DRIFTING

Luncheon, on the day of Tony's return from New York, was a dreary meal.

She had changed her sports frock for a dress of pale blue, with wide sleeves bordered with brown fur.

The coolness of her greeting had turned his thoughts back to Elinor. Even Elinor, with her casualness, had given him a warmer reception than Millicent.

She: And will you love me when I'm old and gray? He: Good gosh, dearie! Are you going to stick to me that long?

PRESBYTERY

MEETING OF PRESBYTERY OF PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

The Presbytery of Prince Edward Island met in regular session in Zion Church Hall, Charlottetown at 11 a. m. on Tuesday, May 8th and was opened in due form by the Moderator, Rev. M. Scott Fulton.

Those present were: Rev. M. Scott Fulton, Moderator; Rev. R. Hensley Stavert, Clerk; Rev. W. Bruce Muir, Rev. Daniel McLean, Rev. Andrew Brown, Rev. Quincy A. McDowell, Rev. Chas. J. St. Clair Jeans, Rev. Thos. A. Rodger, Rev. M. E. Genge, D. D.; Rev. Fred Williamson and Rev. D. W. Omeara, Mr. John Fleck, Student Catechist and Messrs. L. H. D. Foster, Geddie Douglas, A. W. Hyndman, A. A. McNeill, John Thompson, R. E. McDonald, J. A. McCann, Alex. Campbell, Andrew McNeill, Robert McNeill, Colin Mountain, James Jardine, Douglas Jardine, George Jardine, Neil McKay, Wm. A. Martin, Russell McLaren, Alex. Hiltz, Samuel Coffin, Chas. K. Martin, Wm. McMillan, Thomas Ramsay, J. F. Proffitt, Elders and Messrs. Earl McInnis, John Stelson, Cameron McLachlan and Ira Douglas and other representative laymen.

Rev. Frank Hutcheson who has been supplying in pulp of Wood Islands of late was present and was asked to sit and correspond.

The minutes of the last regular session on March 6th, also the minutes of the special session in Belfast on April 6th were read and adopted.

The first item of business to be dealt with was the correspondence. The clerk read the notices of the applications of thirteen ministers from other churches who are applying in the general assembly which meets in Regina in June to be received as ministers of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

Eight of these applications are from ministers now in the United Church of Canada who were ministers of the Presbyterian Church in Canada before the disruption; three from the Presbyterian Church of the United States and two from the Baptist Church of Canada. They are as follows:

1. The Presbytery of Victoria is applying for leave to receive Rev. R. M. Rolfe, a member of the United Church of Canada, a minister of the Presbyterian Church in Canada before the disruption in 1925.

2. The Presbytery of Winnipeg is applying for leave to receive Rev. J. Stanley Flack, a minister of the Baptist Church of Canada.

3. The Presbytery of Quebec is applying for leave to receive Rev. Herbert F. Davis, a minister of the Baptist Church of England.

It is worth noting that during the past year thirty-four applications have been received from ministers of other churches seeking admission into the ministry of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

Of these eleven are from ministers of the Presbyterian Churches of America and of Wales; seven are from ministers of the Baptist Churches of Canada and of America; two from the Methodist Church in England, two from the Episcopal Church of Canada and twelve from the United Church of Canada—all of whom were ministers of the Presbyterian Church in Canada before the disruption in 1925.

It is also worth noting that these twelve applications from the men now in the United Church of Canada have been received within the past six months, and the majority of these twelve bear the post mark of a very recent date.

The fact that so many ministers from the United Church of Canada are applying to be received back into the ministry of the Presbyterian Church in Canada led one of the members of the Presbytery to ask "what test of orthodoxy and of standards of the Presbyterian Church in Canada is to be submitted to these men when returning to our ministry?"

"We need good men and shall receive such gladly but may it not be that because of the scarcity of ministers in the Presbyterian Church in Canada that their motive in coming back may be an ulterior one?"

It was felt that this was a very vital question and that the attention of the general assembly, and of the Church as a whole should be called to it. It was unanimously agreed that a committee of three consisting of Rev. M. Scott Fulton, Moderator of Presbytery; Rev. R. Hensley Stavert, Clerk of Presbytery and if need be work out some method of testing the orthodoxy of the beliefs of these men; of learning something about how loyal they are likely to be to the standards of our church, seeing that they have already forsaken them once, and of knowing also if possible, something of the motive which prompted them to return to the church of their fathers.

The next item of business was the appointment of the commissioners to the General Assembly which is to meet in Regina on June 6th. The Presbytery of Prince Edward Island is entitled to send four commissioners—two ministers and two elders.

It was agreed that one half of the required number be selected by rotation and one half by election.

The following ministers were then chosen: by rotation—Rev. Andrew Brown with Rev. Quincy A. McDowell as alternate.

By election, Rev. M. Scott Fulton with Rev. R. Hensley Stavert as alternate and then the following elders: A. W. Hyndman with R. E. McDonald as alternate and Alexander Campbell with Alexander Hiltz as alternate.

The General Board of Missions at its meeting in Toronto in March assigned seven students for the vacancies within the bounds of the Presbytery—for the summer months. They are as follows: Mr. H. A. Doig, Presbyterian College, Montreal, and Messrs. J. H. Berger, B. A., P. H. Austin, B. A., H. A. Hill, B. A., U. E. Barnett, B. A., H. G. Weldon, B. A., and Henry J. Scheidtmann, B. A.—all of Princeton Seminary. These young men will arrive in the near future.

Mr. Earl McInnis asked for the privilege of being heard before the Presbytery. He stated that he was delegated by the people of Harrington to request the Presbytery to make arrangements for the re-opening of the Presbyterian Church there on May 20th. It had been closed for some weeks undergoing quite extensive repairs. It was agreed that Rev. M. Scott Fulton would conduct the morning service, Rev. W. Bruce Muir, the afternoon service and Rev. Thos. A. Rodger the evening service.

The opening of the new church at Bradalbane completed some months ago was also referred to briefly. Rev. R. H. Stavert, moderator of the Bradalbane session said that in all probability it would be opened some Sunday in the latter part of June. Definite announcement would be made later.

6. The Presbytery of Paris, Ont., is applying for leave to receive Rev. P. Thorton Meek, B. A., and Rev. A. M. Grant, both ministers of the United Church of Canada both of whom were ministers of the Presbyterian Church in Canada before the disruption.

7. The Presbytery of Red Deer is applying for leave to receive Rev. J. Alexander Grant, a minister of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.

8. The Presbytery of Moose Jaw is applying for leave to receive Rev. David Samson, a minister of the Presbyterian Church (North) U.S.A.

9. The Presbytery of Peterborough is applying for leave to receive Rev. Henry S. Philpott, B. D., a minister of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.

10. The Presbytery of Winnipeg is applying for leave to receive Rev. J. Stanley Flack, a minister of the Baptist Church of Canada.

11. The Presbytery of Quebec is applying for leave to receive Rev. Herbert F. Davis, a minister of the Baptist Church of England.
