy Scouts from July 28 to August 4; C. G. I. T. from August 4 to 11; and Baptist Young People of the Island from the last date until August 21.

INJURED IN COLLISION—Lawrence Myers of St. Aibion was injured last night when a car he was driving was in collision with one driven by Dr. J. E. Corrivan of Charlottetown. The accident took place about a half mile east of Mr. Aibion corner. Myers was taken to the residence of Mr. Mark Horton nearby. He was unconscious when taken from the car but his condition was not considered serious. However, he would not be moved until today at least. It was learned Both cars were badly damaged. Mounted Police said heavy dust obscured vision where the accident occurred.

POLICE SEEK BURGLAR—City Police are looking for a man who is reported to have entered a house in the Brighton district early yesterday morning. A lady occupant of the residence heard someone moving about the building at an early hour but thought nothing of it, thinking others of the household had arisen earlier than usual. Later she awakened to see a colored man in the room. She screamed and the intruder made off at top speed. Recently a set of burglars' tools were found at the rear of a house on Kent Street. Included in the outfit were a sledge hammer with a short handle, a pinch bar, screw driver and other instruments.

REMAINS ARRIVE—The remains of the late Alfred Hennessey whose death occurred in New York City arrived on the late train last evening and were conveyed to the residence of his brother, Mr. Hugh Hennessey, 216 King Street. The funeral will take place Thursday morning at 8.45 to St. Dunstan's Basilica thence to the R. C. Cemetery.

POPULAR OFFICIAL HONORED—The Treasury Office of the former Interior Department was the Monday evening happy event on presented their chief, Mr. E. E. Wood, with a beautiful gaudstone bag. The presentation was made by Mr. P. V. Neville, Mr. Wood has been promoted to Chief Treasury Officer for the Department of Trade and Commerce and Department of Secretary of State will take over his new duties in the West Block, immediately—Ottawa Journal—Mr. Wood is a son of the late Edward Wood, Pownal, P. E. I.

Princess Edward Island crops, with the exception of late crops which needed moisture had, were progressing favorably, Dr. J. A. Clark, superintendent of the Charlottetown Experimental Station said last night.

There had been perfect hay weather and in most sections the crop was almost all harvested. Potatoes, root and corn crops were progressing favorably. Early grain was filling well. Corn had grown slowly early in the season but was progressing rapidly during the recent hot weather.

The apple crop gave promise of a very heavy set, the Experimental Station official said. Cultivated raspberries were suffering from too much heat without moisture.

The hay crop in most sections of the Province was heavy. In some parts of the province, however, the yield was light because of injury from too much moisture early in the season.

WEDDING BELLS—A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the Presbyterian Manse, Tynes Valley, on Wednesday, June 30th, when Miss Daisy Blanch, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Yeo, Victoria West, was united in marriage to Mr. Leaman Moore, youngest son of Mrs. Florence and the late Allan Moore, Victoria West. The Rev. Edwin White officiated. The bride looked very charming in a dress of white silk crepe with accessories to match. Miss Eva Yeo sister of the bride acted as bridesmaid, while the groom was ably supported by Mr. Howard Moore. After the ceremony the bride and groom were taken to the home of John Moore, brother of the groom where a wedding supper was served to upwards of four hundred invited guests. The many and costly gifts given to show the popularity of the young couple. Their many friends join in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.

Hugh J. MacKay, whose death has already been noted, passed peacefully away at Kelvin on July 1st, 1937. Mr. MacKay was born at New London, May 16, 1882, a son of the late George and Mary MacKay. In the fall of 1931 he was stricken by a malady against which he fought a valiant fight but which left him badly crippled.

The deceased was well known and was held in high esteem by a host of friends who will regret his passing. He leaves to mourn, three brothers, John D. on the home-land at New London; William K. Boston, Mass.; and David J. Vancouver, B.C.; and one sister, Mrs. James A. Stewart, with whom he resided.

He was called on during his illness to mourn the passing of two sisters, Mrs. J. W. Mott, Charlottetown, with whom he resided before coming to Kelvin, and Mrs. Herbert Bowness, Kensington.

Hugh was a general favorite with everyone and was beloved by a host of friends who on July 3rd paid their last respects to one they loved.

The services at the house were conducted by Rev. George Somers assisted by Rev. B. C. Salter. The hymns sung were "Peace, Perfect Peace" and "Forever With The Lord". Mr. T. W. Bentley sang very sweetly "There Will Be No More Tears."

QUAKE ROCKS MEXICO
MEXICO CITY, July 23—(AP)—A heavy earthquake shook much of Central Mexico last night and disrupted communication lines today prevented a survey of the damage.

LADY TO REST—The funeral of Mrs. Cecil Lamb was held from St. Paul's Church yesterday afternoon, Rev. H. D. Raymond officiating at the church and Rev. Robert Messervy at the grave. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Edwin Johnston, R. R. Hurst, Frank Tinney, Cambridge, Owen, Harry Miller and Clifford Chandler. Interment was in the People's cemetery.

