The schooner Lawrence, 90 tons, owned in Wallace, N. S., cleared from Charlottetown on May 13 for Sydney, with five thousand bushels potatoes and a small quantity hay, worth altogether two thousand dollars, and shipped by Leonard Wood, M. P. P. The schooner according to a despatch printed in the Halifax Herald has not reached her destination and her whereabouts is unknown.

On Tuesday evening a flutter of excitement was caused in the neighborhood of Lower Pownal Street by the strange actions of an apparently drunken man, who it is reported chased a young woman and forced her to take refuge in a nearby house. Afterwards when a party of youths surrounded the man it is asserted he made threats to shoot some of them. If such a character is at large on the streets the sooner he is looked after the better.

James Leland and Mrs. Beer, 287 Broadway, Arlington, Mass., were 'at home' to their friends June 1st, the occasion being the 25th anniversary of their marriage. Over forty guests sat down to a dainty and tempting repast. Toasts and congratulatory speeches were in order. Mrs. Beer was assisted in her duties as hostess by her daughter, Miss Florence Eleanor and her nieces, Misses Eva Lillian and Viola, daughters of Frederick Beer of the Marine & Fisheries, Charlottetown, and Miss Madeline G. May, daughter of Chas. May, Head St. Peter's Bay. Many beautiful gifts testified to the popularity of the happy couple.

It appears that no invitation or request has been sent to the warships now visiting Halifax to call at Charlottetown. Doubtless before the summer ends the port may be visited by some representative of the navy.

At the Police Court yesterday three lads named Ingram, Gallant, and McDonald appeared charged with disorderly conduct on the street. The two last mentioned were dismissed. Ingram was fined $5 or thirty days.

Advertisers are asked to have 'changes' in not later than ten a. m. each Saturday for the Morning Daily and Rural Daily, as Guardian employees have a half holiday each Saturday. The business, and news departments are open on other days.

William A. Corish who has been visiting his relatives in different parts of the Province for the past two months, left yesterday on return to Medicine Hat, Alberta. It will be remembered Mr. Corish suffered the loss of a leg in a railway accident at that place on January last.

Arthur Carver, of Pownal, is expected to arrive tomorrow from Boston to spend his vacation at his home in Pownal. He has just completed his second year in the Boston Law School and took a high place in the examinations at the close of the term. He is a brother of Percy G. Carver, now a leading Boston attorney.

Several readers, commenting on the Guardian's protest regarding indifference in the matter of injury to people's property, caused through heedlessness, make strong complaints about the number of worthless dogs running about the city. Many of these are big brutes who do much damage scratching up the grass on lawns, etc. The proposed dog law to be introduced at the next meeting of the City Council will probably afford relief.

The death took place at Cape John Road, near Pictou, N. S., on May 20th of Rebecca Frances Horton, dearly beloved wife of James I. Stiles, after a lingering illness of over three years, borne with Christian fortitude and patience. Deceased was thirty-five years and five months of age. She leaves to mourn a sorrowing husband and four children, Ethel Jane, Arthur, Olive Beatrice, and Wilfrid, all at home; also a father and mother, Ambrose and Mrs. Horton; Murray River, and three sisters, Mrs. Sam'l Livingston, Hopedale; Mrs. Wm. Hamm, Bunbury Lot 48; and Mrs. Mark Senabough, Murray Harbor South; and three brothers John and Thomas Horton, Murray River, and David in Nova Scotia. She also leaves many nieces and nephews, and also grand-nieces and grand-nephews.

Good News. Ask your dealer for Inverness Coal. Positively no soot on stove covers or bottom of pots. Nothing cleaner [except Anthracite] 5-25dtf
