

MONDAY
ISLANDER WEDS.—At Vancouver, B. C., on Friday, June 30th, 1922, by Rev. J. R. Robertson, Miss Lucy Louise Toombs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Toombs, North Wiltshire, P. E. I., was united in marriage to Mr. Daniel Percival McCallum, son of Mr. and Mrs. McCallum, Grand Forks, B. C. Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. McCallum left on an extended trip through Southern California travelling by motor. On their return they will reside in Vancouver.

The death of Mrs. McLellan, beloved wife of J. McLellan of Boston, whose death occurred at the home of her brother, Mr. James Fay, New Port, after an illness of a few weeks, came as a sudden shock to all her friends. Everything that was possible to do was done, but in spite of all medical skill and tender nursing she passed away. She endeared herself to all who knew her by her many qualities and her cheerful disposition, but it is in the home where she will be missed the most. Mrs. McLellan was a general favorite to all who knew her. She was visited often by her Pastor, Rev. J. C. McDonald of St. Georges. She leaves to mourn, besides her sorrowing husband, one brother, James, also one sister, a nephew, Peter Power, Station Agent Bear River. Her funeral was one of the largest seen for some time. Sincere sympathy is extended to the family in their sad and sudden bereavement.—A.

There passed away at the City Hospital on Tuesday, July 4th, Annie Dougherty, beloved wife of Patrick Trainor, South Melville.

The passing away of Mrs. Trainor removes another of the truly great and good mothers. In her life she was humble, honest and sincere, in her influence she was wholesome and noble, in a humble, silent, and unassuming way she lived and worked, for the well being of her husband and their children.

Although in failing health for some months she bore her painful affliction with patience and resignation to the Divine Will. During her illness at the hospital she was comforted by the kind ministrations of the good Sisters and nurses and received the last rites of the Catholic Church from the chaplain, Rev. Doctor McMillan.

She leaves to mourn her death her husband and a family of four daughters and a son. The daughters are, Mary, Cecelia, Eileen and Rita and the son, Master Charles, also an aged mother, Mrs. P. Dougherty and other relatives living at Lot 65.

Her funeral took place on Thursday, July 6th, to St. Joseph's Church, Kelly's Cross. Requiem Mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. Doctor Curran. The pall bearers were Messrs. Peter Malone, Francis Bradley, Peter Poole, Aeneas Clarkin, James Trainor and James McKenna.

A very large number of people came from all sections of the country to attend the service, thus paying a last tribute of respect to the memory of one who was highly esteemed by all.

An innocent inquiry made Saturday morning at Queen's County Jail as to whether the prisoners O'Brien and Essory had yet gone to Dorchester Penitentiary, elicited the following mournful reply from the jailor: "They didn't tell me where they were going."

Danny O'Brien and George Essory, two prisoners in Queen's County Jail, sentenced last Friday to three years in Dorchester Penitentiary for stealing two casks of rum from the leased bonded warehouses last June, decided that Dorchester was no place for them, so they accordingly, left the jail without permission sometime between 9 o'clock Friday night and 6 o'clock Saturday morning.

When the jailor went on his rounds at the latter hour he found the two men missing from their cells. He found also two lower bars, 28 inches long and 7-8 inches in diameter on the iron latched doors sawed through, these bars forced outward leaving an opening through which each man crawled. The jailor also found that an iron bar about 14 inches long and 1-3 inches in diameter, one of those guarding the basement window on the east side of the building, had been sawed through leaving a 12x14 inch opening which furnished an exit for the two men to the potato field. Their steps were tracked through the field to the corner on the Mt. Edward Road. Here were fresh marks of an automobile, small diamond head tires, and in that auto no doubt Essory and O'Brien departed to parts unknown. The prisoners were locked up in the cells at 9 p. m.

These cells are on the first floor. O'Brien's cell door was three or four feet from the eastern window, which opens for ventilation. The window is about 9 feet from the ground. There were scratches on the bars indicating that some one may have passed a hack saw through on the end of a stick. By thrusting his arm through the bars O'Brien could secure it and the rest was easy. O'Brien evidently sawed Essory out, and the two went down to the basement, secured a bench in the kitchen carried it to the basement window and cut themselves to freedom. The jailor says that there was no opportunity for any visitor to smuggle a saw through to the prisoners, as when any one called on them the jailor or his assistant was always on hand. No trace has yet been found of the prisoners.