ENJOYABLE PICNIC—More than 500 children of the Holy Redeemer Parish attended an enjoyable picnic at the Ordnance Grounds, Brighton yesterday. Running races, games and softball were enjoyed by many. Meals were served by ladies of the Altar Society. All parishioners co-operated to make the outing one of the most enjoyable for years. Total attendance was estimated at between seven and eight hundred.

LADY TO REST—The funeral of Mr. R. L. Day was held yesterday afternoon, under Masonic auspices, from St. Paul's Church, where service was conducted by Rev. H. D. Raymond, who also conducted the service at the grave. Members of the Sons of England, of which the deceased was also a member, attended. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. A. Johnston, H. E. M. Feavour, Theo. Sentner, Sam French, H. Ward and William Hennessey. Interment was in the People's Cemetery.

Very few of the residents of Belle River were more widely known and at the same time more highly esteemed than was Mrs. Peter McLean who passed away recently at the age of 78 years.

The deceased had been in her usual quite good condition of health until a little more than a week before the coming of the end when she was suddenly taken down with a paralytic stroke from which she never fully recovered.

Besides a sorrowing husband Mrs. McLean leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother three daughters, namely: Mrs. Charles English, Los Angeles; Mrs. Malcolm McLean, Brockton, Mass.; and Mrs. John Blue, Belle River. Two other daughters, Misses Janet and Marion McLean passed away some years ago when quite young.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. Alexander Campbell, James Cook, Joseph Cook, John T. McLeod, Malcolm Beaton and Thos. Nicholson.

The service at the grave was conducted by Rev. R. Hensley Stavert. Interment was in the Belfast Cemetery.

On June 26th, 1937, there passed away a man widely and favorably known in the south eastern part of the province, in the person of John R. McRae, of Cherry Valley.

He was born at Let 60 in 1865, a son of the late James and Sarah (Campbell) McRae. His grandfather, Donald McRae was one of the pioneers who came from Scotland on the ship "Poly" in 1803.

For many years he carried on farming and operated a mill at Rossberry, where he was very successful in business. In 1895 he married Miss Janet Martin of Belle River, who survives him.

Besides his wife, he leaves to mourn the loss, a son John, who with his family, resided on the home-land; also a brother, Richard, at Point Prim. A much beloved daughter, Marion, predeceased him in 1931 at the age of twenty.

The funeral took place from the home on June 28th, and the very large attendance bespoke the high regard in which he was held by all who knew him. Rev. A. S. Weir conducted the service. Interment took place in Cherry Valley Cemetery.

The sincere sympathy of friends in many places is respectfully extended to the bereaved family.

On the morning of March 29th, John Cameron passed away at his home in Caledonia. He had been ailing for some months, and early in January his youngest daughter, Lydia, came home from Boston to care for him. As the weeks went by it was seen that his condition was not improving, and early Monday morning, March 29th, his Lord called him home.

He leaves to mourn of his own family, six daughters: Mrs. Malcolm MacDonald, Rev. Clarence Lingley and Miss Lydia Cameron, all of Boston, Mass.; Mrs. Thomas Nicholson, Belle River; Mrs. Archie MacPherson, Bellevue, and Mrs. Malcolm Munroe, Commercial Cross, and two sons, Alban at home, and Alexander, of Boston, Mass.

The funeral, which was held in the Caledonia Presbyterian Church on March 31st, was largely attended. The Rev. T. Owen Hughes of Montague was in charge of the service and brought the message.

The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Chas. MacLean, Malcolm J. Stewart, Hugh MacPherson, Lauchlin MacLean, John A. McPherson and Donald E. McLeod. Following the service the interment took place in the Caledonia Cemetery.

THURSDAY
FRIDAY
CHARGED AND CAPTAINED—Mrs. Lane Bryant Malsam, who has been the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Frank, Roseneath, yesterday returned on return to New York after a delightful three weeks' visit. Mrs. Malsam has been so charmed with the Island and its climate that she has given instructions for a bungalow to be built for the purpose of regularly spending her summer vacation here with her family.

Mr. Frederick Charles Bentley of Charlottetown was admitted as an attorney of the court and called to the Bar at the adjourned sitting of the Supreme Court at Georgetown recently. Mr. Bentley had taken a three years course at Prince of Wales College and had then entered Acadia University where he received the degree of Bachelor of Arts. He attended the Law School of Dalhousie University where he received the degree of LL.B. He served his time under articles of clerkship with the firm of McLeod and Justice here.

Mr. Justice A. E. Arsenault, the presiding judge, briefly addressed the newly called barrister extending his congratulations on his career as a student and his best wishes for equal success at the bar.

Mr. Bentley and Mr. Frederic Alfred Large were appointed commissioners for taking affidavits in the Supreme Court.

The appeal case, the King respondent vs. Chester McDonald appellant, was added to the docket at this sitting and duly tried. The appeal was allowed and the conviction quashed. The appellant had been convicted in the lower court for operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor. Mr. J. J. Johnston, K. C., appeared for the appellant and the Attorney General for the Crown.

Motion for dismissal with costs was made by respondent counsel in the appeal.

Rev. J. Alfred Monaghan, S. J., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Monaghan, Weymouth Street, City, will arrive in this city this evening on a visit to his native parish.

Father Monaghan was born in Charlottetown and graduated from Queen Square School in 1918. He then entered St. Dunstan's University from which he graduated in 1923. The same year he entered the Society of Jesus and completed his studies in Dublin, Ireland where he was ordained to the priesthood on July 31, 1925.

Father Monaghan is well known in the city and his many friends will be glad to welcome him home again especially those who remember their happy associations with him some years ago in the League of the Cross Society.

Father Monaghan will sing his first Solemn Mass in St. Dunstan's Basilica next Sunday at 11 o'clock.

Also arriving in the city this evening is Rev. Thomas Hynes, S. J., who was also ordained in Dublin on July 31, 1935. Father Hynes is a native of Cardigan and will sing his first Solemn Mass in All Saints Church, Cardigan next Sunday.

A large number of clergy and residents of St. Andrews gathered at the Roman Catholic Church there yesterday for services conducted for the late pastor, Rev. A. P. McLean.

Requiem High Mass was celebrated by His Excellency Bishop O'Sullivan, assisted by Rev. L. R. A. McDonald, High Priest; Rev. Reginald McDonald, Deacon of the Mass; Rev. Ronald McDonald, Sub-Deacon of the Mass; Rev. J. C. McDonald, Deacon of Honor; Rev. T. Campbell, Sub-Deacon of Honor; Rev. O. Oswald Murphy, and Rev. H. Croken, Master of Ceremonies Rev. Geo. McDonald.

The funeral oration was delivered by His Excellency Bishop Kelly of Oklahoma City and Tulsa, a former student of St. Dunstan's College.

Final absolution was given by His Excellency Bishop O'Sullivan, who also delivered a brief oration at the graveside.

Among those occupying seats in the sanctuary were: Right Rev. Monsignor G. J. McLellan, V. G., Right Rev. Monsignor Maurice McDonald, Right Rev. Monsignor Blaquiere, Rev. H. I. Fleming, S. S. R., Rev. J. S. Sullivan, C. S. S. R. and seventy four other priests of the diocese.

The choir was assisted by Revs. P. X. Gallant, C. Pire, J. C. McDonald, Wm. Monaghan, Michael Rooney, Martin Monaghan, and W. McCabe.

Honorary pall bearers were: Hon. J. P. McIntyre, A. D. Feehan, John McAskill, D. J. V. McDonald, Donald J. McDonald and John H. McIntyre.

Active pall bearers: Rev. James Atkins, John McDonald, A. McCormack, Reginald McDonald, and Chas. Morrison.

The pall carriers were: Revs. J. Rooney, Michael A. Francis, Owen Kiggins, A. L. Sinnott, P. Mulally and F. McQuaid.

A large number of members of the Knights of Columbus from the different councils of the Island, were in attendance.

TO REVISIT FORMER PASTORATE—Rev. Scott Fulton, D. D., a former pastor of Zion Presbyterian Church, Charlottetown, and Mrs. Fulton are expected to arrive in Prince Edward Island next week. Dr. and Mrs. Fulton will spend a holiday here.

LADY GREY SAILS—Minister of Fisheries Hon. J. E. Michaud, left Charlottetown yesterday for Summerside and met a delegation there to discuss fishing conditions in that section of Prince Edward Island. The "Lady Grey" remained in port until 2 o'clock, and then left for S'ide where the Minister will board her and conclude his tour.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY—The funeral of the late Alfred Joseph Hennessey whose death took place in New York City Sunday, July 25th was held Thursday morning from the residence of his brother, Hugh Hennessey to St. Dunstan's Basilica. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. McCordie who also conducted services at the grave. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Frank Doyle, Frederick Murphy, Thos. Doyle, William Grimes, Arthur Howatt, James Kiggins.

A pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Beer, when the members of the Kingston Women's Institute met and presented Mrs. Beer (nee Kea) with a beautiful gift.

Following is the address: Mrs. James Beer, Clyde River, Dear Rita,

We the members of Kingston Women's Institute have assembled here this evening to convey to you our heartfelt felicitations on your recent marriage.

Since our organization you have been a valuable and highly esteemed member, always willing in every way to do your share in all that pertained to the welfare of our Institute and as we recall your many helpful acts we realize that any words we may utter are inadequate to express our joy in the realization that your lot has been cast not from our midst and that you will often be present at our meetings where a wholehearted welcome will await you.

And now we would ask you to accept this small gift not for the worth it bears but as a mere symbol of the happiness and health which may be abundantly showered upon you throughout the ensuing years.

Signed on behalf of the members of the Kingston Women's Institute, Mrs. Malcolm MacSwan, President, Mrs. Mabel Auld, Secretary.