WEDNESDAY
PRESBTERY MEETING.—A special meeting of the Presbytery of Prince Edward Island was held yesterday afternoon in Zion Hall, Rev. G. C. Taylor acting Moderator and Rev. W. O. Mulligan, Clerk. The business consisted of a call from the congregation of Nashwan and Stanley, N. B. to Rev. W. Wood of West Clyde River. The call was sustained as a regular gospel call. Mr. Wood accepted and Presbytery acquiesced. Commissioners from Mr. Woods congregation expressed regret at his proposed departure and bore testimony to the splendid work done during the term of his ministry. Rev. Mr. McPherson of Bonshaw was appointed interim Moderator for West and Clyde River congregation. Rev. Roland Davidson was appointed to declare the pulpit vacant. Rev. Mr. Wood leaves this morning for his new field.

SUDDEN BEREAVEMENT.—Mr. Robert E. Colwill, of this city received the sad news by wire yesterday morning that his brother, Dr. Albert W. Colwill, of Boston, had passed away suddenly in his office on Monday night. The deceased had spent a month with his brother here and left for home last Wednesday, coming and returning in his own automobile. News of his sudden death came as a great shock to his brother and will be heard with deep sorrow by his many friends in Charlottetown. No particulars have been received as to the cause of death but it is known that for a year past he had been suffering from a heart affection. His brother Fred left last night with the remains and is expected to arrive tonight. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made but will be announced later. The heartfelt sympathy of the whole community goes out to the bereaved mother, brothers and sister, in the great sorrow that has so suddenly fallen upon them in the loss of a son and brother whom they loved so dearly and who was in every way worthy of their love.

JENKINS AND HORTON WEDDING.—A very interesting event took place at the Baptist Parsonage, Hazelbrook on Thursday 12th July when Henry Spurr Jenkins, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Boswell Jenkins of Mt. Albion, was united in marriage to Miss Olive Beatrice Horton, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Horton of Mt. Albion. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. W. Lindsay and was witnessed by a number of relatives and friends of both bride and groom. The young couple entered to the strains of Mendelssohn Wedding March, played by Mrs. J. W. Ballam, and stood under a bower of evergreen and pink blossoms. The bride looked very charming in a suit of sand colored serge richly embroidered, with hat to match, her only ornament being a pearl pendant. After the ceremony the young couple left for a short wedding trip and upon their return to their future home at Mt. Albion were greeted by a very large number of friends, and well wishes who showed upon them their best wishes for a happy and prosperous wedded life. The bride was the recipient of many useful and valuable gifts of money. The evening was spent most pleasantly in games and music. Cake and ice cream in abundance was served. The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins heartily expressed their best wishes. (Patriot please copy.)

THURSDAY
 Despite the heavy downpour of rain which started about eleven o'clock yesterday morning and continued with intermittent vehemence for some hours, the Scottish Catholic celebration of the 150th anniversary of the landing of the Scottish Catholic settlers at Charlottetown, was carried to a successful and triumphant conclusion. Once it was decided by the committee in charge to postpone the unveiling of the monument as the heavy rain had already drenched the greater part of the large audience and had wrought havoc at the dinner tables, which were but partially sheltered. However, the clouds cleared and upon the arrival of the afternoon special train from Charlottetown at 3 o'clock the unveiling of the monument and the programme of addresses, etc., was carried out to the last detail. Once cleared, the weather continued fine throughout the afternoon and with the coming out of the sun good music was restored to all around. The day, despite the morning rain-storm, was a decided success. Many thousands of visitors were on the grounds and among them several Islanders who had travelled as far as British Columbia and California.

Pontifical High Mass was celebrated by His Lordship Bishop O'Leary in the morning, a great number being prepared on the grounds in front of the draped monument. The day, despite the morning rain-storm, was a decided success. Many thousands of visitors were on the grounds and among them several Islanders who had travelled as far as British Columbia and California.

The unveiling ceremony was postponed, owing to the rain. He then called upon Rev. Dr. McLellan, rector of St. Dunstan's University.

Rev. Dr. McLellan paid a glowing tribute to the early Scottish Catholic settlers who built upon this ground their first church. The monument carries us back to the holy isle of Ulster, almost fourteen centuries ago, when the great St. Columbo, with the best blood of the Irish kings, with the faith of Christ and of their fathers in their souls, came to Christianize northern Scotland; and from northern Scotland, and from northern Ireland, the descendants of the Scottish settlers in Prince Edward Island. The monument which is to be unveiled today was made in Scotland and it was sentiment largely that induced the committee to place the order there. After reading the remarks Mr. McDonald called upon Rev. John J. McDonald, chairman of the monument committee, to preside during the programme.

Rev. Mr. MacDonald expressed his appreciation of the honor he felt it to be in taking the chair, upon such an occasion. The monument, which has been raised to commemorate the achievements of the pioneers, the Scottish Catholic settlers in this province, is symbolic of the purpose. They came to this country under clouds of hardship and discouragement and this morning when the elements discharged such a downpour of rain, no doubt many present were also discouraged. Providence takes its own way to grant favors. But the sun has broken through and the future days of the Highlanders in their new country promise a land of sunshine and gladness. His Lordship Bishop Morrison of Antigonish, who was to preach the morning sermon, has not yet been heard from, owing to the inclement weather, but as His Lordship Bishop O'Leary has returned to Charlottetown he would call upon Bishop Morrison to dedicate the monument in His Lordship's name and in the name of the diocese.

Bishop Morrison, who was greeted with warm applause, referred to the purpose of the erection of the magnificent cross now about to be dedicated and to the heroic lives of the pioneer settlers in whose honor it will stand. We can feel satisfied that they have done their part in the building of the great country and if on our part we commemorate their lives with this memorial it is but the least that we can do to honor their sacred memory, not only as a debt to the past, but as an inspiration for the future. We all stand in need of this inspiration. These pioneer settlers came to Canada for freedom of conscience, and that word freedom must stand out in our national life if we are to prosper as we should. We are sure that that will obtain under our constitution.

While we erect this memorial to honor the Scottish Catholic settlers of 150 years ago at the same time we are to remember that these people came to this country to cast in their lot with the rest of the future Canadians. They did not come as a class, but to work together with the other citizens of the then colony; and that should be the spirit of every Scotchman in only by working together and systematically understanding one another that we can fire the soul of Canada and live up to that spirit that makes for a great country. A great majority of mankind mean well and it is by sympathetic action on our part that we can bring about results that make for progress.

"In erecting this cross, the symbol of Christianity as we Catholics look upon it, let it be for us a symbol of religion; for whatever material progress we shall make in any country there must be religion behind it. Above all, there should be our watchword, and when these two ideals are kept coordinated, then we have results, and in this way we can accomplish the real good which our country surely expects us to."

"There should be no room for sectionalism or sectarianism in this Canada of ours, continued Bishop Morrison. A progressive spirit should be our watchword, and in the performance of our duties let us endeavor to discharge them so that when another 150 years have rolled away future generations will remember with gratitude what we in our age have accomplished and they will take inspiration from us."

"It is with reverence and pleasure, therefore," continued the speaker, "that I dedicate this Cross. Let it stand as a memorial of what is upright in this country; let it stand for what it stood from the time of our Blessed Lord."

The monument was unveiled by Mr. D. D. McDonald, while the League of the Cross Band played God Save the King.

The chairman announced with regret that His Honor the Lieutenant Governor had been on the grounds but had returned home after the announcement that the unveiling ceremony would be postponed, owing to the rain. He then called upon Rev. Dr. McLellan, rector of St. Dunstan's University.

Chief of the Micmacs, Scottish reids and dances were excellently given by Misses Claire McCormack, Eileen MacDonnell, Helen McDonald, Jean MacDonald and Winifred McEachern.

The individual dancing of Miss McCormack and Miss McEachern were very warmly received. The pipe band which was in attendance rendered suitable selections and members of the band played during the dancing.

The chairman produced at the conclusion of the programme a rusty reaping hook, which had been found three feet below the ground while unearthing ground for the monument.

In commemoration of the departure of the Highland pioneers from their native shore, Pipa John Kennedy played Lochaber No More. This was followed by the National Anthem.

After tea band concerts by the Caledonian Pipe Band and the League of the Cross band, were enjoyable features much appreciated.

ISLAND POETESS DIES.—The funeral took place in Brockville, Ont., Monday, Mrs. Lucy C. Gilmore, widow of Rev. Thomas C. Gilmore, sometime on the staff of the parliamentary library at Ottawa, who was undergoing treatment at the Ontario hospital for several years. She was a daughter of Hon. W. H. Pope, Charlottetown and a sister of Sir Joseph Pope, Ottawa. Mrs. Gilmore was widely known as the writer of both verse and prose of remarkable power and beauty.

PATHETIC.—The body of the little girl, Roza Mitchell, accidentally killed by an automobile on the Sackville, N. B. road a few days ago lies in the undertaking rooms of Mr. G. D. Wright. The body arrived Tuesday night accompanied by the broken hearted mother and the company of Gypsies to which she is attached. The child was only four years of age and the body dressed in the picturesque Gypsy garb, with the doll and toys she had played with, is a pathetic figure. She was a beautiful child and the poor mother, evidently the only relative in the party is suffering seriously from the shock of her child's death and the many sad accompanying circumstances. The party will leave, taking the little body with them, on Saturday for Sydney, thence to Halifax and later to Ohio where the child's journey will end in the cemetery. The body is carefully embalmed and enclosed in a pretty casket.

It is with deep regret that we learned of the death of Mrs. Alexander, formerly of Georgetown, N. S., who died in Amherst, N. S. Though not in robust health for the past few months she was able to be around at her work as usual and was always cheerful. Her last days were cheerfully the tender nursing of her daughters. Many were the kind words and council she gave them during the last days of her life which will be kept in their sad remembrance.

Deceased was of a genial, kind disposition that gained her many friends and made her a favorite with young and old and in her younger days she was ever ready to give a helping hand, no one ever went from her door hungry. She will be greatly missed in the home and neighborhood which she lived. She leaves to mourn besides her sorrowing husband, three daughters and one son. The daughters are Katie and Winifred of Amherst and Mrs. Cousins of Moncton, one son Bernard. May her soul rest in peace.

FRIDAY
 The weather was perfect for the second day of the Scottish Catholic celebration which was carried out on the grounds of the Charlottetown Exhibition Association. The attendance of spectators was not as large as anticipated but those who came witnessed an excellent afternoon's sport. The horse racing was of a high order, the finishes being in many instances very close and the field of horses were evenly matched.

The Match Race was of course the chief center of interest. It was won in three straight heats by Kentucky Marque, driven by his owner Colonel D. A. MacKinnon. La Copia was driven by Mr. Tindall Semple, who has been training him for the past few months. Both horses were in excellent shape but Kentucky Marque seemed to be able to carry the flight of speed further than La Copia, winning every heat by a comfortable margin. The driver of La Copia, knowing that Kentucky Marque had a terrific burst of speed, concluded that he would probably be able to beat him by getting away very fast. In the second heat, the first half was passed in 1.05, with both horses on even terms. It was very fast and of course could not be maintained. In the final heat they were down to the half in 1.05 1/2, and then slowed up considerably.

Class A Trot.
 This was won in three straight heats by Brenton H., who is better this year than ever in his career, as his speed averaged 2.18 and he presented the main buildings and fittings of the Charles Dalton Sanatorium to the Charlottetown Hospital in connection with the rebuilding operations. This represents at present costs a gift of about $50,000. It is a great pity to have the Sanatorium dismantled, but it is some consolation to know that the material will still be devoted to the relief of suffering humanity.

ROTARY LUNCHEON.—The regular weekly meeting of the Rotary Club was held at the Rose and Grey yesterday. Professor Fletcher occupied the Chair. An excellent musical program was rendered, which included several selections by the Beach Grove Inn Orchestra, solos by Messrs. Robert Messervey, A. Williamson, and violin solos by Rev. Mr. Littlejohns of Chatham, N. S. Among the guests present were Rotarian Albin F. Bate, of Fredericton, N. B., Rotarian George McKinnon of Miami, Florida, Dr. Harry Hudson, Winnipeg and Mr. Schumann.

SIR CHARLES DALTON'S GENEROSITY.—Another instance of the munificence of Sir Charles Dalton has just been revealed in the announcement that he has presented the main buildings and fittings of the Charles Dalton Sanatorium to the Charlottetown Hospital in connection with the rebuilding operations. This represents at present costs a gift of about $50,000. It is a great pity to have the Sanatorium dismantled, but it is some consolation to know that the material will still be devoted to the relief of suffering humanity.

did not seem to be anything near his limit. Keltie was a contending horse every heat and he went a splendid race, Mac Crescens getting third.

Class A Pace.
 This was a very interesting race. In the first heat the pace was set by John R. driven by his owner Mr. W. S. Newsome. He went to the half in 1.07, leading the field by two lengths but the speed told on him and he was beaten out at the finish by Dongola and Nellie D. In the second and third heats Mac Crescens was the winner, though Mary Pickford won the first heat. "The Pup", owned by Mr. Hammond Kelly being second in that heat. The second and third heats and the race were won by Mac Todd, the finish in the second heat being extremely close, Mary Pickford coming right at his pad. Mr. Frank W. Hughes acted as starter and handled the fields in a splendid manner. The judges and timers were also very satisfactory.

The Methodist Church Sunday School picnic was held at Westville Wednesday. Although the morning did not look at all promising a goodly number left at 10.30 by the Hillsboro, but unfortunately the rain started to fall and a number went back when the boat left on return to the city. Those who braved the rain and remained, had a most enjoyable afternoon. The refreshment saloons and dinner tables were well patronized.
